I miss thee, oh! my darling boy,
Far more than words can tell!
Thou wast my pride, my hope my joy,
I loved thee, oh! how well.
The dear fond accents of thy tongue,
Now cold beneath the sod,
Are joined with angels' songs to praise
Thy Saviour and my God.

For Coughs and Throat Disorders.

Use "Brown's Bronchial Troches," having proved their efficiency by a test of many years.

"I have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, excepting to think yet better of that which I began thinking well of."

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

The New York Observer, in an able article on church music, by its senior editor, thus speaks of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organ: "Here we have an organ, sweet, solemn, sonorous, and grand; with your eyes shut you cannot distinguish its sound from that of the pipe organ itself. It is so effective and beautiful as to meet the desires of the most refined and fastidious, and is all that is needed in any church of ordinary size."

Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers at private sale, that UPLAND FARM, formerly owned by Capt. Dormon, situated in the township of Falmouth, bounded on the East by the Avon River, West by the main post-road, and two miles below the Railroad Terminus at Windsor; containing about fifty-five acres of excellent land; fifteen of which have been under the plough. The remainder has been cleared and could be easily ploughed.

There is a convenient place to get marsh mud for the upland which could be made equal to dyke. There is on the premises nearly new—the house 24 by 26 feet, well finished, also extensive QUARRIES of soft white plaster; also a WHARF 30 feet wide, by 100 long, where vessels of 800 tons can load. The contemplated railroad from Windsor to Hantsports, was to run across to this place at the head of the wharf.

A GOOD HOUSE AND BARN,

This would be an eligible situation for a Sea Captain or Ship Carpenter, being a good site for a Shipyard.

The Subscriber would sell the whole or a part, i. e., all the Land and Buildings, reserving the Quarries and Wharf.

Terms will be made easy. For further particulars enquire of the Subscriber.
