the raging fires, and the smoke was so thick in town as to make it uncomfortable. We learn that several houses and barns were on that day destroyed at Hanwell; but every day brings some fresh reports of loss and destruction, the particulars of which do not however reach us.—Farmer.

A fatal affray took place between two cousins at the Nackawick a few days since. The parties names are James and Rueben Stairs. There are so many conflicting reports in circulation, that we have found it impossible to arrive at all the facts. It appears, however, that the cousins had not been on good terms for some time, and having met at the house of a man named Smith, an altercation ensued. James left the house but was pursued by Rueben, who overtook and attacked him. During the scuffle, Rueben received three or more kicks, which inflicted such injuries as to cause his death. A warrant for James' commitment was promptly issued by the Coroner, and the prisoner is now in gaol in this city awaiting trial at the Supreme Court.—Farmer.

☞ An Ottawa despatch of the 9th, to the Ottawa Citizen, contains the following:—

The Fishery Overseers on the St. Lawrence, near Cornwall, captured a party of twenty Americans, with three boats, all engaged fishing in Canadian waters, and brought them to this side. After a short detention the prisoners were released, and the property confiscated.

The capture of the American schooner William Patrick, by Capt. Tory, in Aspy Bay, is the only other instance as yet reported to the Marine Department here. Evidently Butler has been hoaxed.

BANK ROBBERY IN P. E. ISLAND.—On the night of Wednesday, or morning of Thursday, the 7th instant, a room used temporarily whilst the Rustico Bank building was undergoing repair, was entered, and a box containing about £100, in notes and silver, abstracted therefrom. The Rev. P. McPhee, of Rustico, on hearing of the robbery, proceeded to town on Thursday morning; and on the road thereto, passed a man, whom he at once suspected to be the guilty party. The necessary information having been given to his Worship the Mayor, the City Marshal proceeded to Dingwell's boarding house, in this City, and arrested a man named Smith Robins, of Morell. On being searched, the Marshal found in his possession a large portion of the missing money, and a number of articles recently purchased by him. The prisoner has, we understand, acknowledged informally the commission of the robbery.—Islander.

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERY.—A St. John's correspondent of the Halifax Citizen says:—The surveying steamer Gulnare, has just arrived from the Straits of Belle Isle. She brings excellent accounts of the fishery there. The whole of the fishing fleet had arrived on Labrador on the 22nd. Straits were clear of ice—caplin had struck in and cod were abundant.

The Spanish Minister at Washington called on the Secretary of State at the capitol, and made to him the following communication, which shows that Spain will remain neutral in the coming contest:—

MADRID, July 15, 1870.

From the Ministers of State to the Representative of Spain at Washington:—

The President of the Council of Ministers has received from Prince of Hohenzollern the following telegram, namely:

On account of the complications which seem to rise out of the fact that my son Leopold is a candidate for the throne of Spain, and on account of the troubled situation which the late events have made for the Spanish people in placing them in a position where they are controlled by their national feelings, and as I am satisfied that under such circumstances their suffrages would not be as free and spontaneous as my son has been led to believe in consenting to be a candidate, I withdraw him in his own name. PRINCE OF HOHENZOLLERN.

The government, grateful to the Prince of Hohenzollern for the justice he is thus rendering the Spanish people, respect the important motives which led him to withdraw his name, and they consider that there is no more reason for carrying on the measures that had been agreed upon for the election of the monarch.—The Gazette will publish this very day an order from the President of the Cortes suspending the call for the session on the 20th inst., which was published in the Gazette of the 9th instant.

Communicate to the United States government the contents of this despatch.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

PARIS, July 15.—The French Declaration of War is based on the following causes: First. The insult offered at Ems to Count Benedetti, the French Minister, and its approval by the Prussian Government. Second. The refusal of the King of Prussia to compel the withdrawal of Prince Leopold's name as a candidate for the Spanish Throne.

Third. The fact that the King persisted in giving the Prince liberty to accept the Crown.

The declaration continues as follows:—"The extra Constitutional changes in Prussia awaken the slumbering recollections of 1814. Let us cross the Rhine and avenge the insults of Prussia! The victors of Sena survive!

The Emperor received a despatch from Queen Victoria this morning, a last appeal for peace and a similar despatch was also sent from London to the King of Prussia.

The French and Prussian armies are advancing and battle expected in a few days.

