Poetry.

OUT IN THE SNOW.

"My little girl what brings you here,
Out in the cold alone?
Home to the fireside, little one,
Your hand is cold as stone."

The child sighed softly, turned away,
But did not homeward go,
"Tell me," I said, "why will you stay
Out here among the snow?"

"My father's from the tavern come,
And I ran off," she said;
"He beats me when the stove is cold,
And mother's sick in bed.

"There's nothing in the house to eat,
Nor any wood to burn,
It's pleasanter out here, I think."
She spoke, and looked forlorn.

"Now heaven help thee, lovely one,"
I cried, so young, so old,
"And have you always lived like this,
In wretchedness and cold?"

She lifted up her quick blue eyes:
"No! once, two years ago,
We were so happy! father signed
The pledge, and kept it too."

"Then, how come all this sorrow now?"
I said. "He did not pray,"
She answered; "that, I think, was what
I heard the pastor say.

"When father took the pledge, he came
And brought my mother food.
'You'll never keep your oath,' he said,
'Unless you pray to God.

"'For God gives strength to those who ask,
And we ourselves are weak;'
And mother said his words were true;
But father did not speak.

"And father broke the pledge, you know,
And so, it seems to me,
That he could not have prayed. That year
We lived so happily;—

"We had a cow, with sweet, new milk,
Warm clothes, and always food,
With firewood plenty, mother strong,
And father was so good.

"But now that's past and gone," she said,
And drew her tattered shawl
About hear, with a frightened look—
She heard her father call.

I did what little can be done
For drunkard's child and wife,
But like a boon the day will be
That ends their wretched life.

STORIES AND ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

INTRODUCTION.

DEAR CHILDREN.—When you see a very dark cloud in the sky, and hear the thunder so loud that the house shakes, and just before you hear the noise of the thunder you see the forked lightnings flashing in every direction, you are filled with awe. Now suppose that, instead of this load rumbling noise, the thunder should utter words which you could understand, would you not listen attentively to hear what they were? And suppose you knew it was the voice of the great God that made the world and the sun, moon, stars, would you not be very much alarmed? I know you would be. Yes, I have no doubt you would try to run away and hide, for fear of him.

But suppose these words that he spoke were rules to direct you in everything you had to do, and that by following their directions you could become good and happy, would you not listen to them, and try to remember them? Well, we have just such rules in the Bible, given very much in that way. But for fear you have not thought as much about the way this law was given to us as you should have done, I will tell you about it; and I want you to open your Bibles and read the nineteenth and twentieth chapters of Exodus, where Moses tells us all about it, by God's direction.

The children of Israel, like all other men, had very bad memories for that which is good; and God saw that he must write his law so that they could see it with their eyes, as well as hear it with their ears. You know they seem to have forgotten how God brought them through the Red sea, and drowned the Egyptians when they tried to follow them. And when they murmured about having no water or meat, he made a rock pour out water for them to drink, and rained on their camp a shower of quails to feed them; and still they had forgotten all, and would not trust God. So, to prevent them from forgetting his law, he delivered it in the midst of an awful tempest of thunder and lightning, from mount Sinai, that they might not forget it. No one but Moses was allowed to go up on the mountain; and to prevent the people from coming nigh, God told Moses to set bounds and guards at a certain distance around the mountain, which they could not pass.

Oh, what a wonderful sight it was to see the whole top of the mountain in a fiery cloud, with the lightnings flashing in every direction and the thunder shaking the ground! In reading the Bible account of it, I can almost see the thousands of men, women, and children standing, pale and trembling with fear, when all at once the voice of God proclaims, "I AM THE LORD THY GOD, WHICH HAVE BROUGHT THEE OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT, OUT OF THE HOUSE OF BONDAGE." Surely a law that has been so solemnly given will claim your attention; for God has said, "Cursedh is every one that continueth not in all things written in the book of the law, to do them."

I want to tell you all I can about this law of God. These rules God has given to guide you. They are called God's TEN COMMANDMENTS. The first four teach us our duty to God, and the other six our duty to each other.

When Adam and Eve were made and placed in the garden of Eden, they were solemnly charged not to eat of the fruit of a certain tree in the midst of the garden, which was called the "tree of knowledge of good and evil." But they broke that plain and easy command; they ate the forbidden fruit, and were driven out of the garden for doing it; and it was by breaking this one command that sickness, sorrow, and death were brought on us, and all the children of men. All this shows us what a dreadful thing it is to break any commandment of God.

When God came down on mount Sinai, it was wrapped in a cloud, from which the lightnings were flashing and the thunders roaring, and a trumpet sounding long and loud. He told Moses to come up with two flat stones, which he had hewed out and made smooth. And God not only uttered this law with a loud voice, but he wrote it on those stones with his own finger. He wrote it not only for Moses and the children of Israel, but for you and me; and in the day of judgment, when this world is on fire and burnt up, you and I shall be judged by this very law. We ought to try to understand it now, and do all that God requires us to do.

