ties named. They have not yet been apprehended, but are supposed to be secreted in the woods.

FURTHER STILL!

We just learn that the boy, alluded to above, states that the real name of the man, called Williams, is Hugh Breene, that he and the two Slavins were absent on Saturday night, and after returning home he heard Breene say, he killed them! He says also that the parties divided some sovereigns among them.

EXTRAORDINARY DEATH BY DROWNING.—On Saturday morning about 1 o'clock, the attention of several persons was aroused by the cries of a man in distress, which they found to proceed from the Ballast Wharf. Two men belonging to a Hillsborough schooner got into their boat, and others hurried in the direction of the cries. On coming to the wharf they discovered that a man had by some means got under the wharf. He was at the time close to the upper ballast floor, and at a spot where there was an opening between two logs in the side large enough to allow his arm to pass out, but too small for his body. He told them who he was, Archibald Brown, Manager of the Albert Mines. They made every effort to get him out; but the only means of doing this they found would be by cutting away a portion of one of the logs. A shed, in which wharf builders tools are kept, was near, but they did not think of this in time, and much time was lost in looking for an axe. In the meanwhile, the tide was rising fast. He spoke to the men frequently, asked them their names, and implored of them not to suffer him to be drowned. Some took hold of him to keep him up, while others plied the axe; but the tide rose faster than they could work. They saw him put his hand to his mouth to keep out the water, and soon after the water rose over him, and he was drowned before their eyes.—Freeman.

RAIL ROAD.—We observe that tenders are advertised for, for making the rail road from Hampton to Sussex, and also from the Bend to Salisbury. It is to be let in sections of eight miles each.

NEW PATENT LAMPS.—A new Lamp called "Ufford's Celebrated smoking Consuming Patent Lamp" has been introduced into this City, and is now for sale at the Store of Mr. Henry Robertson, Kings Square. This Lamp requires only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, to produce a most brilliant light, and is adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, and Workshop. The following are among the recommendations given of it:—

UFFORD'S PATENT LAMP.—"At this season of the year, when we have but a short allowance of daylight, and when, too, oils and burning fluids are held at high prices, a lamp that will burn the poorest qualities of oil, lard or tallow, is quite a welcome aid in household economy. We have in years past seen a variety of such lamps in use, but have found none equal to Ufford's smoke consuming portable lamp. It is claimed that this lamp produces from the poorest quality of oil or grease, without odor, as much light as a medium Solar, at one-quarter the expense. So far as our experience goes, the lamp is equal to all that is claimed for it. It certainly gives a very brilliant yet agreeable light, and is admirably suited for a reading or sewing lamp, affording that shade to the eyes which is so necessary for their protection.—[Portland Transcript and Electic, Feb. 2, 1856.

Mr. Samuel Gardner has opened a new and handsomely fitted store for the sale of Dry Goods in Ferguson's building, King Street, adjoining that of Messrs. Barbour & Seelye. Mr. Gardner's shop has a lofty glass front, in the centre of which is the entrance. Along the sides of the shop are galleries, lightly, but substantially hung from the floor above by means of slight iron bars. These afford an excellent opportunity of displaying goods.—From the ceiling, which is very high, are suspended several handsome chandeliers. The lightness, elegance and simplicity of the decorations, are very creditable to the taste of the designer.—Leader.

Four Days Later from Europe.

The steamer Baltic, which sailed from Liverpool on the 14th inst., arrived at New York on Sunday evening last, with 160 passengers, and £72,620 in specie.

INDIA.—Telegraphic despatches, in anticipation of the overland mail reached London on the 11th, with dates from Bombay to the 17th, Madras to the 15th, and Calcutta to the 10th of September.

The intelligence from Delhi extends to the 30th of August. The siege train was expected to reach the English camp by Sept. 3d, after which the place would probably be assaulted.

On the 25th of August a body of the rebels which left Delhi with the object of intercepting the siege train, was attacked by Gen. Nicholson at Najafghar, and utterly defeated, with the loss of all their guns.

On the 1st Sept. Gen. Outram was Allahabad, with strong reinforcements, and expected to reach Cawnpore on the 9th.

Gen. Havelock gained his ninth victory on the 16th of August, driving the rebels from their strong position near Bithoor, which they desperately defended. After the battle he returned to Cawnpore, where he awaited reinforcements before advancing to the relief of Lucknow.

The garrison at Lucknow held bravely out, and no doubt was entertained of their being able to do so until relief arrived, which was expected to be about the middle of September. The garrison had made a second successful sortie, in which two guns and a large quantity of provisions were captured.

