IN THE RUSH OF 1950.

The owner of a great dairy was showing a visitor around the plant.

"All these thousands of cows," he said, "are milked by machinery. The milk is conveyed into an immense reservoir, from which it is carried in underground pipes at a speed of a mile a minute to all points within fifty miles of here. The system works perfectly, and yet there is one great drawback."

"What is that?" asked the visitor.

"Well, of course, there's no cream any more. It is impracticable for us to separate it here, and in this age of the world nobody has time to wait for it to rise."

Let Us Measure You Today!

For a new suit. We offer you a choice of fine Worsteds, Serges, in all the newest patterns. The best fitting, best looking and best wearing suit ever made for the price,

LUXURIANT GRASS.

"Years ago," said a New Yorker, "a newspaper was sending the children of the poor to the country for a week. I went with one of the bands in order to make some sketches.

"Well, when the train drew up I helped out a thin urchin of about six years. I lifted him into the waiting farm wagon, and we jogged off through beautiful rolling pasture—miles on miles of green velvet.

"The little fellow was very much excited with the scene.

"'Gee,' he said, 'they must need a lot of cops here.'

"'Why so,' said I.

"'There's so much grass to keep off of,' said the child."

TWO OF A KIND.

(Exchange.)

An Irish soldier wanted to get a furlough and trumped up a story to the effect that his wife was very sick and had written him to come home. The captain was aware of Pat's tricks, so he said to him:

"I have received a letter from your lady in which she directs me not to let you go home. She said: 'He gets drunk; he breaks the household furniture, and he mistreats me shamefully.'"

Pat saluted and started to leave the room, but on reaching the door turned and said:

"Sor, can I speak to ye—not as if to an officer—but as mon to mon?"

"Go ahead," said the captain.

Pat went close to the captain, and lowering his voice said:

"Well, sor, what I am after sayin' is this: That you and I are two of the most illigant liars the Lord ever made. I am not a married man."

You will be pleased if you allow Ungars to do your laundry.
