business will consist in moving to a market the rich natural resources of the county—the coal, plaster, lumber, etc., bringing them either to the Intercolonial or carrying them to the seaboard. Although the cars passed over the entire road to Hopewell the road is not quite completed, and it will be two weeks before business will properly open, as several miles require to be ballasted. The work will be done at once....On Thursday night last the house, owned and occupied by Capt. Sawyer, at Musquash, took fire. The house, barn, and store was completely destroyed. The Telegraph says: "About 10 o'clock Thomas Shovlin, one of the escaped prisoners, entered the house. The moment he saw the officers, he started to run away again. One of the officers, we believe it was Mr. Keeffe, threatened to fire at him if he ran. Shovlin paid no attention to the warning, however, but started to get out of the way, when Keeffe immediately fired at him and struck him. Shovlin, however, still kept running, and continued to run for about 100 yards from the place where he was wounded. He was afterwards found where he had fallen, and was removed to Godard's, where he died about 12 o'clock, two hours after he was wounded. This morning his remains were taken to the Penitentiary. Officers are in pursuit of Martin; it is stated that they have found traces of him....A large number of first-class passenger cars, some postal cars, and some hundreds of additional freight cars, required for the traffic on the Intercolonial, which is so much greater than was anticipated, have been built at the Moncton works during the past year. The father and son left the house for about fifteen minutes, leaving the younger children alone. Upon their return, a child four years of age met them in the yard with every particle of clothing burned from its body, and suffering untold agony. An open fire was burning on the hearth, with which it is supposed the clothes of the child came in contact. They ask to be transferred to good lands upon the White River, and when they are established in their new homes they wish to remain permanently. If this shall be granted they offer to abandon all claim to the Black Hills. They profess a desire to settle down to the cultivation of the land. They ask for free trade with the whites, and protest against the policy which forces them to buy their goods of post-traders only, who, having a monopoly of the Indian market are able to plunder their customers. Still another reform they wish, is the right of transferring their supplies from the posts to their homes in their own wagons, and they argue intelligently that it is an extortion to compel them to pay the traders high prices for work they are able to perform themselves....In the southern part of Buenos Ayres two hundred leagues of the country were under water during the month of July. The prospect of a termination of the distress in the near future seems to brighten.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Particulars of the battle north of Kars make it evident that the Russians assaulted the Turkish position along the whole line and were repulsed with heavy loss. The success gained on Tuesday, in the capture of Great Yagni Hill, claimed by the Russians and conceded by the Turks, did not compensate for their failure at other points of the line, and the positions carried have since been abandoned. The Russians were reinforced both by new troops and some lately employed against them who had revolted against the Turks. These Caucasian insurgents commenced the battle at daybreak on Tuesday, by an assault on Great Yagni, which is the extreme out-work of Mukhtar Pasha's fortifications, about 12 miles due east from Kars. Here the Turks seem to have been taken by surprise, but the Turkish battalion defended Great Yagni for two hours and made an obstinate defence, which gave the Turks an opportunity to prepare for the next assault.

A Russian bulletin says:—"A lodgement was effected on the Turkish right flank, and the Turkish attack on next day brilliantly repulsed and the enemy driven as far as the outer line of their camp. Russian loss here was 3,000 killed and wounded."

The Turkish bulletin says:—"We have gained a brilliant victory and inflicted a loss of over 5,000 on the enemy."

The Russian bulletin concludes:—"To-day, Thursday, our right flank will withdraw from the positions occupied by them on Tuesday, on account of the difficulty of obtaining water."

The Russians officially acknowledge a loss of 52,000 men up to Sept. 27th.

The Russian grain harvest is disappointing both in quality and quantity. The wet weather in August and the scarcity of laborers is assigned as the cause of the short yield.

A Vienna despatch to the Times says that Montenegro's abandonment of further offensive movements in Herzegovina is due to political considerations. The territory they now hold on that side exactly corresponds with the line of demarcation fixed last autumn by the international Commissioners, and likewise proposed and accepted by the preliminary conference at Constantinople as the rectification of the frontier, which might eventually be given to Montenegro. It is, therefore, not likely that Montenegro will be allowed more in a final settlement which must be made by Europe, so that Prince Nicholas, with his usual cool calculation, is turning his attention to the other side to conquer what he can there, on the chance of being allowed to keep it because it will not interfere with the interests of any other power. At the same time he might be able to co-operate with Servia in the direction of Tienitza and Novi Bazar in case Servia renews her hostilities.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—A telegram from Moukhtar Pasha on Thursday evening, announces that the Russians were repulsed on all sides, with a loss of 5,000 killed. They have fallen back on Kanajal, pursued by the Turks.

A telegram from Rosiecheno, on Thursday, says: "At three o'clock this afternoon the Russians were surrounding Kelzlitepe. Moukhtar Pasha, desperate at seeing his communications with Kars threatened, advanced against the Russian centre with 20 battalions. The Turks were received with crushing artillery fire. The Russians' tirailleurs drove them back, pursuing them till nightfall. The Turks were utterly demoralized, and everywhere took to flight. Despite the alleged crushing nature of this repulse, the Russians did not succeed in cutting Moukhtar Pasha off from Kars. To-morrow (Friday) a great battle is expected along the whole front when the Russians hope to cut Moukhtar Pasha's communication and render his position hopeless."

