fought before Agra, between the Garrison of that place and the Neemuch mutineers, who had marched thither with reinforcements, which brought their numbers up to ten thousand men. The British forces were obliged to retire with heavy loss, having several officers killed. Two native regiments had mutinied at Sialkote. At Punjaub, on the 19th of July, they massacred Captain Bishop, Dr. Graham, Rev. Mr. Hunter, with his wife and child. The remaining Europeans were safe in a fort. These mutineers were totally defeated on the 16th.

At Meerut, General Hewitt had been removed from the Command for Supineness.

The Punjaub, was tranquil. Some disturbance had occurred at Hyderabad and in the Decan but had been suppressed.

The Bombay and Madras presidences, continue tranquil, and the armies loyal.

General Reid has succeeded to the Command before Delhi.

Although the British had parts of five Regiments, only two thousand could be mustered for an effective attack, in consequence of detachments required to protect other places.

Two more British Regiments had reached Calcutta.

The despatches say nothing about the lost transit steamer at Calcutta.

Trade, especially expor, continued paralyzed. Exchange 2 and 2 pence farthing to three eights for document bills. At Madras, there was little change in the import market. At Bombay, business in import was very limited; exchange 2 and 2 pence one eighth.

LATEST.

The latest despatch from Marseilles, of August 28th, to the London Post says:—Private commercial letters state that Calcutta suffered extremely from scarcity. Provisions were beginning to arrive by the Rivers. The harvest was in imminent danger of being destroyed. The principal manufactories were abandoned, and materials were required. The exports amount to scarcely anything, even from Bombay, some discontents had shown themselves around Bombay, but had been suppressed.

The regiment of Gugerat had been threatened with decimation. Moveable Columns are to scour the Provinces of General India. The English were organising Regiments of Sikhs.

CHINA.

Hong Kong dates are to the 10th of July, and Shanghae to the 2d July. Lord Elgin arrived at Hong Kong on the 2d of July, and was about to proceed northward in the Shannon, accompanied by six gun-boats.

At Shanghae exchange was 7 2 half pence to 3 half-pence. The prices of silk had advanced. Exchange at Hong Kong 5s. to 5s. 0d. farthing.

M. Derayneville applied to the Emperor to be allowed to retain his post as ambassador to Rome, but it was not acceded to, and he will go to Russia.

Wheat had fallen four francs, per hectolitre in Paris.

The Empress Eugene patronized a Bull fight with her presence at Bayone, on Sunday, 23d.

ITALY.

Fresh political arrests were being made at Genoa and Turin.

The pope was expected to return to Rome in a few days. Great preparations were making for his reception. He was at Leghorn 25th, and was warmly received.

The Opinions of Turin gives an account of his reception at Genoa of a piece of ordnance sent by the citizens of Boston to Piedmont, for the walls of Alessandria. The military and civic authorities proceeded in state to the gates of the port, where the gun was delivered to them.

SPAIN.—M. Lafragua, the Mexican Envoy had arrived at Cadiz, where he would embark for Mexico. It is rumoured when General Lersundi proceeds to Cuba he will be accompanied by Gen. Ramon Serano, as second in the command. The new Governor will sail in September, and take with him the ultimatum of the Spanish Government respecting Mexico.

AUSTRIA.—The Austrian government has issued orders for the reduction of the Austrian army in Italy to the extent of 20,000 men. The reduction will take place this autumn. The Austrian government is said to have sent a confidential note to the Berlin objection to the treaty with Baden, permitting France to construct a massive bridge across the Rhine.

The agent of the New York Associated Press is indebted to the extreme kindness of Captain Leitch, of the Europa, for the latest telegraph of the Indian news received at Liverpool at the moment of his departure, subjoined herewith:—

LONDON, Saturday.—The India over land mail arrived with full details of the late disasters. It appears that the catastrophe at Cawnpore is believed to have occurred on the 24th of June.

In consequence of Sir Hugh Wheeler being mortally wounded, the force had accepted proffers of safety made by Nana Sahbit, and the mutineers. Nana allowed them to get into boats, with all they had, and then fire was opened upon them from the Bank, and all were destroyed. Other accounts state that the wives and children of officers and soldiers, consisting of 240 persons, had been taken into Cawnpore, and sold by public auction, and were treated with the highest indignation, and barbarously slaughtered by the inhabitants. It is hoped that a few have escaped. It is said Nana Sahib has more than 100 European prisoners in his hands whom he intends to hold as hostages. They are probably the remains of General Wheeler's force. General Havelock, who left Allahabad with 20,000 Europeans, attacked and totally defeated the insurgents.

THE INDIAN REVOLT.

