LOCAL NEWS.

An Exodus.—The first six days of June saw thirty families leaving this city for the United States. Five of them belonged here the others were residents of the county.

A New Brunswick Girl.—Miss Carvell, the prima donna of the Gilbert opera company, is a native of Kings county, N. B. She is a daughter of Lewis Carvell, former superintendent of the I. C. R., and a niece of governor Carvell, of P. E. I.

Bridge Work.—Jared Boone, of St. Marys, returned the first of the week having completed the work at the Buctouche bridge. He in company with Whit. Brewer went to Oromocto Thursday to repair the draw in the bridge at that place.

Returned.—Miss Lottie Cliff, who has been in Boston for some time undergoing treatment for her eyes, has returned to the city. It seems that the specialists in Boston could do nothing for her, and it is feared her blindness will be permanent.

Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Canada Eastern Railroad Co. was held here Tuesday afternoon, at which the full board of Directors was present. A great deal of routine business was transacted, but it being found impossible to get through with it all, the meeting was adjourned till the 27th instant.

Out on Parade.—The members of the uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, paraded the streets Wednesday night on their way to the curling rink, where their bazaar was being held. The men were preceded by their band, and looked remarkably well in their handsome uniforms.

Princess May's Present.—The call from the mayor for a meeting of the ladies of the city last Friday to see about a contribution towards a present for the princess May, was well responded to. Mrs. Geo. F. Gregory and Mrs. A. F. Street were appointed collectors, while the mayor will act as treasurer.

He Returned.—Rev. Dr. McLeod returned on Monday from his tour in the western and middle states on the liquor commission. The next tour of the commission will be through Maine and the New England states. Sir Joseph Hickson, Dr. McLeod and F. E. Clark are the commissioners assigned for this trip. They start about the middle of this month.

New Steamboat Line.—Emery Sewell will run a line of steamers from the wharf at Sewell's camp every Saturday afternoon at five o'clock, for Gibson, and Fredericton, returning will leave Fredericton and Gibson Sunday night at 9 o'clock. Return tickets 35 cents. Single tickets 25 cents. Tickets for sale at Sewell's store. The line will be opened tonight.

Changed His Mind.—Dr. J. R. Fritz, of Digby, N. S., who came to Fredericton for the practice of his profession, and had taken an office in the Wiley building, has been compelled to change his mind. He has found that by the provisions of the dental act passed last year, it will be necessary for him to give three months previous notice of his intention to practice dentistry in New Brunswick and to reside in New Brunswick three months before commencing to practice.

The New Schooner.—John Gibson's new schooner is shored up and new ways have been placed under her, so that should a freshet come she can be readily launched. It was decided to keep her on the ways rather than launch her now that the water is so low. Although reports have been circulated that she has been more or less strained by the efforts made to launch her, there is no foundation in them. Work is going on and she will be advanced as far as possible, all the deck finishing being done here.

Another Accident.—Half a dozen soldiers of the C. R. I., went out sailing in the regimental sail boat yesterday afternoon accompanied by a little boy of Jas. Burns, and when opposite the city hall, the boat capsized, throwing them all into the water. The little boy's uncle, one of the red coats, managed to keep him up, and to swim with one hand, until the whole party was rescued by the tug Eva Johnston; which was coming up the river. But it was a close call and very nearly resulted in a double drowning.

Election of Officers.—At the annual meeting of the New Brunswick telephone company, Monday evening, hon. A. G. Blair, St. John, hon. F. P. Thompson, Fredericton, J. L. Black, Sackville, A. A. Stockton, M. P. P., St. John, Charles Fawcett, Sackville, A. L. Robinson, Moncton, and C. F. Sise, Montreal, were elected directors for the ensuing year, and at a subsequent meeting of the directors, Mr. Blair was elected president, Mr. Black, vice-president, Mr. Thompson, managing director and treasurer, and W. E. Smith, secretary.