The Dinapore mutineers had again been defeated by Major Eyre, and were trying to make their way to Delhi.

At Agra all was well.

The 51st native infantry mutinied at Peshawur on the 28th of Aug., but by the following day the mutiny was completely crushed.

Mutinies of a portion of the 10th Light Infantry, at Ferozepore, and a part of the 5th, at Auzuna, had in a like manner been promptly suppressed.

At Nemuch, a squadron of the 2nd Bombay Light Cavalry mutinied, and the troopers have disbanded.

The rebels from Oude were threatening Allahabad and Benares, and those places were being put in a state of defence. Large bodies of troops were marching from Calcutta towards Allahabad.

The remainder of the Jondpore legion has mutinied, but no farther outbreak had occurred in the Bombay Army.

In the Madras Presidency, the Punjaub, Central India, and the Bundecund, things remained tranquil.

The "Mohurrum" holiday had passed off quietly in all parts of India.

Lord Elgin left Calcutta on the 3rd off September, for Hong Kong

It is stated that the troops at Bhopaul had revolted. The Begum, who continued friendly, had sent away the Europeans in safety.

Two more Regiments had arrived at Calcutta, and more were expected shortly.

Several troop ships passed Ceylon, while a strong force had likewise reached the Mauritius.

At Calcutta exchange was quoted at 2s a 2s 2¼d, with a downward tendency. Money was excessively scarce.

The Bank of Bengal refused to make advances against government paper, or bills having more than thirty days to run. Prices had declined in the export market, and the import market continued dull.

At Madras the markets were generally unchanged. Money easy. Exchange 2s 2¼d, with a downward tendency.

At Bombay money was plentiful. Exchange 2s 1¾d. Prices of imports continued to advance.

The Indian mail was expected to reach London on the 15th.

A despatch from the London Post says, "The British forces, taking the offensive, had attacked the batteries at Lucknow Castle capturing the guns."

STILL LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE PERSIA.

The steamer Persia, which sailed from Liverpool on the 17th inst., arrived at New York yesterday. She brought one million dollars in specie.

LONDON, Oct. 17th.—The Money Market is without change. Consols 88½ to 88¾. The bullion in the Bank of England had decreased £553,000.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFFS.—Flour steady, but little enquiry. Red Wheat slightly advanced. Corn firm, with a slight advance on all qualities.

Provisions unchanged. Sugar 2s to 3s lower, and holders pressing sales. Coffee lower and dull.

Advices by the Indian Mail is cheering, but they add no important news.

The king of Prussia remains in a critical condition.

A fearful financial panic prevails at Vienna. The Banks of Holland and Belgium had advanced the rates of discount.

No political news worth telegraphing.

Christian Soldiers.

General Havelock, whose name is now on every Englishman's tongue, is a member of the Baptist body, and is known to be very firmly attached to his denominational principles. He is married to the daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Marshman, the eminent Serampore Baptist Missionary. The London Daily News thus refers to him:

"We shall not be ashamed to confess that to our minds a still more hopeful assurance of sustaining power under the enormous difficulties that press upon our gallant countrymen in the East is that God-fearing, semi-Puritan Christianity, which is well known in India to distinguish many of the most eminent men to whom the safety of the Indian empire is now entrusted. We shall not be suspected of any partiality for that form of theology which is generally the outward symbol of modern Puritanism. But for the thing itself, of which the formal creed is the mere outward expression—for that stern spirit of self-denial—that habitual reference to loftier motives and eternal sanctions which, under the various names of Stoicism, Asceticism and Puritanism, has, in different stages of society, animated with a kindred spirit some of the bravest and best of the sons of men—for this spirit we have an eminent respect, especially in times of difficulty and danger. We implicitly believe that none fear men less than those who fear God most. No soldiers have ever shown themselves more invincible than those who can pray as well as fight; nor have any swords proved more resistless than those wielded by the right hands that know their way through dog's-eared Bibles. There is no mystery about the matter. He who lives for another world is not careful to win or keep this. Apart from any defect in his physical organization, the Christian Stoic ought to be the bravest among the brave. Regardless of wealth or power, indifferent to pleasure, with a sovereign contempt of death, and an unlimited devotion to duty—who should fight well if it be not the Puritan soldier? That some of our most distinguished Indian commanders are soldiers of this stamp, is in India itself a matter of common notoriety. We need only instance the gallant Havelock, a man whose character for courage and ability is not more firmly fixed among his colleagues than his reputation for his 'most decided views,' in the Low Church sense of that phrase, is current in Anglo-India Society. This is evidently a Christian warrior of the right breed—a man of cool head and resolute heart, who has learnt that the religion of war is to strike home and hard, with a single eye to God and his country."

