The Papal Envoy, M. Kogman, arrived at Versailles on the 12th inst. with important despatches from the Pope to Bismarck and the King. It is reported that the King promised the Pope to restore to him his temporal powers as soon as the present war ends.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—Heavy fighting continue along the Loire. A despatch from Tours, says:—The Prussians attacked Gen. Chauzy's corps in great force near Blois, on Wednesday, the 14th, about noon when a severe engagement began which lasted several hours. The German forces were superior in numbers, but the French troops fought desperately, and after a bloody fight succeeded in breaking the enemy's lines. The success was quickly followed by a brilliant charge along the entire line, when the Germans, after a stubborn resistance, finally yielded and fell back to the line of fortifications in the rear. The repulse of the superior number of the Prussians has caused great rejoicing among the French troops. Since the action of Wednesday, Gen Chauzy has been largely reinforced, and has again assumed the offensive.—Great enthusiasm prevails upon the people of Southern France, and thousands of recruits are steadily pouring in from all quarters, who are immediately sent forward to the armies of General Chauzy and Bourbaki. The first army, under Gen. Bourbaki, is holding the Germans in check in the vicinity of Romoruntin. The armies of the Loire are claimed to be stronger and in better condition than ever before.

BORDEAUX, Dec. 17.—The Prussians did not attack Chauzy yesterday, as expected. The forces under Chauzy have received heavy reinforcements It is understood now that four Generals are commanding the main divisions of the army of the Loire. Chauzy, Bourbaki, Jaures and Jaureziburg have concentrated plans for a simultaneous advance, all having been largely reinforced. The Germans are retreating all along the Army of the Loire.

A despatch from Lille, evening of the 16th, says it is rumored that another sortie has been made from Paris, which accounts for the rapid withdrawal of German forces from this region. The French came out from behind their fortifications in immense force, and have already completely invested Versailles. Fighting is now going on in direction of Albert and Abbeville.

VERSAILLES, Dec. 13.—The German accounts of the recent sorties evade the truth. Ducrot was entirely successful as far as he went. He held the Peninsula of St. Maur against the German attempts to recover it, and retired voluntarily after ascertaining the failure of Paladines. The German leaders are uneasy on account of their line being weakened, and fear the success of a massed sortie. The demand for the bombardment of Paris is great. Three councils of war have been held. Von Moltke fears the formation of a large army in the South, it being further away and more difficult in reaching it—He is unwilling to allow Frederick Charles to go too far from Paris.

BISMARCK SCHEMING TO OVERTHROW REPUBLIC.

Bismarck is pressing energetically a political movement to destroy the Republican Government. Peace is absolutely necessary, and he is ready to make a coalition with the Emperor or any other representative who is willing and able to make terms. It is reported that submission of the English Government to Bismarck's overbearing demands in regard to Luxemburg has intensified the indignation against the Ministry. Granville, it is said, opposed this humiliation.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—Dates from Paris to the 13th state that the active army in the field is in good health and spirits, well fed and 200,000 strong. Preparations are making for another sortie on a large scale. Some of the theatres have been reopened, as it is believed performances will have a beneficial effect, and will relieve the monotony of life. Goods are plentiful and street cabs numerous. Fresh meat, eggs, fish and poultry are gone, but the supply of horse meat will last two months; of bread, wine and cheese four months, and of salt meats and salt fish two months. Trochu has taken possession of all the food and wines and the population are now supplied by the military commissariat, the same as soldiers. The surrender of the city is unthought of. The reverses at Orleans have not disturbed the popularity of Paladines. His army did good service by depleting the force of the besiegers. Every Parisian is armed and the city can hold out three months longer without any great suffering. The mortality is large, but not enough to create alarm. There are no epidemics, and there are no deaths from starvation or want. The outside works have been pushed forward, which has compelled the enlargement of the line of investment, and consequently made the enemy weaker in the field. From the works marksmen command roads formerly out of range. The German positions have been enormously strengthened, but they feel the scarcity of men.

A despatch from Versailles, of the 19th inst., says no effective guns are mounted and the bombardment of Paris will not commence before the 1st of January. The guns now mounted are useless. Another despatch gives a new explanation of the delay in opening the bombardment by the Prussians. There is a lack of ammunition in the German army, and the roads are so rough and heavy that none can be bought at present. The same cause has prevented the movement of heavy guns. It is probably that a fire will not be opened for a fortnight yet.

Still another despatch from Versailles, on the 14th inst., says the delay in the bombardment of Paris was caused partly by a quarrel between Gens. Blumenthal and Von Roon.—The latter wished the use of army horses to bring up the guns, while the former insisted that it was impossible to spare them. Von Roon finally yielded, and 4000 horses are now coming from Germany to drag the seige guns from the railway terminus. The condition of the roads is fearful. Food is very scarce in the German camps, and some of the troops have been without meat three days.