Fun at the Queen.—A certain red coat is very assiduous in paying his attention to one of the kitchen-maids of the Queen hotel, making a visit to her regularly every afternoon. Yesterday the boys around the Queen tied about a dozen tin pans together and tumbled them down the back stairs close to where our hero was indulging in his post prandial spark. He got frightened and started for the gate, when a deluge of hot and cold water saluted his cranium and shoulders, drenching him to the skin and considerably accelerating his exit. "He never came back any more," at least up to the time of going to press.

A Close Shave.

Chas. King and Thomas Sykes, two barbers of the city, had a narrow escape from drowning last Tuesday morning. They [illegible]ded a catamaran at the upper end of [illegible], and drifted out into the middle of the river, where the heavy wind and high waves caused their craft to separate and they were plunged into the deep water. They were seen from the shore, and a row boat put to their rescue, followed by the tug Ernest. When taken from the water they were nearly exhausted, and the incident has probably taught them to have more caution in boating in the future.

In Bloom.

Summer has come to stay, and everything is in full bloom—the apple, cherry and lilac trees vie with each other in pleasing the eye and tickling the nostrils. A gentleman lately returned from Kings county, says that the crops in that section of the province are looking remarkably well, and in many places the potatoes are already above the ground, while the hay is coming along well. In our own county the recent warm rains and fine weather have effected a revolution in the appearance of vegetation. If no drought occurs, the hay and other crops will be above the the average.

A Handsome Horse.

J. H. Reid, the veteran horseman, returned to the city lately from Concord, Mass., where he was on a visit at Anursnake farm, owned by F. T. Pierce. While there he purchased and brought home with him a very handsome imported shire stallion "King of Trumps," No. 5152, foaled in 1885 and bred by Mr. Jackson, of York, England. "King of Trumps" is a very rich dark bay horse, standing sixteen hands three inches high, and weighing 1660 lbs. He ought to prove an excellent sire, for he is descended from the best shire blood on both sides. He is now at Mr. Reid's stables on Queen street, where he will stand this summer, and is very much admired by local horsemen.

COUNTY COURT.

Trial of Prisoner Good—Found Guilty—Civil Suits—Mr. Turner Naturalized.

York county court commenced its regular June session on Tuesday last, Judge Steadman presiding. The following is the docket:

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

The Queen vs. Charles Good—The attorney general presents the indictment charging the prisoner with arson in setting fire to a barn belonging to A. E. Cliff of Kingsclear.

CIVIL DOCKET.

Christopher Seagraves vs. Blanchard D. Sewell—C. E. Duffy files record.

Thomas A. Armstrong vs. the city of Fredericton—Black, Jordan & Bliss file record.

The indictment against Charles Good was presented to the grand jury along with the evidence adduced upon the preliminary examination at the police court, and they found a true bill against the prisoner.

In the matter of Walter L. Turner, an alien, J. H. Barry presented Turner's naturalization papers, which were read in open court and ordered to be filed.

The petit jury in the trial of the case against Charles Good was sworn as follows: Martin Lemont, Wm Curry, Mark Neville, Daniel Lucy, Daniel Lemhan, Hubbard Niles, John Hodge, Charles Carlisle, Eleazer Merrithew, James Machum, John Kyle and R. B. Carvell.

Good was formerly arraigned on Wednesday morning, the attorney general appearing for the crown and George F. Gregory, Q. C., for the defence. The evidence of A. E. Cliff, James Roberts, Young Good and others was taken. The circumstances attending the discovery of the fire, the time of night at which it took place, the tracks from the prisoner's house to the barn and back, the fact of his having threatened to damage and injure Cliff, the fitting of the prisoner's boots into the tracks leading from his house to the barn were all deposed to. The evidence was all got in on Thursday morning, and Mr. Gregory addressed the jury until noon, pointing out certain minor deficiencies in the evidence, and asking for an acquittal. The attorney general's address in reply was a masterly review of the whole evidence, detailing the circumstances put in evidence, pointing out to the jury the inconsistencies in the evidence of the prisoner's witnesses, and its irreconcilability with a reasonable, common sense view of the case, and asking for the condemnation of the prisoner. The judge's charge to the jury was strong against the prisoner. At 4 o'clock the jury retired, and at 5 brought in a verdict of "guilty."

