NEWS SUMMARY.

Dominion.

— The Montreal Star of Thursday reported that over $20,000 had been already raised for the Newfoundland Relief Fund.

— Two convicts, named Cable and Sears, escaped from Dorchester on Wednesday of last week, but were retaken by Warden Foster and a guard at Wood Point, near Sackville.

— On Saturday last, at Leeds, Megantic county, two girls were killed by lightning. They were scrubbing the floor at the time, and when found were in a kneeling position with their scrubbing brushes in their hands.

—The St. John Conservatory of Music, which is advertised in our columns, is a school to which parents may send their children with all confidence. Miss Hitchens, who has charge of the vocal department, has gained a reputation as a teacher of the voice, and has studied with the leading teachers in Boston, and keeps herself up in the latest and newest methods of voice culture. A full staff of teachers are employed, each department having its special teacher.

— Many sad drowning accidents have been reported of late. Among them is one in which two young girls belonging to this city—Alice Denniston and Edith Russell—about thirteen years of age, lost their lives while bathing at Welsford on Tuesday last. Young people should be cautioned against the dangers they incur from currents and deep holes by bathing in streams, and should not be permitted to go into waters with which they are not well acquainted unless accompanied by some one of experience.

— A meeting of the Hudson Bay Company took place in London on the 14th inst. The Hon. Sir Donald A. Smith presided, and a large number of shareholders were present. The meeting heartily welcomed the efforts made by Mr. Chipman, the commissioner at Winnipeg, to reduce the expenses and bring the company into the line of modern times. The report was adopted unanimously. The old Board of Directors were all re-elected with the exception of Sir Thomas Edridge, whose seat will be left unfilled for the present.

— The Anglican Bishop of Newfoundland has issued the following appeal: "The Church of England here is overwhelmed by the disaster. The fire destroyed the cathedral, Bishop's and clergy's houses, schools, synod hall and orphanage. They are all practically uninsured. The beautiful cathedral, designed by Gilbert Scott, and recently completed at a total cost of $250,000, is a ruin. It is a historic landmark of St. John's and was the place where English service was first celebrated in the New World. I appeal to metropolitans for sympathy and aid to the Anglican communion."

— A prominent officer in the department of justice is reported to have said that it was a mistake to suppose that under the present criminal law the Quebec lottery is legal. The lottery company never had a legal existence, for the reason that the Quebec Legislature could not authorize a company to commit a criminal offence. Under the present law the promoters of the lottery were liable to a fine of $20. Under the statute which takes effect on July 1 next, the company is liable to a penalty of $2,000, and its members to imprisonment for two years, while persons purchasing tickets are liable to a fine of $20. The necessary machinery is also provided in the new Act for giving officers of justice additional powers of seizure and search. The new code does not alter the company's status in the least, in regard to liability to prosecution at the present time.

— Walter Glendenning, aged 35 years, of Ellsmere, near Scarboro, Ont., died at the General Hospital on Wednesday, from injuries received while engaged with some other men in moving a barn near his home on the previous Saturday. A large beam fell striking him on the back of the neck, fracturing the fifth vertebra, so that it pressed against the spinal chord. He was brought to the hospital where the fractured bone was removed, but the pressure upon the chords had been so great that it had caused complete paralysis. The case was one of the most peculiar that the medical staff of the hospital has had to deal with. From the time the accident occurred until death resulted, the poor fellow was fully conscious and conversed with those around him, while the body from the neck down was dead. He presented the phenomenon of a living head upon a dead body.

