heard nothing that led me to suspect he would hang himself. I did not see the piece of board to which he was attached, or a gimlet or nails; I never saw him with a knife. (by a Juror. He seemed to be quite wild all day Sunday). About three o'clock he said he was going to get the Sheriff to get a piper to play him have a dance before he went away. He said he was not dead yet. He laughed all day at everything that was said to him. He said he thought no more of being hanged than of walking to the window. I thought it strange that so near death he should laugh so much and talk so wildly. I never thought he had good intellect, but I thought him more wild yesterday than usual. I think he was capable of judging between right and wrong, for he said he had done wrong. He said that yesterday. He told me a long time ago his sister was in the Lunatic Asylum. I never enquired whether it was so. I heard him say he had attempted to make away with himself. I heard him say he had sharpened a nail on coal and attempted to open a vein with it. I think I mentioned these statements to Miss Creighton. I cautioned him against such an act, and explained to him the sin of it. On one occasion I left a pen in the room and I was alarmed lest he might use it. He told me he had sharpened a nail on the stove (a sharpened nail was produced); it is about ten days ago. I never saw a nail with him. I never cautioned Miss Creighton, because she was herself so particular, and appeared to watch Breen very closely. She seemed afraid he would kill himself in consequence of my telling her he had threatened to kill himself with the nail.

Rev. James Peterson. I visited prisoner as a clergyman, I did it as a matter of duty. Saw him last alive on Saturday evening. Did not see him on Sunday evening till he was dead. He was capable, in my estimation, of distinguishing between right and wrong when I last saw him. During my conversation with prisoner I never heard or saw anything that would lead me to suppose he would commit suicide. I was present when he was cut down. I was with the other prisoner (Slavin) when I was alarmed. It was about seven o'clock. I was called at the door and went into the room. I did not at first observe he was suspended, but seeing death in his countenance, went forward to support him, and found he was suspended. (Witness here described the position of the means by which Breen had hung himself.) I held Breen up while the others cut him down. It appeared quite dead. The doctor was in a few minutes after and pronounced him dead. Never saw him with any nails or a knife. I had been in Slavin's room probably ten minutes. Did not stop at deceased's door. I heard no hammering.

George Thomas. On the apprehension of the prisoners, got irons made for the prisoners, and I am appointed to look after them. Was told to visit them at uncertain periods, three times a day, to examine their chains and facilities, and make a personal examination of the prisoners and everything around them; searched Breen's person when he went in. I have searched him frequently and never found anything on him. Merely felt down his legs. Never searched his pockets after he first came in; passed my hands down his legs. Could not swear he had no knife. Had no particular orders to make a scrutinizing search of the man. Think from the length of his chains he could have got to the door of the watercloset: the door of the closet is fast. There was no search of his person when he came in. About a fortnight ago went into prisoners cell, Miss Creighton with me. Prisoner was in bed; when I turned the clothes up I saw blood about. Breen, said I, what's all this blood about. He said, my nose bled, Miss Creighton said it will do you good; I turned to her and winked; she then turned up his sleeve and saw a scratch or puncture; I saw it was an old cut. That was on the left arm. We looked at his other arm and saw the mark in the vein as if bleeding had been performed by a medical man some time previous. There were no marks of fresh blood about it. The wound had healed but there was a swelling. Miss Creighton and Budge went for Dr. Hamphrey. Mr. Gunter was then suspicious of him, and said he would rather take care of twenty Slavins than one Breen. We examined him again and just where the spots of blood were we found a pin.—There was a pin in his waistcoat, which Miss Creighton took from him. We then examined his pockets outside. Some time after this found blood on the floor again. The quantity was such as a man's nose might bleed. Did not search him then. Never heard him say anything about suicide. He dreaded death very much. I told him we must all die. He appeared melancholy, but appeared perfectly able to judge between right and wrong. He was carefully watched. He was seldom alone. Have watched an hour and a half, sometimes two hours to get into his room when he was receiving religious instruction. I saw him after he was cut down and observed the piece of board. Saw nail then in the closet attached to the wall. Cautioned people to watch him because he had made several attempts to handle one of his shackles.—The last time I saw him was at 1 o'clock on Sunday when I gave him an apple. On leaving he grasped my hand so firmly my fingers ached after. I shook hands with all the prisoners when I gave them.

The evidence being concluded, the Coroner addressed the Jury. He said there was doubt of the hanging, the only question was whether he was assisted in accomplishing his death. There was no doubt culpable negligence in not searching this man. He did not blame the Sheriff, for he had evidently given every proper orders, but the subordinate officers did not seem to be aware of the duties of their situations. From the evidence before them they could have no hesitation that Breen had committed the act himself, and the only question was, whether he became at the time he committed it.

