The most important and startling news reis the bombardment of Canton in China, its business satisfactorily it was believed.

But little further was known of Persian affairs. The news altogether is somewhat importhough less warlike in Europe than formerly. following is from our English papers:

GREAT BRITAIN.—The New Year opens a more assured prospect of peace and prosperity than we have enjoyed some time previous. After months of negotiations, and more than one mo-of the rupture of our alliances, the ness of LORD PALMERSTON appears to baffled the evasions of his opponents, to have obtained the full advantage of a so dearly earned. The mortification open enemies and of doubtful friends be extreme; but the character of Eng-there can be no doubt, has been elevated the result of the tediously prolonged and wahtonly contested diplomatic struggle.
At home we continue to be blessed with u-quillity, while the termination of war has given an immense stimulus to the of the country. Under the fostering influence of free-trade, our commerce taken an upward spring, which the war, during the two years of its continuance, arrested, but did not drive back; while no soon-was the external pressure removed, than the elasticity of the national resources were demonstrated in a further development of our manufactures to a point exceeding by £20,000, 000, sterling that which they had before attained. Such an upward spring of material wealth in a single year, is, we believe, unprecedented. As a natural consequence, the revenue is in a flourishing condition.—Christian Times.

A dinner was given by the county of Fife for Scotland, to Lord Panmure. His speech was altogether congratulatory on the state of the country, and on present efficiency of the army, which he advised the country not to diminish.

FRANCE.—Paris Conference.—The Conferences to settle the difficulties arising out of the late Treaty with Russia were held on Wednesday, at twelve o'clock. The sitting lasted till four. Nothing was that day made known as to the result, but no doubt was entertained that the question of frontier would be amicably settled, and that the plenipotentiaries would not enter on the discussion of any other subject.

The official news of the opening of the Conferences had scarcely any effect upon the Bourse.

The Isle of Serpents and the town of Bolgrad, probably be now given up to Moldavia.
The question thus settled, the long and most weary and wasting corruption of the Princepalities by Austrian troops, will, we trust, cease at last. The British fleet will leave Euxine, and once more the people of these regions will be left to themselves. The Sultan's new Prime Minister seems bent on reforms. Trade has been set in motion, and railways will be the order of the day in the East. The war storm that has swept a-many thousands into the grave, has passed over for the time, leaving open hitherto unexplored and all but unknown fields for Wanders to explore.—Christian News.

WAR WITH CHINA.—So far as the brief announcements of the telegraphic message go, the aggression would seem to have been on the part of the Chinese; and the British authorities would appear to have exercised considerable forbearance before having recourse to extremities. On the 8th of October, a vessel lying at anchor in Canton harbour, under British colours, was boarded by the Chinese—why, or wherefore, does not appear —and twelve of the crew made prisoners.
The British Consul interfered, but was in-sulted and threatened with violence. Remonstrances addressed to the Chinese Governor, were treated with contempt. At the end of a fortnight, the matter was placed in the hands of Admiral SEYMOUR, who proceeded, three days later, to hostile measures, took the forts of Canton, and destroyed several of them. Governor YEH still refused any satisfaction, or even an interview. The British Admiral then opened fire on the city walls and the palace of the Governor. On the 29th of October, the walls were breached and stormed, with a loss of three killed and twelve wounded. Negotiation was still refused; and, on the 3rd and 4th of November, just four weeks after the first outrage, the old city of Canton was bombarded. On the 6th, upwards of twenty war junks were destroyed by the British; but the indomitable YEH still refused to lower his celestial pride before the vituperous gaze of the outside barbarians.
According to the latest accounts, the Bogue forts had been captured, the foreign factories deserted, and a vast amount of property destroyed by fire.—Patriot.

The British loss in the above operations was trifling. The British and American ladies were removed from Canton and sent, on Monday last, with the governor, to Hong Kong.
A detachment of marines from the U. S. ship Portsmouth, assisted in guarding the factories.
Accounts of American property are not yet full. It is however, announced that an American steamer was fired upon by one of the Chinese forts in the Macao passage, whereupon the U. S. Frigate Portsmouth immediately proceeded to destroy it, and also notified to the Chinese authorities that unless instant reparation was made for the insult offered to the flag, hostile operations would be commenced.

