POLITICS IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Regret over Sir Charles Tupper's Retirement.

Speculation about the next Lieutenant Governor—Mr. McLelan and Mr. Daly Prominently Named—The Probable Candidates for Cumberland—Will the Minister of Marine and Fisheries be Opposed?

HALIFAX, May 31st.—There is considerable stir in political circles in Nova Scotia. Sir Charles Tupper's retirement from the Ministry and from Parliament is universally regretted. Liberals vie with Conservatives in their expressions of regret. Now that Cumberland's old war horse has retired from active political life even his most violent opponents freely admit his great ability, his force of character, his commanding eloquence, and the great things he accomplished for Canada generally and for Nova Scotia especially. But years will elapse before Nova Scotians fully realize the greatness of his loss, and a true appreciation of his power and influence in the public life of this country. To the Liberal Conservatives party in the province his loss is irreparable. And there is no one to take his place. No man in Nova Scotia is fitted to stand in Sir Charles Tupper's shoes. What man in Canada can occupy the position he has vacated? Sir Charles Tupper's departure from Canada at this time is all the more regretted because of the prevalent idea that Hon. A. W. McLelan will likely be translated from the Cdbinet to the Governship of Nova Scotia, which becomes vacant July 1st. If this expectation is fulfilled, this province loses the services of two of her ablest, most experienced and most trusted sons. It is argued by some that, now that Sir Charles Tupper has retired, Mr. McLelan should remain in active political life for a few years longer, so that the party may continue to profit by his sagacious leadership; and the names of M. B. Daly, ex-M. P. for Halifax and Deputy Speaker of the Commons, and Senators Almon and Dickey have been mentioned for the Governorship. But Mr. McLelan's entitle him to the position, and if he accepts it no one will dispute his right to it. Mr. Daly's appointment would, however, be much more acceptable to the Halifax public. Mr. Daly is a Haligonian, son-in-law of Sir Edward Kenny, the first Receiver-General of the Dominion, and brother-in-law of Thomas E. Kenny, merchant prince, banker, manufacturer and popular M. P. for Halifax county. His father, Sir Malachi Daly, was at one time Governor of Prince Edward Island and other British colonies; the son was private secretary. Mr. Daly is one of the leading Irish Catholics of the Maritime Provinces is socially exceedingly popular, and his appointment would be acceptable to all parties. At the same time it would be well deserved recognition of the victories won in 1878 and 1882. On the other hand, Mr. McLelan belongs to Colchester county, and having taken such a prominent part in all the bitter contests during the past third of a century, has naturally made a great many more enemies, whose personal and political opposition, time alone will soften. In case the prize goes to the Postmaster General, there will be a vacancy in the representation of Colchester. The appointment of Mr. C. H. Tupper, M. P., for Pictou to the Cabinet opens up three Nova Scotia counties, Cumberland, Colchester and Pictou adjoining each other. There is some curiosity felt regarding the action of the Liberals in this contingency.

LONG AND FAITHFUL SERVICES

Cumberland has been greatly blessed with elections of late. There will soon have been five elections within six years. Sir Charles Tupper was elected over Mr. Pipes in 1882. When he was appointed High Commissioner, the present Judge Townsend was elected by acclamation, and at the last general election Sir Charles was elected over both Mr. Pipes and Mr. Bulmer, the latter Third party candidate. A year later, owing to legal technicalities, he resigned his seat, but Mr. Pipes declined to again sacrifice himself, and allowed Sir Charles to defeat the third party candidate by an enormous majority. The election soon to be held makes the fifth. A Liberal-Conservative convention will be held almost immediately. Prominent among the available Liberal Liberal-Conservative candidates are Arthur R. Dickey, Hon. Hiram Black, R. G. Leckie, Alex. Wilson and William E. Oxley. Mr. Oxley is managing director of the famous Oxford homespun woollen mills. He formerly contested the county in the Liberal interest, but united with the Conservatives in support of the National Policy. Mr. Wilson is an ex-warden of the county. Mr. Leckie of Sherbrooke, Quebec is managing director of the Spring Hill coal mines—in which 1,000 men mine 2,000 tons of coal daily—and is interested in many other county enterprise. Mr. Black is a prominent farmer, a collateral

