dear people a few days ago, with no expectation of meeting them all again on earth; but with the blessed hope of meeting many of them where parting will be known no more.

We have come to this place tired and worn down, but with tolerable good health, and have just commenced a protracted meeting. The prospect is very dark, but we believe in God, and go to work, and expect in a short time to be again surrounded by convicted and converted souls—the most agreeable surroundings I can possibly obtain. Let me have the gospel with its spirit and power in my heart, and see sinners falling before its mighty influence, crying, "what shall we do to be saved," then am I in my happiest element.

I hope my brethren in New Brunswick will not forget their loving brother when they pray. I often think of those whom I love as fellow-labourers in the vineyard of our God, and hope in a few months again to meet them in the flesh, as I intend to return home in June next. Yours fraternally, as ever,

WM. DOWNEY.

P. S.—My Post Office address, until further notice, is "Cape Island, Barrington, N. S." W. D.

A private letter, written by Bro. Downey on the 13th instant, says: "Already has the revival spirit begun to warm up the hearts of the people here. I had baptism yesterday." H.

The Rev. Freeman Babcock passed through this city last week, on his way to York County, where he has gone to labour, under the direction of our Home Mission Society.

We expect that the Rev. Y. White is now labouring as a Home Missionary with some of the churches between Fredericton and Woodstock.

TEMPERANCE MASS MEETING.—On Monday evening, the 8th day of April, the Ministerial Temperance Alliance, intend holding a mass meeting in the Hall of the Mechanics' Institute. The different Temperance bodies in the city will be invited to meet with them and take part in this effort to promote the temperance principles. We hope to see the Institute crowded, and pray that God may add his blessing to the efforts being made to save our young men and old men from the fearful ruin of strong drink.

THE NEWS and THE PRESS.

MARCH 29, 1867.

ONE DELEGATE RETURNED.—The Hon. Mr. Tilley, arrived at Halifax in the steamship China, on Tuesday. Hon. Messrs. Fisher, Mitchell, Wilmot, and Johnston remained to see the Guarantee Resolutions safely through the Parliament. Mr. Tilley is expected to arrive in the city this (Thursday) evening. Many hearty welcomes and congratulations will be given here by his numerous friends. Well may the city of St. John feel proud of such a representative.

THE ST. JOHN VINEGAR FACTORY.—A new Vinegar Factory, with the above name, has recently been put in operation, in King Street, East, nearly opposite the Gymnasium. The works are the property of a Joint Stock Company, and the business of the establishment will be conducted under the management of Mr. John Ganong. The process by which vinegar is made, being a secret one, known only to the manufacturers, the newspaper people, and a few other very discreet persons, we will not here describe it. The samples produced by the new Factory are pronounced by good judges to be of excellent quality, and we learn that a leading grocery firm in King Street has made a proposition to purchase the entire amount produced, at a good rate, for sale in the City. When in full operation, as it is expected to be in a few weeks, the establishment will employ about sixty hands, generators, and produce from twenty-five to thirty barrels of vinegar per week. We wish the proprietors every success in their new enterprise.—Tel.

INTERCOLONIAL FLOUR TRADE.—Business men from this city who have recently visited Canada or had commercial dealings with Montreal are greatly impressed with the necessity of getting our flour by way of the Gulf and the E. & N. A. Railroad, in order to save expense not only of freight but of Consul's fees and other charges; also in order to avoid damage to the flour over the Grand Trunk, some parts of which are very rough, being in bad repair. We hope the movement to place propellers on this route will succeed. The handling of the flour imported may as well be done in St. John as in Portland. Storage to any extent, about which Canadian millers are anxious, may also be had here at moderate charges. There is little doubt that nearly all our flour will soon be received in this way. A saving of from 10 to 20 cents a barrel in freight and charges can easily be made; probably more if return cargoes in West Indian produce, building stone, &c., could be had.—Journal.

MORE BANK ACCOMMODATION.—It seems to be understood that a Branch of the Bank of Montreal will be established in this City during the coming summer. The information may be relied on. The Bank of Montreal, is next to the Bank of England, the largest monetary Institution of the Empire. Its connexion with the General Government will be such as to make agencies or branches in the chief cities of the Lower Provinces a necessity. We have heard also that a branch of one of the Quebec Banks will be established in either Chatham or Newcastle this year. Bankink accomodation is sadly needed on the North Shore.—Ib.

The Morning Journal offers, until further notice, to take payment from NEW SUBSCRIBERS, at its ordinary rates, namely $2.50 per annum, in Westmorland Bank notes. The Journal is issued three times a week, and is supplied with all the latest telegrams and news, including telegrams direct from Montreal in every issue. The Colonial Presbyterian, issued weekly in St. John, is also offered at $1.50, to each subscriber in clubs of oneor more; payment, for a short time, in Westmorland Bank notes.

