A FREE SUMMER COURSE AT THE BIBLE INSTITUTE.

An unusual opportunity is offered the coming season by the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, for the study of the Bible and practical methods of Christian work including instruction in music,—all this without expense for entrance fee or tuition.

These advantages given without charge are in harmony with the broad spirit of the founder, D. L. Moody, who so freely incited all Christians to come together to benefit by the helpful teaching of the prominent Bible lecturers whom he had engaged from time to time.

The training in this Special Summer Course which begins June 4th, is intended for pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and all Christian Workers, for college students and teachers on vacation, for people of leisure who desire to know more of the Bible, as well as those who have heard the call of God to devote themselves to His service in the home and foreign fields, as He may lead them.

The courses are open to all, both men and women alike.

Separate dormitories are provided. Pastors with their wives are accommodated in the Men's Building.

The expense attending the Summer Course is for board and room only. Accommodations in the buildings for those who take the entire work are as low as $3 50 a week. The Institute buildings are centrally located in Chicago. Further information furnished upon application to R. A. Torrey, 80 Institute Place, Chicago, Ill.

In the Sella Pass, in the Dolomite Mountains, above Bozen, three women from Fassa lost their way in the snowstorm, and were found frozen together in a stone-like group. They had to be laid on a sledge together and dragged into the valley, and thawed before a great fire, before they could be separated for burial.

LITERARY NOTES

The Hundredth Number of the Canadian Magazine is a fine piece of artistic printing. Three score of literary publications have been started in Canada, and only two or three survive The chief of these is the Canadian Magazine. Its cover pictures a stalwart young man having just completed the chiselling on a statue of the figures '100' There are a number of general articles and stories such as, A Canadian in China; 'A Canadian Negro V. C., Robert Grant Haliburton; The number contains 108 pages of reading matter and seventy illustrations, and is something which may be treasured by patriotic and educated citizens.

The Century for June is a College Number, the opening paper being on 'Working One's Way Through College' Timeliest of the magazine's contents is the paper on 'The Young Men's Christian Association in Europe,' with special reference to the relations thereto of the American Y. M. C. A., which celebrates this month its semi-centennial. Mr. Carnegie's 'Gospel of Wealth' is made the text of an editorial on 'Multimillionaires in Thinking Caps.' Space is lacking to enumerate in full the poems and stories and pictures in this crowded number.

The Methodist Magazine and Review for June contains ten illustrated articles. Conspicuous among these are 'Student Life at Heidelberg,' 'Our Prison Problem,' describing life in the Kingston Penitentiary; 'The Commonwealth of Caribbea,' urging the consolidation of the British West Indies, Honduras, and British Guiana; 'Salt Lake City,' 'Charles Wesley,' and other interesting and attractive papers. The fifty-fourth volume, beginning with the July number, will have several illustrated articles. Now is a good time to subscribe. Toronto: William Briggs. $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

'The Winning War against Consumption' is the title of an article contributed by Sylvester Baxter to the Review of Reviews for June. Mr. Baxter shows what has been done in this and other countries by way of providing sanatoria for the "pure-air" treatment of tuberculosis, without resort to mild climates.

It is a touching tale, as well as an amusing one, that opens St. Nicholas for June. 'The Prodigal Imp' is a boy who runs away from home because he has nothing more exciting than kittens to keep. 'The Fireman' is the hero of the current chapter on Careers of Danger and Daring.' Wild Flowers I Have Known'—the Dog-Wood, the Tiger-Lily, the Dand-Lion, etc.,—are sung in humerous verse, with illustrations.

Africa is the subject of three articles in The Missionary Review of the World for June. The leading article is by the editor, Dr. Pierson, who tells the inspiring story of some of the prominent "Converts of the Missionary Century," There are other timely readable articles. The departments are worthy of note. Published monthly by Funk & Wagnalls Company, 30 Lafayette Place, New York. $2 50 a year.

HANDSOME LABELS:—The new labels designed by T. H. Estabrooks the St. John Tea Importer and Blender for Red Rose Tea packages, are the handsomest Tea labels on the market. He recently received a million and a half of these labels.

CANADIANS have no conception of the determination with which the Roman Catholic priests oppose the entrance of the Bible into Brazil. The Bible Society Record says; "It is war to the knife against the Bible Nothing stirs the priest up so. Spiritualistic works are often met with, atheistic papers and books may find a rest under the very shadow of the church, and even Protestant journals are tolerated; but the Bible. the hatred Bible, is hunted out, and detroyed as if it were the essence of all that is evil"

The real estate held by the Religious Orders in France is estimated by the government at about $220,000,000.

The best man is the one most liable to think best of his fellowmen. Thought is the source of character. As one thinks he may not always do, but such he certainly is sure to be.

DANGEROUS.

Satisfaction with one's self is always a dangerous symptom whether it appears in the pastor, the teacher, or in the church at large. If we have done well we may go on and do better. Present attainment should simply serve as stepping stones to higher things.—Canadian Baptist.

IN NO INSTANCE DID I FIND A MISSTATEMENT IN PROSPECTUS OF THE

UNION CONSOLIDATED OIL CO

The above report was made to Canadian Shareholders by F. B. Dunn of Dunn Bros. Pork Exporters, St. John, N. B., a merchant of high rating who personally inspected the properties.

The Stock is now $25.00 per 100 shares par value. $1.00 per share paid and non-assessable, and we confidently expect it to advance to par.

With less than 2.000 acres developed out of 20,000 acres, sufficient income is being derived to carry on operations, pay monthly dividends equal 4-5 of one per cent on present selling price, and place in bank for extra dividends $2.000 per month.

We now have 12 producing wells, and every prospect of many more at an early date.

As new wells are opened, income for dividends and value of property will largely increase.

Fullest particulars gladly sent. Apply to
