BY THIS SIGN WE CONQUER.
"Whenever the way seems long,
Or the heart begins to fail,
We sing a more wonderful song,
And tell a more marvellous tale"

JANUARY 1, 1865.
Twenty-Seventh Anniversary of the New York Mercury.

The Pride of the Fireside.

IN the prime of a vigorous intellectual manhood, the Phenix of the weeklies begins its flight for the new year, over the wrecks of its flagging and lifeless contemporaries, with its eye fixed upon the sun, beneath which it owns no rivalry.

The war, which has toppled down whatever is shallow and baseless, has written no wrinkle on the bright ægis of our success. Our features for the issue of 1865 shake the pillars of whatever has heretofore been deemed imperial in serial literature. Both sides of the Atlantic render us tribute. We shall continue the thrilling romances of Miss M. E. BRADDON, necromancer of the strong dark passions, to whom we pay more money annually than the entire capital of our imitators, and add to our American staff the shamefun jester of the cap and bells, JOSH BILLINGS, who will commence with the first of January a series of his well known imitable comic papers, written expressly for us, in his irresistably convulsive vein. HARRIET E. PRESCOTT, the most polished and imaginative sketch-writer living; P. T. BARNUM, the world-famed showman and autobiographer; Miss M. A. EARLE, FAIRFAX BALFOUR, Dr. J. H. ROBINSON, and 'NED BUNTLINE,' renowned and versatile novelette-writers, will eke out the sparkling contributions of such facile poets, fuilletonists, humorists, critics, travellers, paragraphists, etc., as George Arnold, W. O. Eaton, Millie W. Carpenter, Geo. Alfred Townsend, Julia S. Ingraham, Edward Willett, George Martial, Joseph Barber, J. A. Peiten, and others, numerous enough and clever enough to run all the newspapers on the Continent.

The vivid pencils of DARLEY, MCLENAN, and WAITE, the first draughtsmen of the age, will make the new volume pictorial, and whatever of fugitive or meteoric note may appear during the year, will at once be engaged and made available.

In addition to its crisp and telling editorials; its delectable Gossipers' Club, in which the aptest and wittiest poems, caricatures, and burlesques of the time first appear, and its coquettish Ladies' Promenade, to which all the mothers, sweethearts, daughters, wives, and widows of the land subscribe their experiences, the NEW YORK MERCURY will continue the faithful and cogent

Photographs of Popular People, highly illustrative of the oldest, ablest, and artfulest folk of the era; the Great Fashion Article, by Jennie June, whose sprightly notes upon the latest and most perfect New York modes are suggestive to leaders of society everywhere, and universally consulted both in the metropolis and throughout the country; and commence a series of illustrated Sketches of Grotesque Adventure in Foreign Clime during the War, by Alfred Trample; as well as Hints upon Cookery, by Henry Gosling, the metropolitan cuisinier.

The first of the year will inaugurate the thrilling original novelette by Dr. J. H. Robinson, entitled which will be followed by a splendid new story by Miss M. E. Braddon, written expressly for the NEW YORK MERCURY.

ALETHE; or the Child of the Cord;

Nothwithstanding the upward march of every article of luxury and consumption, and our enormously increased outlay for the year 1865, the Star Paper of the Republic with its forty columns of sterling original matter, will continue to be issued at six cents a copy, and sold by all newsmen and periodical-dealers in America. Its long and honorable history insures its subscribers against the casualties and fatalities which have swept so many mushroom journals off the board, and left their patrons disconsolate at the loss of their money.

To mail Subscribers our terms are: Cash in advance, single copies $2,50 a year; three copies $7; six copies $13; nine copies $20. The party who sends us $20 for a Club of nine copies will receive an additional copy free. Six months' subscriptions received. Canada Subscribers must send 20 Cents extra for each subscription to pay the American postage. ☞Subscribers should be careful to write plainly the name of their post office, county and state. Specimen copies sent free to all applicants.

St. John "TELEGRAPH."
Prospectus for 1865.

AFTER two years of uninterrupted success, the Proprietor of the St. John TELEGRAPH is enabled to state that, during the coming year, his Paper will be conducted with more vigor than ever. Neither ability, money, nor enterprise, will be spared to make the TELEGRAPH worthy of the people of the Province, and deserving of the very extensive patronage it has received from all classes of society and all parties in politics.

Within the past six months a DAILY has been added to our other editions; and we have great pleasure in stating that it has been well received in all quarters, and has become an institution of the country. We continue to send TRI-WEEKLIES to all who choose to order them, and have made arrangements to forward Subscribers, by mail, papers published on any One, Two, or Three days of the Week
they may choose to name.

Between the DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY Editions, over 12,000 copies of the TELEGRAPH are issued every week
from our Printing Establishment, and our circulation is constantly on the increase.

The popularity which our journal has enjoyed, we are convinced, is due in a large measure to its non-party and independent course on political questions. We can assure all of our present patrons, and all who feel inclined to become Subscribers for the coming year, that this course shall not be departed from in the future. The acts of our politicians shall be carefully scanned, as usual, their merits receiving the proper meed of praise, and their faults being held up to public censure as they deserve.

The TELEGRAPH for '65
will be well supplied with Correspondence and other contributions from all parts of British America, and especially from all important points in the Lower Provinces; and the Editor will be assisted by gentlemen of talent and sound judgment in its management.

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAPH,
Published at the very low price of
One Dollar a Year;
Gives its Subscribers the largest and best collection of Foreign and Local News to be obtained in any paper in the Lower Provinces—together with Editorials on all the leading questions of the day; complete and correct Country Market Reports; details of City News; Correspondence from the Country Districts; and all other news matter in which the people of the Country Districts are interested. Particular attention is paid to the matter furnished in this Country Edition, and the tastes and wants of its Subscribers are most carefully consulted. As we publish in our Daily Edition some forty or forty-five columns of reading matter every week, it can be readily understood that we are thus allowed a wide margin for a choice of matter for the WEEKLY. Although the issues of our WEEKLY have given such general satisfaction that all our old friends are renewing their Subscriptions, we can confidently promise that will be a great improvement on the past.
THE WEEKLY FOR '65

For a Club of TWENTY, we send the Tri-Weekly Telegraph.
For a Club of FORTY or upwards we give the DAILY TELEGRAPH, or we furnish any Magazine, Illustrated Paper or other Periodical, the subscription price of which does not exceed the money value of the Premiums as indicated above. Our object in offering these extraordinary inducements is to obtain a universal circulation for the Weekly.—Nothing but extraordinary patronage can justify such
