[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

FEB. 27.—The "At Home" given on Thursday last at "Farriline Place," Government House, by the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Fraser far surpassed all like events of the season; over five hundred invitations had been issued, out of which three hundred were present; in the early hours the crush was very great, especially so in the tea room.

After the presentations had all been made a dance, taking the form of a bonnet-hop was much enjoyed and amid dancing, music and bright conversation the hour for departure arrived all too soon.

Mrs. Fraser received her guests in an elegant gown of heliotrope Irish poplin, with trimmings of royal cardinal velvet and irridesent bead trimmings and natural flowers.

Miss Fraser wore a lovely costume of pale lilac corded silk, with lace embroidered chiffon and pearls.

Miss Clara Fisher, black and white striped satin with white lace.

Most of the ladies wore elaborate visiting costumes and nearly all had dainty little flower bonnets or fancy headdres s.

The invited guests were, the Bishop of Fredericton and Mrs. Kingdon, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. and the Misses Maunsell, Major and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. T. C.