The Czar has written to the Empress, declaring his determination not to return to the capital until a decisive success is achieved.

As far as can be made out from Moukhtar Pasha's latest despatch it seems the Russians have withdrawn from the right and centre of his line and concentrated their entire army at Aktashska on Kars Tschai, fifteen miles northeast of Kars. It is in this direction Moukhtar Pasha forced them on Thursday, to prevent them turning his left flank.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the electors of the twentieth arondissement of Paris. He says:—

"Citizens, after four long months of excesses of administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidatures, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what we think of the men of the sixteenth of May; of the allies and protectors of the men of the second of December; of the servants of Henry V. and the agents of the Syllabus and the Pope, who are all sheltered under the patronage of the President, doubtless for the better protection of Republican institutions."

The Manifesto, after strongly censuring the licensed violence of a reactionary press, says:—

"France will pronounce on the policy inaugurated by the letter dismissing the Republican Ministry, on the order of the day to the troops at the Longchamp's review; on the Presidental message of 19th of September, and on that system of government which the chief executive power vindicates as a right above the Constitution. France will declare for a Republic. She will say that she intends to make an end of anarchy and dictatorship, withdraw the nation as well as the individual definitely from clerical rule and ensure that public force shall never be employed except in the service of law. She will condemn dictatorial policy and leave the chief executive power, who is transformed into a plebiscitary candidate, no alternative but to submit or resign.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech at Exeter today, said: "I cannot help thinking myself, that there may be a surprise which may disappoint the prophecies of those who have been declaring the war cannot terminate till after another and more decisive campaign. One thing is certain that both sides have displayed such gallantry that if an opportunity should arrive they might accept it without any loss of prestige."

Later reports than the last heard from the Viceroy regarding the Indian famine district show considerable general rainfall on the 6th inst., which, it is believed, will save Behar, Punjaub, Rajpootana and the northwest provinces from all danger of the failure of the autumn crops.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 8.—Snow and rain are continually falling. A continuance of this unfavorable weather is considered probable, and it is thought will suspend operations in Bulgaria and the Balkans.

A despatch from Moukhtar Pasha increases his former estimate of the Russian losses during recent fighting to 15,000, and places the loss of the Turks at 2,500.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Times says that since the beginning of the present year, we have imported £23,000,000 worth of wheat, against £18,000,000 worth last year, and there has been sent us nearly four million cwt. less this year than last. The chief sources of extra supply have been British India, Russia, Germany, France and Egypt. It is just possible that corn dealers in the United States may hold back a little too long, in the hope of obtaining higher prices.

Stanley says that he has opened to commerce an area of over 600,000 miles, containing nearly 2,000 miles uninterrupted course of water communication, divided among the Upper Congo and its magnificent affluents. PARIS, Oct. 9.—Ministerial papers announce that of 363 Republican seats the winning by government of 117 is almost certain, while in forty more the prospects are favorable, so that the government will have a majority of at least twenty. The Left still reckon confidently on four hundred seats.

Gambetta is to be prosecuted for placarding his manifesto to the electors on streets, and not for its publication.

ROME, Oct. 7.—It is said that Italy has concluded no alliance with Germany.

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The great Republican meeting passed off without disturbance. In his speech, Gambetta said the existence of universal suffrage was at stake and pointed the danger that institution would incur if, after having at the last election pronounced in favor of a Republic, it should now give itself the lie in consequence of Governmental pressure. In that case public peace would be compromised, for universal suffrage was possibly its only defence, and its fall would involve the decadence and death of the nation. He disclaimed any desire for power for himself, and concluded his speech with a violent attack on the clericals, who, he said, excited the fears of Europe by the presence of an anti-republican coalition.

The court reprimanded the captain of the Forrest for not acting with greater promptitude at the moment of the collision, but decided not to cancel or suspend his certificate.

The Lord Mayor, yesterday, received a telegram from Madras, stating that the prospects of the Presidency are improving. If the monsoon proves good the famine will end in four months, but until the end of that period relief will be needed. Subscriptions at the Mansion House for the sufferers now amount to £1,700,000.

KARAJAL, Oct. 10.—A Russian official despatch, dated yesterday, says:—"In consequence of the occupation of new positions by our troops in recent operations, the enemy, last night, abandoned most of his positions, including Kizil Tepe and Began. Retreating, we pursued him, and during the night occupied the line of Chadschivali, Sarbatan and Keelevedaw Desonoro."

PARIS, Oct. 10.—Gambetta was enthusiastically received at a meeting in Paris last night. Relative to the Republican prospects he said: "After sifting the information which reaches me from all quarters, I assure you the 363 will return to Versailles reinforced to 400."

