mend the guarantee of a loan for the carrying out by Canada of the fortifications recommended, and will provide the necessary armament. Government will try to procure a renewel of the Reciprocity Treaty and recommend a guarantee of a loan to pay the Hudson Bay Company indemnity for the north-western territory, which is to be made over to the Canadian Government. It desires to assist Canada as far as possible.

The Great Eastern is expected to sail from Valencia on the 10th of July, and telegraphic communication with America to be completed by the 20th.

ARRIVAL OF THE "CHINA."

CAPE RACE, July 3.

China passed here at 8 Sunday morning from Liverpool, 24th ult., Queenstown, 25th.

Papers are unusually silent on American affairs.

Whole 2,300 miles of Atlantic Cable were on board of Great Eastern, and as soon as balance of paying out machinery was put up, the Telegraph Fleet would sail for Valentia, and it was hoped that before their departure the U. S. Government steamers would join them.

The vessels will probably leave Valentia 10th July, and arrive at Heart's Content, Trinity Bay, about 24th instant.

The Directors of the Company have decided on the following uniform tariff between all parts of the United States and British North America:—

Britain, £20 sterling for 20 words or less, and £1 for each additional word; Continent of Europe, £21 for 20 words, £1 1s. for each additional word; Asia and Africa, £25, and £1 5s. for each additional word. Messages for places in Asia and Africa to which the telegraph does not extend will be forwarded by the first mail, postage paid. Messages in cyphers to be charged double these rates.

The Directors are convinced that unless they charge a higher price at first, there will be such an accumulation of business that great delay would arise; but they intend to put down new cables as fast as possible, and then reduce the prices.

The cable will be opened for business as soon after it is laid as possible, and all messages will be forwarded in the order received at Heart's Content and Valentia.

The new stock of the Atlantic Company sells in London at premium, and the old—£1,000 shares—at £560.

On 21st June shareholders in Telegraph Constructions Company visited Great Eastern by invitation from directors of Atlantic Co., and on the following day, Mr. Adams, American Minister, Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, Duke and Duchess of Somerset, and a large party of distinguished people also visited the ship. Health of Mr. Adams was drunk at dejeneur on board. Mr. Adams, on returning thanks, said, during recent troubles he was selfish enough to wish Cable might not be laid, as he would have been overwhelmed with telegrams, but now he wished it every success, as he believed it would do more than any other agency to strengthen bonds of union between two countries. Interest and object of Government of Great Britain had all along been to maintain peace, and now that contest which had distracted United States had been put an end to, the sole object they had in view was peace also.

Condition of Cable was all that could be desired, and those most interested seemed to be confident of perfect success.

Reports of Hudson Bay Company is ready with regard to claim of the Company with the United States under the Oregon. Hope is expressed that the question may be concluded before the end of the year.

Parliament unimportant. Closing up the business of the Session, which ends in about a fortnight.

FRANCE.—The Patrie describes rumors of negotiations that a Mussulman is to be considered a Frenchman, but subject to Mussulman laws. On application, however, he may be admitted to the right of French citizenship. Native Israelites are placed in a similar position.

Weekly return of Bank of France shows an increase in cash of nearly 16,000,000 francs.

Prince Napoleon was about to proceed to Switzerland. His interview with the Emperor is said to have widened the breach.

SPAIN.—O'Donnell made a speech in Cortes, setting forth Government policy, which included recognition of Kingdom of Italy and maintenance of amicable relations with foreign powers.

ITALY.—It is reported that the negotiations between the Mexican Embassy and Papal Court have been interrupted, that the Embassy would leave Rome and M. Meglia return from Mexico. Florence papers confirm this rupture.

LATEST.—News by "Persia" caused decline in American securities—5-20's closing at 70 3 4 a 71.

Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull.

Consols 89 3 4 a 89 7-9.

UNITED STATES.

Of the thirteen States claimed by the Confederacy, ten are now fully restored to the Union, and the process of reorganization, reconstruction, and pacification seems easier than could have been hoped. The Southerners acknowledge the badness of their "whipping," and are willing to submit to those who are their masters by the fortunes of war. The three States that have not yet been reconstructed are South Carolina, Florida, and Alabama, but they are speedily to be disposed of.

Chief Justice Chase, in his travels, has halted at Charleston, New Orleans, &c., and has encouraged the negroes to maintain their own dignity as free men.

That native freemen of whatever complexion are citizens of the United States; that all men held as slaves in the States which joined in rebellion against the United States have become freemen through executive and legislative acts during the war; and that these freemen are now citizens and consequently entitled to the rights of citizens, are propositions which, in my judgment, cannot be successfully controverted.

And it is both natural and right that colored Americans, entitled to the rights of citizens, should claim their exercise. They should persist in this claim respectfully, but firmly, taking care to bring no discredit upon it by their own action. Its justice is already acknowledged by great numbers of their white fellow citizens, and these numbers constantly increase.

He stated that President Johnston is in favour of Negro Suffrage, although he would not exclude a State from the Union for refusing this privilege to the Negroes.

It turns out that Ben. Wood, of the New York News, had large financial transactions with the agents of the Confederacy last autumn. This accounts for the "impartial" tone of the News.

OPPRESSION OF NEGROES.—We regret to note that a large section of American citizens abhor the negro. The so-called Aristocracy of the South, and of the border States are apparently anxious to make the condition of the Negro as desperate as possible, so as to prove to the world that the slave should not be freed.

Numerous atrocities are recounted, among others the shooting of husbands for daring to visit the plantations on which their wives are still held in bondage. The motive for this abominable course of conduct is chiefly hatred of Abolitionism, and a determination to demonstrate that it is injurious to the African. However, the result must be still deeper ruin and degradation of the defeated Confederates. Oppression always recoils on its authors. Northern Democrats, especially the greener arrivals from Roman Catholic Ireland, are also very fierce in their abhorrence of the Negro.

