LAURENCE'S SPECTACLES.

When are Spectacles Required?

When the eyes water or become so fatigued by use as to be obliged to be frequently closed or relieved by viewing different objects

When more light is required than formerly.

When the letters of a book appear to blend with one another or to become double.

When the lamp has to be placed between the eye and the object.

When objects cannot be seen without holding them at an increased distance.

When much difficulty is found in threading a needle.

When the eyes appear confused as though they had a mist before them.

When black specks seem floating in the sight.

When any of the above indications arise all affectation should be laid aside and a pair of Laurences Spectacle's or eye Glasses should be worn immediately.

Good fitting glasses are a great comfort. Our facilities for testing the sight and suiting the age are not surpassed anywhere.—Prices to suit everybody.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

Buildings are going up in Vancouver, B. C., by the score.

Regina reported 104 degrees in the shade on Wednesday last.

In the hands of the weak and the effusive the pen is more dangerous than the sword.

Congressman Le Fevre says that no Congressman can live on his salary and be honest.

A western man has a cyclone cellar which he retires to when his wife commences house cleaning.

In Germany, if false information is given to a newspaper reporter he can collect damages of its author.

It is observed that the marriageable girl of the period talks horse, because it is the language of the groom.

He (on horseback)—Shall we take the highway home? She—No; I would prefer the bridal path, I think.

Speaking of drinking, it may be observed that a man who 'can take it or leave it alone' generally takes it.

According to gastronomic authority, no lobster is fit for use which is not at least ten and a half inches in length.

Shillalahs, they say, are never seen in the hands of Irishmen in Ireland now. It is the tourist who swings the stick.

The Scotch universities are considering the propriety of granting a new degree to be called the 'Schoo-master's Diploma.'

The horrors of war are nothing to the horrors of Neuralgia. Immediately relief may be had by bathing the head with Johnsons Anodyne Liniment and suffering it up the nostrils.

Four cases of smallpox are reported on the Dakota side of the International boundary, range ten, and precautions have been taken to prevent the disease spreading into Manitoba.

Parson's Purgative Pills are a priceless boon to the people of the South and South-west. They effectually prevent fever and ague and all malarial diseases and cost only 25 cents a bottle.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage kept his hat on while preaching at Alexandria Bay on Sunday last, and at the request of the preacher many of his audience did likewise.

BAIRD'S FRENCH OINTMENT cures Itching of the Scalp, or other eruptions thereon, it stimulates the growth of the Hair, a small quantity applied to the head of children keeps them in a clean and healthy condition.

Bishop Hellmuth, formerly of Huron, was married on the 22nd ult. to Mrs Glyn, widow of the Hon. Ashley Carr Glyn, and daughter of the late Admiral Duncombe.

If your child is suffering from Worms, we would recommend you to give at once Dr. McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup, it is not only a safe and effectual remedy, but an exceedingly pleasant one.

Superintendent Perry, of the Mounted Police, and 75 men have left Batoche for the south, owing to trouble between the police and American Indians along the boundary.

Compelled to Yield.

Obstinate skin diseases, humors of the blood, eruptions and old sores are cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, which purify and regulate all the secretions.

To use a Hibernianism, if King Ludwig had only lived to see the awful caricatures that had been published in the newspapers as his pictures, he would have been glad to die.

Five Years of Torture.

Mrs. U. Aston, of Bracebridge, writes to say that Burdock Blood Bitters cured her of headaches, from which she had suffered for five years, all other means having failed.

The fat man in a Georgia museum fell through the second storey of the building to the ground, spreading himself over so much space that he was literally wider than he was tall.

Easly Cured.

Mrs. Berkinshaw, 26 Pembroke St., Toronto, cured of a bad lameness of the knee joint, upon which the surgeons were about to operate. Other treatment had been tried in vain. Hagyard's Yellow Oil was the remedy used.

It would be hard to picture the horror of the girl upon whose summer hat a humming bird glistens when she was told that in order to preserve its sheen and glimmer the little victim had been skinned while alive.

After Twenty-Three Years Suffering.

Rev. Wm. Stout, of Wiarton, was cured of scrofulous abscess that seventeen doctors could not cure. Burdock Blood Bitters was the only successful remedy. It cures all impurities of the blood.

An animal trainer, who had broken in zebras, leopards, lions, and tigers, says that the most difficult animals to train are cats. When a performing cat is secured the manager realises that he has obtained a rare prize.

A Midnight Alarm.

There is scarcely any fright more alarming to a mother than the ominous sound of croup—so liable at the hour of night. When Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam (for the throat and lungs) is at hand, croup and distressing coughs lose half their terrors. It cures coughs, asthma and bronchitis.

A luminous cement is now made in England, and may be used for ceilings, at the ends of bridges, along paths and roads, and wherever the sunlight may, during the day, excite the phosphorescent quality of the material, and make it glow at night.

A Golden Opinion.

Mrs. Wm. Allan, of Acton, declares that Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best household remedy in the world for colds, croup, sore throat, burns, scalds and other painful complaints. Her opinion is well founded.

Paris, Ky., is to have a Confederate monument, 40 feet high and 10 feet square at the base. It will cost $2,000 and $1,000 in funds has already been subscribed. On it will be the inscription:—"No nation rose so white and fair; none fell so pure of crime."
