Society which seeks candidates qualified not only by professional dexterity and skill, but by sound Christian principle and earnest piety, and capable of administering to the wants both of the body and soul. For this purpose, the Provisional Committee appeal to the liberality of the Christian public, to enable them to provide for the candidates board and lodging for a month, whilst their physical and moral qualifications are tested, and their training completed at the hospitals. They are also anxious to obtain, from Christian ministers and medical men, recommendations of persons whom they may regard as suitable for training. The Committee is composed of gentlemen of various Evangelical denominations, the plan has been favourably regarded by the Government, and the British public have now an opportunity of assisting an enterprise of a character at once benevolent, Christian, unsectarian, and patriotic.

We understand that the Scripture readers who lately left this country to minister to our sick and wounded soldiers in the East, have been excluded from the Scutari hospitals for having distributed religious tracts among their inmates. It is difficult to comprehend the reasons for so extraordinary a procedure. If these devoted men were permitted to read the Bible to the sufferers in these hospitals, and to apply to their consciences its instructive and consolatory truths, we know not why they should not be allowed to supply them with tracts, in which the same truths are compiled and enforced. Further particulars on this subject are urgently required, and, we hope, will be obtained.—Christian Times.

How Sebastopol is Protected.—The whole town of Sebastopol to the side facing the sea is protected by a high stone wall, crenelled for musketry, and with a wide deep fosse in front. The wall is perfectly unscathed by our batteries. The wall ceases at a pretty little burial-ground outside the town, where two handsome churches stand close together. Where it ceases the Russians have encircled the town with a breastwork, which, for height and depth, seems really a tremendous work for 20,000 men. At the end of the wall is a strong stone battery, which is marked in the plan as carrying forty-four guns and six mortars. This would seem an adversary sufficiently formidable to infantry storming, but it really dwindles into insignificance when compared with the rows of gun placed along the breastwork already mentioned. Facing this entrenchment, but distant about a quarter of a mile, so as to expose a storming party to a murderous cross fire, is another trench of a precisely similar character. Besides these formidable works, a deep trench has been thrown up in front of the cemetery, and between the churches, which forms a species of bastion at each end. "I also noticed (adds the Morning Herald Correspondent) small trenches erected in different directions for infantry, and about 12,000 men, not more than a third of whom were soldiers, were working hard throwing up redoubts and trenches on the north side of the town. This is doubtless to command the town in case of the south side being captured; so that the Russians are already providing for their defeat. It is evident, though we shall only storm and capture the town after a bloody struggle."

Civil Engineers and Navies for the Crimea.—Mr. Beattie, the civil engineer, and his staff—who have recently returned to this country in consequence of the termination of the railway works upon which they were engaged in Canada—have been employed by Government to proceed to the Crimea. They are to embark at Marseilles, on the 6th, for their destination. A numerous corps of miners, quarrymen, plate-layers, smiths, and navies, are to accompany or follow them. A corps of miners, quarrymen, plate-layers, carpenters, smiths, and navvies, are to be sent out immediately to the Crimea, under the command of an experienced civil engineer. Mr. Peto was applied to by Government a short time ago, to point out to them a gentleman competent to undertake such a charge, and fitting assistants. That gentleman recommended Mr. Beattie and his staff, who have recently returned from Canada. Their experience, and the acclimatising process which they have undergone in North America, have rendered them peculiarly eligible for the service in contemplation; and they have accordingly been engaged as the nucleus of the novel corps of auxiliaries to our army which is now prosecuting the siege of Sebastopol. An advertisement has appeared offering liberal wages and engagement for a definite period, from Messrs. Peto, Brassey, Betts, and Co., to all qualified volunteers, willing to serve under Mr. Beattie and his staff and to start from Marseilles on the 6th inst.

The Austrian Army.—According to the new organization of August 1, 1852, the Austrian army consists of—

	Men.
INFANTRY.
62 Regiments of the line, each of 4,809 men,	425,878
14 Frontier regiments,	55,200
1 Regiment of chasseurs,	6,804
Division of depot chasseurs,	32,534
CAVALRY.
16 Regiments of the line,	20,145
2 Regiments light cavalry,	46,651
ARTILLERY.
Engineers and corps d'etat major, 1,140 guns,	11,136
Pioneer corps,	5,682
Gendarmerie,	20,000

At the beginning of last month the strength of the Austrian mobilizing army under Baron Hess was stated by the Augsburgh Gazette to be 220,000 men, with 300 field guns. Marshal Wimpffen's corps stood in Bohemia 30,000 strong, and might, it was believed, be raised by reinforcements from Italy and the south to 120,000 men, with 200 guns. Since then, that is to say last week, the sixth army corps has been carried by the North and South Austrian railways from Styria to Moldavia.

