WHAT I LIVE FOR.

BY G. LINNEUS BANKS.

I live for those who love me,
For those I know are true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For all human ties that bind me,
For the task by God assign'd me,
For the bright hopes left behind me,
And the good that I can do.

I live to learn their story,
Who've suffered for my sake,
To emulate their glory,
And follow in their wake;
Bards, martyrs, patriots, sages,
The noble of all ages,
Whose deeds crowd history's pages,
And time's great volume make.

I live to hail that season,
By gifted minds foretold,
When men shall live by reason,
And not alone by gold—
When man to man united,
And every wrong thing righted,
The whole world shall be lighted,
As Eden of old.

I live to hold communion
With all that is divine,
To feel there is a union
'Twixt Nature's hearts and mine;
To profit by affliction,
Reap truths from fields of fiction,
Grow wiser from conviction,
And fulfill each great design

I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For the wrong that needs resistance,
For the cause that lacks assistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do.

BECOMING A MEDIUM.—The fascinating spiritual rapping is without a doubt gaining strength among us, and some very ludicrous incidents often grow out of it at times, as well as more serious and deplorable ones. A few nights since, says a contemporary, a young friend of ours, who, from a sheer skeptic, had become a devout believer, retired to rest, after having his nervous system partially destroyed by the information through the spirit of his grandfather, that he would become a medium. He was in his first comfortable snooze, when a clicking noise in the direction of the door awoke him. He listened intently; the noise was still going on—very like the raps of the spirits of the table, indeed. "Who is there?" he asked. There was no answer, and the queer noise stopped. "Anybody there?" No answer. "It must have been a spirit," said he to himself, "I must be a medium. I'll try. (Aloud), If there is a spirit it will signify by saying 'ay'—no, that's not what I mean. If there is a spirit in the room, will it please to rap three times?"

Three different raps were given in the direction of the bureau. "Is it the spirit of my sister?" No answer. "Is it the spirit of my mother?" Three raps. "Are you happy?" Nine raps. "Do you want for anything?" A succession of very loud raps. "Will you give me communication if I get up?" No answer. "Shall I hear from you to-morrow?" Raps very loud again; this time in the direction of the door. He waited long for an answer to his last question, but none came. The spirit had gone; and after thinking on the extraordinary visit he turned over and fell asleep.

On getting up in the morning he found that the spirit of his mother had carried off his watch and purse, his pants down into the hall, and his great coat off altogether.

Never Failing Remedy!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS' SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Sidney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him that he could not move without crutches for nearly ten years. Recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

(Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsboro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To professor Holloway.

Sir,—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF VICERATED BAD LEGS DEBILITY AND GENERAL ILLHEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th 1852.

To professor HOLLOWAY.

Dear Sir,—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibson, of 31, Bailey-street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill-health, accompanied with a disordered stomach and great derangement of the system. In addition to this she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In Pills and Ointment and she states, that in a wonderfully short time they effected a perfect cure, of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS, AND ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker & Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies, her health rapidly giving away under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above seventy years of age We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of the really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A Private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, dear Sir, your's faithfully,

April 8th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.

CANNON STREET WEST.
London, 1st March, 1853.

THE Court of Directors have much pleasure in reporting the onward progress of this Company. During the year 1852, the new Policies issued were 324, assuring the sum of £182,957 18s., being the largest amount of new business transacted in any one year.

The Income of the year was £53,619 5s 8d., and the funds in hand, after providing for payment of bonuses to the policy holders and proprietors, and reduction of premiums allowed, had increased to £248,979 16s 7d.

Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that the expenses of management for the year did not amount to seven per cent. of the income. The number of policies issued, and the income of the Company during the respective years, were as follows:
