to do. I will not attempt to speak of the work done except in one matter, and that is the building of the new parsonage near the church. It was much needed, and it only required an urgent request from the pastor, and the people responded heartily; the work was begun the first of August, and the last day of October we moved into as handsome and well-arranged parsonage as can be found anywhere; indeed, now as we are all settled so comfortably we are not only much pleased with our new home, but thankful to God and the dear people who thus considered the need of the pastor and his family and built them a house. When we got the furniture, wife and boys, the family Bible, the RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER, &c., the house was converted into a home: to take out the two last named articles it would not be a complete home to us.

Enclosed please find amount due my assistant, THE INTELLIGENCER, who has faithfully discharged his duties, not missing one appointment for the entire year. I wish to re-engage him for another year, and ask for no improvement.

A. M. MCNINTCH.

THE PREMIER SPEAKS.—The speech of the English Premier, Lord Salisbury, at the Lord Mayor's dinner dealt with rumoured Russian movements and the Turkish question. Says the M. Witness: Of the rumored Russian occupation of Manchuria he simply said that the news was false, that the most important thing concerning it was the ready and vehement utterances it had drawn from the English press. For this he said there was no need, as England was equal to anything that might assail her interests in that quarter. Concerning Turkey his language was also reassuring, inasmuch as he affirmed that the powers were in complete accord as to their policy with regard to Turkey, and in fact dared not disagree. As to Turkey itself, the Sultan, who has taken all control into his own hands, has defied the powers by such acts as the deposition of Khiamil and the decoration of the deposed Vali of Van, and has exhausted the resources of peaceful diplomacy. Some action is impending, but it will be united action, action such as will foreshadow the day when the nations will settle their difficulties without the crushing armaments whose maintenance is now depressing the progress of civilization. We have not repeated the premier's words, which are given elsewhere, but have made a very free translation of them as they are understood by Europe, and everywhere approved.

DEAF AND DUMB SCHOOL.—This Fredericton institution is having a successful year. A larger number of pupils than usual has already been admitted, and other applications for admission have been received. The pupils are now taking a course of lip-reading in addition to their other studies under Miss Woodbridges care, and many of them are making exceptional progress.

ONLY ONE ANSWER.—Two weeks ago we inserted a notice of illustrated India lectures which might be given in any of the churches on terms stated, and asked to hear from pastors who desired them. At this writing only one pastor has heen heard from. If any other brethren are intending to write, we will be obliged to them if they will do so at once, as we will need to notify the lecturer whether it is worth his while to come to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

PROSPECTING IN CANADA.—Rev. Edward St. John and Rev. Lord Archibald Douglas, of London, are on a tour of inspection through Canada to select a site for an imigration home for Roman Catholic children.

MORE LAWYERS.—The law examinations were completed last evening. All the candidates passed successfully, and they were sworn in this (Wednesday) morning in the following order of merit:—

H.F.McLeod, (son of Rev.Dr. McLeod) Fredericton; Edward McDonald, Shediac; George Black, Fredericton, Fred Peters, Fredericton; Robert A. Irving, Buctouche; H. H. Pickett, St. John; George Shaw, St. John.

The examiners announced that the class was an exceptionally good one.—Telegraph.

The Gleaner adds:—"Messrs. McLeod, Black and Peters, of this city, made an excellent showing in the examinations. All three are bright, clever young men, and The Gleaner wishes them all, what each will no doubt attain, much success in their chosen profession."

C. T. ACT.—Two Sussex violators of the law—Mrs. Batherson and John Finnagan—both from the same house, were sent to jail last week. Batherson fled on the approach of the constables, or he would be keeping company with the others.

The licensed vendor at Hampton, W. T. Scribner, whose appointment, according to Solicitor General White, was to help the temperance cause, is charged with four violations of the law.

The Moncton Transcript says,—It is understood that advices have been received from the Secretary of State Department at Ottawa stating that the Repeal Scott Act petition had been finally accepted by the department, and that the writ for a Scott Act election in the County of Westmorland would be forthwith issued.

LONDON, W. E.—Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, who is in charge of the Wesleyan West end Mission, has been describing the West end of London as "the most wicked, the most wealthy, and the most miserable spot in the whole universe."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Subscribers In Arrears.