The French garrison at Belfort still makes a gallant defence. The neighboring heights have all been captured by the Germans, but not without suffering considerable loss. The French losses in these preliminary engagements were comparatively light. The German position has greatly improved lately.

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—King William has issued an order to the German troops in which he says, "We are about to enter upon a new phase of the war. All the attempts of the enemy to break the investment of Paris have been in vain. Several French armies have advanced for the relief of Paris, but all have been repulsed by the indomitable skill and bravery of the German troops. Should France persist in continuing the struggle, soldiers of Germany will evince the same ardor that has characterized their adhesion to the Prussian cause throughout the war, until peace is secured."

Advices received here state another German army, numbering one hundred and fifty thousand men, is about to cross the Rhine into France. The destination of this army is at present unknown.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The King of Holland peremptorily refuses to cede the Duchy of Luxembourg to Prussia.

It is said King William will make no further advances unless Luxembourg openly supports France. He has telegraphed to Luxemburg to that effect.

A monster meeting of sympathisers with the Pope was held at Thurles last evening.

Speeches were made and resolutions adopted in which opinions were strongly expressed that Great Britain should defend the interests of her Catholic subjects now menaced at Rome.

The French army has again been defeated on the Loire, but no particulars have been received.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—At the meeting yesterday the Cabinet considered the Luxembourg question, and came to the conclusion not to take any steps to drevent Prussia from occupying the territory, reserving for further consideration the steps to be taken in case of its forcible annexation.

The opinion strengthens that Prussia will take Luxembourg and Holland instead of Alsace and Lorraine, and that the war will end with the restoration of the Empire.

A balloon with ten passengers and 200 pounds of letters descended on the 15th at Herborn in Nassau.

Paris seems disposed to fight on to the bitter end.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The English Cabinet has decided not to do anything in case Luxembourg is occupied by force, but will inquire into the violation of neutrality of which it is alleged that power has been guilty.

It is also rumored that Brunswick is to be annexed to the Confederation.

Russia supports the demands of Prussia.

The French were driven from Vendome on Friday.

A Tours despatch announces the repulse of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg's army by Gen. Chaucey.

The "Psyche," of the British Expedition, foundered in the Mediterranean. Every one on board and the scientific instruments were saved.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The Germans have evacuated Amiens. They retired towards Clermont, but announced their intention to return soon.

The Germans are reported to have captured Ham in the department of Somme.

Parliament meets on the 8th of February, when the army and navy estimates will be instantly submitted.

The Queen has gone to Osborne.

BORDEAUX, Dec. 18.—The Prussians leaving the Valley of Char, and concentrating on the Loire, again attacked Gen. Chaucey, but were repulsed.

Nearly a thousand Kabyle horsemen have been landed at Toulon, and will join the French armies.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Observer says that Granville's dispatch to Bismarck expresses the hope that Prussia will abstain from the enforcement of her theories, and will frame amicable arrangements.

A Protestant meeting will be held in London soon, to denounce Gladstone's recent declaration concerning the Pope.

Two prominent members of the north German Parliament, for their anti-war acts, have been arrested on the charge of high treason, by order of Bismarck.

The 10th Prussian Corps, on occupying Vendome, Friday, captured six guns and a mitrailleuse.

Next day, Von der Tann took Epinzay with 250 prisoners.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Prospects of peace are looking much improved this morning. It is thought, in Berlin, and Frankfort that the peace basis proposed by the neutrals, with some amendments, will probably soon be adopted.

Military movements in the field continue active, and the French are evidently endeavouring to concentrate. One of the German armies is falling back before Bourbaki.

Later advices have been received from Paris. There has been no fighting around the city since December 1. The people of Paris had received news from the outside world up to the 11th. The soldiers and citizens were undismayed. The public order was perfect and stores ample for several months.

LONDON, Oct 20.—A despatch from Madrid states that from all points in Spain there is a determined opposition to Aosta, and that there is every indication that his reighn shall be short.

A severe parliamentary conflict is going on at Florence in regard to the future state of the Pontiff.

The French forces attacked by General Werder at Nuits, were in large numbers, and held a strong position.

The Germans captured 6000 prisoners, together with the town.

The French were pursued southward.

On Monday a French force of 10,000 strong had been defeated at Poiseday and Fontenelle.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Paris advices are to 17th. The army and citizens continued calm, resolute and confident of success. There had been no disorders whatever.

The first despatches announcing the German victory at Nuits on Friday were exaggerated. The number of prisoners captured was 600 only instead of 6,000 as at first reported.

Gen. Manteuffel is again marching on Havre. This time with a much larger force than before. The French report that they have taken measures to resist.

LATEST.—An engagement is reported to have already occurred at Baltec only 17 miles from Havre, in which the French were victorious and the Prussian advance checked.

Advices from Spain indicate a civil war if the Italian Prince is crowned King.