The Jury then retired, and after a short time returned a verdict of Felo de se against the deceased, coupling with it the following observations:—

This jury expresses the opinion that culpable negligence has been exhibited by the Sheriff and his subordinates in the case of the prisoner; as it appears by the evidence that the death of the prisoner has been made of sufficient character.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Fast Day.—Wednesday was generally observed in this city as a day of public humiliation. Public worship was held, we believe in all the Protestant places of worship, and great quietude prevailed throughout the town during the entire day.

The Freeman of yesterday contains another lengthy article of abuse relative to this act of public humiliation, which is only further developing the true character and feeling of those whom it represents. The sooner the whole truth is out the better, and the Freeman seems to be hastening to it.

Death by Drowning.—As some boys were amusing themselves in skating on Lily lake on Saturday the 28th ult., the eldest son of Capt. Atchison aged about 16 years fell through and before assistance could be rendered him he was drowned. His body was not recovered until next day.

Fire at Woodstock.—The Machine Shop of Messrs Balloch & Parsons of Woodstock were consumed by fire a few days since.—Loss £2000. No insurance.

☞ Extended notices of both the above occurrences were handed to the printer last week, but their insertion were unintentionally omitted.—[Ed.

Avery's Almanack for 1858.—This valuable Annual is published, containing in addition to the usual astronomical calculations, and other useful matter, a business directory of St. John. For Sale at Mr. Avery's Book Store, wholesale and retail.

☞ The Christian Almanac, for 1858, published by the American Tract Society, containing the usual astronomical calculations and a great variety of excellent reading, for sale at this office, price three pence.

The Rev. Mr. Schofield will deliver a lecture this evening, at the Mechanics' Institute, before the Young Men's Christian Association, on "The Bible the best book." Next Monday evening, Mr. Joseph Lawrence will lecture before the Mechanics Institute. Subject —"Notes on New Brunswick."

Grand Falls Suspension Bridge.—Mr. Tomlinson's wire Suspension foot bridge across the narrows below the Falls, is completed. People were crossing on the 2nd. All the bridge operations are progressing rapidly.

The Dublin correspondent of the N. Y. Observer writes: "The Indian war is of all-absorbing interest; affecting as much missions as civil government and the social condition of the country. The latest accounts inspire the hope that the heart of the rebellion is crushed, and though it will be some time before the whole of Hindoostan will be restored to tranquility, and opportunity for the peaceful and uninterrupted course of Christianizing the people be resumed; yet such changes are sure to be made in the administration as will greatly facilitate missionary labor. All Christian communities and Societies are already preparing to avail themselves of the openings that are sure to be created for diffusing the gospel with its blessings and institutions over Hindoostan, and thence over all Asia."

It is said that at Sing Sing prison, N. Y., fish are served up on Fridays to satisfy the religious scruples of the Roman Catholic inmates. It is to be presumed that there are many of this class within the walls of the prison, and as their consciences are too sensitive to permit them to eat flesh on Friday, they must be accommodated with fish. Of course we find no fault with the managers of the penitentiary in making this special provision, but we cannot help wondering of what material a conscience is made, which can remain quiet, while its owner is engaged in theft, drunkenness and murder, and becomes at once alarmed if he be asked to eat meat on Friday. God's law forbids crime of all kinds, but does not prohibit the use of flesh on Friday; but the rules of the Holy Church do, and, of course, they must have the preference. Is not that a grand delusion, which can so bewilder and lead astray the souls of multitudes?—[Christian Guardian.

Grain in Illinois.—A Western paper says that in Champaign county, Illinois, and at West Urbana, wheat is only worth, according to weight and quality, from forty to fifty cents a bushel, and the farmers will not market it, but hold it back for higher prices. The same paper says the corn yield of Illinois is without parallel for quantity,—one of the exceptional crops which are said to come once in five years. A Champaign farmer says it will not command above twelve, fifteen or eighteen cents a bushel, and most of it will be used as feed for stock.—It is added that not half so many acres have been sown to wheat this fall as were sown last fall, and no farmer will duplicate, in 1858, the corn planting of 1857.

The late Massacre on the Plains and the Mormons.—The report of the late massacre is fully confirmed. The number of persons slaughtered by the Indians was 118. Great excitement prevailed in Los Angeles on the announcement, shortly after the receipt of the news, that parties were in town who corroborated all the statements that had been previously made. A public meeting was called, and the persons referred to attended it and made statements, a condensation of which we give. Their names are Power and Warn. They had lately returned from Salt Lake City. Mr. Power, in his narrative, says:

"We found the Mormons making very determined preparations to fight the United States troops whenever they may arrive. On our way in, we met three companies of one hundred men each, armed and on the road towards the pass over Fort Bridger. I was told at Fort Bridger, there were four hundred armed Indians awaiting orders; they also said there were sixty thousand pounds of flour stored at Fort Bridger, for the use of their army. We found companies drilling every evening in the city. The Mormons declared to us that no United States troops should never cross the mountains.

