to take Washington before the 20th inst. The impression is that his army is thinning out too fast to warrant him in risking a battle.

BOSTON, Sept. 21st, 1861.

Everything remains quiet at Washington, the position of the armies remain unchanged.

It is believed that the President has determined to depose General Freemont.

The people of Kentucky seem to be determined to drive the Tennessee invaders from their Territory and stirring news is expected from there shortly.

There is no doubt that the Rebels made an attack on Lexington, Missouri, on Monday, and that they were repulsed with heavy loss.

Returns from California show that the Republicans have elected their candidate for Governor, and secured a large majority in the Legislature.

BOSTON, Sept. 24.

Everything quiet at Washington.

The news of the surrender of Lexington, Mo., to the Rebels, is confirmed.

It is said Gen. Freemont is to take the field in person.

The National fast will be generally observed throughout the loyal States.

The seizure of vessels owned in part at South is still going on.

Arrests of individuals charged with treason continue.

The United States loans is being eagerly taken.

The Federal prisoners at Richmond are said to be suffering much hardships; a large number have been sent to Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

RAILWAY MATTERS.—A good deal has been said and written of late about Railways, and the propriety of this Province engaging in the work of extension at the present time. In view of the state of the financial system of the country, the question is one that deserves much attention and careful consideration upon the part of our legislators. It is said that at the recent meeting of the Executive Council, the well-known Joseph Nelson, on behalf of an English Company, submitted some propositions upon the subject of an Inter-colonial Railway.

A Fredericton contemporary broadly hints that the views of Mr. Nelson were favourably entertained by our Government, but the Courier says it is satisfied that such statement has no foundation in fact; a movement, however, is being made in connection with Provincial Railway matters, which, we hope, will not be barren of results. The question has been long agitated, and it is high time some definite understanding was arrived at. Within a few days this Province has been visited by several gentlemen deeply interested in Railyway works, (financially and otherwise) and their presence among us seems to have again set the ball in motion. Among these were Mr. Giles, well known as being connected at one time with Messrs, Peto, Betts, Brassey & Co.; Mr. Nelson, who once visited this Province in the capacity of Secretary to Lord Bury; Mr. Watkins, Agent of the unfortunate Grand Trunk Railway; and a Mr. Boates, of London. The above named gentlemen, accompanied by R. Jardine, Esq., Hon. S. L. Tilley, and Hon. C. Watters, have proceeded to Canada for the purpose, it is said, of discussing with the Canadian Government the whole Railway system of the North American Provinces, with the view of bringing about the work of connecting them by Railway upon the most economical and beneficial plan.—(Globe.

THE CENSUS.—It is to be much regretted that greater care was not taken to secure more correct religious statistics in connection with the census returns of the Province. It is quite likely that this part of the returns will be utterly worthless for any useful purposes. The News of Wednesday very properly remarks.—

"If the Baptists and Presbyterian denominations are not properly classified in their sub-divisions, and the larger bodies have numbers given to them to which they really have no right whatever, the religious portion of the Returns will be valueless. In Nova Scotia great care was taken to class all persons under their proper heads—thus, the Presbyterian bodies were properly arranged, and there were columns headed "Atheist," "Socinian," "Jew," "Infidel," and so on; but our Census papers as printed have simply a wide column headed "Religion," with no sub-divisions whatever. Persons not interested may think it a small matter that the proper arrangement has not been made; but the adherents of the several branches of the Presbyterian and Baptist bodies will agree with us that the subject is one in which they are deeply interested. Public questions may come up before a great while when it will be found necessary to refer to the Census tables to learn the numerical standing of the different religious denominations. The question of an equalized distribution of the money granted to religious bodies for their Schools or Academies, will be one of these. If the present system of endowing sectarian institutions is to be continued—which, we hope, may not be the case—each of the denominations should receive according to its numerical standing. At the present time considerable sums are granted to the Roman Catholic, Wesleyan and Baptist bodies, but nothing to Episcopalians and Presbyterians.—Should these denominations ask shortly to be placed on the same footing with their neighbors their demand cannot be refused; it is important then that we should know their exact numbers; and, in this connexion, the relative standing of the two large Presbyterian bodies ought to be known that each of them may receive in proportion to its numbers also. Many other reasons might be adduced to prove the importance of this department of the Census Returns being compiled with the greatest accuracy, but we have already said enough to show that if these returns be so incomplete and unsatisfactory—as we fear they are—a large proportion of our population will be sadly disappointed."

In connection with the above, we remark that the FREE BAPTIST Body which embraces several thousands, are on the same footing with the Episcopalians and Presbyterians, and will, it is likely, soon claim their right to a share of public money. We had hoped that the returns would give the statistics of this Body, but none perhaps will suffer more by the present mode of making returns, than they.