A meeting of farmers and others has been called to be held in Sackville to day to take into consideration the propriety of establishing a cheese factory, by which the cost of manufacture may be much reduced. Schemes of the same kind are being worked up in other parts of the Province.—Globe.

FIRE AT HOPEWELL, A. Co.—We regret to learn that on last Sunday night, Capt. David Styles, of Hopewell, Albert Co., had two barns consumed by fire. A good horse, a pair of oxen, four cows and two heifers were burned to death in the barns.

A woman confined in the Fredericton jail for drunkenness on the night of Saturday, the 16th inst., was found dead in her cell on the following morning.

HALIFAX, Tuesday, March 25.—The Delegates who have arrived, and late English papers, confirm reported passage of Confederation Bill in Parliament. The announcement gives the greatest satisfaction to the friends of the Union.

The Guarantee Bill would be introduced in two or three days at farthest, after sailing of steamer. Was expected to be passed before Reform Debate began.

The Royal Assent to act of Union was delayed, at suggestion to Ministry of all the Delegates, until progress made in bill guaranteeing loan for Intercolonial Railroad. The New Brunswick delegates are in high spirits.—Telegram to Journal.

MONTREAL, March 26.—The gold discoveries at Madoc have attracted many bad characters to the spot, and imposed on Government the necessity of organizing mounted police for district to preserve order.

Government have been thoroughly informed as to Fenian movements on border. Measures taken are purely precautionary. A large quantity of Peabody Rifles has arrived from the United States for use of Volunteers.

Flour unchanged; good ordinary superfine sold today at $8, and some very choice at $8.10; strong superfine is quoted up to $8.25.—Ib.

TORONTO, C. W., March 21.

At parade of Queen's Own last evening an order was issued directing men to have two days' rations cooked and provisions constantly on hand.

MONTREAL, March 25.—The British North American Bill was read the third time, and passed in the House of Commons late on the evening of the 8th inst., and was to have been immediately assented to by Royal Commission.

The Proclamation putting the Act in force will not be issued until the Delegates return home, and they will have to appoint the Senators whose names are to appear in the Proclamation; as this can only be done after consultation, although most of the names have already been agreed upon.

Hons. Mitchell, Wilmot and Fisher were presented to the Queen on the same day.—Telegraph.

Mr. Edwin Kierstead, of Houlton, has obtained the contract for supplying the timber for a five thousand ton ocean steamer, shortly to be constructed at Boston. The timber will all be got in Aroostook County.

THE GREAT RAILWAY BRIDGE over the Mississippi, at St. Louis, is to be commenced at once. It will be built of iron, and placed at a sufficient height to enable the largest steamer to pass under at high water. Its cost is estimated at five million dollars. Mr. L. B. Boomer, of Chicago, will have charge of the works.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

DR. LIVINGSTON'S DEATH.—For some weeks it has been rumored that Dr. Livigstone, the distinguished African Missionary and Explorer, was dead. Hopes were entertained, however, that it might be ascertained that he had escaped, and was yet living. But the report has been confirmed by the American Consul at Zangebar, who has communicated the fact with what particulars he could ascertain to the American Government. Dr. Livingstone and several of his companions have, no doubt, been cruelly murdered. We give the official statement as published at Washington:

Consulate of the United States of America,
Island of Zanzibar, Dec. 9, 1866.

SIR,—It becomes my painful duty to report the death of Dr. David Livingstone, the celebrated African explorer, who, as I wrote under date of May 9, 1866, left here on the 9th of March last for the exploration of the river Rovuma and that region between the great lakes of Central Africa, of which, as yet, but little is known. The sad intelligence was received here on the 5th inst., by the arrival of the several native members of the expedition, from whom but little of importance could be elicited save the fact of Dr. Livingstone's death.

I am indebted to Dr. Kirk, H. B. M. Vice Consul, and formerly a member of the Livingstone Zambesi expedition, for the following particulars of this sad event, and as his accompanying remarks may prove interesting, I cannot do better than give them in his own words:

