LINES TO THE AURORA BOREALIS.

BY MARY N. DEARBORN.

Ye golden gleams so wondrous bright!
Oh, tell me whence ye come?
And where your gathered beauties light—
Around your native home?

With what a glorious train you ride
Like morning beams of dawning pride,
Your waving streamers fly.

O tell to me of the radiant spot
That gives your splendour forth
'Mong the ice-circled isles that dot
The oceans of the north!

What mysterious line that frozen coast,
And secrets long untold;
Where "Franklin" led his gallant host,
To brave eternal cold.

Did you direct his trackless way
Amid those polar seas;
And lead to them the light of day,
Where warmer sunbeams freeze?

Say, do your gladdening beams descend,
And guide that fearless band,
As they speak of many a treasured friend,
Of homes and native land!

Or do you light the hidden graves
Of those heroic men;
Locked up within the ice bound caves,
That know no mortal's ken?

Throughout the long and chilly night
Your glowing beauties shine;
But never shall a ray of light
Reveal its secret sign.

HISTORY OF LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,
CANNON STREET WEST,
London, 1st March, 1852.

THE Court of Directors have much pleasure in reporting the onward progress of this Company. During the year 1852, the new Policies issued were 324, assuring the sum of £182,957 18s., being the largest amount of new business transacted in any [illegible] the funds in hand, after providing for payment of bonuses to the policy holders and proprietors, and reduction of premiums allowed, had increased to £248,979 16s 7d.

Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that the expenses of management for the year did not amount to a ven per cent. of the income. The number of policies issued, and the income of the Company during the respective years, were as follows:

Year.	No. of Policies actually issued.	Sums assured thereby.	Ann. Income.
1847	113	102,247 0 4	29,720 12 7
1848	125	116,045 2 6	35,214 4 7
1849	272	149,861 2 6	39,011 1 4
1850	301	156,370 13 6	42,207 5 8
1851	342	170,578 7 0	47,721 2 6
To 31st Dec.	1153	695,102 5 4	193,875 6 8

Thus exhibiting a steady and gradual increase.

The following table illustrated the Bonuses declared:—

	Actually paid in cash.	Reversionary Bonus.	Average Reversionary Bonus.
1st Division—1845	16,000	per cent.	21 per cent.
2d " 1848	21,000	"	33 "
3d " 1851	28,000	"	50 "

It cannot be too strongly known, that the accumulated funds, to be appropriated and devoted exclusively to the payment of claims, cannot, the Deed of Settlement notwithstanding, any portion of the income of the Life Assurance Fund to be diverted to any interest to the proprietors.

The Encouraging feature of this Company is—a guaranteed return, at any time for the surrender of existing Whole Term Policies, effected by even rates of forty per cent. of the amount of ordinary premiums received thereon.

The objection often raised by persons intending to assure, as to the uncertainty of being able to continue the payment of their premiums, is thus obviated, and a policy holder will always know the value of his policy. Policies will also thus be rendered immediately available as securities.

Loans are granted on deposit of policies of five years' standing, to the extent of their value, thus enabling the holders to provide for the payment of future premiums.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CRIPPLE DETS ARISE AND CASTING ASIDE THE CRUTCHES.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary case effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Solitary Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer confined in his bed, which so completely crippled him that he could not move without crutches for nearly ten years. Recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

(Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HEARTLESS.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Sandy, near Cambridge, dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—About nine years ago, one of my children was affected with a dreadful eruption over the body and limbs. Consulting the advice of several eminent surgeons and physicians, by all of whom the case was considered incurable. At length I at length tried your Ointment and Pills, and without any further aid, the eruption entirely disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously had a child died of similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS DEBILITY AND GENERAL ILLHEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th 1852.

To professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibson, of 21, Bailey-street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill-health, accompanied with a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this she was severely afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In Pills and Ointment she states, that in a wonderfully short time they effected a perfect cure, of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength, and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS, AND ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker & Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies, her health rapidly giving away under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above seventy years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of the really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A Private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means, had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, dear Sir, your's faithfully,

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.

BY JOHN TALLIS & CO., OF LONDON.

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF THE LATE

Duke of Wellington;

By Lieut. Col. Napier, (A Companion-in-Arms, of His Grace.)

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle-Fields of Wellington and his Companions, the Political Life of the Duke and his Contemporaries, and a General account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the Commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time; interspersed with Anecdotes, Personal Incidents and Adventures, etc.

ADDRESS.

The earthly career of Arthur, Duke Wellington has closed; one of the greatest men of modern times has departed, the personal contemporaries of our sires and sire and the sons of parents, are passing and are gone; the Great Contemporaries of the Duke, are arrived at the period of life marked by patriarchs, poetry, and truth—a life marked by patriotism, poetry, and honour, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time. Such a work must appeal to the pride and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton—the glory of his country, the honour of its army and position among the nations—may his deed be remembered as a theorem, are recorded and engraved for the admiration of "the well taught Scholar," and "the deeply imminent Teacher." The immortal talents and the glorious images in which Wellington and his Companions in arms centered amidst hundreds, placed their country's honour and renown on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and ever they rested a wreath from the groves of laurels decorated with the trophies of Italy, Egypt, and Germany.

To supply such a desideratum in English literature, the publishers of The Life and Times of the Duke of Wellington have determined to produce a work which shall present to the reader, not only the dry details which a mere technical sketch would afford, but a comprehensive work, embracing the contemporaneous history of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which brought about the great events in which the Duke and his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected narrative of the lives and actions of the Warriors and statesmen of the nineteenth century; and this from the pen of one who was a companion-in-arms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well-fought field.

In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century, and have shed a lustre upon the history of their country, as representations of the most important engagements by sea and land, from the period of 1799 till 1852; so that the work, when finished, shall furnish illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England.

It has been said well said, "Character is the true strength of a nation; strong are those that inoculate; When the nation shall cease to be the British Queen on ancient Cliffs as the sons of Ocean, Poitiers, Agincourt, Blenheim, Ramillies, Quatre Bras, Malplaquet; of Talavera, Salamanca, Toulouse, Waterloo,—the last boast of the British Empire will struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England. May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feeling.

Conditions of Publication.—The work will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month in Parts at 1s. 3d., and Divisions handsomely bound at 5s 6d. Printed on Imperial 8 vo. double column, each part will be embellished by two highly-finished steel Engravings, and will contain 32 pages of letter-press. A beautiful steel Engraving, 13 by 19 inches, the Storming of Seringapatam, the first victory in which the late Duke of Wellington was engaged in India, to be given to every Subscriber to the Work.