Hitherto, the European Powers have preserved a complete neutrality between the combatants; if the balance has leaned to any side, it has been to that of the constituted authorities; but the present quarrel may produce a change. Even if we should still refuse to take up the cause of the insurgents, yet the blows we are forced itself-defence to strike, may have the effect of bringing to the dust an already tottering empire.—Christian Times.

THE SWISS DIFFICULTY.—The Neuchatel affair still remains in the hands of diplomatists, who, as is their wont, promise a pacific solution of the difficulty. Recent events have, however, somewhat shaken the value of the world have hitherto attached to these professions; and no small amount of uneasiness is manifested, as it is felt that a war thus breaking out in the heart of Europe would not be long before it spread to its extremities. The King of PRUSSIA persists in his demand that the prisoners shall be unconditionally liberated. Switzerland asks for conditions which most men would think reasonable; that the King shall first acknowledge the independence of the canton. Between these conflicting positions there is abundant scope for mediation, if the parties were in a condition to listen to reason. The Swiss are recruiting their forces—Prussia has mobilized her army. Prussia and Switzerland may bluster and threaten each other as they please; but it must be at a safe distance, as neutral States lie between them, and they have no means of reaching each other except by the permission of their neighbours. Negotiation may be employed in this way much more effectually than in any attempt to soothe the angry combatants. It must not be forgotten, however, that, from first to last of this wretched dispute, the King of PRUSSIA has put himself decidedly in the wrong.—Christian Times.

PRUSSIA.—The Bourse Gazette of Berlin, gives the following as the text of the text of the ultimatum handed by Lord Stratford de Redcliffe to Fereuk-Khan, the Persian envoy: —1st. English demands that the Grand Vizier Safer-Azum shall be dismissed, and that, on the return of Mr. Murray, the new ministry and a deputation from the court shall go out to meet him, and conduct him in state to his hotel; that on his arrival the Grand Vizier shall make verbal apologies to him, and revoke the despatches addressed to the English Ambassador on the affair of Huschem.

2nd. England demands the immediate evacuation of Herat by the Persian army, and the payment of an indemnity to the inhabitants.

3rd. Persia shall come to an understanding as soon as possible with the Imaum of Muscat relative to the cession of a portion of the south coast to that Prince, and in the meantime, and in order to expedite that understanding, she shall consent to the English occupying Bender-Akbar and Bender-Abuse.

Some of the Vienna journals state that Persia, supported by Russia, demands the neutrality of Turkey; whilst England, on the contrary, wishes for the alliance of Turkey, or at least for authorision for the passage of her troops to Trebizond. The Imaum of Muscat sides with the English, and refuses to pay the annual tribute which he owes for salt mines in Persia. Great activity prevails in the Persian arsenals. The Russians have sent arms and ammunition to Enzeli, a bay on the Persian side of the Caspian Sea.

It is stated that Mr. Charles Villiers is to be the new English Ambassador to the United States.

It is reported that Lord Palmerston requested a chair to be kept for him at the Surrey Gardens Music Hall, last Sunday morning, that he might hear Mr. Spurgeon. His lordship intended to be present, but was unfortunately prevented.

An American merchant, a prisoner for debt in Clichy, in France, has been shot dead by a sentinel, who fired upon him in consequence of his remaining at a window after being ordered to withdraw. This terrible affair, which has created an extraordinary sensation, is in course of investigation.

Gretna-green elopements have at last followed the earlier scandals of Fleet marriages, and have now come to a final end. A law passed in the course of last session, and which came into operation yesterday, as the first day of the new year, provides that these marriages, which are considered irregular even in Scotland, shall no longer be valid, unless one of the parties has resided for three weeks in Scotland.

THE PAPAL STATES.—The financial position of the Papal States is represented as somewhat improved, but the situation of the Provinces is deplorable. Not only are the roads unsafe for travellers, but the lives of the inhabitants of the towns are constantly exposed to danger. It is impossible for the Austrians to quit Bologna; the garrison of Ferrara is not diminished, and it is even proposed to establish movable columns of troops on the roads to check the banditti. On Friday week the Pope went to pay a visit to the newly-erected column in honour of the Immaculate Conception.

