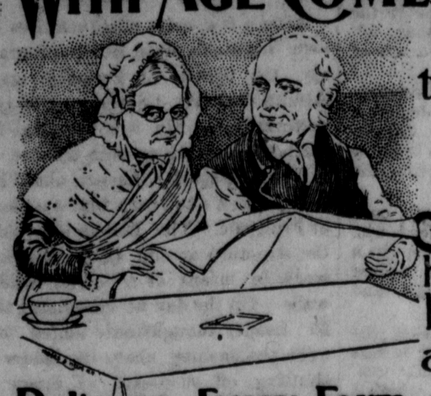
WITH AGE COMES WISDOM



From childhood to ripe old age since 1810.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT has been used by generation after generation

Relieves Every Form of Inflammation for INTERNAL and EXTERNAL use.

Many old couples relate that ever since they were boys and girls together, JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT has been used and grown in favor with them for many family ills from infancy to old age.

I have used Johnson's Anodyne Liniment more than fifty years in my family. For colds, coughs, sore throat, lameness, colic, toothache, etc., have found it always good. THOS. CLELAND, South Robbinston, Me.

I have been a standard bearer more than 50 years for Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. I have found it superior to any other. My grand-children continue to use it to this day. Mrs. WEALTHY L. TOZIER, E. Corinth, Me.

CANADIAN TROOPS DELIGHTED.

OTTAWA, Dec. 2.—The following cable has been received by the governor general from Sir Alfred Milner governor of British South Africa: "Capetown, Dec. 1. Just said good-bye to Canadian contingent—all well and expect to be going to the front.

People here showed in an unmistakable manner their appreciation of the sympathy and help of Canada in their hour of atrial. (Signed) MILNER.

TOTAL MODDER RIVER CASUALTIES.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The official list of the British killed and wounded in the battle of Modder River totals up to 438.

BRITISH ANXIETY RELIEVED.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—As surmised the British dead and wounded at the hard fought battle of Modder River numbered hundreds. Up to two o'clock this afternoon only the bare total 438, of which number 73 were killed has been given out. So it is impossible to deduce from the "Butchers bill" such information regarding the nature of the fight as details as to the losses of the different units generally indicated. From Gen. Forestier Walker's despatch it is proved that all reports of Gen. Methuen's advance after the battle of Modder River were premature, though with the railroad working he should not be long in constructing a temporary bridge. His enforced delay will doubtless be of considerable service in giving his hard pushed column needful rest and in allowing the arrival of reinforcements of which he must be sorely in need, after three such fights, placing hors de Combat upwards of a thousand men out of less than seven thousand.

Gen. Forestier Walker's announcement that the Canadian marksmen and other reinforcements have been pushed forward to the neighborhood of the Orgage River to protect Gen. Methuen's line of communications has relieved much anxiety here, where it was fully exyected the Boers would attempt to attack the vulnerable points of the line of communications.

ITCHING PILES

False modesty causes many people to endure in silence the greatest misery imaginable from itching piles. One application of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment will soothe and ease the itching, one box will completely cure the worst cases of blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles. You have no risk to run for Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles.

THE DOUKHOBORS PROSPEROUS

OTTAWA.—Statistics received at the office of Frank Pedley, superintendent of immigration, show the Doukhobors to be in a very prosperous condition. Already these colonists have repaid the government about 80 per cent of the amount of money represented by agricultural implements, etc., furnished them.

At present there are in the west, 7300 Doukhobor colonists occupying 138 houses and working for 2,336 homesteads. Last season 1,114 acres of ploughing was done.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

General Joubert's death is now confirmed. The Boer Commander-in-chief was struck on the head by a British shell and instantly killed.

ADVANCE ON LADYSMITH.

DURBAN, Nov. 29.—(Delayed in transmission)—A general advance for the relief of Ladysmith has commenced under the direction of General Buller.

SIMILARITY IN SITUATIONS.

The similarity in the military situations at the Modder and Tugela Rivers is remarkable. Each relief column is within twenty miles of the beleaguered garrison, and the river in each case has formed the line of the Boer defence. In each quarter the military operations are concealed from view by a vigorous censorship, but both garrisons are known to be quite safe.

TIRED AND STARVING.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Freres says, under date of Nov. 28

"Hundreds of Gen. Joubert's column are ill. Many having lost their rifles and horses have returned on foot. A few more deserters came in to-day. They say the Boers are tired of the war and are starving."

THE SEVEN BATTLES.

The following table shows the British dead, wounded, and missing in each of the seven battles since the war opened:

KILLED.

Glencoe	48
Elandslaagte	51
Rietfontein	12
Farquhar's Farm	60

Mrs. Hammond, of Orono, Me., has a coon cat which recently displayed considerable intelligence. The cat called at a neighbor's barn and found a wire cag mouse trap into which two mice had found their way. The cat tried to get at them, but finding that he could not he took the trap in his mouth and took it home to get assistance in having the mice relieved so he could get at them.

