In celebration of the event, a large party of ladies and gentlemen wese invited to the Temple residence Saturday evening, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Both Mr. and Mrs. Temple bear their years exceedingly well, and they were very warmly congratulated by their guests. Dancing to the excellent music of Hanlan's orchestra was the amusement of the evening, and a splendid supper was spread at 11 o'clock. The Nova Scotia Telephone Company applied to the City Council last night for the appointment by the city of an officer to cooperate with the company in the substitution of their poles for those of the Telegraph Co. along Queen street, and also for permission to erect six additional poles, and to erect higher than the law allows to enable them to cross tree branches and other wires. The Council were not prepared without further deliberation to grant the requests of the company, and a resolution to refer the matter to the Road Committee was proposed. Mr. Wagstaff, representative of the company, was heard at the Board in support of the application, and when he had finished, his counsel, Mr. Geo. F. Gregory, addressed the Council. The latter gentleman, when he thought persuasion had failed to move the Council to appoint the officer to assist in the location of the poles, intiminated that the law would enable him to compel the Council by a mandamus from the court to meet his views, and he further intimated that if the Council separated without taking the action he desired, a mandamus would likely be issued. The Council, however, unanimously decided that they would run the risk of Mr. Gregory's mandamus, and passed the resolution referring the matter to the Road Committee, who will meet Mr. Wagstaff and endeavor to come to some amicable arrangement.

A CITIZEN'S LETTER.

(To the Editor of the Farmer.)

DEAR SIR,—Permit me space in your valuable paper to refer shortly to a matter affecting the fair name of our city, and one which is of interest to all who are in the habit of attending theatres or other entertainments in the City Hall. The ladies and gentlemen who were present at the play on Monday evening last, must have felt exceedingly annoyed at the presence, in a most conspicuous part of the Hall, of two wretched and notorious women, (so called) of ill-fame. It does not speak well for those officers of the law whose duty it is to see that "offenders" against public morals and decency, are punished, that these people should have the effrontery to defiantly present themselves on such occasions. No blame should attach to Mr. Fenety who sold the seats, because, no doubt they were bought by a friend, the parties themselves not appearing until they were seen in the Hall. Perhaps these creatures are not aware of the position they occupy in regard to the law. Liable to imprisonment and heavy penalties every day of their miserable lives, is it not a wonder that they should dare to flaunt themselves among decent people?

I give them fair warning Mr. Editor, for the future, that where, and so often as they, or any of them, appear at any public entertainment in the City Hall, they will find to their sorrow that the law will be put in operation and the fullest penalties sought to be enforced against them at the instance of

A CITIZEN.

MR. TEMPLE'S OPINION

On the Fishery Treaty and the Retaliation Bill.

The East Boston Sun of Oct. 27th, publishes the opinions of several prominent Canadians on the Fishery Treaty and Cleveland's Retaliation Bill, among them those of Mr. Temple, M. P. for York as follows;—

In reply to your letter of the 24th inst., in reference to the fishery treaty between Canada and the United States, as prepared by the arbitrators, and the effect of President Cleveland's retaliation message to Congress, from a Canadian standpoint, I give you my opinion with pleasure. I am strongly of the opinion that the treaty as agreed upon by the commissioners for submission to their respective governments, is a fair one for both countries, and I may state that while as Canadians we are willing to accede in a retaliatory form to any reasonable proposition or demand of our neighbors, we do not intend to give away "free" rights secured by treaty between the two governments.

In looking into the treaty of 1818, I fail to see how any fair-minded person can say that the Canadian commissioners have not given as much in the treaty now in dispute as they, as loyal and patriotic statesmen having the interest of their country and people at heart, could possibly offer.

Again I cannot understand or think that the American people will ever submit themselves to uss coercion in endeavoring to wrest from us certain rights, merely because they look upon us as being a much weaker nation as regards population and commerce, than themselves. However, we think we are in the right and intend to stand by it, come what may.

In regard to President Cleveland's message even though it might be put into force, which is certainly in my opinion most likely, it would not effect Canada more than it will the United States, as I point out that our position to-day, is much stronger than it was fifteen or twenty years ago.

We are, from the produce of our soil, areable of growing all that we require and can now in a position to depend more strongly upon our different manufactories, while the country abounds in all kinds of minerals, and by the aid of the Canadian Pacific railway and England, should make us, if need be, independent of the United States.

In conclusion, let me impress upon you that Canada is ever willing and ready to meet the United States in a friendly and generous spirit in anything pertaining to friendly intercourse or trade, and I should regret to see these two great English speaking nations have more than a temporary dispute of rights; but we have pleasure in once more finding the two countries dealing together for the good of both, and sitting aside by diplomatic measures, this dispute all about a few scaley things.

I am, yours faithfully,

THOMAS TEMPLE.

THE PULPIT NOT A BILL BOARD.

A Hint to Clergymen.

(Montreal Star.)