Are they Russians.—A writer in the Journal of Commerce says that the Hon. Clinton Roosevelt recently sailed for Europe in one of our steamers, on his way to the seat of war in the East. He possesses information in relation to a great improvement in bomb-shells and other missiles of war, which will render them marvellously destructive, and a match for the famous Lancaster gun. He will devote his services to the Russian cause, and his presence is expected by the Russian Government.—N. Y. Paper.

Mr. Lucas, in the Tablet, repeats the declaration he made at Callan, that he is determined to retire from Parliament and abandon politics, in case the appeal to Roman Catholic Bishop of Ossory, in the case of the Rev. Mr. Keefe, should be unsuccessful. Mr. Lucas says:—"It is not that in a moment of irritation, or from feelings of annoyance, or from any cause dependent upon my own will, I shall choose to retire, but that a man in my position, having before him the objects and the purposes which I propose to myself, and holding the opinions which I hold, will have no choice but to retire, and can have no rational ground for maintaining a hopeless conflict."

France.—An answer has been received to the memorial sent to the Emperor some months ago, on behalf of the various Nonconformist churches of this country. His Majesty has directed the Minister of Public Instruction and Worship, to inform the memorialists that he has read that address with interest, and carefully examined their demands; and that he recognises to all his subjects the right of liberty of conscience (by which is meant the right of believing and thinking what they please, as if he could forbid that), but not the right of liberty of worship, which is not even conceded in England, the supposed bulwark of religious liberty (so says that answer), since in that country, no Dissenting minister is allowed by law to open a place of worship until he has obtained the sanction of the bishop of the diocese. (!!!)—His Majesty, however, acknowledging that there may be conscientious men among those who secede from the Established Protestant churches, declares that he is willing to grant to them as a fact what he denies as a right, and is disposed to authorise the opening of Nonconformist places of worship, wherever it can be shown that this religious dissent is not, at the same time, a political one.—News of the Churches.

An emigrant ship arrived at New York a few days ago, with 12 convicts on board, who were shipped at Antwerp by the Belgian Government. They were locked up in the Tombs, where they are to remain until provision can be made for their return.

China.—In an effect against the drinking of wine, Yang modestly calls himself "Prince of the East, the Consoler, the Holy Ghost, the Preceptor, the Supreme Physician, the First Minister of the State, and the Captain General of the Army."

CITY ITEMS.

Sudden Death.—A man named Barr, who for some time was in the employ of the E. and N. A. Railway Contractors, as Assistant Engineer, jumped from a window in the Boarding House of Mr. J. E. McDonald in King Street, on Friday night last, on to the sidewalk below, and was killed. The Coroner's Jury brought in a verdict of temporary insanity. It is said it was produced by excessive drinking.

Christmas Charities.—The collections on Christmas Day, for the benefit of the poor amounted in Trinity Church to £129 10s. 6d.; St. John's Church, £25; St. James' Church, £146 15s.; St. Luke's Church, Portland, £25 12s. 6d.; St. Paul's (Valley) Church, £5 10.; Centenary Methodist Chapel, £34 6s. 3d. Collections at the St. Johns Presbyterian Church on Sunday £21 1s. 6d.—Morning News.

The collection for the poor in the Free Baptist meeting House, Waterloo street on Christmas day was £5 5s. 5d.

We are gratified to learn, that the congregation of St. John Church, in this City, presented their worthy Rector, the Rev. G. M. Armstrong, on New Year's Day, with a donation of sixty six pounds, as a token of their esteem and regard.—Church Witness.

Contributions to the amount of £313 were taken up on Christmas Day in the Roman Catholic Churches in this City and Portland, in aid of the orphans rendered destitute by Cholera.

At the Mariners' Lyceum this evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Ferrie will introduce to the notice of the public the case of the coloured family in this city, who have been offered one of their children if they can raise the price specified by the Slave dealer. Mr. Ferrie may probably read part of the correspondence that has passed on the subject, and will give a brief history of the family which was at one time wholly in bondage.

