LAST WEEK

WE entered upon the third year of our business career in the Hartland Hardware Store, and we heartily thank the public and friends for the liberal patronage they have given us during the past two years. We respectfully solict a long continuation of the same for which we will do our best to merit your confidence and esteem.

Just now we call your attention to our well assorted stock of all kinds of Hand Hay Tools, Sections, Guards, Mower Scythes, Rope, Horse Hay Forks, Grindstones, in fact everything found in every well equipped Hardware Stores. We buy our goods direct from the manufactories and can do better in the way of price for you than the general trader who buys only a small quantity. Try us and be convinced.

Massey-Harris Machines

Lime, Brick, Cement.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

COVERS MOST, LOOKS BEST, WEARS LONGEST. MOST ECONOMICAL. FULL MEASURE.

Shaw & Dibblee, Wholesale & Retail Hardware.

Local News.

AND OTHER MATTERS

It is said the potato crop is an excellent one.

Thirty-five carloads of sawed lumber passed through Hartland on Thursday.

Have you seen the Daisy Fly Catcher? Ten cents. Will last the whole season.

James Campbell of this town is erecting a dwelling house near the ferry at Upper Brighton.

Don't forget the Ice Cream Social and Entertainment Tuesday night to be held in Burtt's Hall.

Miss Susie Gray, B. A. of this town has been added to the staff of teachers in the Moncton School.

Bristol and Glassville are soon to be connected by means of a telephone. The poles are already set.

Rev. A. F. Baker will preach in the Baptist church, Hartland, to morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. and 3.30 p. m.

Carleton Encampment No. 42 Royal Foresters will meet in the Foresters' Hall on Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Guy Fawkes' Day, in November, is to be celebrated at Hartland by the Carleton District Lodge of Orangemen.

There will be an excursion to Grand Falls, next Wednesday under the auspices of the Woodstock Baptist Sunday School.

It is reported that a rooster, residing on the Limestone roads, was recently struck by lightening and deprived of all but two tail feathers. The rooster still lives and has been christened Cervera.—Leader.

Rev. J. A. Robertson of Fredericton Junction will exchange with Rev. J. J. Barnes at Rockland next Sunday —tomorrow.

After the dedication there were held a series of meetings in the Baptist church by Rev. A. F. Baker. The meetings were well attended, and a good interest manifested.

A combination knife and fork in one handle seperable. A nice thing for picnic parties, you want to see it to appreciate it, at Shaw & Dibblee's.

On June 3rd, Samuel Copp of Corina, Me. departed this life, He for years travelled this section purchasing sheep and lambs and therefore was well known.

Several heavy showers this week have been not just what could be desired for the haymakers, but nevertheless the crop is being rapidly cut down and housed.

Married—At the residence of the groom, Victoria Corner, July 7th, by Rev. C. H. Orser, Mr. Chas. Birmingham of Victoria Corner, to Mrs. Ruth C. Turner, of Hartland.

Charles McCormack of Somerville, lost a cow last week that he valued at $60. While being worried by a dog she some way broke her leg, and she therefore had to be killed.

J. E. McCollom and Cromwell Trafton left on Wednesday for Gulquac, Tobique, for a fortnight's cruise over the lumber grounds in that region. Mr. McCollom expects to cut there next winter.

Rev J. B. Daggett has withdrawn his resignation as pastor of the Free Baptist church here. He will be absent from his pastorate for the two Sabbaths after the coming one. Rev. John Perry will supply Sunday the 7th of August. The services of that day will be at Brighton and Pemboke.

The Band gave a very nice open air concert on Thursday evening in front of Keswick's store. Many people remarked the great stride forward the boys have taken since having been at camp.

H. F. Perkins, principal of McAdam, N. B., district school, has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy by the Illinois Wesleyan University of Bloomington, Ill. He took honors and philosophy.

Little Cora, daughter of Charles Stevens, Somerville. fell off a table one day last week and unfortunately broke her arm. Dr. Estey rendered the neccessary surgical assistance and the limb is fast getting better.

Walter Hay of Woodstock, met with a most painful accident early Sunday morning. He went to the barn to look after a horse, which was vicious, and kicked him, knocking him down and trampling on him, causing a bad fracture of the leg above the knee.

John Boyd of Ashland, Maine, son of John Boyd of this place, was the victim of a runaway accident a few weeks ago, he now nurses a very badly fractured ankle. On Tuesday he came to Hartland and will remain a short time with friends here.

The young ladies of the "Y" intend holding an ice cream social next Tuesday evening in Burtt's Hall. There will be besides ice cream and cake a programme which the young ladies are going to a great deal of pains to prepare. This should be well patronized as it is the first public entertainment this society has given. Admittance 10 cents, ice cream and cake 10 cents. This society is doing a good and much needed work, which consists of visiting and carrying to the sick delicacies and flowers, looking after the poor, etc. They also send flowers to the Hosptial in St. John.

Paris Green, Hellebore, at Hartland Drug Store, Gillin's Block.

The Woodstock Canning Factory is busy at work canning berries, fruits, juices, etc. The high quality of their products makes theirs the most desirable to use, and consumers of canned goods are fast finding it out. That Canning Factory is an industry Woodstock and the county should be proud of.

Ryan's brick and Purdy's green lime best goods at Shaw & Dibblee's.

As a result of the recent Imperial conference on postal rates it has been decided to adopt the uniform rate of one penny per half ounce on letters going between the United Kingdom, Canada, Newfoundland, Cape Colony and Natal. The date for commencing has not yet been fixed.

Doan's Dyspepsia Tablets at Hartand Drug Store Gillin's Block.

Lots of rope and parts for your horse hay fork at Shaw & Dibblee's.

The Hartland Woodworking Co. has bought the patent right for New Brunswick of a new combination step-ladder, The article is a fine household convenience and doubtless will meet a ready sale. They also manufacture a very handy extension ladder, which can be extended from 12 to 45 feet. One of these should be around every homestead.

R W. Demmings of Clifton, Queen's County has been working this section in the interest of the book "Our Elder Brother" by E. P. Tenny, of Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Demmings is getting many orders as the work is one that commends itself to every family. He was last summer at Florenceville assisting Rev. A. H. Hayward in his duties, and since has been attending Acadia University.