The influences of intellectual cultivation. We trust that the real object which the agents of Popery seek to accomplish by their crusade against education, is so fully understood, as to enable the friends of liberty and truth, to foil all their crafty schemes.

The Catholics are about to build a Cathedral at Montreal, to surpass in size and magnificence any edifice of the kind on this continent. It is to be modeled after St. Peter's at Rome, is to be 350 by 175 feet, with a dome 300 feet high. It is proposed to complete it in twelve years at a cost of a million of dollars, to be collected by an annual tax from every Catholic man, women and child, in the diocese.

KILLED BY WHISKEY.—A little girl eight years old, the daughter of a Mr. Andrews, living in the Upper Town, Sherbrooke, died on Saturday last, from the effects of whiskey. It appears that, in the absence of the father some lumberman called to see the family, and took with them a quantity of whisky. The child drank some of it, 'as the mother says, without her knowledge, and was soon stupefied from its effects. Her visitors told her it would soon get over it, and she left the child to go to a neighbors to do some work. Soon after she was sent for, the child being in convulsions. Drs. Brooks and Johnson were called, but their efforts were of no avail; they pronounced the case hopeless. The child died on Sunday morning. We are told that it was suggested to the Coroner to hold an inquest, but that gentleman thought the case did not call for investigation. The liquor traffic is daily slaying its victims, and our Legislators cooly tell us we must not prohibit it, lest the liberty of the subject be interfered with.—Sherbrooke Gazette.

ELECTION AND RIOT IN QUEBEC.—On Saturday the 11th inst., was the first day of an election for a member to serve in the Provincial Parliament. There seems to have been much excitement and we learn from the Chronicle that at one time there was a serious riot. The great question at issue seems to be the School Question, and as this is generally made to involve sectarian considerations, the ignorant and bigoted, and consequently violent, of some sects, determined on the use of the "knock down" argument. The candidate in favor of seperate schools, who seems to be the popular one, was attacked in the street and had to fly to a shop for safety, a polling booth was attacked, and on the police being called out they were set upon by the mob and several of them badly beaten. At last when the fury of the mob seems to have been spent the military were called out, but their services not being required they returned to their posts. At the close of the first day's poll, Mr. Alleyn the separate school candidate was 826 ahead of his next opponent, the numbers being 1475 to 649.

American Miscellany.

The British American Provinces are now supplying the United States towns with eggs, which are imported duty free, under the Reciprocity Treaty. Twelve hundred and sixty dozen eggs from Nova Scotia were entered very recently at the Custom House, Boston, in one day. In the seasons of 1852, about 8,000 barrels of eggs, containing 84 dozen per barrel, were shipped from the port of Montreal to the United States, and sold at about 16c the dozen.—N. Y. Tribune.

M. C. Poltan was burned to death near Montgomery Chapel, in Montgomery county, O., on the 24th inst. Her dress, caught fire at the place where they were boiling sugar water. All her clothes were burned of her. The skin came from her whole body except her feet. It was truly a painful case. She was in her 68th year.

The Legislature of Mississippi has lately passed a law to the effect that no billiard table "shall be kept under penalty of less than $500, nor more than $1,000, while a person renting a house for billiard playing is subject to a fine from $100 to $1,000.

THE GRAVE AND THE BRIDAL ALTAR.—We learn says the Pennsylvanian, that arrangements had been made for the marriage of an amiable daughter of one of our most respectable citizens in the lower section of the city, and the joyous event was to have been consummated on Wednesday evening. The bridal attire had been prepared, and all the necessary preparations made by the parents and parties most deeply interested. But it was otherwise decreed. Last week she suddenly fell ill, died on Sunday, and was buried the very day which was intended to have witnessed the solemnization of her nuptials! Her marriage garment at her own request, formed her shroud!

A serious accident occured on the Michigan Southern Railroad on Thursday night, near Calumet station, to the Express train going West. Eleven cars were thrown off the track, and one lady and child killed. Several others were badly injured.