A BIG NUGGET.—It appears from all accounts that the Nova Scotia Gold Mines are really rich. We find the following in the Halifax Journal of Monday last:

We saw on Saturday last a large piece of quartz rock, richly interspersed with gold, which was discovered by Mr. DeWolfe, son of T. A. S. DeWolfe, Esq., of this city, near Marshall's, on the Eastern Road, last Friday. The piece of quartz is about eighteen inches square, and from three to four inches in thickness. It was lying upon the surface of the ground when discovered, and had evidently been detached by some action of nature from a large bowler, or vein, of quartz. The gold makes its appearance in many places upon the surface of the quartz, and in large pieces. It is considered by those who have seen it to be by far the richest and most valuable nugget yet discovered in the Province. This is truly a golden age for Nova Scotia. There appears to be no limit to the extent of our gold mines, and their productiveness may be fairly expected to prove equally remarkable.

☞ A Lecture, on "The Great Tribulation accompanying the Return of Christ about 1864–68," will be given by the Rev. M. Baxter, of the Church of England, this, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Rev. Mr. Bennett's Presbyterian Church, King Street, and on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in Smith's Building. Seats free. A collection will be taken up.

These lectures have been given to large audiences in Canada and the United States. Some six cent publications, by the lecturer, "The Coming Battle," and "The Voice of Prophets," are on sale at McMillan's Book Store.—COM.

HON. JOHN ROBERTSON and family left St. John in the Steamer Emperor for Windsor on Friday evening on their way to England by the next Conard Steamer. We learn that nearly the whole of the Governor's family also went in the Emperor for the same destination. We understand that Mr. Robertsone family will be absent from eighteen months to two years.—News

☞ Another party of German Immigrants, comprising ten adults and three children, from Bremen, via Boston, arrived on Wednesday last in the steamer New York and proceeded by train the following morning to join others who arrived here about four weeks since and intend to settle in the parish of Studholm, King's County. These people cannot speak or understand a word of English; but through the kindness of A. C. O. Trentowsky, Esq., the Prussian Consul, their wishes were interpreted to Mr. Shives, the Immigrant Officer, who accompained them to Appohaqui, and from thence they were conveyed to their friends, a distance of some twelve or fourteen miles up the Millstream by waggons. They state that another party may be expected in a few weeks.—News

LECTURES ON PROPHECY. A course of lectures on the great tribulation accompanying the return of Christ about 1864-68 has lately been given in St. Paul's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Mr. Baxter. The following is a synopsis of the views presented by the lecturer. It appears to be held by the majority of standard interpreters that the year 1868 is pointed to by the 6000 2520, 2300 Dan. xvii, 1335 and 1260 Dan. xii, as the end of this dispensation and the beginning of the Millenium. The signs of the times such as the drying up of the Mystic Euphrates or Turkish Empire; the outgoing of the three unclean spirits of anarchy, spiritualism and superstition under the sixth vial; the commotions among the nations; the latter day outpourings of the Divine Spirit in the recent revivals, and the increased gathering of the Jews to Jerusalem, all combine to show that the advent of Christ is near. The last of the seven seals, seven trumpets, and seven vials alone remain to be fulfilled, and the preparations for the final battle of Armageddon are already being made. Palestine is universally regarded as the future scene of this direful conflict, in which the infidel Antichrist, with his ten allied vassal kings, will be destroyed at the head of their countless hosts as described in Ezek. xxxviii. It is even now foreseen by politicians that Syria is to be the battle-field of the nations.

The French Revolution of 1793 is regarded as a most important prophetical landmark or milestone, being the termination of the 1260 years of Papal dominancy which began in 533 A. D by Justinian's Code or Pandects, the warning earthquake (Rev. VI), or political convulsions in 1793, was the precursor of the "mighty earthquake such as was not since men were upon the earth" (Rev. XVI), which is expected from 1865 to 1868, being the three and a half years, "great affliction such as was not since the creation which God hath created even unto this same time, no, nor ever shall be" (Mark XIII.) The coming of Christ in the air to translate to heaven some of the living saints, is held by Beckersteth and others to be about 1864, being three and a half years earlier than this descent upon this earth. No verification of prophetic predictions has been more remarkable than Louis Napoleon's restoration of the French Emperorship in 1852, which was foretold to happen about that time by Faler and others, as early as 1818, more than thirty years previously. This confirms the conclusion arrived at from the 6000, 2520, 2300, and 1305 years ending in 1868, until which year it is believed the earth will be increasingly filled with wars, famines, pestilences, earthquakes, revolutions and unexampled calamities.

DIED.

On Sunday last, aged 17 years after a long illness, borne with christian resignation, Clarence, third son of Wm. G. Lawton, Merchant of this City.

At New York, on Friday 20th inst., after a short illness, Captain Francis Leavitt.

On Sunday morning, Eliza Jane, third daughter of Stephen H Fought, aged 7 months.

At Kent, Carleton County, on Tuesday, 28th May, after a lingering illness, endured with resignation and christian meekness, Mr. Edward Kearney, in the 60th year of his age. He was for several years very much afflicted, so that he had to endure wearisome days and loss of sleep at nights. This prevented his attendance in the public service of the sanctuary, but he was favoured with the sympathy and prayers of his christian brethren, who often visited him in his affliction. Brother Kearney was truly convinced of sin by the Holy Spirit when very young, and lived a consistent member of the F. C. Baptist Church. Ten months previous to his death, he, with thirteen of his children, followed in mournful procession to the grave his beloved companion, deeply regretted by all. But our loss is their gain.
