NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDECENT ASSAULT CASE.—McCoy lately examined at Fairville, charged with assault on Miss Flowers, is said in gaol no bail being yet taken.

McCARTHY & STEVENSON, Venetian Blind Manufacturers, etc., (late of A. Christie & Co.,) have started in business at 122 Duke street.

NEW POLICEMAN.—Mr. Edward Dalton, Indiantown, has been appointed a policeman for the town of Portland in room of Mr. D. McCluskey resigned.

FIRES.—The roof of Adam Young's foundry was damaged by fire on Tuesday evening. The Academy at Petitcodiac, was burned early on Tuesday morning.

PORTLAND is not to be behind the city in the matter of having a new fire bell. The cost of the bell will be something over $700. The tower will be placed on the side of the railed road leading to Fort Howe.

KING'S COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT JURY have found a true bill against Capt. Pentman and Andrew Lewis, mate of the "Soulanges," for manslaughter. Our readers will remember the collision that occurred on the St. John river whereby two lives were lost.

A FRIEND of ours, who has just returned from a trip to St. Stephen, remarks that the Queen Hotel, of that place, compares favourably with any hotel in the Province, as to comfortable sleeping apartments, table, &c., not forgetting to mention the courtesy and attention of the proprietor, Mr. McCormick.

ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Emslie, Leather Inspector, was knocked down by a team at the Golden Ball Corner on Tuesday and received serious injuries. On Thursday evening about 8 o'clock an intoxicated woman named Jones, fell into a Germain street cellar, and was severely injured. A grooving machine in Scott & Lawton's factory, Union street, cut off one of D. McMillan's fingers on Thursday morning.

FOUND DEAD.—The dead body of a woman named Eliza Haynes was found in a yard in the rear of Mr. Muldoon's house, Duke street, on Thursday morning. She boarded with a colored woman named Diamond since the middle of January and had been in the habit of getting intoxicated. Going up stairs to get into the house it is believed that she fell off the platform at the top which is unprotected with a railing, and thus met her death. The Jury at the Coroner's inquest held at the Dead House, on Thursday evening, returned a verdict "that the deceased came to her death by falling from the platform stairs, receiving concussion of the brain, and laceration of the blood vessels of the brain."

THE SKATING CARNIVAL AT THE RINK.—The Fancy Dress Carnival and Promenade Concert held at the Rink on Wednesday evening last was a grand success. There were about 150 characters on the ice in costume and a very large number of spectators present. The make up of many of the characters were decidedly original and some very ingenious. Miss Sawyer, as "Old Orphan," and Wm. Duffell, "Cinnamon," were awarded the prizes for having the best and most costume. Mrs. Kate Allison, His Worship Mayor Earle, and Mr. Wellesley Peters were the judges. The Band of the 62nd furnished music very excellently during the evening. Some one has said that pleasure and recreation of one kind or another are absolutely necessary to relieve the mind and body from too constant attention and labor, and no better place for truthfully carrying out this saying can be found than by attending one of those Promenade Concerts.

THE POLICE.—It will be remembered that a short time ago a member of the City Police force was dismissed for drunkenness while on duty. The summarily dismissal of the policeman by the Chief, was at the time commented upon by some of the newspapers of this city. They could not understand how it was that the Chief acted so promptly in the case of this policeman, against whom no charge had been previously preferred, while several others against whom similar charges had been after time been made were allowed to remain on the force. We think the public have not yet heard the end of this affair. It now appears that the policeman who made the information in the case referred to above with his brother officer, was equally guilty, that he visited the same houses, and drank glass for glass with him, and that on other occasions he has even done still worse, drinking in a licensed tavern on a Sunday while on duty. It remains to be seen what action the Chief will take in this case. He has been holding one of these sham investigations of his, but he does not appear to be able to decide in this case as readily as he did in the other. It is time that an end was put to these sham investigations, and that the Police Magistrate stepped in and took charge of affairs of this kind as he has a right to do, and we believe it is his bounden duty to do so at once.