The Buffalo Com. Advertiser of the 10th inst. says:—At no time in our history has the travel through this city been so heavy as now. The emigration west seems like the exodus of an entire people. Night before last, the 7. 45 train, on the State Line road, left here with two engines and twenty-two cars. At Dunkirk it added six other coaches, so that it left there with twenty-eight cars, containing some 1,500 passengers, the train being nearly a quarter of a mile in length.

LARGE EMBEZZLEMENT IN BOSTON—ARREST OF A CLERK.—For several months past, Mr. Walter H Tilden, a large retail dealer in dry goods on Broadway, South Boston, has noticed the frequent and mysterious disappearance of various goods from his store, comprising even whole pieces of silks, delaines, berages, calicoes, &c., taken directly from his counters and shelves. He was finally forced to the alternative of believing that his clerks were either cognisant of the roguery going on or the actual robbers themselves. Besides taking every other means to discover the mode by which he was plundered, Mr. Tilden observed that his most confidential clerk was of late almost daily in the receipt of an extraordinary number of letters which, from their post marks, purported to hail from nearly every town on Cape Cod, and thinking all was not right, and governing himself by the existing circumstances, he ventured to open some of the letters, when the whole plot was discovered. It appeared that his head clerk was the only delinquent, and had been in the habit of forwarding the purloined fabrics to persons on the Cape, and the letters intercepted were receipts for the same. Goods to the amount of some thousands of dollars are already missed, and an account of stock is now being taken to ascertain the extent of the robberies. The clerk has been arrested, and on Saturday afternoon was taken down to the Cape to reclaim what goods may be found and to discover the parties who were concerned with him in the nefarious business.—[Boston Transcript, April 18.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The most interesting item of intelligence is the election news in Great Britain. The election, it is believed, has resulted in the defeat of the Conservative or Opposition party, and the triumph of Lord Palmerston.

The London Times of April 1, says:

The elections have already changed the whole face of the political heavens. We are no longer as we were a fortnight ago, as regards either the Chinese question or a dozen others of much older and nearer interest. People do not now ask who will be in the new Parliament, but exclaim, "What a Parliament there will be out of doors!" The expurgation not only of vicious, but even of some meritorious elements, proceeds almost too rapidly. When the House of Commons meets, it will be with the serious consciousness that a great number of its most active and able spirits are discontented exiles, moving Heaven and Earth, and ready to go lower still to obtain re-edmission. It will be in the case of the Celestial Empire, besieged by "outer barbarians," or "foreign devils," as the vagrant sympathies of some will entitle them to be called. Outside of the House, agitating, haranguing, writing, plotting, combining, and all but coalescing, will be Cobden, Bright, M Gibson, Miall, and W. J. Fox; there will be Sir J. Walmsley, A. Pellatt, Sir W. Clay, Wilkinson, and Oliveira; there will be Layard, and other free knights, there will also be absent Cardwell, Roundell, Palmer, the two Phillimore's, Butt, M. Chambers, and a host of others, more or less distinguished, or hoping some day to distinguish themselves.

Indoors there will be positive gaps in the debate,—cries for Cobden or M. Gibson, and no Cobden to stand up. His own purge has operated too effectively by half, for he has turned the House out of doors. Like the old lady in the nursery rhyme, he has sold his bed and now lies upon the straw. In the House we should think the result will be a little more calmness and decency of discussion, and a little less of that peculiar style of oratory which has recently been imported from "the bright region of the setting sun" into the British House of Commons.

Diplomatic relations between Sardinia and Austria will, it is said, be restored sooner than expected. The Times informs us that the intervention of the British and French Governments for the arrangement of the existing differences between the Austrian and Sardinian governments has been favorably received.

The Neufchatel difficulty is at length also in a fair way of adjustment. A Paris letter in the Nord, stating that the Conference will not again meet before Saturday, adds that the instructions demanded by Dr. Kern are not likely to give rise to new difficulties, inasmuch as the principal point now in discussion is a demand made by the King of Prussia for a sum of 2,000,000f., for arrears of his domains in the Canton since 1848.