Duc de Broglie, speaking at a meeting of the Conservative Committee, defended the Government from the charge of clericalism. The real issue he said was Conservatism or Radicalism, McMahon or Gambetta. Gambetta wore a mask, sheltering himself first behind Thiers and then behind Grevy, deceased. Gambetta's succession to the Presidency might ensue should they desert President McMahon, who had no desire to destroy the Republic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The storm which prevailed yesterday in New York and vicinity became furious at night. Rain fell in torrents for some hours, the wind blowing almost a gale from the northwest. Some damage was done along the river front, but none of a serious nature reported. It is believed there is no longer any danger of a water famine in this city and Brooklyn, as the rain fall thus far is doubtless sufficient to swell all the streams and distributing reservoirs to an unusual height.

Rain now falling in New England and elsewhere; clear or partly cloudy; there being a marked fall in temperature; wind, in general, northerly.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 5.—An Excursion train on the Pickering Valley Railroad, near Phœnixville, last night, was badly wrecked by the rains washing out the tracks. There were 200 persons on the train. This morning the dispatches show twelve persons killed and about fifty wounded.

"DOWN IN THE MOUTH."

Where there is a continual dropping down into the back of the mouth, with irritation and inflammation of the nasal cavities and throat, with hawking, spitting, and a sense of fullness about the head, be not deceived or fancy it a simple cold. You are afflicted with that scourge of this climate, Catarrh, the forerunner of Consumption. In its early stages a few bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will effect an entire cure. When confirmed, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used in connection with the Remedy. These standard medicines have been before the public many years, and their use has been attended with the most gratifying success. A full discussion of Catarrh and its rational treatment is contained in "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a book of over nine hundred pages, illustrated with two-hundred and eighty-two engravings, bound in cloth and gilt, price, post-paid, $1.50. Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long necked junk bottle, add half a pint of molasses and water, then pour the whole down the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

CCNSUMPTION.

Extract from a letter from C. H. S. Cronkite, Esq.:—

CANTERBURY STATION, York Co., N. B. } Oct. 10, 1876. }

MR. J. H. ROBINSON,—

Dear Sir: "In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your 'Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime,' is the best preparation of the kind I have ever seen or taken.

I was ordered by my physician to take it, and commenced about the last of August, and since that time I have felt like a different man, and also look differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify.

I was unable, in the summer, to walk any distance without much fatigue. I can now take my gun and travel all day, and feel first-rate at night, and eat as much as any lumberman. Have not bled any since I took your preparation, and can now inflate my lungs without feeling any soreness, and I think I can inflate them up to full measurement, same as before I was sick. I have also gained in flesh; my weight in the summer was 173 lbs., and now it is nearly 190 lbs., which is pretty well up to my former weight.

The foregoing is a correct statement, which I am prepared to swear to, and I hereby authorize you to give it publicity in my name.

I am, dear sir, yours truly

(Signed) C. H. CRONKITE.

We, the undersigned, hereby consent to have our names published as witness to the effects of "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion" on the person of Mr. Cronkite, and do assert that the foregoing statement is correct in every particular.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BENNETT, J. P., WILLIAM MAIN, REV. THOMAS MARTIN.

Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Lacto-Phosphates of Lime, is for sale at the Drug Stores.

The world-wide renown of Dr. Wilson's Anti-bilious and Preserving Pills is too well known to require much comment from us; but they are without doubt the most efficacious remedy for all the ills flesh are heir to. Many of our readers have derived immense benefit from using these pills in case of bile and general derangement of the stomach and bowels, and no disordered liver can resist their effect.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.—Everybody wishes most certainly to be well. How to obtain this desirable state and keep free from coughs and colds, the forerunners of consumption, was a disputed question prior to the introduction of Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam. No one need hesitate to take this balsam to banish his cough. It will cause an expectoration of any matter which may have entered into the lungs, and thereby, by casting out such noxious matter, prevent the formation of any tuberculous deposit. It acts so gently and is so pleasant to take, properties peculiar to itself, which preclude it from being unsuited for any constitution, or proving hurtful under any circumstances.

THE GREAT SHOSHONEES REMEDY is an Indian vegetable compound of the juices of a variety of remarkable medicinal plants and herbs; the various properties of these different ingredients, when combined, is so constituted as to act simultaneously upon the Blood, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive Organs, Nervous System, &c., restoring their functions to healthy action, and, being purely vegetable, is as harmless as Nature's own beverage. This medicine is a decided benefit in all, and a permanent cure in a large majority of diseases of the blood, such as Scrofula Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker, Pimples, &c. In prescribing this medicine we do not claim that it always performs cures; but this we do say, that it purifies and enriches the blood, permanently curing a large majority of diseases arising from impurities. It stands far ahead and unequalled among the hundreds of competing medicines of the day. It has stood the test of ten years, and is to-day more popular than ever. As a summer restorative it stands unrivalled; it enables the system to bear up against the constant drain to which it is subjected by a high temperature. Persons who are subject to bilious Colic, Dysentery, Indigestion, &c., should take the "Shoshonees Remedy." Price of the Remedy in pint bottles $1 Pills 25 cents a box.
