St. John, October 21, 1800.

TO LET,

READY Furniſhed Rooms, conſiſting of two Parlours and Kitchen, in a central ſituation.—Apply to the Printer. St. John, October 3, 1800.

A. GOODALE,

Merchant-Taylor and Habit Maker,
FROM BOSTON.

BEGS leave moſt reſpectfully to offer his ſervices to the Inhabitants of this City and its vicinity in the line of his buſineſs, and flatters himſelf by a ſtrict attention to the commands of his employers to merit a ſhare of the Public patronage.

HE has opened his ſhop in King-ſtreet, in the houſe of Mrs. PATTULLO, and has on hand a few pieces of excellent Cloths and Caſſimeres, and expects by the ſpring ſhips from London to be furniſhed with a neat ſupply in addition thereto, with every article in his line—Thoſe who pleaſe to favor him with their cuſtom, may calculate on the utmoſt ſatisfaction being given them.

GENTLEMEN from the Country will be ſerved with punctuality and diſpatch.—Garments not made to ſuit, will be immediately replaced.

October 28, 1800.

FOR SALE,

THAT Valuable FARM, in Suſſex-Vale, the property of the Subſcriber, conſiſting of 200 acres, about 30 of which are intervale, and a large quantity of upland cleared, and under improvement.—There are on the premiſes a commodious Dwelling Houſe, two ſtories high, the lower ſtory built of ſtone, and an excellent never failing ſpring of water near the door—a good Barn, Stable, and other out houſes, and a convenient ſtone building, now occupied as a ſhoemaker's ſhop—a great quantity of timber and firewood, &c.—the ſituation is near the College, is remarkably healthy and pleaſant and commands a moſt beautiful proſpect. The Farm will be ſold with or without the Stock as may beſt ſuit the purchaſer, conſiſting of Horſes, Cows, Oxen, Sheep, Hogs, &c. &c. with a moſt excellent ſet of farming utenſils.—Terms of Sale are favorable, for which, and other particulars, apply to

JASPER BELDING,
On the Premiſes.

FOR SALE,

THE ESTATE or FARM of ROBERT SCOTT of Saliſbury, Eſquire, on the Petticodiac, beautifully ſituated with a fine Trout, Smelt and Salmon Fiſhery. The Land conſiſts of above eight hundred Acres, and extends a mile and half a quarter upon the River, which with two large brooks, which run through the ſame to all advantage, make a great part of it intervale, and that which is not, is eſteemed by many no way inferior to the real intervale itſelf. The place lies in the heart of a ſettlement, and at preſent keeps a good ſtock of Cattle; and as the froſts are not here ſo prevalent, Indian Corn and all kinds of Grain are raiſed in perfection. The Farmer can be at no loſs to judge that great improvement can be made. On the premiſes there is a genteel, neat, commodious Framed Houſe, which though it ſtands but on a ſmall eminence, you command a proſpect of the Farm, the River up and down, and ſee the traveller in his way from Fort Cumberland to the City Saint John—And what may yet further truly recommend is that Mr. Scott will (according to value) ſell cheap, and give the moſt reaſonable terms of payment; being now grown to years, and no ſon living with him, ſeeks to diſentangle himſelf from the care, the hurry and buſtle of life.

Saliſbury, Sept. 5th, 1800. t.f.

☞ SEAMEN's JOURNALS, neatly printed and ſtitched in Marble covers, may be had at this OFFICE.

FOR SALE,

A Valuable Tract of Land, with an excellent Houſe, Barn, and other convenient buildings thereon, pleaſantly ſituated in the Pariſh of Saint Mary's, about three miles above Fredericton. For terms apply to Henry Smith, Merchant, at Fredericton.

Octo. 16th, 1800.

NOTICE.