Remonstrances are being made against the too common practice of clergymen being utilized as a means of advertising meetings and entertainments of various kinds. Rarely ever a Sunday passes on which a number of secular announcements are not made from the pulpit, the effect of which is that the minds of the people are burdened with a batch of business affairs, to the exclusion of better things. The pleasure and profit of the service are interfered with, and instead of thinking about the sermon the congregation finds itself trying to keep in mind the dates and hours of the meetings they they have heard announced. Pulpit advertising is very much out of place and the clergy should set their faces against it. True enough, it is not the clergy who are primarily to blame but those who put these business announcements in their hands; but a remonstrance from the clergy would have a salutary effect. Strictly congregational announcements can hardly be avoided, although even these should be as few and as brief as possible, but for the semi-secular, semi-religious announcements there is no excuse. The pulpit was never intended for a bill-board.

THE ORANGE CELEBRATION.

The Brethren Observe Guy Fawkes' Day.

By Dining and Speechmaking.

The Orangemen of the city, and many representatives from Douglas, St. Marys and Marysville, together with a great many sympathizers, numbering in all about 390 people, celebrated Guy Fawkes day, Monday, by dining together in Temperance Hall. The tables were loaded with the good things of life, and filled nearly the entire hall. After partaking fully of the edibles, P. G., Mr. Wilson, M. P. P., took the platform and organized a meeting. On the platform beside him were Major Armstrong, Grand Master, Ald. Parker, J. D. G. M., Revs. Mowatt, McLeod, Payson, Dobson, Crawley and Manzer. The audience sang "Coronation," led by a choir from Rossmore Temperance Orange lodge, and Mr. Wilson followed with an eloquent address. He stated the purposes of Orangeism, and claimed that the revolution of 1688 was the means of ensuring civil and religious liberty to the generations that followed.

Grand Master Armstrong was the next speaker. He said Orangemen celebrate this day, not because the lives of England's parliament and sovereign were saved, but because, by their preservation, the acknowledged heads and defenders of the Protestant religion were saved from destruction. He spoke of the progress of Protestantism under Queen Elizabeth, and said Romanism was jealous of that advance. He referred at considerable length to the efforts of the three great religious bodies to secure special favors from King James, and spoke of the conference held at Hampton court between the Episcopalians and Puritans in 1604, and of the steps taken by Roman Catholics as a result of that conference. He fully explained the attempt to blow up the Parliament building, and how the plot was exposed. If the plot had succeeded he thought the Roman Catholic religion would not have been able to supplant Protestantism for any great length of time, as Episcopalians and Presbyterians would have united against it. The 5th of November was a day of thanksgiving for nearly 200 years by Act of Parliament. The commemoration of the day will not soon die out among true Protestants and the members of the Loyal Orange Association.

Stirring addresses were also given by Revs. Messrs. Dobson, Dr. McLeod, Mowatt and Crawley, and the meeting closed with the national anthem.

WILLIAMS PIANO!

Testimonials from two competent judges of Pianos.

From C. Farringer, Esq., Director of Ontario College of Music, Toronto.

Messrs. R. S. WILLIAMS & SON, TORONTO.

Gentlemen,—During my thirty years' residence in the States, (U. S.,) I have bought quite a number of Instruments (having in use from five to ten Pianos at a time) and I take pleasure in testifying that the Upright Piano purchased from you has proved itself equal to the best I have used. There is no excuse for Canadians buying imported Instruments when home enterprise can produce Pianos as perfect in every respect as the one I got from you,

From Madame DeAngelis Walters, Teacher of Music, Italian School, Montreal.

Gentlemen,—In answer to your letter of enquiry about the Pianos manufactured by Messrs. R. S. Williams & Son of Toronto, I have pleasure in stating that I consider them the zenith of perfection.

On the west side of YORK STREET, the fourth door from Queen Street, with a few sample

Williams Upright Pianos.

Other styles are on the way to us, including a fine Parlor Grand. We also have some Good

Home and Chapel

in stock.

In taking up this branch of business, we have determined to protect our customers in every way. Every Piano and Organ sold by us will be warranted by the manufacturers for FIVE YEARS, and we will, in addition, keep a reliable Tuner in our employ to care for, and look after all the Pianos and Organs that we may sell.

To this end, we have engaged the services of

MR. W. A. CARLISLE

of Bangor, Maine,

who has had nine years experience, and was recommended to us as a thoroughly competent Tuner. We solicit orders for work in this line from all who have Pianos to tune and Organs to voice or repair.

Correspondence solicited from parties wanting anything in our line. Catalogues and prices sent on application.

THE "ORIGINAL" WOOD COOK!

First-Class in Design;
First-Class in Workmanship;
First-Class in Operation.

THE ORIGINAL is the ONLY FIRST-CLASS WOOD COOK that has an individuality of its own, distinguishing it from the every day construction offered in First-Class Stoves.

The ORIGINAL fulfils every pledge that is made for it, and stands to-day unequalled as a marvel of beauty and practical utility.

Modern ideas and new improvements, make it the most economical and convenient stove ever placed on the market. It has the largest High Oven, largest top, largest reservoir, largest fire box and flues. Its value is apparent at sight, and builds its own reputation.

The lower oven door drops and forms a substantial flush oven shelf, while the upper one retains the heat that is wasted from every swinging oven door Cook Stove.

I also keep the NOVEL STANDARD, the latest and most modern COAL COOK in the market. The points of construction are similar to the Original Cook, and a sister stove for burning coal.
