It's Showtime Folk

The time is drawing near for yet another Red 'N Black Revue; 1981 marks the 35th anniversary of this annual student production and this year's show is destined to be recorded in your memories as the most exciting extravaganza you've ever experienced!

Our host for this year is that multi-talented king of stage and a past star of Red 'N Black, Gary Ewing. Gary has amazed us before with his hilarious, show-stopping renditions of "Beasti", and of course, Elvis Presley, so we are all very anxious to see him in his new role as Master of Ceremonies. We are confident that Gary will exceed all of our hopes and that he will, once again, be a star in his own right!

The UNB Rugby Club will be making a return engagement after last year's unforgettable act -- "Swan Lake". This year, the boys thought they would give the girls in the Kickline a run for their money, so they have prepared their own version of one of the numbers from Broadway's hit musical, "A Chorus Line." It will be up to you to decide who has the nicest legs!!!

And, speaking of legs, this year's Kickline is full of energy and enthusiasm,like none we've every seen before!! They are classy, jazzy, and bursting with talent!! "The Silver Bullets" under the direction of Anne Harrison, deserves to be the last act in the show because we know they'll bring the house down!!

But, wait -- there is more. . . hold onto your seats when "Scooter aand the Naval Driving Five" hit the stage for an unexpected but delightful surprise!! And, of course, this expose would not be