Yesterday morning the case of Seagraves vs. Sewell was called. This was an action for $129 for work and labor performed by the plaintiff for the defendant. Chas. E. Duffy appeared for the plaintiff and J. A. Vanwart, Q. C., and E. Byron Winslow for the defendant. The evidence of Austin Harris, B. D. Sewell and Seagraves, the plaintiff, and others was taken. At five o'clock the jury retired and brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $8. This amount is within the limits allowed to be sued for in magistrate's courts, and as a consequence the plaintiff will only get magistrate's costs.

After the verdict in Seagraves vs. Sewell, Charles Good, the arson prisoner, was brought into court and sentenced by judge Steadman to ten years imprisonment in the penitentiary at Dorchester. The prisoner seemed to take his sentence very quietly indeed, although he could not but feel that his position was very serious. His young son, who had done his best to have his father cleared, was much affected at his father's sentence, and shed tears freely. The judge added a few words of wholesome advice to the prisoner, and he was led back to his cell. The court adjourned till the 20th inst., when the remaining cases of Thos. A. Armstrong vs. city of Fredericton, nd Queen vs. Simpson will be taken up.

Mrs. Vanwart has considerable real estate in the town of Missoula, and it is in connection with this that Mr. Tibbits is taking the present trip, as well as to restore his health, which has been not of the best lately.

J. A. Fraser, of this city, and Arthur Gibson, of Marysville, have returned from Sackville, where they have been pursuing their studies during the year just completed. Mr. Fraser took a commercial course, and passed very creditable examinations. Lumber Notes.

During the latter part of last week, the news from the lumber drives on the head waters of the St. John, and on the Aroostook was of the most discouraging nature, and there was great fear that a very large proportion of the total cut on those waters would be hung up for the season. It was at one time reported that 47,000,000 feet were altogether stranded on these waters, and the prospect for the St. John Mill men was very gloomy indeed. But Saturday night and Sunday there came a heavy rain, which raised the water considerably in the small streams, and now the reports are far more encouraging. On the Aroostook, matters are about as follows:—

A. R. Gould has the bulk of his 7,000,000 feet of lumber in or within easy reach of his pond, and will saw at the rate of 30 odd thousand feet per day. Of the up river drives the following parties are reported to have passed Presque Isle. Fred Hale, 7,000,000; Jas. H. Oak, 5,000,000; T. H. Phair, 3,000,000; Dunn Bros., 5,000,000. Geo. Burt, 1,506,000; Cook, & Clark, 4,000,000: Nason is reported to be on his way with some 5,000,000, and also Carney with about 4,000,000. Frazier, Giberson and Pearce are behind still further, but are reported to be in safe quarters. Only one drive on the Aroostook waters is reported as abandoned, that of Mr. Alfred Trafton on the Big Machias.

On other waters the following is the condition of affairs:—

Gilman and Burden, for W. H. Murray, are out of Black river into the main St. John and will reach the corporation limits in a few days.

Nadeau and Mallett, for W. H. Murray, will be out of Fish river this week.

Chisholm has part coming and part hung up on the St. Francis and Bearse is similarly situated on Aroostook.

Kilburn is between the Seven Islands and Burnt hill Brook with a good prospect of getting out.

It is doubtful if Claire will succeed in getting out of Little River.

Noble, McAllister and Sands for Cushing are hopelessly hung up on the Aroostook, but Mr. Murray thinks that these are all that will be unable to get out, and that less than twenty millions will be hung up for the season.

LIBERAL CONVENTIONS.

Successful Meetings Held in Carleton, Northumberland, Albert, Queens and Sunbury.