DESCENDANT OF "BISHOP" BLACK

the father of Methodism in Nova Scotia, formerly represented the county in the Assembly, and now sits in the Legislative Council. Mr. Dickey is a leading lawyer of Cumberland, a popular young man of perhaps 30, a son of Senator Dickey, and formerly partner with the present Judge Townshend. He is highly respected, is on the right side of nearly every question, a good speaker, sound lawyer and will make an admirable representative, and the chances now appear to be that he will be the choice of the convention and Sir Charles Tupper's successor in the representation of Cumberland. If he is opposed by the Liberals, their choice of candidates lies between Mr. Pipes, and Mr. T. R. Black. Mr. Pipes is the Leader of his party in Cumberland, ex-Premier, a strong Unionist, a good speaker and a fairly able but very lazy man. When the local Grits came into power in 1882 a combination of circumstances crowded him into the Premiership, without salary or portfolio. Within a year and a half another combination of cabals, and the fact that he "resided in a distant part of the province," forced him back into the ranks. He did not offer for re-election for the Assembly, and when he ran against Sir Charles Tupper for the Commons he was beaten by about 600 with a third candidate in the field. Then he accepted the little office of Judge of Probate, and refused to contest the next election Mr. Pipes has a pretty keen appreciation of and does not see the force of spending his money for the fun of always being beaten. Mr. Black is a Liberal member of the Local House, elected by a very narrow majority. His colleague is a Conservative. There is some talk of inducing him to resign to contest the seat for the Commons. He is a strong man, but the Liberals will hardly make the mistake of grasping at the shadow and parting with the substance. The Third party will undoubtedly again run a candidate. They have called their convention for June 12th, and ex-Governor St. John is to lecture on Prohibition in Amherst on the same day. It is possible that the Liberals, instead of running a purely party candidate, will throw their strength to the Third party candidate. But, supposing they did so, there is no probability of their winning the seat. They would not only show their continued want of faith in themselves as a party, but an equal want of strength when using the Third party as a cat's paw, Sir Charles Tupper's majority in late years averaged 500. Of course, it is not reasonable to expect any other candidate to roll up such majorities as that "hero of a hundred fights" could command; but whoever the Government candidate may be, there is no doubt of his election by such a majority as will show the Dominion that Cumberland is still enthusiastic for the National Policy and the National Government.

THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR,

A HEARTY COMMENDATION

Of Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Minister of Finance.

(From the Montreal Gazette.)

Mr. Foster has a turn for figures, his speeches on the budget from the day he entered Parliament have been among the most important contributions to the debates; he is familiar with the trade and commerce of the Dominion, is of industrious habits, quick intelligence and an apt student in any department of knowledge he seeks to acquire. As a speaker he has few equals in Canada, and looking over the list of available men for the important position of finance minister, we know of none better gifted or better trained for it than Mr. Foster. The new Minister of Marine is a young man, but that is certainly not a disparagement. He has had considerable political training, and since his entrance into public life has manifested good ability and capacity. Personally he enjoys a wide popularity, and is in every way a likeable man. He is full of pluck and energy and determination, qualities which give assurance of a useful and successful career.

An English naval officer estimates that there are $200,000,000 in gold and silver under the sea which could be reached by good luck.

THE COTTON MEN

In Council at Montreal.

A meeting of the grey goods section of the Canada Cotton Manufacturer's Association was held at the Balmoral hotel, Montreal Friday. Among those present were Messrs. W. F. Finlay of Hamilton; J. H. Parks, of St. John, N. B.; Robt. Thompson of Hamilton; Clayton Slater, of Brantford; J. Cockshutt of Brantford; James Minnis of Kingston; Fred. S. Williams of the Gibson mills, Marysville, N. B., and John Fraser, George Liddell and S. E. Lancaster of Montreal. The meeting was one of great importance, as the question discussed was whether affairs will be carried on as they have been or whether some means will be taken to make the production equal the demand. The meeting was a most harmonious one, and it was stated that the supply of grey goods on hand instead of being excessive, would be rather scarce when the present orders for export were filled. It was resolved before the adjournment of the meeting to slightly decrease the price, but not to stop production. On the question of the standing of the association coming up, it was unanimously resolved to continue it on its present footing, as it had been found to be of great benefit not only to the manufacturers but to the trade in general. At an evening session in the Windsor hotel a committee was formed to regulate the output.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES,

That cause a sensation at Milville.

