On Tuesday an inquest was held by Coroner Earle The jury returned a verdict of "accidental death."

ASSAULT.—On Tuesday last John McFarlane, while laboring under the effects of stagger juice, went into a house at Barnhill's mill, near the Falls, occupied by the Maloney family. Here he attempted to commit a criminal assault on Miss Maloney, but was kicked out of the house by her father. McFarlane afterwards returned and broke some the windows. Information against him being made at the Portland Police office, some officers went in search of him but McFarlane eluded them. When they appear at the mill where heis employed he gets out of sight immediately or else takes to the loose logs in the pond over which no policeman can follow him. It is said that Mr. Maloney wants the charge of assault withdrawn.

FATHER FREYTAG, THE REVIVALIST.—"A large and respectable audience assembled in he Cathelic Church, Milltown, on last Sunday evening, to listen to the sermon of Father Freytag. This missionary is a man of unflagging zeal, great physical endurance and great power of eloquence. His sermon ou Sunday evening was very instructive, and must have left a lasting impresston on the congregation, especially on Irish Catholics and their descendants. His allusions to the fidelity to their faith under the severest trials was most affecting and eloquent, and will be long remembered. The choir, too, made the occasion most interesting. Mr. John McGarrigle, junior, seems to be acquiring a great mastery over the organ, and the choir sang their finest pieces. The leaders of the different parts, alto, soprano, tenor and bass, possess great musical ta'ents, and all they have to do to maintain their character as one of the best choirs in the Province is to practice faithfully and constantly under their present conductors. Father Freytag preached four times on Sunday, and left for his convent in Boston on monday morning.—Courier.

ACCIDENTS.—A son of Mr. Leavey's, Sheriff street, Portland, was run over by a team, Tuesday, and was severely hurt. Thos. Ryan had to have three of his fingers amputated in consequence of an accident at Spring Hill on Saturday last. John Flaherty, an intoxicated teamster, while driving along Paradise Row, fell under the wheels of his sloven and was severely injured. A son of T. Otty Crookshank, was severely cut and bruised by an explosion of some powder with which he was playing, Sunday last. On Saturday night a newsboy named Driscoll was run over on Charlotte street and severely hurt. On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Henry Rufe, of Moncton, fell off a load of straw on to a hard road and sustained severe internal injuries. Thursday morning a man named Marley, was injured by a fall in the Portland Methodist Church. Wm. Fleming was thrown out of a waggon on Waterloo street, Thursday evening and was severely injured.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE.—Last evening, a little before five o'clock, as Miss Alexander, employed in McSweeney Bros. Tailor shop was returning to her home some distance the other side of Hall's Creek Bridge, she was attacked on this side of the bridge by a drunken man. The man being quite drunk, Miss Alexander succeeded in getting away from her assailant, but not until he had threw her down and had also secured her hat in the scuffle. She immediately returned to town and gave the alarm. Marshal Steadman proceeded to the spot and arrested the miscreant, whose intentions were undoubtedly highly criminal and who was only barred from accomplishing his beastly object by reason of his being intoxicated. The fellow would not give his name to the Marshal, but stated that he was from Portland. He is undoubtedly one of the many tramps that are now in the town, although of quite respectable appearance, and it is to be hoped that he will be severley punished. He will probably be before the Magistrate this morning. In the present state of affairs in this town, infested as it is with tramps, who are both impecunious and devilish, it is unsafe for unprotected females to venture outside of the town limits. Some of the scamps who abound in this vicinity, and who make a practise of living by thieving, being always ready to commit other base acts as opportunity affords, should be made a terrible example of in some way or other.—Moncton Times, 19th.

On Wednesday afternoon the case was investigated before the Stipendiary Magistrate Wertman, and a fine of $5 and costs, or 30 days in Dorchester Jail was imposed on the prisoner, who gave his name as John Dickson. Not having the money to pay his fine he will have an opportunity of studying the interior of a cell for 30 days.

Testimonial from Mrs. Jane A. Lee.

INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, 102 PRINCESS ST., Saint John, N. B., July 29th, 1878.
Messrs. HANINGTON BROTHERS:

Gentlemen,—Three years ago I was going to write you how much benefit I received from taking two bottle of your Quinine Wine and Iron, being then very weak and low with no appetite for any sort of food, after a severe attack of Erysipelas in my head. Again, after the fire, I was nearly quite gone, and was restored to strength and activity by taking two bottles more, and last May I had to have recourse to the Quinine Wine and Iron again with the same beneficial results.

While I was taking it last, a person came in who had left her situation to get into the hospital, being so weak she could not work. I said, I will send you to a place where you will get seven dollars a month; take two bottles of Hanington's Qunine Wine and Iron with you, and if you are not able to earn the seven dollars I will pay you for the medicine. At the end of the month she was quite smart and is still filling the situation. I send you these few lines for the benefit of society (if you trouble to publish it), as there are so many sick at present. It would greatly benefit persons after Sickness or Diphtheria, and would most certainly prevent sickness by strengthening and building up the system. Yours very truly,

JANE A. LEE.