ARRIVAL OF SUFFERERS FROM THE INDIAN MUTINIES.—The Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamer Columbo, arrived at Southampton on Monday, with the heavy portion of the India, China, and Australia mails.

The Lady Mayoress, from London, and the Mayor of Southampton, immediately proceeded on board to welcome the refugees, and to render them every assistance that might be necessary. Numerous relatives and friends of the passengers also went on board, and their meeting with their friends from India was an affecting sight. A great number of the passengers went ashore in one of the small steamers. A crowd of persons was in the dock, and here also affectionate greetings took place between long absent friends and relatives, which drew tears from many a bystander. There were about sixty children on board the Indian mail-packet, a large portion of whom were infants in arms, all of them hurried out of India on account of the fearful atrocities committed there.

Among the passengers is Mrs Perry, who went out in the Colombo (having been married but a month previously) to join her husband. She was directed, on her arrival at Suez, to return home again, her husband having left with his regiment to join the army in Bengal.

Attention was directed to a lady and four children who had narrowly escaped from Delhi, and had suffered great privations. She did not know whether or not her husband had escaped the massacre.

Colonel Lennox, of the 22nd Regiment, with his wife and daughter, are among the passengers. They escaped from Farzabad by almost a miracle. The Colonel was the only officer of the 22nd who escaped the massacre (excepting a sergeant.) On one occasion the Colonel, his wife, and daughter were in the hands of the mutineers; pistols were pointed at them, and their lives were in imminent peril, but the faithfulness of several natives averted the catastrophe, and after great hardships, being secreted for nine days in the jungle, they made their escape.

A FAVORITE REMEDY.—There is no medicine so extensively and favorably known as Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer. Its rapidly increasing sale in South America, India and Europe is ample proof of its success in those countries. Sold by S. L. Tilley.

☞ Dr. Leary's Anglo-Saxon Medicine and Advice is not only a Speedy Relief, but a radical cure in Asthma, Consumption, Dyspepsia, and Liver Complaint. Read his advertisement. It is worth giving it a trial.

Do not neglect a Cough, however slight, it is hardly excusable, when a simple remedy like Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam is within your reach. This is in nearly all cases effectual. No family should be without it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

APPOINTMENT.

I shall meet with the church in Douglass, (if the Lord will) on Sunday, the 8th of November next.

JOHN PERRY.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 27th, 1857.

Davis' Pain Killer.

This unparalelled preparation is receiving more testimonials of its wonderful efficacy in removing pain than any other medicine ever offered to the public: and these testimonials come from persons of every degree of intelligence and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respetability, and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain. The Pain Killer is used internally and externally, according to the nature of the complaint. It has been found to be an excellent remedy for sudden Colds, Coughs, Fever and Ague, Asthma and Phthisic, Pain in the Head, Kidney Complaints, Piles, Rheumatic Complaints, Bruises and Sores, Scalds, Burns, Canker, Bites and Ringworms, Weak Stomach and General Debility, Painter's Colic, Broken Breasts, Bowel Complaint and Dysentery, Cholera, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Toothache, &c., &c.

For sale by most of the medicine dealers throughout the world.

Sold by S. L. Tilley, Fellows & Co., and T. Walker & Son, St. John—W. L. Ferguson, Woodstock; Geo. C. Hunt, Jr., Fredericton.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—The family medicine chest that is furnished with these two powerful remedies needs nothing more. Eruptions, sores, wounds ulcers, tumors, and stiff joints are infallibly cured by the Ointment, and all affections of the bowels, stomach, and liver by the Pills. Sold at the manufactories, No 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and No. 244 Strand, London; and by all druggists, at 25c., 62 1-2c., and $1 per pot or box.

[From Zion's Herald and Wesleyan Journal.

"We make it a rule never to recommend a medical nostrum in our columns; but having found "Brown's Bronchial Troches" beneficial in a diseased state of the Throat, we suspend our rule in their favor, believing that we do our Clerical brethren a real favor in calling their attention to them."