DEATH OF MR. HUGH MILLER.—The melancholy event which has put a termination to the life of Hugh Miller was reported in our last paper. It is now an undoubted fact that Mr. Hugh Miller died in the most melancholy of all ways, by his own hand, as a frenzied but never has been found, administered to his wife.
On his hand being opened, the doctors discovered, from the state of the brain, that he must soon have been in an asylum for life.
A post-mortem examination of the body was made at his house, in Portobello, on Friday, by Professor Miller and other medical gentlemen. The following is the conclusion to which they have come:—

The cause of death we found to be a pistol shot through the left side of the chest, and this we are satisfied was inflicted by his own hand. From the diseased appearances found in the brain, taken in connexion with the history of the case, we have no doubt that the act was suicidal, under the impulse of insanity.

The following few lines to his wife, found written on a folio sheet lying on the table beside his corpse, give painful evidence of the awful intensity of the disease:—

Dearest Lydia,—My brain burns, I must have walked; and a fearful dream arises upon me. I cannot bear the horrible thought. God and father of the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon me. Dearest Lydia, dear children, farewell. My brain burns as the recollection grows.

My dear, dear wife, farewell, HUGH MILLER.

DEATH OF J. S. ORR.—Under the heading of "Death of the Angel Gabriel," the Boston Journal says:

"John Sayers Orr, well known to the people of this country under the assumed cognomen of the 'Angel Gabriel,' died at the penal settlement of Demarara, in November last. His disease was dysentery, and his age about thirty-five years. Orr was an Englishman by birth, but had resided many years in this country. His fierce denunciations of Catholicism in the streets of the principal American cities, some three years since, where the cause of many disturbances, which the police were often called upon to quiet.

From this country, he went to England, but not meeting with success he went to Demarara, where he succeeded in fomenting an insurrection among the blacks, which demanded active efforts on the part of the Government to repress, and Orr was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor. He did considerable mischief, and but little good anywhere."

Orr doubtless did much mischief and little good, and yet he should not be charged with the assumption of the soubriquet of the "Angel Gabriel," which he expressly dis-claimed. It was applied to him by the profane, because of the trumpet which he was fond of blowing, with his other eccentricities.
He was evidently insane.

☞ Mrs. Cutts, of No. 272 Second street, believing her child, about three years old, to be troubled with worms, purchased one bottle of DR. M'LANES VERMIFUGE, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., and gave it two tea-spoonsful, which had the effect of causing the child to discharge a large number of worms. The child is now enjoying good health. We would advise all parents who may suspect their children to be troubled with worms to lose no time, but immediately purchase and administer Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge. *It will cure. LARYNGITIS.—The Larynx is the cavity where the voice is formed. The symptoms are Hoarseness, and often loss of voice. In the incipient stages, BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES will generally cure; if chronic, affect relief.

DAILY BEE OFFICE, Boston, July 31, 1856.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—Some weeks ago, my son, a young man 21 yearsof age, caught a severe cold, by unusual labor and exposure. His throat became much swollen, and it was with great difficulty he could be heard when he attempted to speak, so nearly destroyed was his voice. His condition I assure you was dangerous and alarming. In this condition of his sufferings I procured a bottle of Mrs. Gardner's Syrup, which he used according to directions for two or three days, at the end of which time he recovered his health. By this excellent compound, applied in good time, I have no doubt saved a life, and it may be, a fatal sickness was prevented.

REMEMBER! The Bible is a large volume, and can not be sent in the mails. If you desire a sample copy, it must be forwarded to the care of some person; and any friend who keeps a store near your residence will cheerfully allow you to have the box forwarded to him, if that be your nearest point.

, Canvassing Circulars furnished gratis with each lot of books.

, This is, without doubt, the cheapest and best Family Bible in the market. We are now making extensive preparations to have the work issued in the best style, handsomely and neatly bound, with fine paper, large and well printed type, etc., and it is our intention to hold out great inducements for agents to canvass and sell this work. PREMIUMS will be given in proportion to the quantities sold, but all on a very liberal scale.

, It is expected the orders for this work will be very large, and in case you should give your attention to this matter, we would be glad to receive your order at an early day, if possible, at least one month before you would need the Bibles for delivery, to prevent delay and disappointment. We of course keep on hand a large and varied assortment of our ILLUSTRATED WORKS, bound in the different styles, and which we offer to agents on the most favorable terms. Any further information you may desire relative to this enterprise will be cheerfully given, by addressing as above.
