Raiders lose twice

Last weekend saw UNB Red Raiders' chances for the MIAU championship seriously shaken. Raiders dropped two games in Halifax, losing to Dalhousie Tigers 88-61 and to St. Mary's Huskies 93-76.

The Raiders were outclassed in both matches as the scores indicate. In Friday's tilt, Dal led 45-27 at the half and out rebounded the UNB squad considerably. Dave Nutbrown, the high-scoring guard in his final year of eligibility for college ball, said that rebounding against the Tigers was rough. And rough it was as the referees blew down the play 28 times for personal fouls.

The big guns for Dalhousie were George Hughes, 21 and Bruce Bourassa, 20. Brian Peters and John Cassidy sank 16 and 14 respectively.

The leaders in the Raider's effort were Dave Nutbrown, 22 and Rod Cox with 15.

Saturday's game saw St. Mary's gain revenge on the impotent Raiders for their loss here Nov. 30. Huskies led 45-28 at half-time. UNB, led by guards Cox and Nutbrown, equaled the Huskies' 48 points in the second half.

Again, the game was rough. UNB made 30 for 35 from the line as St. Mary's committed 24 fouls.

Dave Nutbrown paced the Raiders with 27 points. Rod Cox threw in 19 while Bob Bonnell hit for 14.

Big Mike Chambers was top point getter for SMU with 22 points. Other Husky marksmen included Dennis Reardon, 20; Joe O'Reilly, 16; and Billie Thomas, 13.

The weekend play saw the Maritime race turn in favour of still undefeated Acadia. Raiders meet the Axemen in Wolfville in a week's time. Tomorrow night will find the boys in action at the Lady Beaverbrook Gym when they take on Dal for the second time.

STANDINGS: 1. Acadia, 4-0; 2. Dalhousie, 3-1; St. Mary's, 2-2; St. Dunstan's, 1-1; UNB, 1-2; Mt. Allison, 1-4; and St. F.X., 0-1.

Bloomers unbeaten in 4 years

The UNB Red Bloomers will continue their four-year winning streak this weekend when they defeat Acadia tonight and Dalhousie tomorrow afternoon.

The Red Bloomers have won 75 games and lost none since January, 1965, when they lost to Mt. Allison.

Their latest wins were last weekend over Mt. A. and Mt. St. Bernard. Olmstead and Aitkenhead pace the Bloomers with weekend totals of 33 and 28 points respectively.

In the Friday game the Bloomers annihilated Mt. A. 89-26. Olmsteadscored 20 points, Aitkenhead, 12, and Leckie Langley 10.

The game was the same Saturday night as Mt. St. Bernard went down 83-28. The score was 40-15 at half time.

Aitkenhead lead the way with 16 points, Olmsteadhit for 13, Schrider, 12, Lee, 11, Savoy, 10, Lowe, 9, Humes, 6, Nurmi, 4, Langley, 2.

The game tonight is at 6 pm and the game tomorrow starts at 2 pm.

Devils face crucial games

As a result of last weekend's 6-3 loss to St. Dunstan's, the UNB Red Devils have their backs against the wall in Maritime College Hockey play. The Red Devils play Dalhousie Friday night and the tough St. Mary's team Saturday afternoon, and if the Devils hope to make the playoffs, they must win both these games.

The Dalhousie squad, mired in last place with a 1-7 record, should be an easy win for the Devils. The St. Mary's team indubitably will provide much stiffer opposition. Currently they are tied for first place with St. Dunstan's, with an 8-2 record.

St. Dunstan's scored four third period goals, in six minutes, to beat the UNB Red Devils last Friday night.

Ralph McCully led the SDU charge with two goals and singles came from Bill LeClaire, Rick O'Donnell, Bill Carson, and Barry Turner. Geoff Sedgwick's two goals and Karl Parks' one constituted the Red Devils scoring.

In this game, the UNB team was intimidated right from the start and, as a result, St. Dunstan's dominated the play. The Devils stayed close for the first two periods, only because of Keith LeLievre's fine goaltending, but it was just a matter of time before SDU would put the game away. The only other UNB player of note was Geoff Sedgwick who played a fine game at his left-wing position.

JOCK TALK

by Michael Peacock,
BRUNSWICKAN STAFF

The UNB Red Devils have not met great success since the Christmas recess. They have managed two losses to St. Dunstans and Acadia, and they gained a tie with St. F.X. I think that the main reason is that they haven't been getting the excellent goaling necessary to win. Keith Lelievre has not been playing as well as expected, and therein lies the key to success for the UNB team. If they are to make the playoffs, he will have to regain the form of his Junior Hockey days.

The Red Raiders continued to run into that jinx during road games, as they lost a pair in Halifax over the weekend. However all is not lost, Acadia has a fine record but has played very few games on the road as yet. Dal has 1 loss, but play here this Saturday afternoon against the Raiders. A UNB win will give each team 2 losses. St. Mary's play a crucial contest against "X" this week, and if the Huskies lose it will virtually eliminate them from the championship. The key to UNB's hopes is winning all games at home, and the road contest against the Axemen from Wolfville.

The UNB Swimmers are virtual shoo-ins for the intercollegiate titles (both men and women) despite Amby Legere's constant allegiations to the opposite. The men have lost all three meets with Mount Allison this season, but two were due to disqualifications, and in the other the team was missing some key people. The Beavers have too much depth and will win the MIAA Championship at Acadia by at least 50 points. The Mermaids have yet to lose an intercollegiate meet this year, and will win the ladies version of the Championship by 100 points! In fact they will total more points than all the opposition put together.

Another certain championship for UNB is ladies basketball. The UNB Red Bloomers are so much better than all the opposing teams, that they will probably win all their games by more than 40 points. For instance, the defeated Mt. A 89-26 on Friday, and Mount St. Bernard 83-28 on Saturday. Last year they attended an invitational tournament at the University of Western Ontario and defeated the best teams from Eastern Canada. What lies ahead? Perhaps a big tourney in Victoria, B.C. this Spring!