— Mr. S. Wilmot, superintendent of fish culture, has received most encouraging reports of the success of the lobster hatchery. This crustacean, unlike most of the other edible denizens of the deep, carries upon the exterior surface of its shell the spawn from which the specie is propagated. The plan was first tried not long since of collecting this spawn from the lobsters taken at the factories and placing it in hatcheries. At Pictou the lobster hatchery is now supplied entirely with spawn, which would otherwise go to waste. The superintendent's letter to Mr. Wilmot said that from one canning factory he had obtained this season sixty-five millions of eggs, which had been all hatched out and the young lobsters placed in the sea. When it is considered that there are some five hundred lobster canneries on the Canadian coast, each capable of supplying fifty or sixty millions of eggs that as yet go to waste, the problem of replenishing the lobster fisheries by artificial propagation seems to be settled by the success of this season's experiments.

— It is stated that, for the last three months, receipts on the Intercolonial railway have exceeded expenditure.

— Notice of appeal has been given in the suit of H. T. Laurence vs. the town of Truro, recently decided by Judge Townshend.

— The decision of the Quebec government to repudiate the contract which Mr. Mercier entered into with J. B. Langlais, stationer, has caused the latter to assign with liabilities placed at $136,000.

— A daughter of Edward Woodman, of Digby, while strawberrying had a small piece of wood stuck in her foot. The wound was not supposed to be serious, but lock jaw set in resulting in death.

— Mr. Greenway has issued his election address to his constituents. He declares emphatically that it is the intention of the Manitoban government to stand by the non sectarian schools, no matter what the decision of the judicial committee of the Privy Council may be.

— Mr. W. D. Dimock, who has been appointed by the Dominion government to assist in collecting and managing the Canadian exhibits at the Columbian exposition, Chicago, has returned from a trip to Ottawa. He will make his headquarters in Truro and collect as large and varied an exhibit from Nova Scotia as possible.

— Captain Stanwood of the steamer Boston, from Yarmouth, N. S., reports that on July 13, at 4 a. m., 100 miles east half north from Boston light he passed the stern end of a wreck, probably the ship Fred B. Taylor, before reported. The front part was sticking high out of the water. A slight blaze was aboard, she having probably been set on fire by some passing vessel.

— The Quebec correspondent of the Canadien, referring once more to the Province of Quebec lottery, repeats that it is simply a boon for speculators, and he adds: "Is it not a dishonor to see the executive council of the Province of Quebec persist in protecting with the authority and name of the Queen operations which the Canadian Parliament and all the other provinces place on the list of criminal acts?"

—A St. John's, Nfld., despatch says: The generosity of the Dominion in sending ten thousand dollars' worth of provisions for the relief of the poor and destitute sufferers by the fire, has made a deep impression upon our people, and the prompt action of the Canadian government and people to assist their suffering fellow colonists is much appreciated. It has been ascertained that the total amount of the insurance on property destroyed will reach four millions and a half, but this will not cover more than one-third of the losses sustained.

— A Winnipeg despatch of July 12, says: A furious storm swept over Manitoba last night. In several districts everything in its path was destroyed, houses being blown down and machinery and barns smashed to fragments. Several people were hurt, and one life is known to have been lost—Miss Dobson, of Douglas district, whose body was found in the ruins of her father's house. Scores of horses and cattle were killed outright, and their bodies carried from one field to another. Telegraph poles were torn down and communication cannot be obtained with various points, so that the storm may have been more disastrous than is now known.

British and Foreign.

— The Times' correspondent at Alexandria says cholera has appeared at Acre.

— A St. Petersburg despatch of July 14 says: The physicians of this city assert there are known to be thirty-five cases of cholera in Moscow.

— The memoirs of ex-Empress Eugenie, on which she is at work, may prove interesting to the next generation; they are not to be published till several years after her death.

— A Congo missionary relates that the ship by which he went out to Africa left 1,000 cases of gin at the first port at which they touched, 500 at the second and 1,000 at the third.

— A large house, called the bachelor cottage, on the estate of Sandringham, the Prince of Wales's country seat, is being enlarged and beautified and furnished as a residence for Prince George, the newly-made Duke of York. It is large enough for a household, and the prince will marry in the fall, it is expected at all hands.