During the present week a number of large and successful conventions of liberals for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the convention at Ottawa, have been held in the various counties of the province. Without exception at every one of these there were large numbers present, great enthusiasm manifested, and strong delegations were elected to represent them at Ottawa. On Monday the liberals of Carleton met in convention in the town hall at Woodstock, and held one of the most successful gatherings of the year. Every parish in the county was represented, although the farmers are still busy putting in their crops, and besides electing delegates, a thorough county organization was effected. Dr. Colter, M. P., was called to the chair and James Watts appointed secretary. Dr. Colter made a splendid speech in addressing the meeting, and advised that the meeting organize by appointing a county president and vice-presidents for each polling district. John Harper was elected county president and vice presidents for the various parishes were nominated. The nominating committee selected the following delegates: Samuel Watts, E S Gilmore, E M Shaw, Geo Stickney, Roger McElroy; substitutes, Andrew McIntyre, F B Carvell, C L Smith, Judson Briggs, Wilmot Ballock, Allen Bradley, John Campbell, H Paxton Baird, Robert Brown, Andrew Colwell, William Taylor and A Henderson.

At Charlottetown, P E I, on Tuesday a large and enthusiastic convention appointed the following delegates to the Ottawa convention: Hons Premier Peters, Laird, Farquaharson, Sinclair, Forbes, and A B Warburton, A C McDonald, M P P, James Laird and G. McCallum Blanchard. A resolution was unanimously adopted expressing approval of Mr. Laurier's leadership and confidence in the liberal policy.

At Hopewell Cape on Monday the liberals of Albert held a very large and enthusiastic convention. Over fifty delegates were present. Alex Rogers, ex-M P, occupied the chair, and Joshua Dickson was secretary. The nominating committee chose the following delegates: Hon H R Emmerson, Hon A McClellan and J H Rhodes, editor Maple Leaf, ex-officio. Official delegates—W F Taylor, Alex Rogers, Charles S Turner, Charles S Goggins and James T Ryan. Alternate—W S Starritt, E W Lynds, Watson E Reid, W P Starritt, John W Gaskin, John L Steeves, Graham D Steeves, Joseph W Turner, John J Shields, Robert P Goggin, Leonard Martin, W C Pipes and W A West. Resolutions expressing confidence in hon Mr. Laurier, as leader of the liberal party, and acknowledging the efforts of hon L H Davies and maritime liberals in promoting liberal principles and recording unwavering adherence to principles of tariff reform and freer trade relations with the United States was moved by W J McKenzie, W A West, and W F Taylor, respectively, and passed unanimously, being spoken to by Senator McClellan, hon. H R Emmerson, Alex Rogers, John Dickson and others. The meeting was representative and enthusiastic and showed that the liberals are awaiting the next conflict with a certain hope of success.

At Chatham on Wednesday the Northumberland county liberals met in convention, James Troy in the chair and Warren C Winslow acting as secretary. Resolutions were adopted approving of tariff reform, and expressing confidence in hon. Mr. Laurier. The following were selected as delegates to the Ottawa convention: Hon Peter Mitchell, Wm S Loggie, James Brown, John C Miller, Wm Kerr, J R Nicholson. Alternates: T W Crocker, Robert Murray, jr, James Anderson (of Burnt Church) P Connors, Dr Desmond, P Hennessy, George Brown, W C Winslow, Geo Watt and Scott Fairley. The meeting closed with Auld Lang Syne and three cheers for Laurier.

The liberals of Queens and Sunbury held a very enthusiastic and successful convention at Gagetown on Monday afternoon. A large number of people were present from both counties, and some from Fredericton. A liberal association was formed for the two counties. Charles Burpee, ex-M P, was elected president; A W Ebbett, secretary; D M C McDonald vice-president for Queens county, and Cecil McLean, vice-president for Sunbury county. Committees were appointed for the various parishes. Resolutions were passed expressing full confidence in hon. Mr. Laurier and the liberal party. The following delegates were elected to the Ottawa convention for Queens county: Hon A G Blair, L P Ferris, M P P, R T Babbitt, R C Richardson and D H Abbott. G G King is ex-officio a delegate. For Sunbury county: Charles Burpee, hon. Mr. Harrison, Arch Barker, L R Hetherington and C L Tracey. Rousing speeches were made by G G King, R T Babbitt, Charles Burpee, L P Ferris, Henry Johnston and rev. Mr. Austin.

