"SONS OF A GLORIOUS LAND."

BY A BARRISTER OF NEW-BRUNSWICK.

Sons of a glorious land—
A glorious land and free,
Though Ocean's wrath has lash'd her strand
Full many a century,
Her rugged coasts and stern,
Laugh back the puny spray,
And bid the haughty Sea-King learn
Fit vassalage to pay.

Sons of a glorious land—
A glorious land and free;
Did hostile realms and Empires band
To cross her liberty?
Her "Wooden Walls" are filled—
Her banner's drained close;
Britain's staunch heart with glory thrill'd—
She spurn'd her leaguer'd foes.

Sons of a glorious land—
A glorious land and free:
Hath arbitrary rust e'er plann'd
A scheme of Tyranny?
Her barons proud and true—
Her peasants bold and leal,
With stalwart arms, have scorn'd to sue,
But struck for Britain's weal.

Sons of a glorious land—
A glorious land and free;
Hath foul Sedition ever fann'd
Its pestilence to thee?
The British Oak might star
In its extremest breath,
But heard'st ong fast its deep roots were—
The goodly Tree was staunch.

Sons of a glorious land—
A glorious land and free,
Solemn and stern the Charter stands
Of your high liberty:
Charter'd in each heart's core—
Alive in your quick blood;
What holy recollections pour
Their deep baptismal flood.

O'er that most reverend Land—
The altar of the free;
Beneath whose consecrated sand
Our FATHERS' ashes be;
O'er whose high purpose still
Their deathless spirits pause,
To shield from each unlicensed will
Her Temple, Throne and Laws.

Sons of this glorious soil—
Sons of these glorious sires;
In each far Province where you toil,
Maintain the patriot's fires.
Stand for the British Throne—
Your British rights preserve;
Make British Liberty the zone
From which no hope shall swerve.

Bind Freedom to your brows:
To your heart's-hearth, THE QUEEN:
These sacred arks of ancient vows,
O keep them fresh and green.
Loosen no shred of love
From the old parent tree;
Thus the sound pulse our sons shall move,
Which beat in EIGHTY-THREE.

VARIETY.

EFFECTS OF FORTUNE-TELLING.—A female vocalist, named Fisher, lately committed suicide in Leeds. Inquiry it is to the case shows that the deluded young woman was induced to wait upon a professed sorceress some months back, to test her powers of looking into futurity. The deceased was then informed that a gentleman would present her with a bunch of flowers, and that he would soon after make her his wife. It so happened that after a concert at which she soon afterwards sang, a bouquet of flowers was presented to the deceased, which though a very common act of kindness towards a favorite female vocalist, no doubt at once fixed in her mind a firm belief in the fortune-teller's predicton. Miss Fisher again waited upon her, and was told that she must burn a stated quantity of spirits at midnight, for a stated number of nights after which her future husband would be then shown to her, and future revelations of coming events would be made to her; but was at the same time assured that the gentleman was very rich, and that she would ride in her own carriage before three months had passed. She was further told that her lover would come for her in his own carriage. The wild and fallacious hopes excited by these pretended predictions, being of course eventually blighted, the succeeding bitter mortification and disappointment, together with the embarrassment consequent upon the expensive preparations for the anticipated marriage, were amply sufficient to destroy the balance of a credulous and sanguine mind.