A lozenge dissolved in the mouth has a direct influence to the affected parts, allaying Pulmonary Irritation, and giving relief in Coughs, Colds, and the various Throat Affections to which Public Speakers and Singers are liable. All Druggists sell them. Wee s & Potter, General Agents. vi oct21—1m BALSAM OF LIVERWORT AND HOARHOUND.—There is no preparation in the market more popular, or that is doing more good, than Mrs. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort and Hoarhound. For full twenty years it has maintained a reputation for the cure of Colds, Croups, and all kinds of Pulmonary Complaints. A friend of ours is eloquent in its praise in relation to its efficacy in curing Croup, pronouncing it one of the best articles he has ever seen used. The same may be said of its virtues in other complaints touching the throat and chest. Persons who are poor and sick will be supplied with a bottle gratis. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge always Resorted to when other Remedy Fails.

NEW YORK, September 15, 1856.

☞ This is to certify that my child, three years old, was troubled with worms some six months. I had tried several kinds of medicine, but none of them done any good: and it was not until I tried Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., that she found any relief. I gave her the contents of one bottle, which brought from her a very large quantity of worms, but they were so completely cut to pieces it was impossible to count them. My daughter is now doing well; indeed, she is completely restored to health. I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to parents. I would say, by all means keep a supply of this valuable medicine constantly in your houses. I have known many children to die suddenly from the effects of worms. It also not unfrequently happens that children are treated for croup, when the choking and coughing is caused altogether, by the irritation of worms. Therefore, I say again, keep it always in the house; it costs but little, and may be the means of saving life; and at any rate it will save physicians' bills.

MRS. LANE, No. 863 Eighth Street.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS, of PITTSBURGH, PA. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

COMFORT FOR THE AGED.

The Montreal "Transcript," speaking of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, June 15, says,—"We believe it to be generally recognized as a useful medicine by medical men, and we can add, with perfect truth and sincerity, that in one case with which we are more particularly acquainted—that of an old gentleman, at least eighty years of age, residing a few miles from this city, and who is troubled at times with an asthmatical complaint—the most decided relief is obtained whenever he makes use of the Balsam; thus, at the advanced period of life which he has arrived at, may be considered an unanswerable proof of its virtues."

Look out for imitations.

None genuine unless signed I BUTTS on the wrapper.

Sold by Agents every where.

An Important Item to the Survivors of the late War with Mexico.

LANCASTER C. H., S. C., May 12, 1856.

DR. C. M. JACKSON. DEAR SIR:—After my return from MEXICO, I was seriously afflicted with that terrible disease which has carried to the grave so many of my fellow-soldiers, Chronic Diarrhœa accompanied with Neuralgia, brought on by the climate of Mexico and the mode of living, while engaged in the war. The relief I have obtained from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters is astonishing: and I most cheerfully have, and still continue to recommend the Bitters to all who are similarly affected, believing that the benefit that will result from their use will be incalculable.

Very respectfully yours,

K. G. BILLINGS,

Late Lieutenant of Company C., Palmetto Regt. S. C. Volunteers.

Be sure and ask for Hoofland's German Bitters, and see that the signature of C. M. Jackson, is on the wrapper of each bottle.

DRESS-MAKING.

THE most perfect system for CUTTING and FITTING Ladies' and Children's Dresses, is the Provincial Ladies' Dress Scale,

Which entirely does away with the necessity of FITTING ON TRYING ON! The old method of "Pinning on Lining," and refitting once or twice, always was and is harrassing to the Ladies; and oftentimes the most costly materials are utterly spoilt. And again, ladies, if their Dress-Makers are very busy, have to call again, or remain until the hurry is over, before they can be fitted, as it takes time to fit by pinning on, and cannot be hurried or slighted without making misfits. This is entirely obviated by the "Provincial Ladies' Dress Scale." With this a Lady's measure can be taken in less than two minutes. She has no farther trouble: her dress can be made and sent to her, fitting perfectly. And why not? A gentleman can go to a Tailor and leave his measure for a coat: why cannot a lady leave her measure for a dress with a Dress-Maker? The gentleman does not fit on his Coat after it is basted to see where it should be altered; why should a Lady fit on her dress for that purpose? No reason whatever: if the "Provincial Ladies' Dress Scale" is used. By it all mis fits and vexation is impossible (providing the directions are followed strictly) as it is a simple, scientific rule, easily learned in about one hour!

Agents Wanted! in all parts of the Province. Persons who have learned the "Am. Ladies' Dress Charts System," can teach this. Agents supplied on the most liberal terms. DANIEL MORRISON, Teacher, Carlton, General Agent, for St. John and vicinity. Letters and orders to be addressed to