RAILWAY HORROR.

IN A SMASH-UP AT PATERSON, N. J., SIX PERSONS WERE KILLED, AND OVER TWENTY INJURED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The Buffalo express, east-bound, while waiting outside the depot on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road at the VanWinkle street crossing at Paterson, N. J., to-night, was run into by a swiftly-moving accommodation train, bound from Phillipsburg, N. J., to Jersey City. At least six persons were killed, and there are now twenty injured at the hospital in Paterson, of whom some will probably die, while some of those not seriously injured were able to go to their destination.

The Buffalo express was waiting for a local train to move, that had been delayed at the depot, and the Phillipsburg accommodation was following the express but a short distance behind. The two rear cars of the express were broken to pieces, most of the passengers on them being either killed or injured. The engine of the Phillipsburg train was completely wrecked, the engineer and fireman escaping by jumping.

The local train was No. 7, and it was partly due to its delay that the accident occurred. Apparently the engineer of the Phillipsburg accommodation did not notice that the express drew up some 300 feet west of the depot. The engine plunged into the rear car of the express, a Pullman day coach, and ploughed through the heavy timbers almost its entire length. This car was lifted from the track and pushed on to the next car, also a Pullman, carrying off its end and almost completely telescoping it. The engine of the Phillipsburg train was torn to pieces. The wreckage caught fire, but this was soon extinguished, and in this way those who were pinned down escaped being burned to death. Within a few moments police reserves, firemen and great crowds of people came to the rescue of the terrible tangle of wood and iron. From the wreck came groans and shrieks and prayers for death or deliverance. It was intensely dark at the scene, and as the broken wood was taken out of the wreck it was thrown to the sides of the tracks. Then it was set on fire, to furnish light for the rescuers.

Before the wreckage was attacked there were seen the body of a man hanging half way out of one of the rear windows on one side and the body of a woman hanging from a window on the other side. Both had been in rear seats in the rear car, and when the engine hit the car and tore through it their mangled bodies were crushed through the windows and hung between the sides of the car and the engine.

The rescuers took men and women out of the wreckage in rapid succession, and they were hurried away to the hospitals. In many cases it was necessary to chop away the wreckage about the injured in order to get them out

The complications sometimes caused by the rules of labor unions is illustrated by a case in Chicago where the pier for the new million dollar Marshall Feild building, after being forwarded from Maine and after being put in place, was found to encroach one inch on the street. The Chicago builder proceeded to cut the inch off, when he was informed that unless he stopped and got union men to do the work a general strike would be ordered. Thereupon he secured several members of the Soft Stone Cutters' Union and they went to work. But it appears the pier is of granite and as soon as they heard of it the granite cutters of Maine telegraphed that if the soft stone cutters did not stop there would be a general strike ordered on the granite work being got out for the building in Maine. The soft stone cutters were accordingly stopped, and there for the present the matter rests.

The End is Paralysis.

If the Wasted Nerves are not restored and revitalized by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"A living mind in a dead body" is the way paralysis is sometimes described. What can be more horrible than to lose all control of the body and feel death gradually claiming you for its own?

Sleeplessness, nervousness, headache, loss of energy and vitality, gloomy forebodings, easy fatigue and weakness of the body are symptoms of the nerve exhaustion which will finally end in paralysis, nervous prostration or insanity.

Whether overwork, worry or irregular habits were the cause, restoration can be most effectually brought about by a few months' treatment with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great restorative in pill form.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food instils vital energy into the body, stops the wasting process and gradually but surely builds up the system, creates new nerve force and permanently cures all nervous disorders and weaknesses of men, women and children.

As a restorative its efficacy is unrivalled by any preparation known to science. It restores color to the cheeks, roundness to the form and elasticity to every movement of the body.

A record in shipbuilding has been established at Devonport, Eng. The first class battleship Bulwark, one of the new modified formidable class, the most powerful in the British navy, was ready for launching in seven months after work was begun on her. In that time over 5500 tons of steel have been built into the ship. When completed she will, like her sister ships, displace 15,000 tons; she is 400 feet between perpendiculars and 75 feet beam, and it is intended that her engines shall steam 18 knots an hour.

ERYSIPELAS.

This dangerous Blood Disease always cured by Burdock Blood Bitters.

Most people are aware how serious a disease Erysipelas is. Can't rout it out of the system with ordinary remedies.

Like other dangerous blood diseases, though, B.B.B. can cure it every time.

Read what Rachel Patton, Cape Chin, Bruce Co., Ont., says:

"I wish to state that I used Burdock Blood Bitters for Erysipelas in my face and general run down state of my health. I tried many remedies but all failed to cure. I then tried B.B.B. Two bottles nearly cured me and four bottles completely cured me."