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Now, my dear children, I hardly know how to help you to understand this short commandment; but let us try.

Two little boys were sitting one day beside their mother, talking with her and asking her questions. One of them asked her, "How many gods are there?" The other replied, "Why, brother, there is only one; for God fills every place, and there is no room for any more." This was a very good answer. The great God that gave Moses this Commandment, was not only on mount Sinai when he wrote and spoke it, but he was in every place, all over this world and all other worlds, as well as in heaven.

A little girl was once told by her mother that God saw every thing and every body at the same time. "Why," said the little girl, "God must be all eyes."

These two little anecdotes tell you a great deal about God. God is in every place, and sees you and me and every body else at the same time. There is one thing I want you always to remember about God, and it is this: he is so great that he fills the heavens and the earth, and yet he can dwell in your little heart. This is the God who tells us we must have no other gods before him; and I suppose you all agree with me that this is the only God we ought to worship. In other passages of Scripture we read, "Thou shalt know no God but me." "Thou art the God, even thou alone." "This God is our God for ever and ever." "I will extol thee my God, O King, and I will bless thy name forever and ever."

But a great many people set other gods before this great and only true God, who is everywhere, and made the world, and all that is in it. And I am very much afraid that some of you have set other gods before this great and good God that made you. What do you love most? Stop and think. Whatever you love most is your god. Some little boys love kites, marbles, dogs, or horses, and even tobacco more than anything else in the universe; and some little girls love pretty clothes best, or dolls, or kittens, or other playthings. All such break this First Commandment; for God has told us we must worship the Lord our God, and him only we must serve. All who love father or mother, sister or brother, money or pleasure, more than God, break this Commandment.

Suppose you were to see a little boy or girl that had very kind, good parents, run away from them and take up with some other man and woman not half so good; don't you think it would both grieve and offend those parents? I know you would say such parents would do right to punish their runaway child, and never give him any thing more unless he returned. Well, God is your Father; and will it not be just for God to punish you for running after other things, instead of loving and obeying him?

Whenever you see any person or thing you love very much, or get anything you wish for, stop and think, Do I love this more than God? If so, then I set it before God, or it comes between me and God, and I am a breaker of this First Commandment.

Now this great God, whom we are commanded to love above anything else, says he is "a jealous God," and is very much displeased with us having any other god. Don't you want God for your friend? I know you do. Then remember this law, beg him for Christ's sake to forgive you for breaking it, as you have always done, and to help you love him with all your heart. They that love God will dwell with him in heaven. But if you neglect to obey this Commandment, and set your heart's best love on other things, God will disown you and drive you away from his presence in the day of judgment. All those other things that you have loved and served more than God, will then be gone forever.

Those that will not love and serve God here, will not have anything to love in the world to come. In hell all is hatred. Devils hate God and each other. Bad boys and girls that break this law and go to hell, will likewise hate God and each other. In heaven all is love. God is love. Holy angels love God and each other; and all the good people that have loved God and kept these commandments, will for ever love God and each other. I want you to make this promise to yourself.

Resolved, that I will from this very hour try to set my heart on God above everything else, and that I will daily pray to God for grace to enable me to do it.

A KING'S DAUGHTER.—A poor but very pious woman once called to see two rich young ladies. They too loved the Lord. Without regard to her mean appearance, they received her with great kindness into their splendid drawing-room, and sat down to converse with her upon religious subjects. While thus engaged their brother entered the room. He was a gay, proud, thoughtless youth, and looked much astonished at their unusual guest. One of them rose up with dignity, and said, "Brother, don't be surprised; this is a king's daughter, only she has not got her fine clothes on."

"LOVE YOUR ENEMIES."—A great boy in school was so abusive to the younger ones, that the teacher took the vote of the school whether he should be expelled. All the small boys voted to expel him except one, who was scarcely five years old. Yet he knew very well that the bad boy would probably continue to abuse him. "Why, then, did you vote for him to stay?" said the teacher.

"Because, if he is expelled, perhaps he will not learn any more about God, and so he will be more wicked still."

"Do you forgive him, then?" said the teacher.

"Yes," said he; "paps and mamma, and you, all forgive me when I do wrong; God forgives me too; and I must do the same."

