"HANNAH COGOMAN: An authentic narrative of her conversion from Romanism, her abduction from Charlestown, and the treatment she received during her absence; by THOMAS FOWL CARTOCORR, D.D., Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Charlestown, Mass."—Boston: Gould & Lincoln, 1853—pp. 130.]

Whoever desires additional proof of the unalterable system by which Popery tyrannises over the minds and bodies of its votaries, and evidences its insatiable bigotry and intolerance, wanting only the power to carry persecution to its utmost limit, will do well to procure this unpretending but interesting and important little book. The facts are of such recent occurrence, and transpired in a locality so near at hand, as to be fresh in our minds; and this succinct and temperate narrative clearly details all the iniquitous steps in the process, by which priestly craft and intolerance endeavoured, though happily in vain, to persecute even to destruction, a young and feeble female, for the heinous crime of becoming a convert from the superstitious darkness of Popery to the Bible truth and clear gospel light of Protestantism. We earnestly recommend this striking narrative to the attentive) perusal of all classes and creeds. [It is on sale by Mr. B. O'Brien, King Street.]

COMMUNICATIONS.

[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

MR. EDITOR.—In your editorial remarks on the appointment of Government Directors, in the Chronicle of the eighth July, you say, that no opposition was made to the re-election of Mr. Jardine as President of the European and North American Company, and he was therefore re-elected unanimously. I am authoritatively informed, however, that this was not exactly the case; that a motion was made at the board to insert the word "unanimously" in the resolution, which was objected to; but as no other person was nominated, no vote was taken, and the election therefore passed without opposition.

I would inform you also, that Mr. J. A. Harding strenuously advocated in the House of Assembly (even if he did not originate it), the principle, that no member of the House, unless a member of the Executive, should be a Railway Director on the part of the Government.

Will you oblige me by inserting this brief communication in your next? Yours, &c.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

York County, July 16th, 1853.

[We have inserted the above, to oblige our correspondent; but confess we do not see much material difference, in the effect of a party being elected to an office "unanimously" and "without opposition."—ED. CHRON.]

[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

Mr. Editor,—The candid manner in which you lately commented on the dangerous practice of racing by the Steamers on the River St. John, has given great satisfaction; and I hope your strictures will have a beneficial effect. Having frequent occasion to travel on the river, I am personally interested in the matter, and am anxious to be assured that I can always do so in safety. I would mention for your information, that I have found one Steamboat Master who is not obnoxious to the charge of racing. Having repeatedly travelled by the "I. D. Pierce," I have always found Captain CHAS. STONE determined to allow nothing of the kind in his boat; he constantly and carefully looks after the proceedings in the Engine Room and will never allow one inch of unusual pressure on the steam; even when two other Steamers are running in competition with him. In conversation with him on the subject, he observed, that as he was well patronised by passengers, he would never allow any tampering with their safety by racing. I hope all other Masters of Steamers on the River will steadily act on the same principle.

I am, Sir, yours, &c.

A TRAVELLER.

[We take much pleasure in publishing the above communication, and can vouch from personal experience the truth of the assertions, knowing Capt. Seges to be one of the most popular and prudent steamboat masters on the river.)—Ed. Chron.

Notice.—Henceforth, the terms of the Chronicle will be only 10s. per annum to subscribers who pay in advance, and 12s. 6d. when paid yearly or half-yearly, not in advance.

☞ We specially request all those now in arrear (and more particularly those who have indulged themselves by being from seven to fifteen years in our debt,) to come forward at once and settle old scores, and commence afresh under the above new arrangement, which will prevent the necessity of resorting to coercive measures. We would say to all such delinquents, let us at all events make a satisfactory settlement of some kind, even if we are obliged to give them further time for payment. We hope they will take this hint as "a word to the wise."

Mr. Stephen S Wiggins is an authorised agent for the Chronicle, Grand Lake.

Mr. Archibald McAllister, is agent for the Chronicle, Queen's County, on the western side of the river.

CITY CUSTOM.

JAMES GARRETT & CO., would call the attention of their City Customers to a lot of French Satins and Silk Vestings, superior to anything of that description of goods heretofore offered for sale in this market. They will be made to measure at from 30s. to 35s.

Medicinal Uses of the Wild Cherry.

Ever since the settlement of America, Wild Cherry had been known to possess very important medicinal virtues. Every body knew this fact, but nobody knew how to extract its essential properties. Every mother gave Wild Cherry Tea to her children for worms, for colds, and for almost every disease; and adults throughout our country are in the habit of making a compound of syrup of Wild Cherry bark and other ingredients, to be used in spring as an antidote to complaints incident to that changeful season. It is found by experiment that the Wild Cherry possesses even far more important qualities than was ascribed to it. For the first stage of Consumption, Asthma, no matter how long standing, Coughs, Liver Complaints, etc., it is proved to be the best medicine known to man. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a chemical extract, combined with a similar extract from Tar, which enhances its value. Its success in curing pulmonary diseases, in almost every stage, after our best physicians could do no more, has astonished the faculty, and led them to confess that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry possesses a principle heretofore unknown among medical men.
