EUROPE.

Four Days Later from Europe.

The Royal Mail steamship Canadian, with Liverpool dates to Aug. 27th, arrived at Quebec on Tuesday the 9th inst.

The political news is unimportant.

The Hon. Sir Wm. Temple, Lord Palmerston's brother, and late Ambassador at Naples, died in London on the 24th.

The Daily News remarks, that upon the appointment of asuccessor to Sir Wm. Temple may depend the emancipation of Italy, and the peace of Europe.

The Press (D'Israeli's organ) and the Morning Chronicle are squabbling about who shall lead the Conservative party.

An extensive robbery of plate has been effected from St. James' Palace.

FRANCE.—Everything is dull. The Emperor and family are at Biarritz.

The Moniteur of the 24th publishes a list of English soldiers, amounting to 330, upon whom the French Military Medals have been conferred for distinguished service in the Crimea.

SPAIN.—There is nothing definite. The National Guard of the Province of Madrid is disarmed, and to supply the wants of the Treasury the Government is securing the Ecclesiastical property held in Mortmain.

NAPLES.—Two war steamers have been despatched in all haste to Palermo, where a collision was said to have taken place between the Neapolitan troops and the Swiss.

SWEDEN.—Cholera has broken out with great severity at Stockholm. The Russian General Bodisco was about the first victim. He had only arrived the day before.

PRUSSIA.—The Government has determined to wreak a terrible vengenance on the Riff pirates. It is belived that England will cooperate. Russia has offered three ships and some gun-boats for the same purpose.

DENMARK.—Mr. Buchanan, the English Minister has returned to Copenhagen. He had been in London conferring with his Government about the Sound Dues. It is believed that England has agreed to capitaliztion.

PORTUGAL.—The Lisbon bread riots have ceased, but the stock of flour in the hands of dealers and bakers is nearly exhausted.

SARDINIA.—The subscription for the purpose of presenting the Sardinian Government with a hundred new guns for the fortifications at Alexandria is energetically supported in the various parts of Italy, as a testimony of confidence in the championship of the house of Savoy. The fortifications are porgressing fast, and Sardinia is evidently preparing for war.

TURKEY.—The Russian Ambassador has arrived at Constantinople, and the Turkish Ambassabor has left for Moscow.

Kars was evacuated on the 4th of August. —The fortifications are untouched.

The evacuation of Reni and Ismail is begun.

MARKETS.

Corn advanced 3s. on the preceding week —American flour 1s. advance.

SPAIN.—The insurrection in Spain is for the present at an end. The reactionary influences have triumphed. Saragossa after demanding and obtaining time for deliberation, decided on opening her gates to the officer sent by O'Donnell to take the command. As all internal disturbances have been quelled, the French troops, which were on their march to the frontier, have been countermanded; and the new form of government is left to be decided on free from the pressure of foreign force, though we should not like to say as much for the influence of foreign intrigues. We have therefore but to suspend our judgment till we see what new shape the Spanish government will assume. There are politicians who promise much for the cause of national liberty, which we might the more readily believe if they had attempted to show how the fallen constitution failed to secure it. What we do see is, that the Queen has forfeited her pledged word. How large an amount of Royal perfidy is at present in existence throughont Europe, accumulating and making more fierce the retribution that will surely come!

The treaty of Paris threatens already to involve us in difficulties. Russia stands upon the letter of her bond with a perverse ingenuity which puzzles the diplomatists who drew up the treaty in a spirit of unsuspecting simplicity. The towns of Ismail and Reni on the Danube are surrendered but their fortifications are destroyed. Encroachments continue to prevail on the frontier of Norway. Bomarsund is not to be fortified but it is occupied by a strong military force. The restoring of Kars is delayed on the most frivolous pretexts; and, last of all, the surrender of control over the course of the Danube is rendered nugatory by Russian occupation of the Isle of Serpents, which commands its mouth.

This last encroachment—for which of course some shadow of excuse is not wanting—has especially roused the indignation of Austria, which more than any other country is interested in the free navigation of that great river. France is said to be indifferent; and there are but too many indications that if the war had been further protracted, England must have continned it single-handed, and that a future necessity for a new warlike alliance, will fail to call forth the enthusiasm which hailed the old one.—London Christian Times.