Fire.—An alarm was given in Carleton on Sunday morning last, when it was promptly and very generally known, that the Saw Mill owned and occupied by Mr. John Clarke was on fire.—The engines were soon on the spot, and the fire was readily subdued. The damage was not very serious.

The new Surveyor General, Hon. J. Brown, was re-elected to his seat in the Lower House for the County of Charlotte, on Friday last, by a majority of full 500 votes over his opponent Mr. Thomson.

Mons. Rudolph, the editor of a German paper, has been condemned to imprisonment in Waterloo county, C. W. for having disseminated impious and blasphemous doctrines through his journal. The article alluded to, expressed a peremptory denial of the divinity, and the truth of the redemption of man by the coming of Christ, and an absolute disbelief of the dogmas of the Church.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Give Me Bread or I Must Steal.—A few day since, a respectable mechanic, who had been unable to procure employment, had expended the last farthing; had not a morsel of food in the house for twenty-four hours, and his children crying for bread, he applied to a neighbor for assistance. He said—"You must give me bread, or I must steal; I am out of employment and can find no work; my children are crying for food, of which they have had none for twenty-four hours, and they must be fed; for myself I ask not, I would willingly die, but oh! the cry of my poor starving children I cannot endure; for Heaven's sake give me relief, and save them from starving and me from sin and shame." It is for the relief of such of our citizens as above noticed, who will be reduced to a state of starvation in these trying times, that we would call the attention of the benevolent.—N. Y. Paper.

The cabmen of Glasgow, about 550 in number, under the influence of city missionaries, it is stated,—rested on Sunday, Nov. 19th, and announced their purpose so to do in future. This measure caused much indignation among a portion of the people, and much satisfaction, we presume, to another portion.

Mr. John B. Gough wanted in Australia.—In the current number of the Bristol Temperance Herald, Dr. Singleton, of Melbourne, thus writes to the Editor:—"We would gladly receive and remunerate Mr. Gough, could he be spared from his present labour, or had no objection to so long a voyage—yet the field is already white for harvest—a country of some fine colonies on the brink of moral ruin, in pathetic earnestness cries out—'Come over and help us!' Our agent here has 600*l.* a-year, and secretary 500*l.*; but Mr. Gough would be far more remunerated. Several gentlemen have each subscribed 100*l.* per year, and we will not suffer the cause to flag for want of funds."

The Rev. Hugh Drennn has been ordained by the Presbytery of Edinburgh, with a view to his proceeding to the seat of war as a Presbyterian chaplain to the Scotch soldiers. Mr. Robert Watson is undergoing the usual preliminary trial before proceeding in a similar capacity to the same destination.

It is stated that some of the English papers that the British government have contracted with Messrs. Peto, Brassey, & Co., for the erection of a railway from the harbour of Balaklava to the entrenchments of the Allies before Sebastopol for the purpose of moving with greater ease, heavy guns, ammunition, &c., to the allied camp. A large number of "navvies" have been engaged, and are to be sent forward at once, in order to have the works completed before spring.

The King of Prussia having ordered a collection of the books of the Mormons, the Latter-day Saints jumped to the conclusion that he must be about to favour their views. So a deputation set out from Stettin to wait upon the Monarch to "compliment" him; but when the train arrived at Berlin, the Mormons were arrested by the police, interrogated at great length, and ordered to leave the city in twenty-four hours.

FACTS, WITHOUT COMMENT.

THE PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW THEM.

New York, October 10, 1852.

☞ Mrs. Hartley, No. 119 Suffolk-street, writes us that she has been troubled with worms for some three years, and that she used one vial of Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, which brought away over fifty large worms. Her usual good health immediately returned.

Mrs. Quigley, No. 182 Essex-street, New York, under date of November 28, 1852, writes us that she had a child which had been unwell for better than two months. She procured a bottle of M'Lanes Vermifuge, and administered it. The child passed a large quantity of worms, and in a few days was as hearty as ever it had been. Parents, with such testimony before them, should not hesitate when there is any reason to suspect worms, and lose no time in procuring and administering Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge. It never fails and is perfectly safe.

P. S. Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, also his Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

☞ Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge. All others, in comparison, are worthless.
