Fredericton theatre goers will have another opportunity of hearing Mr. Geo. C. Miln, the celebrated tragedian, next Monday and Tuesday evenings. He will play Richard III Monday, and the Merchant of Venice Tuesday evening. Mr. Miln is supported by a first class company, and deserves a liberal patronage,

The I S. Corps Minstrels gave their second performance in the Drill Hall Monday evening to a fair sized audience. There was an entire change of programme, and all the participants acquitted themselves well. The songs jokes etc., were new and fresh, and the orchestra under the leadership of Bandmaster Hayes, furnished excellent music. The parties composing the company deserve a great deal of credit for the spirit and finish they have been able, with only a limited experience, to throw into their performances.

Mr. Snow, Moncton's representative in the University Freshman Class, is receiving great credit for the wonderfully large marks he made in the terminal examinations just closed. Out of a possible 1000, he made in Greek 900, Latin 820. French 967. Science 820, Mathematics 850, or an average in these subjects of 871 4. It's a good season for Snow.

There is a fine display of country produce in the markets and on the streets to-day, and business of all kinds is exceedingly brisk. Prices rule rather low, the supply being large. Rev. J. W. Wadman, who has for nearly three years been pastor of the Carleton Methodist Church, and who is well known in Fredericton, has received a call to the pastorate of the Methodist church at Victoria, B C. It is not improbable that the call will be accepted. Rev. Mr. Wadman, the Sun truly says, is one of the most talented young men in the ministry in this province, and his removal would be a loss to the Methodists of the maritime provinces.

Read Mr. J. D. Fowler's double column advertisement, and he convinced that he is selling goods at the lowest prices. Mr Fowler has a beautiful stock of holiday goods in all lines of his business, including watches in gold, silver and nickel, ladies' and gent's jewellery of every description, a spendid stock of silverware, and clocks ranging from $2 upwards. Mr. Fowler does business on a business basis, and his patrons can depend upon getting good value for their money.

Astrachan Jackets reduced in price for CHRISTMAS WEEK, at John J. Weddall's.

A sneak thief has been operating for some time past at the Commercial Hotel. Many articles were missed by the boarders and suspicion was finally directed to one of their number. On Monday several towels belonging to the rooms disappeared. The proprietor, Major Staples, obliged the unwilling suspect to reveal the contents of his trunk, whereupon the towels were found; also a number of other articles which, doubtless were stolen, but did not belong to the hotel. The young man was forthwith ejected from the premises.

If you want full value for your money, buy your Dry Goods at John J. Weddall's.

The nuptials of our enterprising friend, Mr. Frank I. Morrison, and his charming fiancee, Miss Jessie Hill, were duly celebrated at Pokiok at 11 o'clock last Thursday, Rev. Mr. Ross officiating. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Charles E. Hill, (of Hill & Berry,) the bride's father. Miss Jennie Edwards gracefully discharged the duties of bridesmaid, and Ald. F. B. Edgecombe supported the groom with all the dignity demanded by the occasion. After luncheon, the bridal party drove to the city, and in the evening assisted Mr. John A. Morrison and lady, in the celebration of the 40th anniversary of their marriage. It is needless to say that Mr. Morrison and his fair bride are receiving the warmest congratulations of their very numerous friends upon the important step they have taken. They are settled in their own home, St. John street.
