COAL CREEK AND CHIPMAN.—The Rector, Rev. A. Gollmer intends holding services at Coal Creek Hall next Sunday July 31. In the morning at 10.30 a. m. with sermon, and at 7 p. m. mission service with address.

ENTERED THE MINISTRY.—Mr. R. B. Smith, formerly a barrister of Moncton, has entered the ministry and has attached himself to the baptist denomination. He occupied one of the St. John pulpits on Sunday last.

FIRE IN NOVA SCOTIA.—A most disastrous fire occurred at Puguash on Monday morning, and destroyed eighteen houses and eleven other buildings, covering an area of about two areas. There was very little insurance carried by the parties burnt out.

SOLD CHEAP.—The Thatch Island grass was sold on Monday morning last. There was a large number present but the bidding was very low. In one case where a party paid twenty four dollars for a lot last year it was bid in by the same party on Monday for four dollars It is reported that the sale will not exceed two hundred dollars this year.

NEWCASTLE ACCIDENT.—Friday morning while James Copeland, an employe in W. A. Hickson's mill, Newcastle, Northumberland Co., was standing on a table, his leg accidentally came in contact with a circular saw, cutting the foot off at the ankle. He was immediately removed to his home, where the wound was dressed by Drs. Nicholson and Pedolin.

OPTICAL INFORMATION.—We would call your attention to the advt. of K. Bezanson, of Moncton. Mr. Bezanson has been making rapid progress in the Optical business for some time past. His Optician is a Graduate of Philadelphia Optical College, and Canadian Ophthalmic College. Examinations are always Free of Charge, and the prices of goods are very low.

A PARTY.—The most enjoyable party of the season was the dance Tuesday evening 19th, at the residence of Mr. Daniel Mahoney. Quite a large number of young people were in attendance. After the repairing of a couple of mouth organs dancing began. Music was furnished by Messrs. George Owens and Leo Mahoney. Refreshments were served about 2 o'clock. Mrs. Mahoney did all in her power to make the young peo- enjoy themselves. They tripped the light fantastic till the "wee sma' hours." On leaving for their homes all expressed themselves as having spent a very enjoyable evening.

MRS. ATKINSON IN GAGETOWN.—Mrs. E. R. Atkinson of Moncton, secretary of the Dominion W. C. T. U. gave one of her interesting lectures on Temperance in the Temperance Hall on Wednesday evening last. The Rev. Neil McLauchlin occupied the chair. Short speeches were made by the chairman and Mr. R. T. Babbit. There was a large audience present and all speak in the highest terms of Mrs. Atkinson as a platform speaker.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNICS.—The St. John's Sunday School will hold their annual picnic and excursion to the beautiful grounds at Robertson's Point on the Grand Lake on next Wednesday. The Methodist Sunday School will hold their annual picnic and excursion on Friday next on the grounds used by them last year at Burton. The Stmr. Martello will carry the excursionists of both picnics to their respective grounds.

A BEAR IN TOWN.—Two Frenchmen with a tame bear arrived in town on Monday. The bear was a well trained one and amused everyone by its tricks.

ASSISTED AT CHURCH.—Messrs. Holder, Harrison and Stratton, the Yacht Club Orchestra, assisted the Methodist church choir on Sunday last morning and evening. In the evening Mr. Noble sang a solo while the collection was being taken up.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Sunday School Picnic of St. John's church takes place to-day (Wednesday) at Robertson's Point. The Steamer Martello leaves the Public Wharf at 9.30 a m. The tickets have been set at the low price of 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. All all cordially invited to take this delightful sail up the Grand Lake.

OPEN AIR SERVICE.—The Rev. Lindsay Parker, of Brooklyn, New York, Chaplain of the Royal Kennebeccasis Yacht Club, held an open air service in Gagetown on Sunday afternoon. The ground selected was on the corner opposite the public wharf. A very large number of citizens together with the members of the Yacht Club were present. The Yacht Club Orchestra assisted in the musical portion of the service. The hymns sung were printed on leaflets for the occasion and distributed among those present. A platform was erected for the speakers. Rev. N. C. Hansen read a portion of Scripture, and Rev. Neil McLauchlin offered prayer. Dr. Parker gave a very interesting address which was attentively listened to and highly appreciated by all present. His discourse was taken from the parable of the Prodigal Son. All were well pleased with the Doctor's sermon. The singing also was of a very high order.

PERSONAL.

The Rev. C. H. Hatheway and wife were guests at the Rectory, Lower Jemseg. They returned to their home last Wednesday by way of the Annapolis Valley. Mr. Hatheway was formerly Rector of Cambridge for many years and is now Rector of Stockport, Columbia county, State of New York. He preached a very interesting sermon on the subject of Joseph, at St. James' church, Lower Jemseg.

The Yacht Club.

The Royal Kennebeccasis Yacht Club which left St. John on the 18th inst., for a ten days' cruise on the St. John River, arrived at Gagetown on Tuesday afternoon. There was eighteen boats in the fleet. The Dewey was the first to cast anchor in the Creek and shortly after the remainder of the fleet arrived. The Jubilee while on her way up river met with an accident. She had her main boom broken in a squall. It was repaired here during the afternoon. In the evening the boys from the fleet gave a free concert in the Temperance Hall, Gagetown, to a packed house. The Rev. Dr. Parker presided and opened the entertainment with a speech which was received with loud applause. Mr. Stratton gave a claronet solo, after which the Yacht Club Band played a few selections. Mr. Howard Holder delighted the audience with his violin. A trio by the Dewey boys was next on the programme and was well rendered, receiving hearty encore in response to which they sang the Pirate King. Songs were also sung by Messrs. Allison and Ervine. The Commodore made a speech and Mr. Harrison played a cornet solo which was received with hearty cheers by the audience. A couple of recitations were rendered by one of the yacht club in a highly creditable manner. The concert was brought to a close by a solo sung by Vice Commodore Haines. Hearty cheers were given for the chairman, the Queen, for Gagetown, and by the audience for the Royal Kennebeccasis Yacht Club.

All who attended the concert were well pleased with their evening's enjoyment and speak in the highest praise of those who favored us with this choice entertainment. After the concert a number of our citizens visited the yachts and were heartily welcomed by those on board.

On Wednesday morning the fleet left for Fredericton where they spent Thursday and Friday.