LONDON, July 16.—The extra official expression of Ministers leads to the belief that England peremptorily forbids the occupation of Belgium by France.

The neutrality of England will be difficult, perhaps impossible and dishonorable should Holland and Belgium become involved in the war.

BERLIN, July 16.—The Government receives each hour from all parts of Germany, offers of men, arms and money, in support of the national cause. The volunteering is extraordinary, and entire male population demand arms.

ROME, July 16.—There is a Liberal uprising here, and an attack on the city is feared.

LONDON, July 17.—Latest Paris advices report the army and people singing the Marseillaise, and show the most intense excitement.

The French army is massing at Strasbourg, Metz, and Meziers.

The Emperor will command in person, and will go to the front on Wednesday, with the Prince Imperial.

The army is increasing by every possible means.

The Prussian army is consentrating at Treves, Cour, and Mayence.

The King was received at Berlin with the utmost enthusiasm, and men and money are freely offered.

Diplomatic relations have entirely ceased, and a messenger has gone to Prussia with the French declaration of war, of which England has as yet received no notice.

PARIS, July 17th.—La Opinion Nationale, Prince Napoleon's organ says: "We learn from good authority that Italy has tendered to France at the latter's option either friendly neutrality or unconditional aid," and adds that "Prussia has offered a province to Austria in exchange for an alliance."

STUTGARD, July 17.—The army of Wurtemburg has been ordered to take the field, and the Chambers have been convoked.

LONDON, July 18.—In the House of Commons tonight, Mr. Harcourt made an enquiry, touching measures for the preservation of English neutrality.

Mr. Gladstone said that the inquiry was premature, coming before a Declaration of War had been made.

While the premier was then speaking a despatch from Lord Lyons was handed to him, announcing that the formal Declaration of War had been sent by the French Government, to Berlin. Mr. Gladstone then replied that all the papers would be submitted as soon as possible, and that a measure looking to the preservation of neutrality was in preparation. Particular attention would be paid in the measure to the status of belligerent ships in British ports.

After a discussion on the strength of the army, during which Mr. Osborne asserted that the Government was unable to put 50,000 men in the field, the House adjourned.

The city of Strasburg has been placed under martial law.

Eloquent addresses to the Crown are received at Berlin from the municipalities of the Kingdom.

The Bavarian Chambers have granted the Government a credit of twenty-seven million florins.

PARIS, July 18.—News direct from the seat of war up to one o'clock this afternoon announces that there had been no bloodshed yet.

The prefect of police has issued a proclamation requesting the citizens of Paris to make no more war demonstrations.

LONDON, July 19.—Prices of stocks in London and Liverpool are purely nominal. There are no genuine transactions. The panic arises from the rumor that the Emperor of Russia pronounces in favor of Prussia and mobilizes the Russian army. This rumor paralyses everything.

France demands a decision forthwith from the South German States on the question of neutrality.

The neutrality of Sweden has just been effectually announced. The government previously communicated with France.

Marshal Canrobert commands the first army corps, Duke of Palikao the second, Gen. Frossard the third, Marshal McMahon the fourth, Gen. Foilly the fifth, and Marshal Bazaine the Imperial Guard of reserve.

At noon to-day the Prussian forces occupied the following points—Saarbruck, in Rhenish Prussia, and Newberg, in Rhenish Bavaria. Both of these towns are directly on the frontier. They also had forces concentrated at Linden in Hesse Darmstadt.

It is generally believed that Russia sustains Prussia.

LONDON, July 19th.—The Times this morning abandons all hope of mediation, and says that the sword must now decide.

The feeling in London against France is intense and universal.

It is believed that the troops called home from the English Colonies have been concentrated in anticipation of the present war.

Great Britain has now at the home depots 95,000 troops, and can muster about 300,000. There is great activity in the navy.

French iron clads are cruising on Dogger Bank in the North Sea, to pick up German vessels.

King William, of Prussia, addressed a public meeting last evening, at Berlin, in which he used the following language—"God knows I am not answerable for this war. The demands sent by France are such as the honor of the country forced me to reject."

PARIS, July 13.—The Ecumenical Council took a final vote yesterday on the question of Infallibility. The dogma was adopted by the following vote: Ayes, 450; noes, 88.

LONDON, July 19.—The Times Berlin correspondent says that the French declaration of war took Germany by surprise.

