II. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect, with respect to the additional Duties of Customs imposed on Fir Timber, Deals, Deal Ends, Battens, Batten Ends, Boards, and Oak Plank, from and after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten: Provided always, that the said additional Duties shall be charged and shall be payable on any of the said Articles, which have been warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of any Act of Parliament without Payment or Duty, which shall be taken out of any such Warehouse or Place wherein the same shall have been lodged or secured for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great-Britain after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven, or the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, as the Case may apply to the said Articles, notwithstanding the same may have been imported into Great-Britain on or before the said Days respectively.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed as fall under the Title and Description of temporary Duties shall be paid and payable during the Continuance of the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to charge any of the said Articles with the additional Duties hereby imposed which shall be imported directly from any British Colony, Plantation, or Settlement in Africa or America, or which shall be imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies; nor to charge with the additional Duties hereby imposed, any Deals above Seven Inches in Width, being Eight Feet in Length, and not above Ten Feet in Length, and not exceeding One Inch and a Half in Thickness, nor any Fir Timber being Eight Inches Square, and not exceeding Ten Inches Square, being the Growth of Norway, and imported directly from thence.

V. And be it further enacted, That the additional Duties hereby imposed upon the Importation of the said several Species of Wood shall and may be secured by Bond under the Regulations of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great-Britain to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty.

VI. VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied, and the said Drawbacks shall be allowed, in such and the like Manner as any Duties and Drawbacks of Customs of a like Nature are managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated and allowed, and under and subject to the several Powers, Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures now in force, in relation to or made for securing the Revenue of Customs in Great-Britain; and all Pains, Penalties, Fines, or Forfeitures, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, shall be in full force and effect as to the said Duties and Drawbacks as fully and effecttually to all intents and purposes as if they were at large repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies from Time to Time arising from the said Duties, the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted, shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same Manner as the Duties imposed by the said recited Act of the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty are directed to be appropriated and applied.

IX.