ITALIAN AFFAIRS.—A correspondent of the Newark Daily Advertiser, writing from Genoa under date of Aug. 7, says: "Early in the next month the first steam packet is expected to inaugurate the line between this port and the flourishing Italian Colonies of South America. The first steamer for New York will be ready probably by the first of January. Mr. Brett is now engaged in running the line of the sub-marine telegraph between the Island of Sardinia and Algiers. This work will also be accomplished before the close of the year. We learn by telegraph that the contracts with the Roman Government for the projected Railroad from Civita Vecchia across the peninsula to Ancona, on the Adriatic, have at length been signed, and that the enterprise will be speedily executed. The Pope has also recently chartered a Pontificial Steam Navigation Company for ten years.

A monk, whose name is Spencer, and who is a member of a noble family in England, is making a pilgrimage through Hungary with the permission of the Pope, his object being to establish praying societies, whose special task it will be to pray in chapels, that the English nation may be converted, and return again into the bosom of the only true church.

A ROYAL ASIATIC COURT IN LONDON.—In about a month the ex-King of Oude was expected to arrive in England, for the purpose of petitioning her Majesty and Parliament to restore him the crown of which he has been deprived. The ex-King brings with him a purse filled with the sum to twenty lacs of rupees, or two huudred thousand pounds, besides which he has an allowance of one hundred and twenty thousand pounds per annum from the East India Company. The name of this royal oriental is Wajid Ail Shah. His age is about thirty, and he succeeded his late father on the throne of Oude some eight years ago. He is brining with him to England some twelve or fourteen wives, though his harem numbered at leasta hundred and fifty. In addition to these ladies, the ex-King has with him some ten or twelve noblemen of his court, each of whom has one or more wives, besides many servants in his train. So numerous, in fact, is his whole suite, that his Majesty has had to hire one of the magnificent steamers of the Peninsular and Orientala Company for his own exclusive use, to convey himself and followers from Calcutta to Suez; and another similar vessel to bring them from Alexandria to Southampton. The number of natives who will accompany Wajid Ali Shah to England cannot be less than between five and six hundred. There are also two Europeans in his suite, namely, Major Wilberforce Bird late of the East India Company's army, and Mr. Menzies, a merchant of Mirzoporo, on the Ganges.

Kansas.

A missionary writing from Kansas under date July 10th says:

"I left home, (Illinois,) on the 23d of June, and arrived at Leavenworth city on the 2d of July; coming by way of railroad to Fulton, on the Mississippi, thence to St. Louis, thence to Leavenworth City by steamboat on the Missouri River. Although there was great excitement throughout Missouri on the subject of Kansas, yet it was chiefly directed against organized parties from the North. I passed through without difficulty, although it was whispered around that there was an "Abolition preacher" on board, bound for Kansas, and that they meant to take care of him. By the goodnees of God I escaped their hands. On the 4th of July, the Free State Legislature House met according to adjournment at Topeka, and organized, and were then dispersed by Colonel Sumner, who was there with two hundred United States troops, and two six-pound field-pieces. No disturbance took place. Some two or three Free-State men were on that day taken prisoners, and one or two persons shot by travelling bands of pro slavery men, in different parts of the Territory

There is some uncertainty as to organizing a church at present. We wish to be careful in regard to the material with which to build the house of the Son. Not every one who has professed to be a follower of Christ, in coming in this new country, and in these exciting times, has continued to wear the badge of discipleship. We greatly need recruits from the East, of true and tried Christians to assist in laying the foundations of Churches here, that shall give character to the orthodoxy of this great Territory. There is plenty of room here for them—and a heterogeneous mass of mind to be moulded into the right shape, to become efficient laborers for the evangelization of the world. Here are Pro-Slavery and Free-State professors; Black-Law, and Anti-Black-Law; Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Methodists, and the various kinds; Baptists, Campellites, Swedenborgians, Spiritualists and Infidels. Now, what can one or two do in such a state of things. But in the name of the Lord we will unfurl the Gospel banner, and proclaim pardon in His name to the penitent, and try to look to God for the increase. His Word, if faithfully preached, shall not return to Him void.

