prosperity of our Country depends in a very great degree, upon giving every encouragement to our Industrial Classes, whether engaged in Agriculture, Ship Building, Manufactures, or the Fisheries—to the promotion of these great Interests, I shall devote all the energies I possess.

All necessary Articles of consumption, which we cannot raise or manufacture, I would admit at the lowest possible rate of Duty for Revenue.

All Raw Materials for manufacturing purposes, I would admit Duty Free, that the labour of our own people may be employed.

Education, I believe to be the foundation of a Country's advancement—as its Citizens become intelligent, its progress accelerates. A system of Common Schools founded upon the contributions of all classes, and open to all classes, will alone insure general intelligence. I shall therefore advocate the most liberal encouragement to Common Schools, and give my earnest endeavours to establish a system, which, by making all bear the burden will make all desirous to share the benefit.

The question of Railways which has been agitating the minds of our community for some time past, is a subject in which, though I have felt a deep interest, I have taken no public part, but I shall be prepared to give every aid to those Great Measures now under discussion, which a prudent consideration of the resources of the Province would justify and you may rest assured, I shall oppose any plan for their accomplishment, which shall involve direct Taxation, or peril in any way on the Commercial prosperity of the country.

With reference to our present Government, I shall consider it my duty to look to the measures brought forward, not to the men who compose it.—When those measures are such as in my opinion will promote the welfare of our common Country, they shall receive my warmest support, when otherwise, my unhesitating opposition.

I believe it to be my duty to look to the Public welfare, not to the particular individuals who may constitute the Government for the time being.

Gentlemen—These are my Principles. Should you think me worthy of your confidence and support at the approaching Election, and elect me as your Representative in the Provincial Legislature, I shall use my best endeavours to promote the general interests of our Country.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours, very truly,
STEPHEN K. FOSTER.

The Directors are in correspondence with a number of other Literary Gentlemen, from whom they expect to receive assistance, whose names with the Subjects of the Lectures will be published as soon as the arrangements are completed.

From the increased resources of the Institute during the past year, the Directors have been enabled to apply a large sum towards extending the LIBRARY of the Institute, which at present, contains a valuable collection of Scientific, Historical, and Literary works; in addition to which, another selection of works have been ordered, and are expected to be ready for distribution at the opening of the Lecture Season.

The GESNER MUSEUM, which has now for the most part, become the property of the Institute, will be opened for exhibition to Members during each Lecture evening, from 7 to 8 o'clock.

The READING ROOM is now so arranged as to afford additional accommodation to visitors; a number of popular Newspapers published in Great Britain, the United States, and the Colonies, are now received for the use of the Room, together with the leading British and American Reviews.

The Library will be opened on Monday and Friday Evenings from 7 to 8 o'clock; the Reading Room from 7, to half-past 9, every evening in the week, Saturdays and Sundays excepted.

As the Directors have used every exertion to render the Institute as useful and attractive as possible they hope their exertions will be appreciated, and that the Institution will this Season receive a large accession to its membership.

In consequence of the want of sufficient accommodation in the Lecture Room, the Directors are constrained to adhere to the Rule of the Institute, in allowing but one Lady to accompany a Member to the Lectures.

Members' Tickets, 10s.; Non-Members' Tickets, to admit to the Lectures for the Season, 15s.; Ladies', Young Men's and Apprentices' Tickets, 5s. each. Admission to one lecture, 1s. 3d.

No Tickets Transferable. It having come to the knowledge of the Board that Lecturers have heretofore felt great inconvenience and annoyance from the numerous applications made for free Tickets. To relieve them from such importunities, and to compel all persons desirous of attending the Lectures to pay their fair share and lot, only a limited number of Tickets will be placed at the disposal of the Lecturers for distribution among their immediate friends.

Members, and others, may obtain Tickets, by application at the Institute, on Thursday and Friday evenings, between 7 and 8 o'clock.

☞ The Board of Directors return their grateful acknowledgments to the several persons who kindly loaned their Paintings, Works of Art, and Specimens of Mechanical Skill, and to those who afforded gratuitous services at the late Industrial Exhibition, by which they were enabled so successfully to carry out the object they had in view.