AN AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT.—In a case tried in the Exchequer, London, on Tuesday, before Mr. Baron Martin, a man named Turner, a 'bumboat' man, brought an action against a person named Norton, another 'bumboat' man, for having accused him of a felony, and caused his arrest. The case having been proved, Mr. Baron Martin said, Mr. Hawkins, had you not better consent to withdraw a juror? You see, after the supposed assault and false imprisonment, the parties shake hands,—the defendant carries out his promise not to appear against the plaintiff at the police-court, and at the time the latter consents not to appear, the plaintiff stands some gin as a sort of ratification of the treaty, and they drink together upon it.—How can the plaintiff sustain an action after this settlement? Mr. Hawkins: Well, my lord, if the defendant will now stand treat—but only on those terms—; probably I may, after your lordship's intimation, be able to induce my client to consent. (Laughter.) Mr. Parry was quite willing, on the part of the defendant, to accede to this arrangement; his client would stand treat. (Renewed laughter.) Mr. Baron Martin: Very well, you withdraw a juror, the defendant undertaking to stand treat. (Increased laughter.) Mr. Hawkins said his client was willing to adopt the suggestion of the court; he would withdraw a juror upon his learned friend, Mr. Parry, undertaking that his client, the defendant, should stand treat. (Roars of laughter.) Mr. Parry, of course, undertook that his lordship would have this verdict, as he might call it, recorded as a "special" verdict. (Much laughter.)

The common fluency of speech in many men and most women, is owing to scarcity of matter and a scarcity of words; for whoever is master of a language and has a mind full of ideas, will be apt in speaking, to hesitate a little upon the choice of both; whereas, common speakers have only one set of ideas, and one set of words to clothe them in, and these are always ready at hand—as people can come faster out of a church when it is almost empty, than when a crowd is at the door.—Swift.

The following lines on Woman, have been quoted, sung, and admired, times without number.—The author was an Irish editor in Dublin, by the name of Parrott, and the lines are an extract from a poem on Woman, published in 1840.

She we'er with treach'rous kiss her Saviour stung,
She we'er denied him with unholy tongue;
She where apostles shrank, could danger brave;
Last at his cross and earliest at his grave.

A CHILD'S ARITHMETIC.—A young lady in a class studying arithmetic in the High School at Sandusky, announced to her schoolmistress, that in six months, she would be married; that in twelve months, she would have a husband; that in twenty months, she would have a husband and a baby; that in two years, she would have a husband, a baby and twins; that in two years and six months, she would have a husband, a baby, twins and twin baby; that in three years, she would have a husband, a baby, twins, twin baby and twin husband; that in three years and six months, she would have a husband, a baby, twins, twin baby, twin husband and twin baby; that in four years, she would be Miss L. Way, instead of Miss Way, and that, very moderately, she would be a fool all the time.

The far-famed Medicine.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTHMA, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following Testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

Sir,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
Jan'y. 1st, 1852. (Signed) R. MIDDLETON.

PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs; her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she never experienced any symptoms of relapse, and she declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
Nov. 23, 1852. (Signed,) J. GAMIS.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF A CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square Winchester.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed since, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged servant,
Oct. 8th, 1852. (Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 15th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. Captain Jackson, of this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) G. BRIGGS.

W'GRATH & KELLY'S, MARBLE WORKS,

Adjoining the Free Church, Sydney Street.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment are prepared to undertake all orders they may be favoured with in the different branches of House Work, Monuments, Tomb Tops, Grave Stones, Chimney Pieces, ornamented and plain; Table Tops, of every description; and Baptismal Fonts, of the most elegant and chaste designs.

All our work we engage to finish in the most workmanlike manner, and in material of the best description.

We do not intend to descend to the degrading artifice of attempting to exalt ourselves by depreciating others as some of our Yankee neighbours have done, but leave it to the knowledge and taste of those who may call on us to judge for themselves. The public have derived one benefit, at least, from the establishment of the petty shops of which these Yankees speak, as their prices, formerly so exorbitant, have been reduced 25 per cent. already, and will yet be brought lower.

In proof of our capability, we can refer to some of the best work in the city—for instance, the beautifully designed and well executed Monument to the late Mr. James Gerow, erected in the Rural Cemetery; the Tablet Erected in the Catholic Church, Fredericton, to the memory of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Dollard, &c. &c. &c. These have been executed by W'Grath & Kelly, while in the employment of those who have tried to take the credit of these works to themselves.

Messrs. W'Grath & Kelly are also engaged to do all the Carved Work of the Catholic Cathedral. This when done will afford ample proof of their capability. Dec. 16. 6m.