— Prince Bismarck was visited at Kissinger last week by a deputation of students from the University of Jena. His reply to the address presented to him by the deputation indicates an intention on his part to make a tour of German cities. The prospect of Prince Bismarck's making a tour of the country causes a sensation in political circles.

— A Calcutta despatch of July 14th says: A large public meeting was held here yesterday under the auspices of the Indian Currency Association. It was resolved to petition the House of Commons in the event of no decision being arrived at by the international conference at Washington to take immediate steps to introduce a gold standard in India.

— The eruption of Mount Etna is rapidly increasing in violence. The fires in the craters show great activity. Loud explosions are continually taking place. A severe earthquake shock this morning reduced to ruins the village Giarre, on the coast of Sicily. The population is about 18,000. No mention of the loss of life is made. It is feared many perished. The whole country suffered severely from the shock.

— The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "Astrachan has become the chief nursery of cholera on this side of the Caucasus. The epidemic increases rapidly there. The latest reports say in one day 225 persons were attacked and 12 died.

United States.

— The House of Representatives refused to consider the Stewart silver bill. This vote is the death of silver legislation this session.

— An Arizona paper announces the finding of a 14½-pound nugget in the Planches placers, Sonora, Mex. This is said to be the largest nugget on record. The percentage of pure gold was 87 fine.

— Thursday afternoon the funeral of the late Cyrus W. Field was held from his late residence, Dobbs's Ferry, New York. The mansion was crowded with distinguished friends of the deceased. Bishop Henry C. Potter conducted the Episcopal burial service, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, of Grace Episcopal church, New York.

—On Sunday, July 10, at Rockport, Me., Jupiter, the vicious Forepaugh elephant, broke away from its keepers and for five hours over-awed the town. He tore up gardens without number, demolished fences and twisted branches of shade and fruit trees four and five inches in diameter, all the time trumpeting so loudly that he could be heard a mile away. One of the horses which he dashed upon trembled a few seconds and dropped dead. Men were chased from the streets, which were absolutely deserted during the time he was on the rampage. He appeared before a church at the close of the morning service and terrorized the people. His keeper dared not approach him until he was thoroughly exhausted.

Amherst, July 12.

ERRATUM. — In issue of July 6, St. Stephen, per Mrs. Melissa Spence, $29, F. M., should be H. M.

— THE Prohibitionists of the United States at their Cincinnati convention nominated for President Gen. John Bidwell, of California, and for vice-President J. B. Cranfill, of Texas. It is not to be supposed that Gen. Bidwell, or those who have nominated him, will be greatly disappointed if he do not become the occupant of the White House next March; but the party hope that its ticket will be supported by a half-million and possibly a million of votes.

Cure General Debility

A. W. Beard, Iron Hill, Que., writes: "I used Dr. William's' Pink Pills for general debility and found them a wonderful medicine." Sold by all dealers or sent by mail at 50c. per box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of imitations.

CHARLES ST., HALIFAX.—A Halifax correspondent says: Charles street Methodist church has also purchased a new Karn organ from Miller Bros., Granville street. This makes the sixth church in the city and suburbs that has been supplied with the ever popular Karn organ by Miller Bros. since opening their warerooms in the city. Presbyterians, Methodists and Baptists are included in the list of purchasers.

False Economy

Is practiced by people who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

— Mrs. Cleveland has denied the use of her name to political clubs forming during the present Presidential campaign for the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of New York Democrats. In replying to the request for permission to do so Mr. Cleveland writes: "We trust you will not undervalue our objection, because it rests upon the sentiment that the name now sacred in the home circle as wife and mother may well be spared in the organization and operation of clubs created to exert political influence."

— A veritable family medicine box, Beecham's Pills.

Deaths.

ZWICKER.—At Labell, June 30, Esther, infant daughter of David Zwicker.

MANN.—At Rothesay, on the 30th ult., Osburn S., son of Arthur C. and Annie L. Marr, aged thirteen months.

