—— 'O' ——

The English Mail arrived this morning, received the Packet here yesterday.—The London date is to the 11th of May.

The probability of a War between Russia and Turkey appears to be strengthened by the latest accounts.—The Porte had declared that it persisted in the note of the 23d of Feb. last. All the efforts of the English and Austrian Ambassadors to incline the Turkish Government to more pacific sentiments had failed. It is said that Austria will be obliged to make common cause with Russia.

The further consideration of the Colonial Trade Bill was postponed until the 17th of May. The Merchants and Ship owners of London, had petitioned Parliament against the passing of the Bill, contrary, it is stated to what appears to be the determination of Government.—Its fate seems as yet undetermined, though the probability is that it will pass into a Law.

Ireland, (specially in the Southern Counties,) is yet in a deplorable state. "War, famine and pestilence" the three great scourges of a wicked world, seems to have almost literally visited that fine country—the necessary consequence of anarchy and insurrection. The severity of the famine is said to be much mitigated by the liberality of other parts of the United Kingdom. The Merchants, Bankers, and Citizens of London, had in two days raised for that purpose nearly £10,000.—Others following the excellent example. The Typhus fever had made its appearance, and its effects would be rendered more destructive by the famished state of many of the poor Inhabitants.

DIED] In Wakefield, on the 29th ult. Mr. BENJAMIN STICKNEY, in the 47th year of his age.

—— On Thursday last, in her 44th year, Mrs. HARRIET LAMB, widow of the late Mr. JAMES LAMB. She has left four children to lament her loss.

—— Yesterday afternoon, in the 27th year of his age, Mr. JOHN I. HOLLY, of Stanford (State of Connecticut). His remains will be moved to Christ Church tomorrow at 12 o'clock, from the house of Jedidiah Slason, Esq. when his friends, and the inhabitants of Fredericton generally, are requested to attend.

COLONIAL TRADE.

We have seen a letter from a most respectable mercantile House in London, which states that one of the gentlemen of the firm, had had an interview with ministers, relative to the Bill regulating the trade of the colonies, which has been brought into Parliament during the present Session; and had ascertained that it was the determination of Government to pass it. It appears that the Americans will not be permitted to carry Fish or Irish Provisions to the West Indies, and that protecting duties, as far as is practicable, in regard to Lumber, will be imposed. It is also added, that it was probable that a trade will be allowed from Halifax to every part of the globe.—Free Press.

London, May 11.

Mr. Canning's Bill for the admission of Roman Catholic Peers into Parliament, was read a second time last night. The motion for so doing being carried by a majority of 12.

Boston, June 1.

Capt. Williams, of the Albion, has left a wife and seven children. The news of this disaster caused such a gloom at Liverpool, as to suspend all mercantile business for that day.

A Cork paper states that the passenger saved is delirious from the dreadful anxiety of mind and loss which he had sustained.

A letter of the 27th states, that the Letter Bag of the Albion had drifted ashore, and would be immediately forwarded to Liverpool.

Besides the loss of lives, we have to regret the loss of a great amount of property, which at this period of commercial depression will be severely felt.

The Albion is said to have had on board upwards of 100,000 dollars in specie.

New-York, May 30.

Shipwreck of the Albion.—This melancholy event continues to absorb all attention, and a general gloom pervades the city. The vessels in the harbour yesterday wore their colours at half mast.

The amount of 51,200 dollars, was insured in this city on the ship and cargo.