TRUTHFUL EXPERIENCE.—Few persons are so favored by circumstance or so fortified by nature as to enable them to pass unscathed the sore trials of our inclement seasons. With influenza, coughs, and lung complaints everywhere abounding, it should be universally known that Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam checks the worst assault of these maladies, and secures the patient against the grave and more dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. The truth of this assertion must remain unquestioned in the faces of hundreds of "right at home," unimpeachable, living attestors who have personally derived the utmost possible benefit from this wonderful remedy, when their future prospects proved most dishcartening.

A single spark will kindle a flame that will consume a city, and small ailments, neglected, may end in fatal disorders. Bearing this fact in mind, let the first symptoms of debility or nervous prostration be met promptly with Dr. Wilson's Anti-Bilious and Preserving Pills. They improve the appetite, and also promote digestion that a large and strengthening supply of new materials is thrown into the blood after every meal, whereby fresh vigor and activity is bestowed on every organ, and ability to resist disease is conferred upon the system. No medicine equals these Pills for removing biliousness, suppressing nausea, and acting as mild and effective aperients.

It is allowed by farmers, and all who have used it, that Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment is decidedly the best application for horses of any now in use, and is attended with surprising results. Besides its great and extraordinary powers in the cure of diseases of the horse, in which its virtues first attracted the attention of farriers, farmers, and the public generally, it has been successfully employed in a great variety of maladies which affect the human race. It has proved itself as possessing curative properties not found in other horse pills, which has established its claim to general confidence.

CURE FOR HEAVES.—A country merchant writes: "One of my neighbors procured from me one package of Clark's Derby Condition Powders. He gave it to a horse that was suffering from a cough, that would, if neglected, undoubtedly have become a confirmed case of heaves, and in the course of one week, to his utter astonishment, the horse was entirely well. I think that all inward diseases of horses may be cured by these excellent powders.

If your horse is lame, sore or galled, you should use "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment;" wash the part with castile soap and warm water, rub dry, with a clean cloth, then apply the Liniment, rub in well with the hand.

Have the readers of the Christian Visitor, ever used any of "Parson's Purgative Pills?" If not, why not? they are the best family physic, besides being the greatest anti-bilious remedy there is in this Country.

Messrs. B. L. JUDSON & Co.

GENTS: It is with great pleasure I write these few lines, not only as a recommendation, but as I feel a very great benefit derived from taking your Worm Candy (Dead Shot). I have suffered much for 10 years past, tried many medicines, been under treatment of physicians in this city, but all to no avail. I felt a gnawing sensation in my bowels, sleepless nights, and very nervous. I have now taken about ten sticks, and quite a number of tape worms, one several yards long, has come from me. I continue taking it, feeling quite a new man, my sensations quite different; and I recommend the same to the community at large, feeling confident, from practical experience, it is the best eradicator of worms in use.

Yours most respectfully,
DAVID GALER.

M'KENZIE'S DEAD SHOT WORM CANDY

for sale by all Medicine dealers, at 15 cents per package.

HOW TRUE and how strange, that people should seek relief in the hieroglyphics of a doctor's prescription when they can buy as good, and nine times out of ten a better remedy than most doctors give, for the insignificant sum of 25 cents. We refer to Morse's Indian Root Pills, these pills cure Headache, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Female Irregularities, and all bilious disorders, they are prepared from a formula pronounced by the most learned Physicans of our country to be the best and most universal of family medicines. Give them a fair trial and you will never be without Morse's Indian Root Pills. Sold by all dealers.

In numbers there is safety, it is upon this principle that the formula of Johnson's Mountain Herb Pills was prepared. It was not the result of one man's knowledge. Dr. Judson, intending to spend a fortune in advertising his Pills, consulted the most intelligent and learned physicans of the age, and the result was the production of a simple but efficacious medicine the Judson's Mountain Herb Pills. These pills cure Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Indigestion, Female Irregularities, &c. They have now been used many years by the Public, and thousands of testimonials bear witness to their virtues. As a family medicine they are unrivalled. Give the Mountain Herb Pills a trial. Sold by all dealers

TO THE ELECTORS OF WESTMORLAND!

GENTLEMEN,—At the request of many friends I am again a Candidate for your suffrages. I much regret that, owing to the near approach of election, and my professional engagements, it will be impossible to visit all at their homes; but, should I be honored by your confidence, you may be assured that the local interests of every section of the County shall receive my personal and most earnest attention. As your representative, I shall, by the strictest economy in the administration of the Government and expenditure of the public money, and by every other available means, endeavor to secure the opening up and settlement of public lands, and increased appropriations for the great and bye roads, and shall also, to the best of my ability, faithfully and independently discharge the duties entrusted to me, and at all times use my best exertions well to guard and secure the rights of our people, and advance, in every way, the educational and other material interests of my native County, and the Province in general.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
D. L. HANINGTON.