A Milville correspondent writing June 1st, says:—We are having a genuine sensation here about a mysterious fire which broke out in a house two miles east of Milville, on what is called Howland Ridge. In most every particular it corresponds with the fire which caused such a sensation in Woodstock last summer. Wishing to investigate, your correspondent visited the place Wednesday evening the 30th. I did not see the fire burning while there, but saw the effects of it. It seems the fire first started near the chimney over the kitchen, Monday evening about 8 o'clock. On Tuesday morning fire was discovered in the same room in a feather tick; and during the day fire broke out in different places simultaneously in cotton and woolen clothes, in paper and other articles. On Wednesday fire was discovered in the barn and was with difficulty extinguished. On Thursday your correspondent visited the place in company with Mr. T. L. Earle, station agent at Milville; when we reached the place we found the barn in flames. Mr. Good, the owner of the property which is being so mysteriously visited, in describing the matter to us said the fire seemed to burst forth instantaneously, and in a few seconds the building was completely enveloped in flames. The family have moved out of the house expecting it to burn next. Mr. Good's loss will be quite heavy. The people of the vicinity are very much excited over the event, some thinking we are returning to the days of witchcraft; while others think the fire something supernatural. This is a genuine fire and burns what it catches. All are alike puzzled to know how it originates.

A LAWYER HORSEWHIPPED

In a Moncton Police Court.

MONCTON, May 4.—There was an exciting time in Moncton police circles Monday. Three adjourned Scott Act cases coming up, everything passed off smoothily until the case against Mrs. William Wallace, Royal Hotel, was called, when the band began to play. Sitting Magistrate Smith, presided, Stipendiary Wortman having no jurisdiction on account of relationship. A warrant had been issued for Mrs. Wallace, who got ahead of the game by driving up to court in her carriage. She entered carrying a powerful whalebone whip, and took a seat alongside of prosecuting Attorney Grant. The case proceeded till Mrs. Wallace was asked if she had sold intoxicants within the three last months past. She declined to answer this and at Grant's request the magistrate ordered her to be committed to jail for seven days for contempt. Then Mrs. Wallace rose in her wrath, drew her whip and lashed Grant unmercifully. Grant seized the whip and the infuriated witness seized him by the hair of the head and pounded it on the table. There was great confusion, in the midst of which the magistrate ordered the police marshal to quell the disturbance He seized Mrs. Wallace but she held her grip on Grant's wool and it was with difficulty they were parted. Order was partly restored, when Mrs. Wallace, who had meantime been bestowing pet names upon Grant, again jumped and kicked and struck him. Witness then concluded to answer on being relieved of contempt, and said she did not remember to have sold within the time specified. The case was adjourned, and Grant asked for a warrant, and it is said will prosecute Mrs. Wallace for assault. Monday night Mrs. Wallace's admirers presented her with a gold ring.

The County Court opened yesterday. The docket was disposed of as follows:—

John, William and Alf. G. Edgecombe vs. Joseph P. Michaud—undefended; verdict for plaintiff's, for whom James A. Vanwart appeared.

Jas. Cook vs. Sarah A. Cook—stands over till next term; Wm. Wilson for plaintiff; Messrs. Vanwart for defendant.

F. B. Edgecombe vs. Joseph P. Michaud—verdict for plaintiff; Messrs. Vanwart for plaintiff.

Bell vs. Thomas was settled; Messrs. Vanwart for plaintiff; Mr. Rainsford for defendant.

The court then adjourned sine die.