REMARKABLE WORKS OF HUMAN LABOR.—Nineveh was fourteen miles long, eight miles wide and forty-six miles round, with a wall one hundred feet high, and thick enough for three chariots abreast. Babylon was fifty miles within the walls, which were seventy-five feet thick and one hundred feet high, with one hundred brazen gates. The temple of Diana at Ephesus, was four hundred and twenty feet to the support of the roof. It was one hundred years in building. The largest of the pyramids was four hundred and eighty-one feet in height, and eight hundred and fifty-three feet on the sides. The base covers eleven acres.

The stones are about sixty feet in length, and the layers are two hundred and eight. It employed 320,000 men in building the labyrinth in Egypt and it contains three hundred chambers and twelve halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins twenty-seven miles round. Athens was twenty-five miles round, and contained 350,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves. The temple of Delphos was so rich in donations that it was plundered of $50,000,000, and the Emperor Nero carried away from it two hundred statutes. The walls of Rome were thirteen miles around.

THE LORD JESUS THE "HUB."—The following in homely words, presents a true and happy metaphor:

A negro preacher, while holding forth to the colored soldiers then stationed at Port Hudson, said:—"De whole ob God's relation to us am like de wheel. De Lord Jesus Christ am de hub, de Christians am de spokes, and de tire am de grace ob God a binden em all together; and de nearer we get to de hub, de nearer we get to each other."

It possesses marked advantages over all preparations of opium, morphine, veratrine, and other opiates and narcotics. It lulls pain, by imparting strength and vigor to the system, and arousing the vital energies to a healthful action, instead of paralysing the perceptive faculties, and making them insensible to pain. Let those who would live and enjoy health use Radway's Ready Relief.

7th.—To all who are sick and in pain, use the RELIEF. It can do no harm, and will surely do good. Persons who are weak, nervous, and debilitated a teaspoonful of the Ready Relief, in a wine glass of water, will do you more good than all the Bitters in the world; keep your stomach clean and healthy, your breath sweet, your nerves strong, your spirits happy, your appetite good, and your digestion regular. A dose taken at bedtime will insure calm and pleasant sleep.

This Remedy is truly a Family Medicine. It can be used with the positive assurance of doing good in all cases where pain or uneasiness exists.

It is the cheapest medicine in the world. One fifty cent bottle contains more medicine, as well as being a superior medicine, than one dollar's worth of the ordinary painkillers, liniments, &c., of the day.

One fifty-cent bottle of Radway's Ready Relief will do more good, and can be used for more purposes, than ten dollars expended for any other medicine in use.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND OTHERS SAY THE SAME.

Mrs. Westcott, as experienced nurse of Westchester—read what she says:—

"Your Ready Relief and Regulating Pills do our family more good than all the physic and doctors we have had for years. If I have the headache, I take Radway's Relief and one of the Pills—in an hour I am all right; if pain in my bowels, Radway's Ready Relief gives me ease and comfort; if rheumatism, I use the Relief; if sore throat or hoarseness, I use the Relief; if neuralgic pains shoot about my body, I stop them with the Relief; if I catch cold, I take the Relief; if toothache, or earache, or tootache, I apply the Relief—in a few moments the most severe pains are lulled. If my children fall and bruise, or otherwise hurt themselves, the Relief removes all pain and discoloration of the skin; if they burn or scald themselves, the Relief takes out the fire, and relieves them from anguish. I could not sleep without a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief within my reach. So with the Pills—the very moment my stomach or bowels are out of order, one of Radway's Pills is all that I require to restore my system to order and regularity.

THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, 92 Lombard-street, London, and Royal Insurance buildings, Liverpool.
Chairman of the London Board.—SAMUEL BAKER, Esq.
Chairman in Liverpool.—CHARLES TURNER, Esq.
The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest Offices in the kingdom.
At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown:—
FIRE DEPARTMENT.
The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom.
The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£130,060
While the Premiums for the year 1858 are.... 196,148
Showing an actual increase of..... 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years.
The recent returns of duty made to Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.
LIFE DEPARTMENT.
The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 852, the sum assured £887,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,554 5s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus:—

Years.	No. of Policies.	Sums Assured.	New Premiums.
1848 ..	98	£43,764 17 9	£1,389 9 1
1850 ..	190	95,650 9 11	2,827 4 7
1852 ..	422	181,594 10 6	5,523 5 0
1854 ..	408	161,848 13 4	4,594 16 0
1856 ..	703	297,569 16 8	8,850 3 11
1858 ..	852	887,752 6 8	12,554 5 4

The remarkable increase in the business of the last four years is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1856, which amounted to no less than 52 per cent. per annum on the sums assured, and averaged 30 per cent. upon the premiums paid.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never failing success in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS AND WIND COLIC, and overcomes convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints, Do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be Sure, yes absolutely sure, to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

A Slight Cold, Cough, Hoarseness, or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.
Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Relaxing Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.
Public Speakers and Singers, will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice.
Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, at 25 cents per box.
