GRAND ORANGE LODGE.—The Annual Session of the Grand Orange Lodge of New-Brunswick, commenced its sittings in Kingston, King's County, on Tuesday last. The Chair was ably filled by the Deputy Grand Master, Joseph Coram, (the Grand Master being absent from the Province)—Upwards of one hundred delegates were in attendance on the occasion, and a vast amount of business was disposed of. The Lodge adjourned on Wednesday evening. The next meeting will be held in Fredericton.

FATHER GAVAZZI.—We beg to draw the attention of our readers to the eloquent address of Father Gavazzi, delivered at New York after his escape from the infamous outrages of Quebec and Montreal, which we this day copy from the New York Herald. This admirable speech depicts, in glowing and forcible language, the treatment experienced by the Italian reformer at the hands of the Canadian mobs; and at the same time nobly declares the unflinching adherence of the zealous Padre to the righteous principles which he advocates, and his brave determination to uphold and maintain them manfully to the last.

HORSE STEALING.—A man named Rutherford was yesterday apprehended for stealing two horses. The animals were stolen at Hampton, and crossed the Suspension Bridge yesterday morning at about 7 o'clock; shortly after which time intelligence reached this City, and Mr. George Stockford started in pursuit, and by 1 o'clock safely lodged the thief in jail, and recovered the property. Rutherford took to the woods when discovered, and Stockford encountered considerable difficulty before his capture was effected, having traveled about 35 miles from the City.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The following gentlemen are appointed Government Directors for the European and North American Railway:—The Hon'bles. Messrs. CHANDLER, HAZEN, WILMOT, GRAY, HAYWARD, and MONTGOMERY.

ROBERT PAYNE, Esq., was appointed, Stipendiary Magistrate for the Parish of Portland, yesterday, by the Council, at a salary of £175 per annum.

FIRE.—We regret to hear, that on Wednesday last at mid-day, the dwelling house of Lieut. Col. Evanson, in Sussex Vale, was totally destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the accident was caused by some defect in the flue of a Cooking Stove.

North side King Street, St. John, N. B., entrance from Market Square.

THE Subscriber having leased for a number of year, the upper apartments of Barlow's Building, North side of King street, and having at a great expense furnished a Receiving Room and Picture Gallery, in connection with the Operating Department, which is now open and is supplied with numerous specimens of DAGGUERREOTYPE ART, and having, at a considerable outlay, obtained the latest improvements in the Art, as at present in operation in England, Paris, and the United States, by which improvements Likenesses can be taken in a shorter space of time, and the finish and durability of the Picture finer and more lasting than those previously taken by the subscriber. He therefore hopes to receive a continuance of that patronage which has heretofore been bestowed upon him by a discerning public.

He would respectfully invite the Ladies and Gentlemen of St. John, and persons visiting the City, to call at his PICTURE GALLERY, as he is certain that as far as specimens of the Art and the style and the style and splendour in which the Gallery has been fitted up is concerned, it will be pronounced equal in every respect to any in England or America.

Having erected sky lights in his Operating Rooms he is enabled to take Children's Likenesses of the most tender years in the shortest period of time, a difficulty which the subscriber heretofore laboured under, in consequence of having to depend on side lights.

Likenesses taken without regard to weather, Single or in Groups, at as cheap rates as can be procured in any part of the world.

He would again say to the Ladies, call at Ellison's Picture Gallery and Examine for yourselves, and by so doing you will oblige the subscriber.
