ALDERMEN ORGANIZED FOR A YEAR

Aldermanic Caucus Held Yesterday—Ald. Potts Chosen Chairman of Ferry Committee—Personnel of Board

The usual aldermanic caucus to decide on the make-up of the various civic boards and standing committees for the ensuing year, was held yesterday afternoon in the committee-room at City Hall. An important feature of the meeting was the decision to cut down the number of members on the boards to seven. It has always been the custom heretofore to have thirteen memebers on the board of works and eleven on each of the other three boards.

Alderman Christie was the unanimous choice for deputy mayor and the new chairmen are Ald. Potts for the ferry and Ald. Kelley for the bills and by-laws.

Ald. McGoldrick and Vanwart were selected as revisors of the assessment.

The sixteen men selected to sit in the municipal council are the mayor and the aldermen with the exception of Messrs. Likely and Hayes, who were left off at their own request.

The members pledged their support to Ald. Kelley for the position of warden of the municipality.

Ald. McGoldrick presided at the caucus and Ald. Baxter acted as secretary.

The personnel of the boards and committees as decided on, is as follows:

Treasury board—Baxter, chairman; Frink, Kelley, Sproul, McGoldrick, Vanwart, Potts.

Board of public works—McGoldrick, chairman; Elkin, Holder, Sproul, Scully, Likely, Codner.

Water and sewerage board—Frink, chairman; Lewis., Scully, Elkin, Christie, Hayes, Baxter.

Board of public safety—Vanwart, chairman; Kelley, Scully, Sproul, Hayes, Potts Wilson.

Ferry committee—Potts, chairman; Holder, Scully, Wilson, Belyea.

Appeals committee—Sproul, chairman; Christie, Scully, Frink, Hayes, Wilson, Codner.

Bills and By-Laws—Kelley, chairman; Baxter, McGoldrick, Vanwart, Scully.

Claims committee—Frink, Kelley, Baxter, Elkin, Belyea, Codner, McGoldrick.

Harbor committee—McGoldrick, chairman; Baxter, Scully, Frink, Codner, Likely, Belyea.

I. C. R. COMMISSIONERS ARE IN THE CITY TODAY

F. P. Brady and E. Tiffen Arrived Last Night and Are Looking Over the Terminals

F. P. Brady, the recently appointed member of the new I. C. R. board of control; E. Tiffin, general traffic manager of the I. C. R., also a member of the board, and J. T. Hallisey, divisional superintendent, arrived in the city last evening in a private car attached to the Halifax express.

Today they are looking over the terminals here to allow Mr. Brady to familarize himself with the geography of the place and they will return to Moncton tonight.

Regarding the work of the new board Mr. Brady said they had not had a meeting as yet as the board only comes into existence today. The first meeting will will probably be held next week in Moncton.

The board is composed of M. J. Butler, deputy minister of railways; F. P. Brady, E. Tiffin and D. Pottinger. The three latter, will have their headquarters in Moncton and will be in close touch with the affairs of the road. For the present Mr. Brady will have special charge of the operating branch of the work.

Once a month a meeting will be held in Ottawa with Mr. Butler.

A NEW ART ROOM

Hoyt Bros., Open Their New Premises on King Street Today

The new art room of Hoyt Bros., at 106 King street, near the corner of Charlotte, was opened today. A full line of art goods of all kinds is carried in stock, and the picture framing business formerly conducted by Reid Bros., who were burned out, will be continued by George S. Hoyt, who had charge of this branch for Reid Bros. A fine assortment of picture mouldings, containing all that is newest and most attractive in this department, is shown along with some very beautiful art pictures. The firm also carry a line of "den" goods, execute orders for exclusive designs in grille work, and attend to furniture repairing and upholstering.

The walls of the art room have been tastefully decorated in red and green, while a large design in grille work converts one end of the room into a cosy corner and gives a most homelike appearance.

A call on telephone No. 1653-11 will receive prompt attention.

POLICE COURT

When Archibald Le Clair was requested to plead to the allegation of intoxication in the police court this morning he replied: "I suppose that's all right, all right, I get that way sometimes.

"It's all wrong," in my opinion, commented the magistrate, as he fined Le Clair $4 or ten days. "I ain't got no money and I wouldn't pay it to these people if I had it," said Le Clair who is from Quebec, as he retraced his steps to the bench and added: "I guess I kin face the ten, all right."

James Keenan, a Monctonian who reached the city on Thursday was fined $4 or ten days for inebriation.