THE ASSASSINATION TRIAL.—The New York Examiner, in referring to the arguments for the defence in the assassination trial, which were read before the Court at whose bar the accused were arraigned, says:

"Payne proves to be the son of a Baptist minister—Geo. C. Powell at present supposed to live at Live Oak Station, on the railroad between Jacksonville and Tallahassee, in the State of Florida. His name is Lewis Payne Powell, and has six sisters and two brothers. His counsel does not deny his guilt, but says he was under the power of Booth, having once sworn to obey him if he would give him money to keep him from starving. The counsel of Spangler contended that there was nothing in the evidence to indicate that he was implicated with Booth, either in the plot or its execution. The counsel for Harrold, while admitting that his client had aided in the escape of Booth, contended that there was nothing in the evidence to show that he was in any way engaged in the assassination. For the prisoners Arnold and McLaughlin, Mr. Cox, their counsel maintained that they were not in any way engaged in the conspiracy, and demanded their acquittal. Atzerot confesses that he entered into Booth's first conspiracy to capture President Lincoln and members of his Cabinet, but says that when afterwards that became impracticable, and assassination was proposed, he declined to have anything further to do with the plot. He states that Booth wanted him to murder Vice-President Johnson, but that he refused to do so. Hon. Reverdy Johnson, counsel for Mrs. Surratt, confined himself almost exclusively to an effort to show that a military court could have no jurisdiction in such cases, but that the accused could only be legitimately tried in civil courts. He made no review of the evidence, but said that it was unreasonable to suppose that a woman of Mrs. Surratt's character could have been engaged in so wicked a plot, and hinted that the witnesses were no better than they ought to be. For Dr. Mudd it is claimed that he knew nothing of the assassination plot, and though he dressed Booth's leg, he gave information of the fugitives."

BURNING OF IDAHO CITY, IDAHO TERRITORY.—The Idaho Statesman of May 20th says that on the night of the 18th of that month there occurred in that city the most destructive fire that ever visited the mining regions of the western slope. The whole town was consumed from Bear Run to Commercial street, which is nearly to the foot of Main, and from the Bluff to Moor's creek, leaving nothing standing but a few shanties skirting the town. The fire was, without doubt the work of an incendiary, as the city had been fired several different times within the last few days; but each time fortunately discovered in season to be extinguished. The flames spread with the most astonishing rapidity. The town was composed of buildings made exclusively of pine inch boards, and in some cases shakes, covered with cotton lining and paper, to which was added the usual inflammable coating of lamp smoke, so that it burned almost like a train of powder. Every hotel in the city was destroyed and also the Forest Theatre. It is believed the fire was set for the purpose of plunder. The total loss is estimated at over a million dollars.

WOMAN IN BLUE.—The guard yesterday arrested a woman dressed in soldier clothes, who gives her name as Mary Starr, and says she came from Cleveland, Ohio. She enlisted some two two years and a half ago in the 15th Ohio Regiment, and since that time has borne the fatigues and hardships incidental to a soldier's life. She has been in three engagements, and was wounded through the right thigh and ankle, which kept her in hospital for nine weeks. Mary states that she is one of seven who enlisted in the same company. All but two of them have been discharged. She also states that the captain who enlisted her knew her sex. Mary has learned all the vices that are so abundant in our army. She chews tobacco, drinks whiskey, and swears.—Mary is twenty-two years of age, and bears traces of having at one time been moderately handsome.—Louisville Press.

A CURIOUS FAINTING FIT.—A man named Carrington was sentenced to death in Buffalo on Thursday for the murder of a policeman who attempted to apprehend him while he was in the act of committing a burglary. The prisoner was brought up for sentence on Wednesday, but when placed in the dock he fell down in what was supposed to be a fainting fit. The sentence was consequently suspended till the following day, when he was again brought to court. The Courier says:—"The occasion of his fainting on Wednesday is explained as follows: He had tobacco in his mouth, and, when called upon by the Judge to say whether he knew any reason why the extreme sentence of the law should not be passed upon him, he swallowed the quid, the result being the sudden sickness and fainting to which referrence was made in the Courier of yesterday.

Carrington was brought into the court looking as fresh and unconcerned as though he had been guilty of no crime. He had made his toilet with care, and his countenance bore no evidence of anxiety or suffering. During the delivery of the address which consigned him to the gallows, Carrington sat unconcerned. Not a muscle of his countenance moved—not a shudder passed over his features. When the sentence was pronounced he rose and walked out of the court-room, apparently the most self-possessed man in the assembled crowd. The cause of his unconcern was probably the hope of escape, for the telegraph informs us that during the night he succeeded in digging out of the jail and getting away. He is probably now in Canada.

Among the officers paroled were Buckner and Stirling Price. Shelby and Magruder have taken refuge in Mexico with Kirby Smith.

The Savannah Herald announces the arrival at that place of Gov. Johnson, and his cordial reception by the people. The City Council adopted resolutions of welcome and requesting the Governor to deliver an address which was complied with. The address was to be delivered on the evening of the 1st.

The Herald's correspondent says at Gettysbury the fourth was celebrated with great enthusiasm, and the corner stone of the soldier's monument was laid with imposing ceremonies.

The Newbern Times says the spotted fever had been raging fearfully among the blacks as well as the whites in Wilmington, and it is whispered that the yellow fever is threatened.

The last of the rebel prisoners at Point Lookout were set at liberty on Friday last. Gold 139.