Amongst the INTELLIGENCER subscribers are a good many who have not yet paid for this year, and some who owe for more than one year.

Some time ago statements were sent to several hundreds, with a request to each for immediate payment. responded promptly, and are now amongst the prepaid subscribers. Some others promised to pay soon; while From many no response has been received.

We cannot be expected to be again send a letter toeach one. We have, therefore, to address them in this way, insisting on immediate payment by every one who is indebted to the INTELLIGENCER in any amount.

We cannot think that any one designs to repudiate his obligation to pay. The delay in paying must be neglect. But that neglect should not continue another week.

Let every one who is included in the class of subscribers to which this notice is addressed do us the justice, not to say kindness, of sending immediately the amount due.

We have a right to expect to hear from every one at once. We have, also, need of the payments due from them. The need is present and pressing.

Do not disappoint us.

We have some subscribers to whom we have written several times requesting payment or settlement in some form. They have not even answered the letters. We are not intending to write them again. They certainly, have no right to expect us to do so. But we need the money they owe, and must try to get it. They need not be surprised, nor should they be offended, when their indebtedness is brought to their attention in a way that must be answered.

CONSUMPTION CONQUERED

A. P. E. Island Lady Restored to Health.

ATTACKED WITH A HACKING COUGH, LOSS OF APPETITE AND GENERAL FEELING OF LASSITUDE—PINK PILLS RESTORED HER HEALTH AFTER DOCTORS FAILED.

From the Charlottetown Patriot.

Times without number have we read of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams Pink Pills, but generally the testimonials telling the tale had laid the scene in some of the other provinces. This time, however, the matter is brought directly home, and the testimony comes from a much respected and Christian woman. Mrs. Sarah Strickland, now residing in the suburbs of Charlottetown, has been married many years, and blessed with large family and although never enjoying a robust coustitution had, until a year ago, been in comparatively good health, About that time she began to feel "run down," her blood became thin and a general feeling of lassitude took possession of both her mind and body. Her family and friends viewed with alarm the gradual development of her illness, and when a cough—at first incipient, but afterwards almost constant, especially at night, — set in, doctors were summoned and everything that loving, tender care and medical skill could do was resorted to in order to save the affectionate wife and mother, whose days appeared to be numbered. Her appetite was almost completely gone. Food was partaken of without relish, and Mrs. Strickland was unable to do even the ordinary, lighter workof the household She became greatly emaciated and in order to partake of even the most dainty nourishment a stimulant had at first to be administered. While this gloom hung over the home and the mother sorrowfully thought of how soon she would have to say farewell to her young family, she was induced by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Though utterly discouraged, and almost disgusted with medicine she yielded more in a friendly way than in a hopeful spirit. After using the pills for a short time a gleam of hope, a wish to get well again took possession of her and the treatment was cheerfully continued. It was no false feeling but a genuine effort nature was making to re assert itself, and before many boxes were used the family were joking their mother on her appetite, her disappearing cough and the fright she had given them. The use of the Pink Pills was continued for some time longer and now Mrs. Strickland's elastic step and general, excellent health, would lead you to imagine that you were gazing upon a different woman, not one who had been snatched from the very jaws of death. She was never in better health and spirits, and no matter what others say she is firm in her belief that Pink Pills saved her life and restored her to her wonted health and strength.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing cure for all troubles resulting from poverty of the blood or shattered nerves, and where given a fair trial they never fail in cases like that above related. Sold by all dealers, or sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Senectady, N. Y. See that the registered trade mark is on all packages.

BARNARDO'S HOMES.—The October issue of Night and Day, the organ of Dr. Barnardo's work has many points of interest, and its pages bear witness to the need that exists for continued efforts on behalf of "Nobody's Children." Dr. Barnardo's Homes alone have sent out over 8,000 boys and girls to Canada and the Colonies and a success of 99 per cent, is claimed for this large output of trained and tested young lives. The current year is responsible, it seems, for no fewer than 727 emigrants. The themes of the Editor's Personal Notes are as widely varied as usual, and prove how deeply the work of the Homes has struck its roots, and how numerous are the helpers who co-operate towards its success.

A MISTAKE.

Many a man imagines himself a philosopher when his ailment is indolence.—Chris. Herald.

IT STICKS.

