POETRY.

THE BIBLE.

The Bible? Yes, the Book!—there words define
The sacred page whose Author is divine—
The Book of Books! and if personal sight—
The force of wisdom, and the source of light!
Of light immortal!! He who takes his way
By this, in midnight gloom, shall never stray.
"Do! ye who think;"—here living waters flow,
And he who drinks on these again shall know.
Here for the hungry is a table spread!
And for "the people," strong immortal bread,
The manna, from the skies he shall sample,
Of which who eateth right, shall never die.
And here the healing waters shall be found
Flowing, gushing, free for every wound.
Come poor and rich, come each afflicted soul,
The "great Physician" here shall make you whole.

By this all ghostly dangers you shall quell—
And powers of darkness, and the gates of hell
And here the eye of faith may realize
The mount, promise and the hidden prize;
While mind, on wings may mounting the blue
Of the world, and make a heaven on this.
The Christian warrior, arming for the fight,
Who here put on the armour of light!
Here is the whole armory of Strength!
Every lever, with spiritual arm to grasp;—
And there, your foe with holy wrath shall,
Your shield, of Faith—your sword, the word of God—

Go forth, and in Jehovah's name "wield,"
And the gray-light, shall prosper in your hand
God hath revealed to this, your holy page
Wisdom—Things hid to many, Eternal age;
To all who believing, he will believe
The light to choose the good—to shun the wave;
And hail! oh, really blest! are they who come
With souls in willing, and in plain the way,
The Christian banner on the strength run,
Bound on his voyage to eternity.
Therefore, poorest, though, scorn, may affright
thee;

Thinks the wise, that shall never die,—
The immortal spirit, oh, never lie dies,
And gain the heaven of the sun skies!
Behold the Bible! God, the God of Jacob!
Prophets, he made, apostles, sent through Jesus—
It is the testimony of Eternal Mind!
When, within your dark, and confusion minds, you find.

Fire, dear, with the bright, celestial ray, conquering,
Then may, in Scripture, life to immortality,
And only, from this, shadow, Dispensation—
"Truth is, in mystery," and revelation—Zion.
