Deputy Sheriff Hawthorn the other day, during his perusal of the Sun, saw a paragraph containing a description of a young fellow named Alfred Favell, who was wanted in Moncton for robbing his employer, George Harrop, a painter, and victimizing several other people. Then the Deputy Sheriff sat himself down on the counter of his brothers news depot and thought real hard. He thought he had seen somebody on the street a day or two before, whose personal appearance agreed with that described in the paper, and after a brief mental struggle, he called up the recollection of a painter who was working with Mr. John Eggar. The latter he knew was employed in giving the finishing touches to Mr. F. B. Coleman's new summer hotel at Heron's Lake and thither justice in the person of Deputy Sheriff Hawthorne hurriedly made its way. It was 11 o'clock Thursday night when the officer arrested Favell who was soundly asleep when pounced upon. He owned up, and was escorted to the County jail and has since been forwarded to Moncton for trial. The Deputy Sheriff receives great credit for the neat capture of his man.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

Edgecombe & Sons' Carriage Factory badly gutted early last Friday morning.

There was a serious fire in Messrs. John Edgecombe & Sons Carriage Factory, York Street, Friday morning. The alarm was sounded at 12.30 o'clock, the fire having mysteriously originated in the basement of the building, in which were located the engine, plaining, sawing and other heavy machines. The fire made very rapid progress, and soon appeared in the upper storeys, and at one time it looked as if the entire block would be destroyed, but the prompt action of the firemen, and the magnificent water supply soon banished all fears in that respect. As it was, the machinery in the basement was largely destroyed, the floors and ceilings were almost completely wrecked, and the roof was pretty well licked up. A large amount of stock in the upper storeys was also destroyed, and the season's work of the firm sadly interfered with. The insurance on the building was $2,500, on the stock, $1,500 and on the machinery $1000, all in companies represented by Messrs. Morrison & Freeze. A large Newfoundland watch dog in the basement met his death by the flames. The firemen were very hospitably entertained after their work by the Messrs. Edgecombe, who have the sympathy of the community in their loss. The work of repairing will be proceeded with at once.

A BICYCLE TRIP.

The Bluenose Tour of American and New Brunswick Wheelmen.

From Grand Falls to St. John.

The entree of thirty-eight young men mounted on bicycles, attracted much attention on Queen Street, Friday afternoon. The party composed the Bluenose bicycling tourists, and they had made the run from Grand Falls on their wheels. The entire party put up at the Queen Hotel, and were cordially received by the citizens. They started from Grand Falls on Monday, the 19th inst., made the trip to Andover that day, proceeded to Florenceville, Tuesday to Woodstock; Wednesday, came thence to the Half-Way house, Dumfries, Thursday; and completed their journey to Fredericton, Friday. They had a very pleasant ride, and spoke most enthusiastically of the scenery of the St. John river valley, and of the hospitality of the people. At Andover and Florenceville, social dances were given in honor of the visitors, at Woodstock they were struck by the beauty of the girls who promenaded past the Gibson House in scores, to have a look at so many promising boys, and in Fredericton they were paralyzed by the great natural beauty of the city, the unobtrusive attentions they received while here, and, the general attractiveness of the people, especially the fairer portion. The tourists themselves were very pleasant young fellows, and seemed to thoroughly enjoy their outing. Friday evening they were serenaded by the Fredericton Brass Band at the Queen, Saturday they visited Marysville, the University, and various other points, Sunday the most of them went to church, like good boys away from the parental control, and Monday morning at 7 o'clock, they embarked on a special boat for St. John, the majority going straight through by water, but fifteen of the party wheeling it from Westfield. Mr. Alex. Holly, son of Hon. James Holly, M. L. C., was of the party, and at his home the visitors were hospitably entertained Monday afternoon. Tuesday afternoon the party picniced at the Beach House. The guests of the St. John Bicycle club, and in the evening they were accorded a reception in the Domville Building, where there was dancing and luncheon. The Americans left for their homes this morning, carrying with them most pleasant recollections of their Bluenose tour.

The party was composed at follows:—F. A. Elwell, of Portland, W. A. McLaughlan, St. John, F. L. Godet, Hamilton, Bermuda; F. J. Arnold, Waterville, Me.; Junias E. Beal, Ann Harbor, Mich.; J. M. Barnes, St. John, N. B.; Geo. E. Cain, Chelsea, Mass.; W. H. Degraaf, New York; Chas. B. Davison, Ann Harbor, Mich.; E. H Elwell, jr., Portland, Me.; J. S. Eagles, St. John, N. B.; B. W. Flanders, Malden, Mass; C. W. Griffith, New York City; A. B. Holly, St. John; F. W. Hanford, New York; C. S. Kennard, Portland, Me.; Sanford Lawtow, Springfield, Mass.; F. A. Lindsay, Lynn, Mass.; D. E. Miller, Springfield, Mass; W C March, Springfield, Mass; F H Messer, Stoneham, Mass; Geo R McAustan, Providence, R I; J W McAustan, Providence, R I; Geo B Morrill, Portland, Me; J Moore, Portland, Me; H C Page St. John, George Robertson, St, John; R F Randolph, Fredericton; F H Sawyer, Portland, Me; W H Selvey, Springfield, Mass; E H Turnbull, St. John; C C Tuksbury, Portland, Me; G G Tyler, Baltimore, Md; E G Whitney, Boston, Mass; Wendell Harmon, Detroit. Mich.

