Poetry

MISCHIFF-MAKERS, AVAUNT!

Oh! could there in this world be found
Some little spot of happy ground,
Where village pleasure might go round,
Without the village tattling!
How doubly blest the place would be,
Where all might dwell in liberty,
Free from the bitter misery,
Of gossips' and endless prattling!

If such a spot were really known,
Dame peace might claim it as her own
And in it she might fix her throne,
For ever and for ever:
There like a queen might reign and live,
While every one would soon forgive
The little slights they might receive,
And be offended never.

'Tis Mischief Makers that remove
Far from our hearts the warmth of love,
And lead us all to disapprove
What gives another pleasure:
They seem to take ones part—but when
They've heard our cares unkind of them,
They soon retail them all again,
Mix'd with their pois'nous measure.

And then they've such a cunning way
Of telling ill-meant tales: they say,
"Don't mention what I've said, I pray.
I would not tell another,"
Straight to your neighbour's house they go,
Narrating every thing they know,
And break the peace of high and low.
Wife, husband,—friend and brother!

Oh! that the mischief-making crew
Were but reduced to one or two,
And they were painted red or blue.
That every one might know them!
Then would our villagers forget
To rage and quarrel, fume and fret,
Or fall into an angry pet,
With things so much below them.

For 'tis a sad, degrading part,
To make another's bosom smart,
And plant a dagger in the heart
We ought to love and cherish!
Then let us evermore be found
In quietness with all around,
In good works always to abound,
While angry feeling perish!

A CUNNING ASTROLOGER.—An astrologer foretold the death of a lady whom Louis XI. passionately loved. She did, in fact, die; and the King imagined that the prediction of the astrologer was the cause of it. He sent for the man, intending to have him thrown through the window as a punishment. "Tell me, thou who pretendest to be so clever and learned a man, what thy fate will be?" The soothsayer, who suspected the intrigues of the prince, and knew his foible, replied: "Sire, I foresee that I shall die three days before your Majesty." The king believed him, and was careful of the astrologer's life.

A QUEER WAY TO MEND MATTERS.—Said a viscount to a knight, "Is it true, sir, that in a house where I am thought to be witty, you said that I had no wit at all?" Replied the knight to the viscount—"My lord, I never was in a house where you were thought to be witty, and I never had occasion to tell anybody that you had no wit at all."

At a recent trial in Texas, after hearing the allegations in the indictment read by the council for the prosecution, the prisoner being asked what he had to say, replied, "Them ar' allegations are false, and that ar' allegater knows it."

"Mother, I shouldn't be surprised if our Susan got choked some day." "Why, my son?" "Because her beau twisted his arms around her neck the other evening, and if she had not kissed him to let her go, he would have strangled her."

An attorney, about to finish a bill of costs, was requested by a client, a baker, to make it as "light" as he could. "Ah," replied the attorney, "that's what you may say to your foreman, but it's not the way I make my bread."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favour of your astonishing Pills. (Signed)

R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she commenced to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IT THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE.

North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sydney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George, for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their professional skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, at even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required. (Signed) WILLIAM JONES,

Proprietor of the Goulburn Herald,
New South Wales.

WONDERFUL EFFICACY OF HOLLOWAY'S PILLS IN CASES OF DROPSEY.

Persons suffering from Dropsy, either about the turn of life, or at other times, should immediately have recourse to these Pills, as hundreds of persons are annually cured by their use, of this direful complaint in its different stages, when all other means had failed.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

THE LEGAL & LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

CANNON STREET WEST.

London, 1st March, 1853.

THE Court of Directors have much pleasure in reporting the onward progress of this Company. During the year 1852, the new Policies issued were 324, assuring the sum of £182,957 18s., being the largest amount of new business transacted in any one year.

The Income of the year was £53,819 5s 8d.; and the funds in hand, after providing for payment of bonuses to the policy holders and proprietors, and reduction of premiums allowed, had increased to £246,979 16s 7d.

Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that the expenses of management for the year did not amount to seven per cent of the income. The number of policies issued, and the income of the Company during the respective years, were as follows:

Year.	No. of Policies actually issued.	Sums assured thereby.	Ann. Income.
1847	113	102,247 0 4	29,720 12 7
1848	125	116,045 2 6	35,214 4 7
1849	272	149,861 2 6	39,011 1 4
1850	301	156,370 13 0	42,207 5 8
1851	342	170,578 7 0	47,721 2 6
To in 5 yrs.	1153	695,102 5 4	193,874 6 8

Thus exhibiting a steady and gradual increase.

The following table illustrates the Bonuses declared:—

	Average reduction of Premium.	Average Reversionary Bonus.
1st Division—1842...16.833 per cent.		31 per cent.
2d " 1847...31.333	"	63½
3d " 1852...35.22	"	60

It cannot be too generally known that the dividends paid annually to the proprietors are derived entirely from the investment of their own capital, the deed of settlement forbidding any portion of the income of the Life Assurance Fund to be diverted to pay interest to the proprietors.

The distinguishing feature of this Company is—a guaranteed return at any time for the surrender of existing Whole Term Policies, effected by even rates of forty per cent. of the amount of ordinary premiums received thereon.

The objection often raised by persons intending to assure, as to the uncertainty of being able to continue the payment of their premiums, is thus obviated, and a policy holder will always know the value of his policy. Policies will also thus be tendered immediately available as securities.

Loans are granted on deposit of policies of five years' standing, to the extent of their value, thus enabling the holders to provide for the payment of future premiums.
