Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal item they may know about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personals concerning yourself and your family; we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here if you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Meetings or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 10 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, counting six words as a line. No advt less than 25c a week.

Shop early!

Town election comes next.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crabb of Lansdowne, a girl on Dec. 1.

The home of Warren White is under quarantine with two cases of diphtheria.

Allan A. Barter offers for sale his house on Hillcrest. See S. S. Miller at Hartland. 24-4.

S. S. Miller went to Fredericton on Wednesday on a business trip, expecting to return home on Saturday.

C. M. Rideout now occupies the office on Taylor's corner and is very comfortably and conveniently located.

Dinners served in the regular 75 cent style and quality at Hotel Carleton for 50 cents. Dining room opens at 11.30.

Mrs. Frank Day and little sons, Harold and Ralph, spent the week-end in Houlton with her brothers, George and Archie Stevens.

Edwin Caverhill of Upper Brighton has been confined to the house by illness for the last two or three weeks, but is now on the mend.

Hartland Ice Rink will be opened to the public tonight. The ice is fine and the moon shines bright. Great out-door sport tonight. Don't miss it.

Leigh Sipprell, son of the late Walter Sipprelle, is visiting relatives at Somerville. He formerly lived in Houlton, later at Bangor and Boston.

The regular monthly missionary meeting of the ladies of the Reformed Baptist church will be held Dec. 16. There will be a special and interesting Christmas program.

Mrs. Arthur Sipprelle and son Willie of Hartland visited some days ago with Mrs. Sipprelle's sister, Mrs. H. S. Dow of Fort Fairfield. Mrs. Dow accompanied them to Caribou for a short visit.

Elvin Lasker, a hustling Mt. Pleasant farmer, who has been combating a nasty run of blood poisoning in one of his hands the past eight or ten days, has got the trouble well in hand and improving.

Miss Hazel E. Robinson has been unable to attend to her duties at the Farmers' Telephone exchange for a week or more, owing to a severe cold and a later development of jaundice. Improvement is evident, however, and she plans on taking her acoustomed place at the "board" the coming week.

Liberals are "it" again.

Christmas is less than three weeks distant.

Emery Manuel of Knowlesville was a recent visitor to Hartland.

Wait and buy your Christmas Gifts at the W. W. G. sale on Dec. 17.

To rent—Two or three nice office rooms over Hatfield & Co's office. Electric lights; heated and water.

For a great part of the week roads have been in prime condition for motoring.

There will be service at Holy Trinity church on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.; Sunday school at 2.30.

Leslie McKenzie is a sufferer from a severe attack of tonsilitis and will submit to an operation by Dr. McIntosh on Monday.

The little five months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Raymond has had a very severe run of pneumonia and is now suffering from rheumatic fever.

Rev. G. S. Helps, formerly a pastor of the Hartland Methodist church, has severed his connection with the New Brunswick conference and taken the church at Somersworth, N. H.

Today dealers are paying for potatoes, $1.25; for hay, $18.00 to $20.00; oats, 45 cents; pork 10, cents; chickens, alive, 14 cents, dressed, 20 cents; butter, 30 cents; eggs, 50 cents.

An organ is now possessed by the town schools, a second-hand instrument having been purchased from the Baptist congregation. Funds raised by teachers and pupils paid the bill.

J. B. Bowser of Victoria, Carleton county, who has been spending the winter in Saskatoon, Sask., left last week to visit friends in Los Angeles, Ca., where he will remain until March.

So many new advertisements set this week has consumed nearly all the time of the staff of five people, and consequently news items have necessarily been cut to the smallest possible space.

Rev. H. V. Bragdon has been holding special meetings in the Bannon Primitive Baptist church for the last three weeks. Lic. W. G. Petchey is assisting in the work and a large degree of success has attended their efforts. Several have been baptized on different occasions and deep interest is still manifested in the meetings which are continuing this week.

Ladies coats, $5.00 and upward, at the store of Keith & Plummer, Ltd.