Yesterday morning at 9.15 o'clock, an accident occurred to the eastward bound train on the Grand Southern Railway, which for a time appeared likely to result in death or serious injury to several passengers and to much damage to railway cars and other plant. When about 3½ miles eastward from the St. Andrews railway crossing, and the train was rounding a curve, at a speed of 18 to 20 miles an hour, the wheels of the lumber car left the rails slipping between and forcing the rails from their fastenings. The baggage and passenger cars followed into the gap and bounced over the sleepers and road-bed. Gradually the passenger car in which there were 17 or 18 passengers careened over to one side, swaying dangerously over an embankment, bordering which was a dismal looking swamp studded with trunks of old trees, and apparently about to tumble when the train came to a sudden halt, the engine having been reversed and the brakes just in the nick of time.

Lizzie Yates of Sully County, Dakotah, while out horseback riding the other day near Fort Sully, fell from the horse, and, her foot being caught in the stirrup, was dragged five miles. When found her head was beaten into a jelly and nearly every bone was broken.

A horrible story comes from the lower end of Patnall County, Geosgia. A negro woman engaged to prepare a dinner for a colored picnic, murdered a young child, which had been left in hrr charge, cooked half the remains and served it to the people. The other half of the remains were found salted down in a barrel. The negroes became perfectly frenzied on making the discovery, and seized the woman and burned her at a stake.

Asa Fillmore of Albert county, about three years ago changed what was apparently a $50 bill for a stranger. The bill proved, however, to be only worth $5. a cypher having been ingeniously pasted beside the figure five. The first person suspected proved his innocence. A second party was arrested, tried and acquitted, and nothing calculated to throw light on the mystery transpired until a few days ago, when Mr. Fillmore was approached by one of his neighbors, who acknowledged that he had had the bogus bill changed, asked to be forgiven, and restored the money with interest.

While sitting on a fence post at Akron, a small place sixteen miles from Wabash, Ind., farmer Bowman noticed one of the posts near by disappear. He at once began an investigation, and after digging a short time, laid bare the opening to a cavern. Procuring a ladder and lantern he descended and discovered ranged about the room twelve human bodies, while another one leaned against the wall with arm outstretched as if in the act of addressing the others. Mr. Bowman examined the bodies and found them to be petrified. How they came there is a mystery to the oldest inhabitant. Crowds are flocking to examine the cave, which will be kept lighted.

Lightning did considerable damage in Hull opposite Ottawa, Monday night. In one house where a wake was being held, the lightning struck the chimney of the house and running down the stove pipe, struck the coffin in which the body of a woman was, and shattered it to pieces. There were four persons seated around the coffin at the time. One man and a child were seriously injured and have since did. Two othere were badly injured. The names of persons who were killed could not be ascertained, but the owner of the house, Joseph Goderral, was struck on the head and seriously injured. The other person who was present was a woman and the electricity tore her clothes and even her boots off and otherwise injured her.

Pauline Lambert, a handsome young lady of Ansonia, Conn., aged twenty, becoming enraged because she heard that her brother Charles, a young married man, with a wife and child, was about to elope with the dashing young widow Clark, sought out Mrs. Clark just as she was leaving her house to take a walk. With a stout rawhide, Miss Lambert then administered a terrible whipping over the head and shoulders of Mrs. Clark on the street. Mrs. Clark made a desperate attempt to wrest the whip from the hands of her assailant, and would have been successful but for Miss Lambert's aged mother, who followed up her daughter and rendered her all the assistance in her power. The widow finally begged for mercy, which was granted on her agreeing to leave town and have nothing more to do with Lambert.

About noon on Saturday last, the 17th inst., six masked desperadoes, mounted on horseback and armed to the teeth, stopped Her Majesty's mail coach 400 miles northwest of Winnipeg, and demanded the mail from the driver, ransacked it and carried off $20,000. The stage carrying the mail left Qu Appelle Station on Friday and travelled all night. The following day, when nearing a big bush, the desperadoes rushed out, and presented revolvers compelled the driver to surrender. There were two passengers, but they were powerless against six stalwart, masked men. It is believed the desperadoes came from Montana and had information that a large amount of money was being carried. This is the first time on record that such an outrage has been committed in the Northwest. The Mounted Police are now scouring the country for the robbers.

Last Wednesday evening, when C. Kearney of Florenceville, Carleton County, was about closing his store for the night, he discovered that his cash box containing valuable papers, besides $100 in cash and notes of hand to the amount of some $2,200 have been stolen. Early the next morning search was made for the box, and it was found under the fence at some distance from the store. The cash and notes had been taken out. No clue to the thief was discovered till Monday afternoon when Wellington Birmingham, a lad of 17 years, was caught in the act of robbing the store of J. L. Saunders. He admitted having robbed Mr. Kearney's store and told where he had hidden the notes and papers. Mr. Kearney on going to the place recovered them—about two thousand dollars worth, but the hundred dollars in cash could not be found. Mr. Kearney is a brother-in-law of Mr. J. G. Byrne of Fredericton.

Longfellow's Birthday Book is a beautiful present to give any lady. But there is a little book published in pamphlet form, with no pretensions to literary merit, that would be as appropriate, and might be the means of saving a life. It is called Dr. R. V. Pierce's treatise on diseases of women, for whose peculiar troubles the "Favorite Prescription" is especially designed. It is profusely illustrated with wood-cuts and colored plates, and will be sent to any address for ten cents in stamps, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