A CONSTABLE'S LITTLE MISTAKE.—The Town of Portland has on its roll of Constables a short, very individualized specimen of a Frenchman. He closely resembles a Chief Mouchet for up represented in stage plays. He is determined, but sports a very generally in stead of the showy head piece which adorns our Chief. He has also himself conspicuous on various occasions but is principally known to fame in the matter of seizing the Baby's Carriage cases, for School Taxes. A little incident happened this week which will probably have a good effect on him in the future. It appears that he is in the habit of spending a quiet hour in a place of an Alsatian in which he takes particular pleasure. Somehow or another his wife found it necessary a short time since to take charge of the watch. The "Captain," (he has commanded a tug in his day) after searching around the house in vain for the article, came to the conclusion that he had been robbed. He suspected a Mr Bartley of the theft and that gentleman was instantly arrested and taken to the lockup. Mr. Bartley's brother calling to see him was also put in a cell. Mrs. French on hearing that some parties were in "durance vile" for the robbery of the watch, instantly disclosed the the place where she had put it, and hurried off her "lord" to rescue the innocent prisoners, and acknowledge his mistake. He did so but the two brothers had engaged counsel to sue French for defamation of character. The case was settled by him paying $10 to each of the brothers and $10 to their counsel. Only $30 for a little mistake.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP SWEENY left town on Thursday morning, for Chatham, on a visit to Rt. Rev. Dr. Rodgers.

MR. P. NANNARY delivered his very interesting lecture on "Gerald Griffin," in St. Dunstan's hall, Fredericton, on Sunday evening last, to an appreciative audience.

VERY REV. C. LEFEBVRE, President of St. Joseph's College, has returned from Canada. Father Lefebvre was accompanied by Rev. Henry McGill, S.S.C., formerly of this city, who was recently ordained priest at Montreal. The latter Rev. gentleman, a member of the Holy Cross Order, will probably reside at Memramcook. Father McGill's many friends in this city will be pleased to hear of his return to his native Province.

THE CATHOLICS of Chatham who recently met with such a severe loss by the burning of their Church and school buildings, held a meeting on Sunday last at which one thousand dollars in money, material or labor during the year were voted for the purpose of re-erection. Temporary buildings are now being constructed to be used as a church and schools. His Lordship Bishop Rodgers has issued the following circular:

CHATHAM, Miramichi, N. B.,
Feb. 22nd, 1878.

The calamity which swept away by fire on Thursday morning, Feb. 14, 1878, our fine group of buildings in Chatham, consisting of Pro-Cathedral, St. Michael's College directed by the Christian Brothers, and episcopal residence, with a great portion of their contents, the fruits of many years of earnest toil on the part of our devoted clergy, and faithful people of Chatham, forces us, however reluctantly, to seek aid from without as well as within our Diocese, to relieve our pressing necessities. Not only are the Professors, the Christian Brothers and students of our College, as well as ourselves and clergy, deprived of the happy roofs that hitherto sheltered us; but the only public temple possessed by our people in this our episcopal town has been carried off by the flames. We are thus obliged to begin the excavations of our new cathedral so as to prepare the basement story thereof for use as soon as possible, and thus provide for our people an edifice fitly spacious in which they can to opportunity assemble for the worship of God. Also we must provide either temporary or permanent buildings for the re-opening of our college, as well as for the necessary lodgings for ourselves and clergy. We were already much in debt for what had been done, and which the fire has destroyed. The means at our disposal to meet these pressing calls are small, and quite inadequate, and thus we have no alternative but to appeal in this hour of distress to the charitable sympathy of our kind neighbors.

Therefore I beg to inform someone (or persons) who, having leisure and mind to act as collectors, will be duly appointed by the general committee, are authorized to solicit and receive contributions for the above object.

JAMES ROGERS,
Bishop of Chatham.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The literary and Musical entertainment under the auspices of the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph, at the Mechanics' Institute, on Tuesday evening, was well attended. A lengthy address by Mr. Wm. E. Walsh, was read on the occasion and was well delivered. The readings after the address of Mr. A. W. Baird and Mr. J. Dolan were well received. The recitations of Shessia Hall and Smallwood were read in a manner very pleasing to the audience. Miss Sullivan's singing was very creditable. She responded to an encore. The piano solos of Miss Gallagher, of Carleton, were well executed. Miss Mary Coughlan sang as well if not better than usual. Her solo the "Captive Greek Girl" was rendered so pleasingly that she was obliged to satisfy the audience again and sang "Homes of my Heart." The piano solo by Miss Alice Coughlan displayed much skill on the performer. Throughout, the performance, though rather lengthy, was satisfactory to the audience. The Cornet Band discoursed excellent Music.