By the Steamer, at Halifax, on Wednesday, we have received our file of English papers, giving dreadful details of the revolt in India. From them in addition to the telegraphic despatch in another column, we make the following extracts:

The news from India is again sufficient to try patience, but not to shake confidence. The Bombay despatce confirms, it is true, the worst communications from Calcutta, leaving Delhi still in the hands of the mutineers: but it adds other facts which are on the whole encouraging. Sir Henry Barnard, who died of cholera on the 5th of July, was succeeded in the command by General Reid. The date from the camp is the 14th, when the new commander did not deem his force sufficient for attack. There is reason to reckon the Europeans at 7000 men; but, with due regard to our extended positions, not more than a third of these could be spared for an assault In outs de skirmishes, however, we continued to be successful, having repelled, with loss to the enemy, three sorties since the preceding accounts.

Besides Sir Henry Lawrence, we have to lament the death of another gallant defender in Sir Hugh Wheeler. The little garrison of Lucknow still held out, notwithstanding the fall of its distinguished commandant.

But Nana Sahib, the monster who whetted his appetite for blood on women and children, overpowered the little band of heroes entrenched near Cawnpore. Constrained by hunger, they capitulated under promise of being spared; but the perfidious wretch destroyed every man. General Havelock, however, had promptly avenged the death of his brothers in arms and those helpless victim of cold blooded massacre. At the head of a flying brigade of 2000 Europeans, he freed the district from the presence of the assassins, whom he routed in three successive attacks, capturing six-and-twenty guns.

THE DELHI ATROCITIES.

A clergyman writing from Bangalore says, that no words can express the feeling of horror which pervades society in India, so many are the private accounts of the tragedy too sickening to repeat. "The cruelties committed by the wretches exceed all belief. They took forty eight females, most of them girls of from ten to fourteen, many delicately nurtured ladies—violated them, and kept them for the base purposes of the heads of the insurrection for a whole week. At the end of that time they made them strip themselves, and gave them up to the lowest of the people, to abuse in the broad daylight in the streets of Delhi. They then commenced the work of torturing them to death, cutting off their breasts, fingers, and noses, and leaving them to die. One lady was three days dying.—They flayed the face of another lady, and made her walk naked through the street.—Poor Mrs ——, the wife of an officer of the — Regiment, at Meerut, was soon expecting her confinement. They violated her, then ripped her up, and, taking from her the unborn child, cast it and her into the flames.—No European man, woman and child, had the slightest mercy shown them. I do not believe the world ever witnessed more hellish torments than have been inflicted on our poor fellow-countrywomen. At Allahabad, they have rivalled the atrocities of Delhi. I really cannot tell you the fearful cruelties these demons have been guilty of—cutting off the fingers and toes of little children, joint by joint, in sight of their parents, who were reserved for similar treatment afterwards."

The Rev. Dr. Duff reports a number of instances of similarly atrocious conduct. He says. "An eye-witness to the brutal conduct of the mutinous Sepoys at Allahabad, and who himself had a narrow escape from their ruthless hands, thus writes: 'A next door English neighbour of mine was visited one night by a gang of upwards of two dozen Sepoys, fully equipped with destructive arms. On the hue and cry being given, I went up to the terrace of my house, and saw with my own eyes the rascals cutting into two an infant boy of two or three years of age, while playing with his mother; next they hacked into pieces the lady; and subsequently, most shockingly and horridly, the husband.' The writer made his escape by a back-door, and by means of a bamboo, he managed to cross the Ganges, and make his way through multiplied difficulties to Benares. Affecting evidences of the villanies that have been practised are ever and anon casting up. The other day, in the neighbourhood of Benares, a detachment of Europeans fell in with twenty-one Sepoys in disguise, who wished to pass themselves off as poor villagers that had been 'looted'—that is, plundered. On searching their persons, however, each of them had about seventy rupees in cash, beside gold and silver jewels covered with blood; showing but too clearly the brutal way in which they must have been taken off our poor murdered countrywomen. At one of the stations, a lady, in panic terror, had hidden herself in an obvious corner of the house. Through a chink or crevice in the partition she saw the bleeding head of one of her children rolled as a ball across the floor; and on emerging from her hiding-place, beheld the fragments of another scattered about!".

Another letter from Calcutta says: "How to describe all the enormities that have taken place throughout British India, I know not. The overland newspapers will be full enough of news, but a deal that appears in correspondents' letters in the Calcutta daily newspapers will not be found in the overland papers, and a deal more that we hear of by private letters, that do not find publication, as being too heart-rending and shocking to put into print. No savages in the Pacific Ocean could be capable of doing what those scoundrel mutineers have been guilty of. Women and children slaughtered and mangled in a most cruel manner; young girls of fourteen fifteen and sixteen years of age, violated by mutineers, exhausted to death, their breasts and limbs cut off, and pariah dogs fed with the flesh of their victims, cut from their bones; these acts are among numerous others that we learn by private communications, the victims English women and young ladies, some only lately returned from England, thus treated before the eyes of their parents!"