Sayre's lower mill will cut long lumber and lath all winter. Logs and lathwood are wanted. 23-3

Small warehouse alongside of railway track, also an office on ground floor to rent. Apply to J. T. G. Carr.

The Observer has been advised that orders for Christmas Greeting cards may be sent in and filled promptly as late as Dec. 12. Call and see our samples. Better come today or tomorrow.

Rev. W. P. Haigh has been offered charge of St. Paul's (Valley) church at St. John. Although the offer carries honor and advancement, Mr. Haigh, feeling his work is here, has declined and will remain here.

Acting Inspector of Bridges, H. W. Crain, went to Rockland Wednesday to inspect the work being done on the bridge across the Becaguimac at that place. The repairs include, among other work, the thorough overhauling of the abutments.

James F. Cluff, collector for the International Harvester Co., was in Hartland yesterday looking after the interests of that concern in this locality. Mr. Cluff is a devout Liberal and is feeling very complacent over the result of Tuesday's voting.

Miss Ada Broad of Mars Hill and Addington Newell of this county were united in marriage at the Primitive Baptist church, Bannon, on Thursday, Nov. 24, by Rev. H. V. Bragdon, assisted by Lic. Petchey. Mr. and Mrs. Newell will make their home in Carlisle.

A sad, fatal accident happened on Friday, Dec. 23, when Andrew Stephenson of Connell, this county, while at work, jumped from a hay mow on a hay fork which frightfully pierced his body, and although medical aid was promptly secured he died the following Thursday. He was a very popular young man and his death will be widely regretted.

C. F. Seely and G. F. Seely were in St. John recently, called there by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Perley Seely who is spending the winter at the home of her son Claude, a C. P. R. conductor running out of St. John. Two other sons, Wilfred and James Seely of Minto, and a daughter, Mrs. Harraden of Auburn, Me., visited their mother at the same time. Mrs. Seely is reported to be gradually improving at this writing.

R. W. Cameron came up from Millville to be among the old pals when the election returns came in. He enjoyed himself as well as could be expected. Conservative workers say Mr. Cameron's absence through the campaign was responsible for a lack of the usual pep and ginger that in days gone by made elections memorable in Hartland.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Craig have the sympathy of the whole country side over the recent death of their little six year old girl; Ruby Kimball. Rev. H. V. Bragdon, assisted by Lic. W. G. Petchey conducted the services in connection with the sad occurrence at the Primitive Baptist church, Carlisle, interment being made later in Cloverdale cemetery. A large number attended the services in sympathy and respect for the bereaved family. The music on this occasion, rendered by a union Carlisle and Cloverdale choir was exceptional in both quality and appropriateness of selection.

A good musical program was carried out Sunday evening in the United Baptist church by the Baraca class. Mrs. Miller was musical instructor and also played the church organ. The pastor gave a most interesting address on the theme "Procrastination." A large audience was present.

RED ROSE TEA is good tea

Always Pure and Clean and Kept Good in the Sealed Package

Clearance of Furniture

We offer an opportunity to buy Xmas Presents in the Furniture line at the following reduced price:

DRESSERS: reg. $45 Sale price $38
" 36 " " 29
" 32 " " 26
" 22 " " 17

Chairs, also, at exceptional bargains

Balance of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats at reduced prices

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries Dry Goods Furniture

Stoves and Heaters ALL KINDS

C. R. DeWitt
HARTLAND, N. B.

Queen Insurance Company

Offers the Security of the Largest and Wealthiest Fire Office in the world. Rates no higher than the small companies charge.

JOHN T. G. CARR, Agent
Hartland, N. B.

E. S. GREEN

Architecural Drafting

Plans submitted to suit clients requirements

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Don't Forget That

FIRE Insurance

You can not afford to lose

Real Estate

One Farm of 350 acres well stocked with live stock and all kinds of machinery.

A Wood lot on a two-turn road from town; 50 acres well wooded and a bargain for a quick sale.

A Farm that will be exchanged for house in town.

All these properties are worth the money asked. Call, write or enquire--

G. MURRAY McLEOD

HARTLAND, N. B.