A postage stamp has few things to recommend it, but unlike a great many people, it generally sticks till it gets there.—Bible Reader.

WHERE IT THRIVES.

Political corruption never grows so luxuriantly as it does in the soil of Christian indifference and inactivity.—Cumb. Presbyterian.

"PERSONAL LIBERTY."

Because a man cannot lawfully buy of a saloon keeper beer or rum on Sunday, he complains that his personal liberty is infringed. He makes no such complaint when the law restrains him from carrying the hod, or building a wall, or engaging in hard labor. Why is it contrary to a man's personal liberty to forbid a saloon keeper to sell to him, but not contrary to his personal rights to forbid him to do unnecessary work? Truth and logic are not friends to the saloon class —The Independent.

Deaths.

WHITE.—At Marysville, York Co., on the 10th inst., of consumption, Ida, eldest daughter of Mr. Moses White, in the 25d year of her age. Since May last, it was evident that the disease that "wasteth at noonday" had her in its fatal grip, and was slowly but surely crushing out her young life. She was enabled, during her illness, to give her heart to the Saviour, and especially during the last days of her sickness, was she blessedly sustained by the presence, and comforting promises of Him to whom she had given her heart. Just before her death she repeated the words of the familiar hymn, 'I am thine O Lord, I have heard Thy voice, etc." While the loved ones gathered about her were broken down with grief, her heart was full of thanksgiving and praise. She desired them to sing; "Jesus lover of my soul" seemed to be a favorite; and when, through excessive grief, they were unable to comply, she raised her own feeble, trembling voice in her last attempt at earthly song, and with the words, "Jesus take me as I am" upon her lips, like a child dropping asleep upon the bosom of a tender mother, peacefully passed away. She leaves a sorrowing father, two brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. She was held in the highest estimation by scores of loved friend, and a very large congregation gathered at her funeral. Revs. Messrs. Lodge and Davidson, pastors of the Methodist and Baptist churches, frequently visited the deceased during her illness, and assisted the writer at the funeral service.

J. T. P.

MCINTYRE.—At Otnabog, Q. Co. on the 25th Oct., Eliza, wife of Rev. James McIntyre (colored). Her end was peace. Funeral services by the writer on the 27th October.

G. W. F.

GARDNER.—Phoebe A. Gardner, a beloved member of the Waterloo St. Free Baptist church, departed this life, in full assurance of faith, at her sister's residence, Woodstock, on the 5th inst., aged 40 years. She became a christian when quite young, was baptized by Rev. T. O. DeWitt, and united with the Hampstead church During all her succeeding years she "kept the faith," and having finished her course, has gone to receive the crown of righteousness, "which the Lord the righteous judge will give unto all them that love his appearing." Appropriate services were conducted at Woodstock, by Revs. Thomas Connor and Thomas Todd, after which her remains were conveyed to Hampstead, Q. Co. for interment, Rev. G. W. Foster conducting the services at the grave. Two sisters and two brothers survive her, to each of whom we extend our sympathy and prayers.

J. W. C.

KIMBAL.—At Fort Fairfield, Maine, Nov. 3rd, after a short illness of three days, Edith, beloved wife of Leverett Kimball, aged 23 years, leaving husband, with infant twins, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn. Mrs. Kimbal was a daugher of William and Jane Savage, of Lakeville, C. Co.

C. T. P.

BURTT.—At Rowena, Vic. Co., on the 15th Nov., after ten days illness, Elizabeth, wife of H. A Burtt. Sister Burtt was a member of the F. C. Baptist church at Rowena, and lived and died a christian. She died at the age of 51 years, leaving a husband and six sons to mourn their sad loss. May God bless the motherless boys; their home is sad. Funeral services by Rev. Wm. Peppers, Methodist.

(Fredericton Gleaner please copy.)

COOPER.—Samuel Cooper, father of William and Benjamin F. Cooper of this city, died in Iowa, Michigan, on the 15th inst. Mr. Cooper came to Fredericoon in 1818, on the first steamer that came up the St. John River, of which he was mate for some years. He was born at Somersetshire England. He had fourteen children, eight by the first wife and six by the second, eleven of whom survive him, also a number of grand children and great-grand children. He passed away trusting in Jesus, at the ripe age of 93 years.