A letter from Bombay also says that some of the attrocities are too horrible to relate. "There was one of a poor soldier's wife, who was attacked by some of the fiends, after they killed her husband. She boldly shot two of them, who were seizing her three children; however, the rest of the wretches, before, they murdered her, shut the poor babes up in a box, ank barn them before her eyes!"

REMEDY FOR ASTHMA.—We think we are benefitting our readers when we inform them that a relief for the Asthma can be found, in using Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy.

GOOD AUTHORITY.—The Cincinnati Evening Nonpariel says of the Perry Davis Pain Killer:—it removes pain as if by magic from any part of the body, and no one who knows its virtue would willingly be without it.

Certificate in favor of Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for Asthma.

CASTINE, ED., March, 1857.

MESSRS. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co.: Gent: When I read your advertisement of Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Medicine in the Dover Morning Star, I told my wife that it had one recommendation, which was, that you didn't pretend that it would cure everybody and everything. If you had stated that it would cure every case of Asthma, I should have believed it.

My wife has been troubled with Phthisic or Asthma for more than 15 years. For a long time she tried almost everything that was advertised; but after all a powerful emetic of Ipecac was the only thing that would ease her, and that took away her strength so much, that she could not get up again under a week or ten days.

After I read your advertisement and Mr. Vose's letter, I sent to Mr. Dunn's store in Wiscasset, and got a bottle of your medicine. A few days afterwards, my wife was taken about seven o'clock in the morning worse than ever. She could hardly breathe. I gave her a tablespoonful of the Remedy. She was relieved in five minutes, and in less than two hours she was up and doing her housework: and since then she has always been relieved by one dose. My boy, eight years old, has been troubled with hoarseness and hard breathing. Some folks called it Asthma, and some thought it was Croup. One day I gave him a teaspoonful of the Remedy. In less than ten minutes he breathed as well as anybody, and has been well ever since.

I thought you might like to know about these cases. I know of others as strong as mine, which I can get if you want them. I know how much people suffer who have the Asthma, and I thank you for preparing such a medicine.

Yours with respect. C. W. FOSTER.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.—Voluntarily conscientiously, and with much pleasure, we recommend to our readers the above named medicine. We speak from our own observation and experience when we say that it removes pain as if by magic from all parts of the body, and is one of the best medicines in use for checking Diarrhoea, and removing the premonitory symptoms of Cholera. It is applied both internally and externally, with the best effects, and none who have once used the Pain Killer, would willingly be without it constantly in their houses.—[Cincinnati Evening Nonpariel.

One word in regard to Perry Davis' Pain Killer. I have used it in my family for some years, an take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable medicine, that should be kept in every family. I have witnessed wonderful and speedy cures by its use—recently, within the last week, I have known a very severe case of rheumatism so soon relieved and promising a speedy cure, by this, in my estimation, invaluable remedy JABEZ SWAN,

Pastor of the Huntington-st. Bap. Church, New London Conn.

Sold by S. L. Tiffey, Fellows & Co., and T. Walker & Son, St. John—W. L. Ferguson, Woodstock; Geo. C. Hunt, Jr., Fredericton.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Armed with this great antidote the traveller is prepared to encounter all varieties of climate, for he has the means of eradicating nearly every species of internal disease. The endemics of the alluvial districts of the West and the miasmatic swamps of the South, and the epidemics which at particular seasons decimate the population of our crowded cities are susceptible of being controlled by the purifying, disinfecting, action of the pills upon the animal fluids; while external diseases and injuries are rapidly and thoroughly cured by the anti-inflammatory and healing agency of the ointment.

Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge!—Another Medical Witness.

☞"It is no small evidence of the intrinsic value of this great Vermifuge, when even physicians, who are generally prejudiced against patent medicines, voluntarily come forward and testify to its triumphant success in expelling worms. Read the following:—

HARRISONVILLE, Shelby. Co, Ky., April 2, 1856.

MESSRS. FLEMING BROS.—I am practicing physician, residing permanently in this place, in the year 1853, when a resident of the State Missouri, I became acquainted with the superior virtues of Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by you. At some more leisure moment, I will send you the result of an experiment I made with one vial, in expelling upwards of 900 worms. L. CARTER, M. D.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of PITTSBURGH, PA. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

Wistar's Balsam in Vermont.

IRASBURGH, VT., May 5

MR. S. W. FOWLE Dear Sir; I am nearly out of the Balsam of Wild Cherry. You may forward, if you please, two or three dozen more. The medicine gives better satisfaction here in pulmonary complaints than any other that I have kept. I have tried it with perfect satisfaction upon myself, having been troubled with a severe cough for more than a year, and having profuse night sweats for the last month. I had tried various popular remedies without material benefit; at length I tried Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and before I had finished the first bottle I found great relief. Two bottles have wrought a cure.

Yours, respectfully, HUBBARD HASTINGS.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.