TURKISH HONESTY EXEMPLIFIED.—A curious instance of how some things are managed in Turkey has just occured. To relieve the sufferings of the inhabitants of the island of Rhodes, victims of an earthquake and of the terrible explosion of a large quantity of gunpowder, the Sultan sent them a present of a large quantity of gunpowder, the Sultan sent them a present of 400,000 piastres. In passing from hand to hand, this sum was so reduced that only 18,000 piastres reached the island, and this sum was handed over to the primates to buy their silence, so that the sufferers for whom the money was intended got nothing at all. The story seems incredible, but the Constantinople correspondent of the London Times avers that it is nevertheless quite true.

DEAF MUTES.—There are in Europe about 150,000 deaf mutes. In Switzerland one person in 590, is deaf. In France one to every 1,200. In England the proportion is greater than in France, and in Holland and Germany it is about the same.

MR. SPURGEON.—A correspondent of the Times, evidently a familiar contributor, describes Mr. Spurgeon:—"A friend of mine, a Scotch Presbyterian, comes up to town and says, 'I want to hear Spurgeon; let us go.' Now I am supposed to be a High Churchman, so I answered, 'What, go and hear a Calvinist—a Baptist—a man ought to be ashamed of himself for being so near the Church and yet not within its pale?' 'Never mind, come and hear him.' Well, we went yesterday (Sabbath) morning to the Music Hall in the Surrey Gardens. At first I felt a strange sensation of wrong-doing. It was something like going to a morning theatrical performance on Sunday; nor did a terrific gust of wind which sent the Arctic Regions, erected out of laths and pasteboard, in a style regardless of expense, flying across the water of the lake, tend to cheer a mind depressed by the novelty of the scene. Fancy a congregation, consisting of ten thousand souls, streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming, buzzing, and swarming—a mighty hive of bees—eager to secure at first the best places, and at last any place at all. After waiting more than half an hour—for, if you wish to have a seat, you must be there at least that space of time in advance—Mr. Spurgeon ascended the tribune. To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion, which seemed to run at once, like an electric current, through the breast of every one present; and by this magnetic charm the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours. It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse. It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly; of his language, that it is neither highflown nor homely; of his style, that it is at times familiar, at times declamatory, but always happy and eloquent; of his doctrine, that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appear in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr. Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with gospel weapons against irreligion, cant, hypocrisy, pride, and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life; and, to sum up all in a word, it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity." The letter ends by recommending that Mr. Spurgeon should be asked to preach in Westminster Abbey!

WONDERFUL ESCAPE FROM FIRE—HEROISM OF A WOMAN!—On the night of the 1st inst., the tavern known as the Robinson Inn, situated on the Goderich Road, and the village of Adare, was burned to the ground. It was in the occupation of Mr. Robinson, who was unfortunately away from home at the time. Mrs. R. had retired to rest and was asleep with her infant, when she was awoke by a loud explosion, and saw to her terror the flames rushing into her room. Mrs. Robinson jumped out of bed, taking her infant in her arms, and ran to the stairs that led to an apartment where a servant and her children were sleeping. There she found with difficulty, the house being all in a blaze. However, she at last succeeded, and in a few moments the servant fell down the stairs, her hair being on fire. Mrs. R. assisted her to extinguish the fire on her head, and told her to go up and fetch out the two children who were asleep in bed, but this the servant refused to do.

Mrs. R. then left her infant, and rushing through the flames, which had by this time increased in intensity, dragged her children out, and succeeded in reaching the street, having saved them all. The report, which was the cause of awakening Mrs. R., and thereby enabling her to rescue herself and children, was occasioned by the discharge of a gun which was hanging up in the bar room loaded, and which went off in consequence of the heat of the fire. After their providential escape, they found refuge in the house of Mr. W. Henry, in which they were well-cared for. The night was bitterly cold, and the neighborly aid was the more necessary, seeing that Mrs. R., the children and servant had no other covering than their night dresses.—London Free Press.