The French have been known for a long time to be secretly arming, and are ready sooner than was expected to invade Germany by several columns before a sufficient defence could be prepared.—Thanks to the excellent German organization this advantage will not last long.

LONDON, July 20.—The Liverpool markets yesterday were utterly prostrated. Nothing was ever known like the commercial depression. Many men worth one hundred thousand pounds sterling a day or two ago, are bankrupt to-day. Business in yarns and fabrics at Manchester was also completely paralysed.

Germany makes the dethronement of the Bonapartes its ultimatum.

It is possitively asserted in London, on the highest authority, that Austria joins France against Prussia. Much excitement is created by the announcement.

All of the French Consuls in the German Confederation have received their passports.

The Prussian Government has announced that merchantmen, even of the enemy, will not be interfered with on the high seas, unless for a cause which would expose neutrals to seizures.

PARIS, July 20—It is rumored that Prince Napoleon will go to the Baltic, and with his land force co-operate with the fleet of Vice Admiral Willaumes, and in occupying the territory of Hanover. No newspaper correspondents, French or foreign, will be allowed to accompany the French army.

UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—M. Provost Paradol, new French Minister, who arrived here last week, and was received by the President on Saturday, committed suicide at one o'clock this morning, by shooting himself with a pistol. He has been very busy since his arrival, and yesterday his mind seemed to be wandering, though he continued to give attention to business during the afternoon. It is presumed that he was laboring under a temporary fit of insanity, caused by fatigue and intense heat. M. Barthemy has been ordered to return from New York.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Western and State flour has advanced this week from one dollar to one dollar and a half in the lower grades, and fifty cents in the better. Wheat has advanced fifty cents. Freights also advancing.

Sixty deaths from sunstroke reported in New York yesterday.

Gold fluctuates—closed 122. Exchange firm.

REV. JOS. MCLEOD:

Dear Sir—You will oblige by giving the inclosed "Special Notice" a place in the Intelligencer. Many persons no doubt expect to contribute something to assist in the erection of a suitable Monument, as a token of respect to the memory of the late Editor. By this, they will see the necessity of doing so immediately, if at all. Yours truly,

GEO. F. ATHERTON.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

MONUMENT FUND.

The Committee appointed to erect a Monument to the memory of the late Rev. E. McLEOD, give this "Final Notice"—that they intend having said Monument erected this autumn: hence, all persons intending to contribute, must do so promptly; for its cost, when ordered, must depend entirely upon the funds available.

The Committee would here express their thanks to those who have so readily responded to their call for funds. Believing that many others still intend assisting in its erection, they would take this opportunity to call their attention to the necessity of immediate action.

The Committee are desirous that all moneys for this purpose may be the voluntary offerings of the donors; and that the Monument, when erected, shall be a faithful expression of the esteem and respect of the contributors, for the departed.

All who may wish to assist in contributing funds for this purpose, can forward the amounts to the Subscriber, at Fredericton.

GEO. F. ATHERTON,
Sec'y. to Committee.

A fact worth remembering—Five cents worth of "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders," given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain, and the horse will be fatter, sleeker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find "Parsons' Purgative Pills" safe; and, in small doses a mild cathartic. They cause no griping pains or cramp.

The sale of that remarkable and very valuable preparation, Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment, is constantly and rapidly increasing. It has been but a few years since the doctor first introduced it to the public, yet such are its virtues that some thousands of bottles have already been sold.

A dose of Clark's Derby Condition Powers administered occasionally will improve the appearance of your horse, and cause him to assume a smooth and glossy coat.

In all disorders of the pulmonary organs, so prevalent in our ever-changing climate, the action of Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam is perfectly irresistible. It is not of essential consequence how long these disorders may have lasted, provided the last stage of consumption has not set in, the daily use of this preparation will most certainly effect a cure, not temporary or superficial, but permanent and lasting. A trial of many years has proved to the world that it is efficacious in curing such complaints beyond any remedy hitherto known to mankind.

Bowel complaints should receive prompt attention. In the incipient stages of Diarrhæa and Dysentery, cure is easy; but when the symptoms are neglected, and those diseases allowed to make headway, they often prove fatal. Dr. Wilson's Fam'ly Anti-Bilious Pills, cleanse the bowels, give healthy action, and remove obstructions, making all the machinery work well.