BARSS.—At 42 South street, Halifax, July 3, Willie Coleman, twin son of Charles and Ida Barss, aged 5 months.

MCLEAN.—Of consumption, at Longmont, Colorado, April 24, A. N. McLean, son of the late Deacon Neil McLean of Cornwallis, N. S.

THORNE.—At Upper Salmon Creek, Johnston, Queens Co., June 25, after suffering intensely for three weeks, Thomas T. Thorne entered into rest, aged 67 years. For many years this brother had been a follower of Jesus, and with glad anticipation he awaited the summons to pass over Jordan. For him death had lost its sting. A lonely widow, three sons and one daughter are left to mourn.

MCLEAN.—While engaged in felling trees on his own farm, June 23rd, Mr. John McLean received fatal injuries, of which he died the following day. Deceased leaves a large family and friends to mourn their loss. He was baptized by Rev. Isa Wallace a few years ago, since which time he took a deep interest in the welfare of the church. The Lord is giving comfort to the bereaved widow in the conversion of some of the children.

PEARCE.—At Greenwood, Kings Co., N. S., July 4, Edith L., beloved wife of Charles Pearce and only daughter of Deacon J. L. and Eunice McKenna. In early life Sister Pearce became the subject of deep conviction, and April, 1869, united with the Lower Aylesford Baptist church, under the faithful labors of the late Dr. Charles Tupper. Sister Pearce was one of the brightest ornaments of this church. She possessed a cultivated intellect and a heart sanctified by divine grace. Both were used in the home, the community and the church for the glory of Him whom she delighted to honor. Full of confidence in Him who keeps what is committed to His trust till that great day, she passed peacefully into rest, leaving behind a sorrowing family and many friends to mourn their loss. Her remains were followed to the cemetery in Greenwood, July 6, by a large audience. Her memory will be kept fragrant here for many years to come.

MAYNARD.—At Port Hill, P. E. I., June 23, Sella Maynard, aged 29 years, beloved wife of Hugh Maynard, and daughter of John Warren, of Tyne Valley, P. E. I. Her illness was long and trying, but she looked forward to rest. Deceased lived in the enjoyment of the Christian hope, was an earnest worker, was much respected by all who knew her and died in the triumphs of the Christian's faith. The day before her death she sang "Jesus lover of my soul," and when asked if she had any doubts or fears, she said, "No doubts or fears." Was Christ precious? "Oh yes, yes, I am longing for home." The next morning as she called her husband and loved ones to bid them good bye, as sweetly as a child falls asleep, she departed. Though she be dead, yet shall she live. There is to be a resurrection. As the sun goes out in darkness, and the last star fades away from the heavens, an angel from the throne of God will gather the scattered dust and reanimate it with new life and beauty. Let us, instead of mourning at our loss, imitate her example—copy her virtues, so that when the icy hand of death is laid upon us, we may die with that calm trust in God which made her whom we mourn so tranquil and happy in her last moments.

CHARLES EMMET.

"I AM CURED!" Physicians, Pile Remedies and the Knife UTTERLY FAILED! Yet there was Help!

GENTS:—I wish to inform you that the treatment consisting of SKODA'S REMEDIES you sent me for Piles, has, as you stated in your letter accompanying the same, actually cured me.

Why, gentlemen, I can hardly realize it, when I stop to think of the long years of suffering I have endured, of the Pile Remedies I have tried; of the Physicians employed; of the two surgical operations performed (having had the Pile Tumors removed twice with the knife) and all I could get, was temporary relief. But now after taking seven Bottles of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, Three Boxes LITTLE TABLETS, and using Five Boxes of SKODA'S PILE CURE, I am cured.

BETTER THAN COLD

I am now able to work every day, and shall start for Virginia in a few days to work cutting timber.

You freely gave me the medicine but I want to partially pay you for what you have done. Enclosed find $20, which is about what I paid for one operation that did me really no good at all.

Gratefully yours,
Bangor, Me. CHAS. EMMET.