MORE TRACES OF SIR JOHN FRANKLIN'S PARTY.—Capt. Sherard Osborne has forwarded to the editor of the Times the following extract of a letter, dated Red River Settlement, Hudson Bay Territory, December 6th:

"I received a letter from Roderick by the last mail, and expresses a wish that I should write to you by the first opportunity, and state more particularly about the reports we heard last summer about some traces of whites being seen in the North. I have just returned from ——, who was at Norway House last July, and saw the man who brought down an express to Sir George Simpson from Mr. Anderson, in McKenzie's River, (district), stating that Indians had brought over reports to one of the trading points in that quarter, that Indians had seen two or more encampments of whites on an island on some point where Anderson and Stewart turned back, (in 1855), and that one of the encampments particularly was quite fresh, supposed to have been abandoned a day or two before the Indians saw it, and from the traces thought there might have been ten or twelve men. I could not hear of the exact locality further than that Anderson and Stewart were within a very short distance of the place where the traces were seen. I hope you have heard more particularly about the report."—St. Paul (Min.) Pioneer of March 21.

SPREAD OF PROTESTANTISM IN TURKEY.—An American missionary writes from Aintab, in Central Turkey;—"One of our friends recently fell in with a man of mean dress and forlorn appearance; and the following dialogue ensued—'Where are you from, brother?' 'Diarbekir.' 'And where have you been?' 'To Aleppo.' 'What is your trade?' 'Ah, don't ask me,' said the man heaving a deep sigh. 'Why, what's the matter? What is it?' 'Well, I am a painter.' 'A house painter?' 'No.' 'Well, what then?' 'Why, I paint pictures of the saints; and Protestantism has spoiled my business. I have eaten up all my property, and run in debt, because I could find no work at home. I have heard that there were Roman Catholics in Aleppo, and I said, I shall find work there:—but no one would employ me. Oorfa is nearly as bad; and Aintab is worst of all. Protestantism has torn down my house. Poor man! He is not alone. Various other trades have suffered. Dervishes and religious mendicants, keepers of arrack-shops, and even of coffee shops, have no reason to thank Protestantism; for its influence is strong to spoil their trade."

A SUCCESSFUL BLACKSMITH.—Twenty-five years ago Miles Greenwood went to Cincinnati, Ohio, a poor young man, and started a blacksmithery on the outskirts of the town. He now employs 450 men, pays $6550 for wages, affords support to 1200 persons, and turns out $600,000 worth of work annually. Last week he gave a grand feast to his people, to celebrate the quarter century.

M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE IN TEXAS.

Hear what the Proprietor of the "STAR HOTEL" has to say of the wonderful effects of M'Lane's Vermifuge:

"STAR HOTEL," CENTREVILLE, TEXAS. Aug. 22d, 1854.

MESSRS. FLEMING BROS.

I feel it my duty to make the following statement: Several of my children have been unwell for the last week or two. I called at the "Big Mortar" to get some Oil of Wormseed and other truck, to give them for worms. The Druggist recommended M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by you, but having heretofore, tried every Vermifuge, in my knowing, without advantage, I told him it was not worth while, as my children appeared proof against them all. He said to take a bottle, and offered if it done no good to refund the money. To satisfy him I done so, and the effect was so much better than expected that I got another bottle, and the result was most astonishing. Three of my children discharged a great number of the largest worms I ever saw. To a young man, my Mail Carrier, who was weak, punny and poor as a snake, for a month or so, I gave two doses, which brought from him at least a pint of what is called stomach worms! Strange as this may appear, yet it is as "true as preaching." How the boy stood it, so long as he did, with ten thousand "Bots" gnawing at his stomach, is the greatest wonder to me. All these cases are now doing well. No doubt the lives of thousands of children have been saved by the timely use of this extraordinary medicine. Don't fail to give it a trial. THOS. R. THURMAN.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS, of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had of all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

☞ Holloway's Ointment.—Scorbutic Eruption and Scrofula. Nearly half the human race can bear witness to the efficacy of this wonderful unguent in the cure of these diseases. They never fail, however long standing or desperate the case may be.

