LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Last Wednesday evening Burpee and Tedlie, the enterprising managers of our moving picture house gave their patrons a corking feature film and a Charlie Chaplin comedy "The Immigrant" in two reels and a special bit of vaudeville in El-Vol-To, a real bit of humanity who could give such a marked resemblance to a mechanical toy, that it was just hard to detect whether or not it was a real husky George or Percy, my mechanism man. Thisafforded much interest and curiosity to the people present on Saturday night. William Farnum in "A Soldier's Oath" left nothing to be desired and a Mutt and Jeff comedy "Training Woodpeckers" rounded out a well balanced bill.

B. B. Estabrooks and B. E. Cliff were in Woodstock on Friday.

Mrs. W. R. Harold left on Saturday for Plaster Rock to spend the week-end with her daughter, Miss Mary Harold.

Wm. Kennedy and F. D. Tweedie of Woodstock were in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Arthur Burpee of Woodstock visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Burpee on Friday.

David Reid, who spent the winter months in Lynn, Mass., is home for the summer.

A number of young friends of Miss Roxie Jameson gathered at her home on Friday evening and tendered her with a shower. She is to be one of the participants in a very happy event this week.

Among town improvements this week we note a new concrete platform the full length of the hotel front and a new verandah at the Baptist parsonage.

A number of candidates from here attended the institution of the new Eastern Star Chapter at East Florenceville on Thursday evening. The proceedings were held in the Masonic Hall which has been donated for use to the sister organization. The ceremony was in charge of Deputy Grand Patron, J. A. Jerguson of Somerville, Mass., assisted by the degree staff from Victoria chapter, Woodstock. Following the work of institution the whole assembly were sumptuously banqueted and all wished the new chapter away to a good start.

Charles Wilkinson was in Woodstock on Thursday.

Mrs. Alice White has gone to St. Stephen for a visit with relatives.

Miss Esther Weade, R. N., of Lawrence, Mass., will return home on Friday of this week after a vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harold.

C. Dickinson of Waterville spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jameson.

The members of the L. O. L. held an arch meeting and banquet on Thursday evening.

H. S. Shanks of Blaine, Me., is stopping at the Kennedy House.

Miss Annie MacKay went to Lakeville on Monday.

F. Joe Estabrooks returned from St. John on Thursday.

On June 25, Rev. H. R. Bell will preach as follows: Centreville, 11 a. m. and 7.30 p.m.; Carvell 3 p.m. Morning subject: "Ittai the Gittite." Evening subject: "Has God a financial plan for raising money for His church? You are cordially invited to come and hear these important themes. Special music at both services.

SUCCESS OF A CENTREVILLE GIRL

At Bryn Mawr College on June 8, Miss Vera Lee Brown, daughter of Dr. Frank Brown and Mrs. Brown, of Centreville, received the degree of doctor of philosophy. Miss Brown has had a most brillian literary career. In 1912 she received the degree of B. A. at McGill University and the following year was made master of arts. In 1913-14 she was a graduate scholar in history at Bryn-Mawr College, and president's European fellow in 1914-15, graduate scholar and fellow by courtesy in history 1914-15, assistant to professor of history McGill University, 1912-13; assistant to the warden of Pembroke Hall, 1916; sessional lecturer department of history, McGill University, 1916-20; private research work at public record office and British Museum, London, 1920-21; graduate student in history, Bryn-Mawr College, 1921-22; subjects, history and politics. Dr. and Mrs. Brown were present at the commencement exercises at Bryn-Mawr when their distinguished daughter received her degree of doctor of philosophy. Mrs. Gilmor Brown, Chipman Hill, is an aunt of Miss Brown. New Brunswick is proud to claim so talented a lady as one of its citizens.

BRISTOL BREVITIES

Mrs. James Boyer and daughter visited relatives at Beechwood last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rogers, Miss Zelda Wood and Mr. Hovey motored to Grand Falls Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Lovely and children of Wapske are visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Dyer.

A bad accident occured on Saturday morning when Ass and Claude Bell on a bicycle were run into by Guy Welch with his car. Ass had his leg broken and was taken at once to the Woodstock hospital while his brother was badly shaken up. Mr. and Mrs. Welch were just starting to Fredericton while the Bell boys were coming down a hill from their home and it seems neither party saw each other until too late to avoid a collision.

Mrs. A. W. Phillips, Mrs. Geo. Caldwell, Mrs. H. N. Banks and Mrs. E. R. Marich motored to Hartland Friday and attended Mrs. Harvey Annett's reception.

DEATH OF SAMUEL R. HAYDEN

At his home at Riley Brook on June 18, the death occurred of Samuel R. Hayden, one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of the Tobique river. Mr. Hayden had been ill for several years from heart trouble. He is survived by his wife, who was a daughter of the late George DeWitt, and by five daughters—Mrs. James Plummer of Hartland; Mrs. John Quinn of Riley Brook; Mrs. David Alton of Oxbow; Mary and Edith at home, and by three sons—Frank of Waterville; James and Ralph at home. All the family were at his bedside when he died. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. J. H. Sharpe of Gratton, and one brother, Charles Hayden of Burnt Land Brook. Mr. Hayden was 61 years of age, and was born at Hartland. He was a son of the late Samuel Hayden, one of the earliest pioneer settlers. He is well known throughout Carleton and Victoria counties. In Riley Brook he was a very prosperous farmer, and later kept an inn, catering largely to lumbermen in fall and winter, and to sportsmen during the season. The funeral was held at his late home, Rev. S. Burton Long of Arthurette conducting the service. The text was from II Cor. 5:1.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness to us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father.

THE REWARD OF CARELESSNESS

Many fine homes have been lost by lightning, merely because rodding was one of the things their owners were going to do "some day." Loss of your home may be the reward of similar carelessness.

The Dodd System of Lightning Protection makes loss by lightning IMPOSSIBLE and is GUARANTEEED in writing.

THE COST? Nothing compared with the possible saving.

Call, write or telephone me about it at once and I will arrange to fix you up with the old and reliable Dodd & Struthers System.

Terms to suit you.