While in San Bernardino, I heard many persons express gratification at the massacre. At the church services on Sunday Capt. Hunt occupied the pulpit, and, among other things, he said that the hand of the Lord was in it; whether it was done by white or red skins, it was right! The prophecies concerning Missouri were being fulfilled, and they would all be accomplished.

More outrages had occurred upon the Plains, which were instigated by the Mormons.

Generals Havelock and Wilson to be made baronets.

Arrived from St. John—Malta at Greenock.

The following has been communicated to the Poosah Observer:—"By recent letters received from Brigadier Havelock's force, it appears that on the arrival of the 79th Highlanders at that place of skulls, Cawnpore, after the massacre of our countrymen, women, and children, they by some means or other found the remains of one of General Wheeler's daughters. The sight was horrible, and aroused them to that pitch, that, gathering around, they removed the hair from the poor girl's head, a portion of which was carefully selected and sent home to her surviving friends. The remainder they equally divided among themselves; and on each man receiving his carefully served out portion, they all quietly and very patiently applied themselves to the tedious task of counting out the number of hairs contained in each individual's lot; and when this task was accomplished, they one and all swore most solemnly by Heaven and the God that made them, that for as many hairs as they held in their fingers, so many of the cruel and treacherous mutineers should die by their hands! an oath which they will, no doubt, most religiously keep."

A Sure Cure for a Cough.—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is pleasant to the taste, and seldom fails to effect a speedy cure of every species of throat and lung diseases. It is a scientific preparation, skillfully compounded.

Dr. Leary's Anglo-Saxon Medicine and Advice is not only a Speedy Relief, but a radical cure for Asthma Consumption, Dyspepsia, and Liver Complaint. It is worth giving it a trial.

Caution.—We would caution all who buy Pain Killer to be careful and call for Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and to take none else; for it is sold in square bottles, with Perry Davis's fac-simile signature on one side of the bottle. All others are spurious.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

[From the Boston Journal.]

This medicine, coming from a respectable source, and carefully prepared by an experienced and skilful physician, is received by the judge with confidence: its efficacy has been proved in many obstinate cases of disease, and its fame has rapidly extended. It has been extensively used in every part of the country, particularly in the Middle and Northern States, and strong testimony, from highly respectable and intelligent persons, has been adduced in favor of its merits as a remedy for Colds and Coughs, affections of the Chest, diseased Liver.

No other Cough Remedy has ever attained so high a reputation.

None genuine unless signed I. BITTS on the wrapper.

☞ If you are sick, the probability is that the seat of your suffering is in the stomach. From a weak stomach proceed dyspeptic language, oppression in the diaphragm, jaundice, headache, nausea, bodily weakness, dimness of sight, heartburn, costiveness, dysentery, and a legion of other tormenting diseases. Indigestion produces thin blood, and therefore destroys the strength and vigor of the system. To restore the tone of the stomach, and enable it to throw off and dismiss forever all these tormenting and dangerous complaints, nothing is necessary but a persevering use of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. There is no mistake, no failure in this restorative effects.

For sale by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canada, West Indies and South America, at 75c. per bottle. Principal Office, 638 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Balsam of Liverwort and Hoarhound.—There is no preparation in the market more popular, or that is doing more good, than Mrs. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort and Hoarhound. For full twenty years it has maintained a reputation for the cure of Colds, Coughs, and all kinds of Pulmonary Complaints. A friend of ours is eloquent in its praise in relation to its efficacy in curing Croup, pronouncing it one of the best articles he has ever seen used. The same may be said of its virtues in other complaints touching the throat and chest. Persons who are poor and sick will be supplied with a bottle gratis. Weeks & Potter, 154 Washington-street, Boston, General Agents. Sold by all the druggists. vi oct21 6m

☞ Read the Certificate of a Regular Practitioner!—This may certify that I have used Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer in numerous cases, and believe it to be a very valuable medicine. I have prescribed it extensively in bowel complaint, (particularly for children,) and it is in my opinion superior to any preparation I have ever used for the relief of those diseases. When given to children, I have always combined it with the syrup of pomegranate, say ten drops to a teaspoonful of the syrup, well mixed.—Others have mixed it with milk and molasses, equal parts.

A. HUNTING, M. D.

Perry Davis' Pain Killer, as an internal remedy has no equal. In cases of Cholic, Summer Complaint, Dyspepsia, Dysentery and Asthma, it will cure in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad sores, burns, scalds and sprains. For the sick headache and toothache, don't fail to try it. In short it is a Pain Killer.

Sold by Druggists and Medicine Dealers every where.

Sold by C. L. Tilley, Fellows & Co., and F. Walker & Son, St. John—W. L. Ferguson, Woodstock; Geo. C. Hunt, Jr., Fredericton.

Holloway's Ointment.—Don't have Sore Heads or Sore Breasts; don't have Salt Rheum, or any skin disease. Use this valuable Ointment, and no limb need be amputated, unless the bone be destroyed.