Sold at the manufactories, No 80 Maiden Lane, N. Y., and 244, Strand, London; and by all druggists, at 25c., 62c., and $1 per pot.

DEATHS.

At Sackville, on Tuesday, 7th instant, Mr. William Lawrence, agee 86 years. Mr. L was, with one exception, the oldest man in Sackville, and remembered when the greatest part of it was a forest.

No, I'll repine at death no more,
But with a cheerful gasp resign,
To the cold dungeon of the grave,
These dying, withering limbs of mine.

At Westchester, County Cumberland, on the 20th March, after a short illness, Henry Purdy, Esq., in the 68th year of his age. Mr. Purdy was highly esteemed and respected by all who knew him. He has left a widow and eleven children to deplore the loss of a kind husband and father.

At South China, (Maine, U. S.) on the 8th instant, Eunice, wife of Mr. James Van Barcom. Her health had been feeble for several years. Loving her Saviour above everything else, she was enabled to do the work assigned to her while the day lasted; her last illness was short; she attended meeting only four days previous to being confined to her bed; she bore all with Christian firmness; spoke of the bliss prepared for her in heaven, and, with her soul filled with love to God and man, quietly passed away—[Western News please copy.

At Springfield, on the 7th instant, of consumption, Elizabeth Jane, daughter of Mr. John Jones, aged 11 years.

ELECTION ADDRESSES.

A CARD.

IF from any remark made by the Provincial Secretary on the Hustings this day, he intended, or left the impression that I by any act, remark, or the most distant allusion either before or after the Prorogation of the House desired to avert the Dissolution, I beg most unequivocally to give the same my decided contradiction and defy any man to the assertion.

apl21 JAMES A. HARDING.

To the Electors of the City of St. John.

GENTLEMEN;

HAVING yielded to the solicitations of a number of my fellow Citizens, I will be a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election of Representatives to the General Assembly. Should I be again honoured with your confidence, you may rely upon my best exertions on behalf of the interests of this City, and those of the Province generally.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
apr14 S. L. TILLEY.

CARD.

THE Government having thought it more advisable to trust their persons to the people, than their measures to the Legislature, have dissolved the House. I am again before the Citizens of St. John a Candidate for their suffrages.

apr14 JAMES A. HARDING.

To the Independent Freeholders of the County of King's.

GENTLEMEN.—The Assembly having been dissolved with the view of affording the Constituencies an opportunity of expressing their opinion on the present state of public affairs, I have been induced to offer myself as a Candidate for the important position of one of your Representatives. If elected, I shall endeavor to maintain and defend the principles of Responsible Government, believing that the door of office should be open to every man, without distinction of Creed, Profession, or Occupation.

To the establishment of Municipal Corporations, or to any Educational system comprising among its provisions Direct Taxation, I am opposed, as unsuited to the age and condition of the country.

I shall support the present Administration in all measures conducive to the welfare of the country, and oppose them when I conceive the rights and privileges of the people are invaded.

In factious opposition to any Government, I hope never to be found, but will use whatever ability I possess to promote the true interests of the Province.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
E. A. VAIL.

UNION HOTEL, Union Street,

Between Charlotte and Sydney Streets, (South side.)

THE Proprietor of this Establishment, thankful for favours received during the period he occupied the New Brunswick Hotel, and convinced of the necessity of more and better accommodation for the public, has erected a large and substantial Building in Union Street, capable of accommodating from 70 to 80 Boarders. This House is well ventilated, the sleeping rooms are large, and every flat is well supplied with water, and also lighted with gas. The proprietor is determined to leave no means untried to merit the patronage of the community. Travellers arriving late at night will find the house always open, and ready to receive them; while the conveniences and moderate charges will render it emphatically the home of the stranger. The tables of the house will be supplied with the best the market affords, and the Proprietor is determined to adhere strictly to the Total Abstinence principle. ☞ Two large Stables have been erected on the premises, capable of accommodating 60 or 70 horses. Good hostlers always in attendance.