At the temperance hall in Charlo, on Thursday afternoon an excellent liberal convention was held. George Haddow, ex-M P was called to the chair. A liberal association for the county of Restigouche was formed with Mr. Haddow as president, and a vice president for each district of the county. J B Mackenzie, secretary, and Hugh Miller, treasurer; A J Adams, J Galbrath, Jas Brown and Thos Murphy, directors. The following were elected delegates to the Ottawa convention: Geo Haddow, J B Mackenzie, Wm Murray, James Harquail, Wm Hamilton, J H Galbraith, Thos Hayes, W McBeth, Thos Murphy and Patrick Ultican. It was resolved that the vice-president should call a meeting and select seven delegates for each parish, one week before the 1st of August, they to meet in convention on that date and to nominate a liberal candidate for the next election. Addresses were called for from Messrs. McAlpine and McCready, who met with a hearty reception. The convention adopted resolutions endorsing Mr. Laurier as liberal leader, a tariff for revenue, and the fullest measure of reciprocity with the United States consistent with equal treatment to Great Britain. The feeling is strong for a change of government and a change of policy.

On the whole liberalism seems to be flourishing in New Brunswick, and when the big convention meets at Ottawa it will be found that there is no body of delegates more able or enthusiastic than those who represent this little province by the sea.

Weddings.

At the residence of C. A. Parlee, Gibson, on Tuesday evening, the 6th inst., the rev. Mr. Parkinson, Episcopal, solemnized the marriage of W. A. Johnston of North Abingdon, Mass., to Miss Annie Parlee. Only immediate friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whitehead were at the Barony on Wednesday attending the wedding of Rev. W. R. Reud, son of the late Rev. J. R. Reud of Keswick, to Miss Laura Ebbett of that place. The bride and groom are both well known in Fredericton and vicinity. Mr. Reud formerly taught the superior school at Nashwaaksis, where he has many friends, but he abandoned that profession to enter the ministry.

Good Words.

The Maine Farmer says of W. W. Hubbard, who succeeded J. W. Hartt in the management of the Kingsclear creamery: We congratulate both the New Brunswick government and our valued correspondent, W. W. Hubbard, on his appointment on the staff of the dominion dairy commissioner Prof. Robertson. It is but a fitting recognition of the worth of a young man devoted to the cause of progressive agriculture, and the government secures his services at a time when they will have the greatest weight. The state of Maine might well pattern after the province of New Brunswick in the dairy missionary work attempted there. If the lessons be heeded, and the opportunities fully improved, thorough practical co-operation, and the financial condition of the farmers will surely steadily improve.

The City Leases.

Tuesday night the city council held their regular monthly meeting in the council chamber, and had a very stormy session, prolonged some time past midnight. The most important subject under consideration was the expiration of the city leases on Queen street, and the renewal of the same. The date of expiration is about July 1st. There are four of these lots below Queen street, on which some of the most valuable business property in the city is situate. The lessees are: The Wiley estate, George Gilman, Joseph Colter's estate, and John Edgecombe's estate; and in buildings the following business places are contained: Wesley Vanwart's law office, J. J. Weddall's dry goods, Tennant, Davies & Co's dry goods, Misses Young, W. H. Golden, J. M. Wiley, F. B. Edgecombe. Above York street, and on the east side of King street there are two other lots on which valuable business houses are built. The rentals for the lower lots are $100 each, and the city council wants to make a considerable increase. Those above York street have been paying $40 each. After a good deal of discussion alderman McPherson moved, seconded by alderman Walker, that a committee of one alderman from each ward be appointed to confer with the lessees of these lots, ascertain the value of the properties and recommend an increase in the rentals upon renewal. Ald's McPherson, Walker, Everett, Moore and Block were appointed as such committee. The old leases were for the period of twenty-one years, and contained a covenant on the part of the city to renew the taxes at a reasonable rental, or to pay for improvements, the amount to be fixed by arbitration. It is probable that if the city attempts to raise the rentals to an unreasonable figure, the lessees will insist upon giving up the properties. The total value of the properties on the lower leases is somewhere in the vicinity of $40,000.

