FATHER SAVAGE'S SUCCESSOR

Rev. Joseph McDermott of This City Appointed Pastor of the Catholic Church at Sussex.

The New Freeman announces the appointment of Rev. Joseph McDermott of this city to succeed Rev. Father Savage, recently appointed to the vacancy in Moncton created by the lamentable death of Rev. Father Meahan.

Father McDermott, says the Freeman, is a native of this city, is a son of John McDermott, of Middle street, and was educated at St. Malachi's school here and at the University of St. Joseph's College. He made his theological studies in the Grand Seminary of Laval University, Quebec, and was ordained at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception here in June, 1896. He was sent immediately to Petersville to assist the late Rev. Patrick Farrell. On Father Farrell's death in January, 1901, Father McDermott was appointed by the late Bishop Sweeny pastor of Petersville and its dependencies—Oromocto, Fredericton Junction, Gagetown and the Nerepis. That appointment was the last official act of the late lamented Bishop Sweeny. Since that time Father McDermott proved himself an efficient and zealous worker in this part of the Lord's vineyard.

Rev. Father Savage tomorrow will take leave of his old parishioners. In the morning at the mass at White's Mountain he will say farewell to the people of that district as well as to those of Millstream. He will return to Sussex in time to say Vespers there at 7 o'clock tomorrow night, and on that occasion he will take his leave of the people among whom he has labored so faithfully and who have given him so many evidences of their esteem and love for him.

CARLETON CREW'S STAND.

They Offered to Row the North Stars Another Race Provided They First Received the Prize They Won.

The Sydney Record of Thursday says: William Fobin, trainer, and H. Hall, secretary of the North Star Rowing Club, referring to the protest made by the Carleton crew against the decision of Referee Nash, stated to the Record this morning that they, on behalf of the North Star crew, offered to pool the first and second prizes and a $100 trophy for another contest, but that the Carleton Club positively declined. Messrs. Fobin and Hall deem this good evidence that they want a fair deal,—no more, no less. It is also stated by Messrs. Fobin and Hall that they are willing to row the race over again on neutral waters, or they invite the Carleton crew to compete at Halifax on August 12th at the North Star regatta, or on the 19th, when the maritime championship races will be held, in both of which events the visitors will have a fair deal.

With reference to this the Carleton oarsmen say that they told the mayor of Sydney they would willingly race the North Stars again, then or any other time provided they received the prize they had justly won in the first contest. But they refused to row that race over again as that would be an admission that the judges decision had been correct.

A DANGEROUS CORNER.

Somebody Will be Killed Near the Depot Soon Unless Drivers Are Forced to Observe the Law.

In the last few days, quite a number of accidents have been narrowly averted at the corner of Mill and Pond streets, as cabs driving quickly to the depot have little regard for people crossing the street on foot.

Every day complaints are made to the I. C. R. police officers but the matter is not within their jurisdiction. Only the other day a little girl in crossing the street with er father and mother was knocked down and the gentleman, who was a stranger said some very uncomplimentary remarks about police supervision in this city.

The cabmen probably know they are acting contrary to the city bye-laws in thus rushing round corners. In a law relating to the public streets in this city we find in Section 10, "That no person shall drive or permit his horses to be driven in any hackney carriage, waggon, carriage, vehicle or conveyance, whether on wheels or runners to go at a rate of speed faster than a moderate trot in any street or square, or to go otherwise than at a walk in turning the corner of any street under the penalty of $2 for every breach of any provision of this section."

This law should certainly be enforced to the letter at such points as this crowded corner. Unless it is the papers will have a fatality to record before long.

WAR TABLET FOR TRINITY.

Memorial Objected to by Some Exmouth Street Members Will Be Placed Elsewhere.

The tablet which is to commemorate the death of provincial soldiers who fell in the Boer war will probably not be placed in Exmouth Street Methodist church, as a number of the congregation object to any reminders of the war figuring so prominently in a church. The trustees of the church have given their consent to the tablet being placed in the church but those who have been active in erecting the tablet consider it best to refrain from anything which might tend to cause ill-will. It is now suggested that the tablet be placed in Trinity church. Prominent members of the church said this morning that it was most improbable that any objection would be raised on the same ground by the congregation of Trinity. The rector, church wardens and vestry of Trinity meet on Monday and if the matter was formally put before them then, consent would likely be given.

HOUSE-FURNISHING HINTS!

THREE ATTRACTIVE FEATURES IN THE GERMAIN STREET BUILDING.

We Have an Unusual Offering to Make in the Line of Cambric Covered Cushions as you will see when you hear the prices. Summer is a cushion season, truly, with its hammocks, veranda lounging corners, outings, yachting, etc., but cold weather finds the soft pillows quite as comforting. Therefore those who take advantage of this price-cutting will profit now and later. The cushions are filled with Silk Floss, which does not mat. They are 18, 20, 22 and 24 inches square, and now cost, 30c, 40c, 50 and 60c, only, which is a branch of the Housefurnishing business we are steadily increasing in importance. Come to our well-stocked department, select your dainty coverings, tell our demonstrators what you want, and they will make the box, all lined, upholstered, fitted with brass handles, etc.,—a surprisingly pretty receptacle for the bedroom, in which shoes, skirts, waists, or children's clothing may be kept. $2.25 to $4.00.

Shirtwaist and Skirt Boxes are Made by Us to Your Own Liking.,

AN ADVANCE DISPLAY OF DOWN QUILTS.

These Quilts Have Come to Hand a Little Earlier Than Usual and we will give our patrons the advantage of this little change, for it certainly is a privilege to be enabled to select such fine goods before the season during which they are used arrives. The range of price is from $3.75 to $20.00 and the Puffs are gorgeously made. The covers are of Satin and Sateen, plain and medallion stitched. They are absolutely downproof.