The return of several of the Johanna men who accompanied Dr. L. has made it certain that that distinguished traveller has fallen, and with him half of his native followers. His present expedition may be briefly stated to have been an attempt to unite the magnificent discoveries of late years and determine the limits and connections of the three great lakes, which reach from 14 deg. south to 2 deg. north lattitude, and flowing to the sea by the Zambesi and Nile at the two extremities, but with an intermediate space as yet unknown. Such was the geographical problem. But Dr. Livingstone had in view to affect the present enormous East African slave trade, though pioneering the way which might lead to lawful commerce. To have consolidated in one the successive discoveries achieved by himself on the Nyassa; Burton, on the Sanganyika; Speke, and Grant, on the Victoria; and Baker, on the Albert Nyanza, would have been a fitting triumph for one who was the first to cross the African continent within the tropical zone; but these hopes have been wrecked by his untimely death. We last heard of Dr. Livingstone at "N'Doude," at the confluence of the Novuma and Niende. Here he met with kindness, but found the land desolated by the slave traders supplying the slave market of Zanzibar. We have information that he proceeded further west to Mataka, a Miao chief, who gave presents of cattle and food. At this point the Indian Sepoys remained behind and have since returned to Zanzibar. From Mataka to a lake was eight days' march. On crossing a wide water in Canvas, they followed the border of the lake for several days, and thus struck inland. They were suddenly attacked in a bush country, about nine A. M., by a band of Mavite. Dr. L. killed the most forward of the attacking party, but was surrounded and cut down by one blow of a battle axe, which cut half through his neck. Beyond this we have no details, for these who returned were first to flee. Almost all who stood near Dr. L. were killed, although they seem to have done considerable with their rifles. This happened about six weeks ago, or about October 25. You can see how very meagre our information is. Even with a personal knowledge of the lakes of the surrounding country, at least a short distance of the scene of the sad affair, and a knowledge of that very tribe of Zatus called Mavite, Agite, Mozites, &c., it has been quite impossible for me as yet to elicit anything from the inpenetrable simplicity of the few who have returned, as to where this tragedy took place. That it was to the west of the Nyassa is certain; but whether in the district we had already explored, or further north is still uncertain.

That Dr. Livingstone was killed by the same Mavites as he and I were among together is certain. They would have attacked then if they had dared, but we were too strong for them. With such enemies it comes to be a question of numbers as well as equipment. The death of a few will not break their charge, and a small party unawares have no chance. Only one of the survivors saw Dr. Livingstone fall, but they buried his body at 3 P. M., when the Mavites had gone. They took off all the baggage and also the upper clothing of the dead body, so that not even note remains by which to trace the route.

It is hardly probable that any farther particulars will ever be obtained in regard to Dr. Livingstone's death, as the Mavites are a wandering people, and it will be quite impossible to ascertain the particular tribe by whom Dr. L.'s party were attacked. I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDWARD D. ROBES, United States Consul.

Hon. W. H. Sewart, Secretary of State.

The London Pall Mall Gazette says, "We regret to say we have reason to believe that some of the recent overtures of Sir Frederick Bruce in behalf of his Government in the matter of arbitration in the Alabama claims have not been received in a conciliatory spirit by Mr. Seward. We do not understand that the offer of the British representative has been directly refused, but that at two interviews the subject has been evaded."

LONDON, March 22.—The Brazil mail steamer has arrived at Lisbon from Rio Janeiro. Active operations had been resumed against the Paraguayans. The allied fleet had shelled the fortifications of Humatia. When last heard from Spanish squadron had come in sight, and was pursuing the combined fleets of Chili and Peru.

April 4th has been designated as the day for debate on the Budget.

LIVERPOOL, March 16.—The steamship "Great Eastern" sailed from this port at noon to-day for New York, which port she will leave on the 16th of April on her first voyage to Brest. As the "Great Eastern" was about to leave the steam capstan accidentally slipped, killing two men and wounding several others.

THE WINTER GARDEN BURNED.

At about 8 o'clock on the 23rd an employee of the Winter Garden Theatre having occasion to open the stage trap door, discovered the cellars underneath to be on fire. The alarm was immediately given, but before the engines could reach the scene of the conflagration, the flames had communicated to the upper portion of the building, and in fifteen minutes from the first discovery of the fire the Theatre was reduced to a smouldering mass of charred ruins. The firemen, finding it impossible to save the building, directed their efforts to prevent the flames from spreading to the adjoining building—the Southern Hotel—in which they happily succeeded. The injury done to the Hotel by the water was great, as the ceilings, carpets and furniture have been much damaged. The fire involves a loss of about $300,000. All the property of the Theatre, including the magnificent wardrobe of Edwin Booth, were consumed. Gold 134¼.

PORTLAND, ME., March 25.

George Rolfe, an inoffensive man, was brutally murdered on Sunday morning, in the Williams' House, near College Corner, in Falmouth, by Eben Williams, 21 years of age, who shot him through the heart with a rifle, and and then cut off his head with an axe.

Williams is an imbecile and under guardianship, but being supposed harmless was allowed to occupy the House with Rolfe, who was a pauper as his servant. Williams went to the house of his guardian in the afternoon and stated gleefully what he had done. The body was found laid out as if for burial and the head in a pail of water.

A CLERGYMAN (Rev. J. McMurray), writing from Halifax, N. S., says: "Having suffered several years with throat affection, to which clergymen are especially subject, and having used various remedies, I have pleasure in giving my testimony as to the relief I have had in the discharge of my Sabbath labours from the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." They have been s great comfort. Others to whom I have recommended them have used them with advantage." For Coughs and Colds the Troches are equally efficacious.