Resolution of Regret.

On the eve of the departure of Rev. Mr. Nobles, late pastor of the Gibson and Marysville Baptist churches, occasion was taken by a prominent member of the Gibson church to move a resolution of regret that the church was to lose the labors of Mr. Nobles. It met with an unanimous response. Reference was made to the financial prosperity of the church, of the large ingathering and of the kindly relations that had existed between pastor and people. A sum of money was also presented the retiring pastor as a token of esteem and appreciation. It is not only a source of regret for the congregation to whom Mr. Nobles ministered but his loss is felt by all denominations in the parish, as he was ever ready to help any object for the general good. He has removed to Bear River, Nova Scotia, and bears with him the best wishes of all in this city and elsewhere who have made his acquaintance.

Electric Railway.

As yet nothing definite has been done by the men interested in the promotion of the electric railway between the city and Marysville, for which an act was passed at the last session of the legislature. F. B. Coleman was instrumental in getting the bill passed, and when the company is formed will be one of the directors. A number of gentlemen from New England, including governor Russell of Massachussetts and Joseph Jefferson are the chief promoters of the scheme. At present operations are delayed by the illness of Jefferson, who has been sick for some time, but is now recovering. A meeting of the men interested will be held in Boston some time in July, at which a definite course of action will be decided upon.

UPPER GAGETOWN.

June 8.—Pursuant to call, the liberals of Sunbury and Queens met in the temperance hall here yesterday afternoon and organized a convention for the two counties. Charles Burpee was elected president; A. W. Ebbet, secy. treas.; Dr. M. C. McDonald, vice president for Queens; Cecil McLean, vice president for Sunbury.

The delegates chosen for Queens for the Ottawa convention were: Hon. A. G. Blair, R. T. Babbit, G. G. King, L. P. Ferris, M.P.P., R. D. Richardson and C. H. Ebbett; for Sunbury, Hon. Archibald Harrison, Charles Burpee, C. L. Tracey, Archibald Barker and L. R. Hetherington.

A resolution was unanimously adopted expressing confidence in the liberal party of Canada in its leader, hon. Wilfred Laurier, M.P.

There were calls for G. G. King to speak, to which that gentleman responded and was received with enthusiasm. Mr. King regretted that circumstances had led to the necessity of joining two constituencies to make one for dominion purposes. But if we had to be joined to any county he was quite satisfied that it should be with Sunbury. He said the liberal party of Canada were as one on the great question of freer trade and tariff reform. He anticipated there would not be the slightest friction at the coming convention. It would be a long time before the tories would hold a dominion convention, at least with open doors.

That canvass could no longer be used as the people of the United States had on two occasions declared positively for tariff reform. He had no fear as to the result when another election came on. The liberals of Sunbury were true.

R. T. Babbitt spoke particularly of the necessity of making ready for the revision of voters' lists whenever a revision should be ordered. He gave some very practical ideas in connection therewith.

L. P. Ferris, M. P. P., said he was no speaker but was quite a worker, and whenever an election was called on, the liberals of Sunbury would find the liberals of Queens at their posts and ready to help carry their standard to victory.

Henry Johnston had the fullest confidence that the liberals of the two counties would work in perfect harmony.

The president said that even conservatives admitted that the last election in Sunbury was no test of the relative strength of the two parties. He said the liberal candidate accepted the nomination with the understanding that a pure election was to be run; that no money would be spent on either side. They expected to be beaten if the money were brought in by the conservatives, as in the preceding election.

Rev. Mr. Austin came as a learner. He said that conservatives said that if we had free trade with the United States their manufactures would be poured in and swamp us. That might be true, but we might as well die that way as kill ourselves.

Mr. Ferguson said they had not as many public speakers in Sunbury as they had in Queens, but when it came to work they were there every time.

George A. Hughes, of Fredericton, was at the convention.

Pleased Him.—Hostess—Miss Telfer has no partner for this waltz. You will not mind dancing with her instead of with me? He (anxious to be very obliging)—On the contrary, I shall be delighted.