The musical and literary entertainment given in St. Peter's Hall, Portland, under the auspices of St. Peter's Sewing Circle, was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever held in the popular Hall. The opening chorus, "Come Where my Love Lies Dreaming," was finely executed by Mrs. M. Walsh, Miss Cain, Miss McCarthy, Mr. J. Fitzgerald, of Carleton, and Mr. H. Campbell. Mrs. E. McCafferty's many friends were pleased to see her occupying her place at the piano again, looking as well as in the happiest days, making music and accompanying some of the best vocal performances of the evening. Of Mrs. M. Walsh, Mr. J. Dolan and Mr. H. Campbell we need say but little. Their performances never appear to better advantage than on any of the many entertainments they have so kindly assisted in making successful. Mr. Campbell's cornet solo was peculiarly enjoyed and added very materially to the success of the entertainment. The musical portion of the programme consisting of choice and well executed solos by Mrs. M. Walsh, Miss Caroline, Miss Cain, Mr. P. McGowan and Mr. H. Campbell was a very pleasant feature. Mrs. Walsh sang, as she always does, with great artistic effect, and her songs were most cordially applauded. Miss Cain's voice is one of great power and much beauty. It is to be regretted that she does not oftener favor her friends. Miss Coholan sang her pieces with the skill of the accomplished artiste she is so fully acknowledged to be by all who have ever heard her sing. Her sister, Miss Alice Coholan played the accompaniments with much taste, as did Miss M. A. Hayes those for Mrs. Walsh. Miss Bella McMullin gave a piano solo with such splendid effect as proved her to be a very accomplished and pains-taking performer, Miss M. A. Hayes also executed two very beautiful piano solos, both young ladies being enthusiastically applauded. Miss E. Morgan, the Organist of St. Peter's Church, presided at the piano during the greater part of the evening, and to her unwearying efforts are due much of the success of the concert. The dialogue "Tent Scene from Julius Cæsar" was very well rendered, Mr. McDade, of the News personating "Brutus," and Mr. T. Daly, "Cassius." We omitted to mention that Mr. P. McGowan's rendition of "Moriarty" in character, was a very decided success and was much enjoyed by the audience. We are pleased to hear that financially as well as artistically the concert was successful even beyond the anticipations of the most sanguine—over $100 being netted. The audience, one of the most intelligent and critical ever assembled in St. Peter's Hall, appeared much pleased with the entertainment. The ladies and gentlemen taking part in the concert have reason to be pleased with the success, particularly with the large amount realized by them for the poor.

A Cure for Diphtheria.

A few years ago, when diphtheria was raging in England, a gentleman accompanied the celebrated Dr. Field on his rounds to witness the so-called "wonderful cures" which he performed, while the patients on others were dropping on all sides. The remedy, to be so rapid, must be simple. All he took with him was powder of sulphur and a quill, and with these he cured every patient without exception. He put a teaspoonful of flower of brimstone into a wineglass of water and stirred it with his finger, instead of a spoon, as the sulphur does not readily amalgamate with water. When the sulphur was well mixed he gave it as a gargle, and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger. Brimstone kills every species of fungus in a man, beast and plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle, he recommended the swallowing of it. In extreme cases, in which he had been called just in the nick of time, when the fungus was too nearly closing to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat, and, after the fungus had shrunk to allow of it, then the gargling. He never lost a patient from diphtheria. If a patient cannot gargle, take a live coal, put it on a shovel and sprinkle a spoonful or two of flour of brimstone at a time upon it, let the sufferer inhale it, holding the head over it, and the fungus will die.

Kate Claxton the well known actress has gone into voluntary bankruptcy under her real name, Kate E. Lyon.

In Springfield, Mass., a Mrs. Van Reilly recovered $500 from Henry Fralick on account of his love for her young son.

The Norwich Gazette, (Ontario,) says: For two months of wrangling jangling and quarrelling, the members of the Ontario Legislature receive eight hundred dollars. There are hundreds of sober, industrious hard working people in this political ridden country of ours who are content to work from daylight until dark for a period of twelve months for half this sum. All of which leads us to remark that the electors who continue to do this sort of thing are fools. Our open the Salary Grabbers. If they do not wish to represent us for the honor of it, we will offer a decent allowance for expenses if they stay at home, the proper place for the majority of them.