This is a beautiful country and an inviting spot for the emigrant. What we now mosr need is, intelligent, active, consistent, orthodox christians to settle here, and form centres around which the churches can be rallied. Who will come?

One excellent young man here, is about going out as a colporteur for six months. Another brother here intends in a few weeks to go to Oberlin to take a Theological course for the ministry. He has graduated from a law-school, and has had one years' practice at the Bar. He says he has long resisted the impression that he must preach the Gospel, but within a week past, and on a bed of sickness, has concluded to abandon his worldly prospects, and give himself to the ministry.—American Mis.

The editor of the Star of the West had recently a conversation with a Catholic priest, in which he was informed that in Cincinnati there are fourteen Catholic colleges, besides several other minor schools. In the State of Ohio there are four Catholic colleges, and in the country about fifiy. Their churches in Cincinnati are the largest by far and the most expensive in the State; but upon each there is a debt ranging from $6,000 to $20,000, upon which is paid from four to seven per cent. interest.

We learn by the Newcastle (Eng.) Journal, that a chancery case has recently been decided in one of the English Courts, by which John Medougal, of South Boston, a hard laboring man, received £15,000, or $75,000.

The Fisheries this season promise to be very successful, both the cod and mackerel. The early arrivals from Labrador have been so, and they report an abundance of fish. The same is true from the Banks. Vessels arriving at Marblebead and other points, engaged on the Banks fishing, have found fish of the largest size, and are arriving with full fares.

About 250 men were discharged from the Springfield Armory, on Wednesday, on pretence of the failure of Congress to make appropriations to support the army. They are said to be mostly Fremont men, and the movement is evidently intended for political effect.

On Saturday, after a long and painful illness, Mr. Charles H. Williams, an officer in the state prison at Charlestown, died in that institution at the age of 33 years. Mr. W. was regarded as one of the best officers in the prison.

The extended petticoats now in vogue give the cord makers full employment. One in Newburyport has sold $2,000 worth to a single dealer in this dress cord in Boston within the last four months, and all the manufacturers have been unable to supply the demand for the extension of these fabulous skirts.

We hear that a number of influential men of this city are to undertake the project of building the Middlesex Horse Railroad, which is to start from Somerville and pass through Charlestown.

A Dyspeptic Cured by Oxygenated Bitters.
Letter from F. T. Wallace, Esq.,

SIR: It is to me a source of infinite pleasure to be able to bear testimony from peraonal experience to the great value of the OXYGENATED BITTERS.

I began to be afflicted in 1844 with Catarrh, and the difficulty increased rapidly until December, 1856, producing in the course of that period Asthma. The accumulation of mucus on the lungs was such, that I could not breathe when in a horizontal or reclining posture; and many nights during the last two years I enjoyed no sleep, except what I could get WALKING my room. My breathe during the day was indescribably distressing.

My attention was brought to the consideration of the OXYGENATED BITTERS by the Hon. Myron Lawrence, who at that time was rejoicing in the emancipation of his own lungs, from a twenty years' bondage, by the use of your medicine. I purchased four bot les of your Bitters. I have not yet used the whole, and I believe I am CURED.

I meet persons almost daily, to whom I recommend it, having faith that they also can be healed.

Very respectfully,
FREDERICK T. WALLACE.

DR. GEO. B. GREEN.

Medical Testimony cannot be Controverted.

☞ One of the most startling cases is narrated of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge by Dr. John Butler, of Lowell, Trumbull Co., Ohio. The case was that of a young lady who had been very sick for eight years and had consulted a number of physicians, who had treated it as one of Prolapsus Uteri. Dr. Butler was then called in, and for a time believed with his predecessors that it was a case of Prolapsus. He was, however, soon forced to the conclusion that his patient was suffering from worms, and after much persuasion, prevailed upon her to take two doses of Dr. McLane,s Vermifuge. This medicine had the effect of removing from her a countless number of the largest size. After she passed them, her health immediately returned. She is since married, and continues to enjoy excellent health.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, manufactured by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuge in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of
