DR. FONTAINE'S
Balm of a Thousand Flowers,
For the Toilet, the Nursery, for Bathing and many Medicinal purposes;
HIGHLY perfumed by its own ingredients: recommended by the Faculty of almost every European city, and established under the patronage of almost every Physician in London and Paris, and thousands of individuals, who make daily use of it in New-York, Philadelphia and Boston. It is the greatest luxury a lady or gentleman could wish for the improvement of health, for comfort and personal embellishment, and its delicate soothing sensation, and the delightful softness it imparts to the complexion.
We give a few of the prominent properties of the
already well established by actual experience.
FIRST:
This Balm remedies every defect of the complexion,
and establishes in its stead Beauty and Health, at the time when both, by the changes of age, or freaks of nature, or disease, have been obscured or undermined—it cleanses the skin, and draws to the surface all impurities, and every species of pimples and blotches; also removes tan, sunburns, sallowness, and freckles, imparting to the skin its original purity, and an unsurpassed freshness, rendering it clear, smooth, and white.
SECOND:
It promotes the growth and increase of the Hair—causing it to curl in the most natural manner.
It cleanses the head from dandruff, giving vigor, health and life to the very roots of the hair.
THIRD:
It is a superior article for Shaving, being superior to all descriptions of Soaps, Creams, Pastes, &c.
As a Dentrifice for Cleansing the Teeth, it is by far the most medicinal of any compound yet discovered, preventing decay, relieving pain, ulcers and cankers, and renders the teeth white as alabaster. For bathing, for suffering infants, and for adults, to promote sweetness of body, cleanliness, health and strength, and to prevent eruptions, &c., there is no article more suitable than this BALM. It may be used in cold or warm, hard or soft water.

POETRY.

WHAT IS A YEAR?

What is a year? 'Tis but a wave
On life's dark rolling stream,
Which is so quickly gone that we
Account it but a dream.
'Tis but a single earnest throb
Of Time's old iron heart,
Which tireless now and strong as when
It first with life did start.

What is a year? 'Tis but a turn
Of Time's old brazen wheel—
Or but a page upon the book
Which death must shortly seal.
'Tis but a step upon the road
Which we must travel o'er;
A few more steps and we shall walk
Life's weary road no more.

What is a year? 'Tis but a breath
From Time's old nostrils blown,
As rushing onward o'er the earth,
We hear his weary moan.
'Tis like the bubble on the wave,
Or dew upon the lawn—
As transient as the mists of morn
Beneath the summer sun.

What is a year? 'Tis but a type
Of life's oft changing scene;
Youth's happy morn comes gaily on
With hills and valleys green.
Next Summer's prime succeeds the Spring,
Then Autumn with a tear;
Then comes old Winter—death, and all
Must find their level here.

MASONIC BALL AT CARLETON, AND PRESENTATION OF BANNERS.

A Ball and Supper was given by the W. Master and Brethren of the Carleton Union Lodge, No. 767, on the Registry of the Grand Lodge of England, at the Masonic Hall in Carleton, on Tuesday evening the 23rd December. The Hall was tastefully ornamented throughout. The Lodge Room, in which the dancing took place, was furnished and decorated in beautiful and characteristic style. The interest of this party was much enhanced by the ceremony of presenting the new banners to Union Lodge by a young lady, which was announced for an early hour in the evening. Shortly after eight o'clock, when the fair Sisterhood, accompanied by the Brethren and their guests, had finished the usual Masonic Promenade, Miss Mosher (the orphan daughter of the late Brother Ira Mosher, of Albion Lodge, No. 570) was led into the room by a Past Master of Albion, supported by the Wardens of Union, and followed by two Stewards bearing the new banners, furled. The party was received by the W. Master and Brethren, formed in an oblong hollow square, with the customary honors, which Miss Mosher duly acknowledged, bowing gracefully on either side as she approached the dais which had been prepared for her at the head of the room, on the right of the Master's pedestal.

The Stewards having taken their proper places, after an interval of a few moments, Miss Mosher rose from her seat, and in a clear voice, and with much grace of delivery, addressed the Master and Brethren as follows:—

It is with no ordinary degree of gratification, Worshipful Sir, and Gentlemen, that I accept the pleasing duty which you, the Brethren of Carleton Union Lodge, have assigned to me on this occasion. The orphan daughter of a Freemason who was zealously attached to his order, I find myself the object of your consideration and respect; and I feel that I do but pay a just tribute to the memory of my father, in according to the venerable institution of which he was a member my unfeigned and willing regard.

I perceive you are familiar on the mysteries which the wounded spirit.

With these sentiments and impressions, I shall only further add, that in thus confiding these banners to your care, the earnest wishes of my heart for your continued prosperity and usefulness accompany the act.

The banners, which are of the richest silk, and edged with gold fringe and bullion tassels, were then unfurled, and placed in the hands of the Stewards appointed by the Master to receive them. A flourish from the orchestra announced the moment of presentation.

The W. Master then replied:—

MISS MOSHER,—On behalf of Carleton Union Lodge, I have to offer you my most grateful acknowledgments, as well for the flattering compliment bestowed in the part you have taken in this ceremony, as for the agreeable terms in which you have expressed your favour and good will toward our ancient institution.

As the orphan daughter of a Freemason, you are indeed justly entitled to our consideration and respect for to the Masonic heart the widow's prayer and the orphan's tear never appeal in vain. But in the present instance it affords me peculiar satisfaction to assure you that these feelings are greatly enhanced by the early acquaintance and long familiar intercourse with you, which most of the Brethren of this Lodge have enjoyed.

You have been good enough to allude to some of the duties which, as Masons, we are bound to exercise. For these we claim no individual merit; they are performed in obedience to the principles and dictates of our Order; and if they procure favourable opinions towards our time-honoured institution, we are amply repaid.

In accepting these new and beautiful banners at your hands, permit me to declare that it will afford us no little pride and pleasure hereafter to associate their acquisition with your name and the recollection of this auspicious evening; and that our sincerest aspir
